Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 15, 2007, Genesis Energy, L.P. executed amendments to agreements previously entered into with several entities owned and controlled by the Davison family of Ruston, Louisiana in connection with the completion of our acquisition (directly and through the acquisition of certain equity interests) of their energy-related businesses on July 25, 2007. These amendments were as follows:

- Amendment No. 2 to Contribution and Sale Agreement.
- Amendment No. 1 to Unitholder Rights Agreement.

We entered into these amendments to extend the latest possible day by which we are required to call a special meeting of our unitholders from no later than 120 days after July 25, 2007 to no later than 150 days after July 25, 2007. We previously agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to solicit unitholder approval of an amendment to our partnership agreement that would allow the Davison unitholders (who together hold approximately 47.5% of our outstanding common units) to vote on all matters on which holders of our voting units have a right to vote, other than matters related to the succession, election, removal, withdrawal, replacement or substitution of our general partner. Currently our partnership agreement prohibits voting by unitholders beneficially owning more than 20% of our outstanding units on the record date for determining which unitholders have a right to vote.

Copies of these amendments are included as exhibits to this Form 8-K.
