Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 7, 2017, AdCare Health Systems, Inc. (“AdCare” or the “Company”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Regional Health Properties, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of AdCare (“RHE”), pursuant to which AdCare will merge with and into RHE (“Merger”), with RHE continuing as the surviving entity of the Merger (the “surviving Company”). Effective at the time of the Merger, RHE will succeed to the assets, continue the business and assume the obligations of AdCare. The surviving Company will do business under the name “Regional Health Properties, Inc.”. In the Merger: (i) each outstanding share of common stock, no par value per share, of AdCare (the “AdCare common stock”) will be converted into one share of common stock, no par value per share, of RHE (the “RHE common stock”); and (ii) each outstanding share of 10.875% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, no par value per share, of AdCare will be converted into one share of 10.875% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, no par value per share, of RHE (the “RHE Series A Preferred Stock”).

As previously disclosed, the Company is undertaking the Merger in order to ensure the effective adoption of certain charter provisions restricting the ownership and transfer of its common stock. The effective adoption of these ownership and transfer restrictions is intended to serve two purposes. First, it will position the surviving Company to regain compliance with certain NYSE MKT continued listing standards regarding stockholders’ equity. Second, if the surviving Company’s board of directors determines for any future taxable year, after further consideration and evaluation, that qualifying for and electing status as a real estate investment trust (“REIT”) under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), would be in the best interests of the surviving Company and its shareholders, then the ownership and transfer restrictions will better position the surviving Company to comply with certain of the U.S. federal income tax rules applicable to REITs under the Code to the extent such rules relate to the RHE common stock.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including approval of the Merger Agreement by holders of the AdCare common stock at a special meeting of the Company’s shareholders, the approval for listing of the RHE common stock and RHE Series A Preferred Stock on the NYSE MKT and other customary closing conditions. AdCare reserves the right to cancel or defer the Merger, even if the holders of the AdCare common stock vote to adopt the Merger Agreement and the other closing conditions are satisfied or waived, if AdCare’s board of directors determines that the Merger is no longer in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be a complete description of the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1.
