Item 8.01. Other Events.

On January 29, 2016, the Board of Directors of Northern Oil and Gas, Inc. (the "Company") voted unanimously to further enhance its corporate governance practices by separating the positions of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. The Board appointed Richard Weber, an existing independent director of the Company, as Chairman. Michael Reger will continue as the CEO and as a director of the Company.

Mr. Weber has been a director of the Company since August 2011. Mr. Weber is a founding partner and the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of PennEnergy Resources, LLC, a private equity-backed independent oil and gas operator focused on the Marcellus and Utica Shale in Pennsylvania. Prior to co-founding PennEnergy Resources in June 2011, he was President of Atlas Energy, Inc. from September 2009 to February 2011, President and Chief Operating Officer of Atlas Energy Resources, LLC from April 2006 to February 2011, and a director of Atlas Energy Resources, LLC from December 2006 to September 2009. Atlas, which was sold to Chevron Corporation in 2011, operated more than 10,000 oil and gas wells in four different basins, including the Appalachian Basin. In addition, Atlas owned and controlled the general partner of Atlas Pipeline Partners, L.P., a mid-stream MLP having pipeline and natural gas processing assets in the Appalachian Basin and Mid-Continent region. Prior to joining Atlas, Mr. Weber spent 14 years at McDonald & Company Securities, Inc., subsequently acquired by KeyBanc Capital Markets, where he founded that firm's Energy Group.
