Item 8.01. Other Events.

The Board of Directors of Ciber, Inc. has resolved to rescind certain option awards granted in 2012 to Richard Genovese, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Upon joining Ciber in September 2011, Mr. Genovese received an equity award for options to acquire 600,000 shares and 150,000 RSUs. Five months later, he received an equity award for options to acquire 300,000 shares and 200,000 RSUs as part of Ciber's annual executive equity award program. The Compensation Committee of the Board intended that the initial award to Mr. Genovese, which was based on arms-length negotiations in connection with his new-hire executive employment compensation package, be treated as an inducement award as permitted under NYSE rules and consistent with Ciber's past practice with respect to newly hired executives. Inducement awards are made outside of Ciber's 2004 Incentive Plan in order to preserve shares in the Plan and do not count against the Plan's limit of 1,000,000 shares to any individual. However, Ciber did not specifically identify the initial award to Mr. Genovese as an inducement award in its public disclosures or in related documentation. While the Board intends to treat the initial award to Mr. Genovese as an inducement award, it believes the best course of action is to rescind options to purchase 250,000 shares from the 2012 award of options from Mr. Genovese to eliminate even the appearance of an excessive award under the Plan.
