Item 5.05 Amendments to Registrant’s Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics

On December 4, 2015, the Board of Directors of Chicago Bridge & Iron Company N.V. (the “Company”) approved and adopted certain amendments to the Company’s Code of Ethics as part of its regular review of the corporate governance policies of the Company.

The amendments to the Code of Ethics are intended to (i) promote the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships by clarifying the nature of such potential or apparent conflicts; (ii) encourage the prompt internal reporting of violations of the code by clarifying and expanding the methods of reporting accounting and auditing complaints; and (iii) make certain other administrative and non-substantive amendments.

The foregoing description is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the revised Code of Ethics. A copy of the revised Code of Ethics is publicly available on the Company’s website “www.cbi.com” under the Corporate Governance section of the Investor Relations page or at www.cbi.com/investor-relations/corporate-governance.
