ITEM 8. OTHER EVENTS

On or about August 12, 2010, a complaint was filed in the Supreme Court of New York County (the "Complaint") against Sen Yu International Holdings, Inc., f/n/a China Swine Genetics, Inc. (the "Company"). The lawsuit was brought by entities and individuals (the "Plaintiffs") who hold $715,000 out of the $2,156,000 10% Secured Convertible Notes issued by the Company on February 22, 2010 (the "Notes"), and alleges breach of the Notes by the Company due to the alleged late payment of the interest on the Notes.

As the Company previously disclosed in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on July 8, 2010, on July 2, 2010, the Company received a written notice of acceleration (the "Notice") from Primary Capital LLC, who alleged itself to be the agent for the holders of the Notes alleging an event of default under the Notes.

In the Complaint, the Plaintiffs request that the court, among other things:

1. award damages against the Company in an amount to be proven at trial which the Plaintiffs believe to be in excess of $1,100,000;
2. order specific performance of the Company to issue warrants for the purchase of approximately 476,666 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $1.50;
3. order specific performance of the Company to accept Plaintiffs' appointments of officers and directors of the Company and its subsidiary; and
4. award Plaintiffs costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees in connection with the action.

The Company believes the allegations against it are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself against such action, as well as pursue its claims against certain of the Plaintiffs and third parties to be determined. The case is filed as Case Number 651258/2010 and a copy of the Complaint can be obtained from the Supreme Court of The State of New York, County of New York.
