Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Joint Development and License Agreement; Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note and Warrant Sale; Payoff Letter

On November 12, 2015, Netlist, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Joint Development and License Agreement (JDLA) with Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. (Samsung), pursuant to which the Company and Samsung agreed to work together to jointly develop a standardized product interface for NVDIMM-P memory modules in order to facilitate broad industry adoption of this new technology. The Company received $8 million non-recurring engineering fee (NRE) from Samsung for the joint development. The JDLA also includes cross licensing of each party's respective patent portfolios, as well as access to raw materials (DRAM and NAND flash) at competitive prices, and an important strategic partner that can facilitate getting the Company's HyperVault technology to market. Both parties may enter into an additional agreement in the future for Samsung to be granted commercial license for the Company's NVDIMM-P technology. The JDLA also includes a Right of First Refusal wherein the Company will provide Samsung the right to acquire the Company's NVDIMM-P technology in a separate, subsequent transaction before the Company offers the technology to a third party. The Company also received $15 million under the SVIC Note (as defined below).

On November 18, 2015 (Closing Date), the Company also entered into a Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement (SVIC Purchase Agreement), with SVIC No. 28 New Technology Business Investment L.L.P., a Korean limited liability partnership (SVIC) and an affiliate of Samsung Venture Investment Co., pursuant to which the Company sold SVIC a Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note (SVIC Note) and a Stock Purchase Warrant (SVIC Warrant), each dated as of the Closing Date. The SVIC Note has an original principal amount of $15 million, accrues interest at a rate of 2% per year, is due and payable in full on December 31, 2021 (SVIC Note Maturity Date) and the principal and accrued but unpaid interest of which are convertible into shares of the Company's Common Stock at a conversion price of $1.25 per share (the Conversion Price), subject to certain adjustments as set forth therein on the SVIC Note Maturity Date. Upon a change of control of the Company prior to the SVIC Note Maturity Date, the SVIC Note may, at the Company's option, be assumed by the surviving entity or be redeemed upon the consummation of such change of control for the principal and accrued but unpaid interest as of the redemption date. The SVIC Warrant grants SVIC a right to purchase 2,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.30 per share, subject to certain adjustments as set forth therein, is only exercisable in the event the Company exercises its right to redeem the SVIC Note prior to the SVIC Note Maturity Date and expires on December 31, 2025. In connection with the SVIC Note, SVIC was granted a first priority security interest in the Company's patents and a second priority security interest in all of the Company's other assets. On the Closing Date, the Company, Silicon Valley Bank (SVB) and SVIC entered into an Intercreditor Agreement in connection with the SVIC Note pursuant to which SVB and SVIC agreed to their relative security interest priorities in the Company's assets. On the Closing Date, the Company and SVIC also entered into a Registration Rights Agreement pursuant to which the Company is obligated to register with the SEC the shares of the Company's Common Stock issued upon conversion of the SVIC Note or upon exercise of the SVIC Warrant.

On November 19, 2015, pursuant to the terms of a payoff letter (the Payoff Letter) the Company repaid all sums due under that certain Loan and Security Agreement (as amended, the Loan Agreement), dated July 18, 2013, by and between the Company and Fortress Credit Opportunities I LP, a Delaware limited liability company (Fortress), as successor to DBD Credit Funding LLC and terminated the Loan Agreement. Pursuant to the Payoff Letter, the parties also terminated the Monetization Letter Agreement (as amended, the Letter Agreement), dated July 18, 2013, by and between the Company and Drawbridge Special Opportunities Fund LP. In connection with the Payoff Letter, the Company made a

Additionally, pursuant to the Payoff Letter, the Company issued to Fortress a new ten year warrant to purchase 1 million shares of our Common Stock with an exercise price per share of $0.47.
