Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K and the exhibits hereto include forward-looking statements intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current expectations of the management of the Company and are subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. The forward-looking statements contained or incorporated by reference herein, and the exhibits hereto, include statements about the expected effects on the Company of the Offer, the expected timing and scope of the Offer, anticipated earnings enhancements, estimated cost savings and other synergies, costs to be incurred in achieving synergies, potential divestitures and other strategic options and all other statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K and the exhibits hereto other than statements of historical fact. Forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements typically containing words such as intends, expects, anticipates, targets, estimates and words of similar import. By their nature, forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or results and involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, unanticipated issues associated with the satisfaction of the conditions precedent to the Offer; issues associated with obtaining necessary regulatory approvals and the terms and conditions of such approvals; the inability to integrate successfully Enodis within the Company or to realize synergies from such integration within the time periods anticipated; and changes in anticipated costs related to the acquisition of Enodis. Additional factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially include, among others:

- unanticipated changes in revenue, margins, costs, and capital expenditures;
- issues associated with new product introductions;
- matters impacting the successful and timely implementation of ERP systems;
- foreign currency fluctuations;
- increased raw material prices;
- unexpected issues associated with the availability of local suppliers and skilled labor;
- the risks associated with growth;
- geographic factors and political and economic risks;
- actions of Company competitors;
- changes in economic or industry conditions generally or in the markets served by the Company and Enodis;
- the state of financial and credit markets;
- unanticipated issues associated with refresh/renovation plans by national restaurant accounts;
- efficiencies and capacity utilization of facilities;
- issues related to new facilities and expansion of existing facilities;
- work stoppages, labor negotiations, and labor rates;
- government approval and funding of projects;
- the ability of customers to receive financing; and
- the ability to complete and appropriately integrate restructurings, consolidations, acquisitions, divestitures, strategic alliances, and joint ventures.

Information on the potential factors that could affect the Company is also included in its filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The Company undertakes no
