Householding of Documents

We are sending only one annual report and proxy statement to eligible shareholders who share a single address unless we received instructions to the contrary from any shareholder at that address. This practice, known as householding, is designed to reduce our printing and postage costs. If a registered shareholder residing at an address with other registered shareholders wishes to receive a separate annual report or proxy statement in the future, he or she may contact Curt A. Reynders, our Secretary, at telephone number (952) 829-9217, or by mail to the address at the top of this page. If, however, other matters do properly come before the 2006 Annual Meeting, the persons named in our proxy card intend to vote the proxied shares in accordance with their best judgment on those matters. If any matters properly come before the shareholders at our 2006 Annual Meeting, but we did not receive notice of it prior to March 14, 2006, the persons named in our proxy card for the 2006 Annual Meeting will have the discretion to vote the proxied shares on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Employment Agreements

We have an employment agreement with Dr. Baker, our CEO, which set his initial salary and contains non-competition, confidentiality and assignment of invention provisions benefiting the Company. The agreement may be terminated by either Dr. Baker or us upon thirty days written notice. In addition, we may terminate Dr. Baker's employment for cause or upon his death or incapacity. We have agreement with Mr. Reynders, our CFO, relating to non-competition, confidentiality and assignment of invention provisions benefiting the Company. We also entered into a verbal agreement with Mr. Reynders on January 16, 2006 providing for an initial salary of $95,000 per year.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee reviews and sets compensation guidelines for executive officers and other senior management, and the composition and levels of participation in incentive compensation and fringe benefits for all employees. In addition, we oversee administration of the Company's 2000 Stock Option Plan, as amended.

We are guided by the following principles: (i) executive base compensation levels should be established by comparison of job responsibility to similar positions in comparable companies and be adequate to retain highly-qualified personnel, and (ii) variable compensation should be established to provide incentive to improve performance and shareholder value. In determining executive officers' annual compensation, we consider the overall performance of the Company, as well as the manager's position and performance.

Senior managers have the opportunity to receive cash bonuses based on individual and Company performance. Bonuses (if any) will be given at the discretion of the Board.

We provide long-term incentives to our senior managers, and tie a portion of executive compensation to Company performance through grants of stock options under our 2000 Stock Option Plan, as amended. In fiscal 2006, Dr. Baker was granted options to purchase 25,000 shares for his services as President and CEO, to reward him for past performance, to provide an additional incentive for future performance, and in consideration of a voluntary reduction in salary.

The Company's CEO and certain other managers were paid reduced salaries in fiscal 2006 in consideration of equity and performance-based compensation. This reduced our overhead and, we believe, provided incentives to improve shareholder value. In accordance with this practice, Dr. Baker's salary was reduced for fiscal 2006 and 2005, and was set at $114,000 per year effective April 1, 2006.

Tally Sheet and Determination of the Mix of Compensation Components

We consider the full range of pay components, including, but not limited to, the desired mix of equity, salary, and performance-based compensation, goals for distribution of awards throughout the Company, how executive pay relates to the pay of other employees, recent compensation history, and perks. The Compensation Committee has reviewed all components of the CEO's compensation as set forth in the following Summary Compensation Table/Tally Sheet:

STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The graph and table below compare the performance of our Common Stock to the cumulative five-year performance of the Russell Microcap Index and the Merrill Lynch Nanotech Index. NVE is included in both indices. The Russell Microcap Index is value-weighted and includes only common stocks belonging to corporations incorporated in the U.S. and its territories. The Merrill Lynch Nanotech Index is quoted on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol NNZ. Data for the Merrill Lynch Nanotech Index are not available prior to December 31, 2001, so the Merrill Lynch Nanotech Index data for 2001 is as of December 31, 2001. Beginning January 22, 2003, our Common Stock has been traded on The NASDAQ Capital Market, formerly known as The NASDAQ SmallCap Market. Prior to January 22, 2003, our Common Stock was quoted on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board. Our Common Stock data are adjusted for the effect of a one-for-five reverse split that was effective November 22, 2002. ### Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

Rules adopted by the SEC in order to implement requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 require audit committees of public companies to pre-approve audit and permissible non-audit services provided by their independent auditors. During the fiscal year, in the event it becomes necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval, the Company will obtain the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee before engaging the independent auditor. The pre-approval policy requires the Audit Committee to be informed of each service performed by the independent auditor, and the policy does not include any delegation of the Audit Committee's responsibilities to management. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member to whom such authority is delegated will report any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee as a whole at its next scheduled meeting.

The Audit Committee approved all of the services described in the section above.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees NVE's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board. We act under a written charter, which has been amended to be consistent with the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 as well as related rules issued by The NASDAQ Stock Market. The Audit Committee consists of three members, all of whom have been determined by the Board to be independent under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and The NASDAQ Stock Market. A copy of our charter is included in the Investors section of the Company's Website (www.nve.com).

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including maintaining a system of internal controls disclosures and procedures. We are directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention, oversight, and termination of the company's independent auditors. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of our audited financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee does not prepare financial statements or conduct audits.

In connection with the March 31, 2006 audited financial statements, we have reviewed and discussed with management and the independent registered public accounting firm the Company's audited financial statements, including discussions about critical accounting policies, other financial accounting and reporting principles and practices appropriate for the Company, and the reasonableness of significant judgments. We have discussed with the independent auditors the items that are required to be discussed under applicable professional auditing standards and regulations, including items required to be communicated by the independent auditors in accordance with AICPA SAS 61 and discussions about the quality of the financial statements and clarity of the related disclosures. We have also reviewed and considered the written disclosures and the letter received from Ernst & Young LLP, as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, including a discussion about their independence from the Company and management.

Based on the reviews and discussions above, we recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2006 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, which is filed with the SEC. The Board approved our recommendation.
