A. Matters Relating to Consent Solicitation

As previously disclosed, United Rentals has been soliciting consents for certain amendments to the indentures governing its bonds and QUIPs securities. (For additional information, please refer to the company's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on August 22, 2005 and September 12, 2005.)

The company has received the requisite consents and, on September 19, 2005, entered into supplemental indentures implementing the amendments and related waivers. The supplemental indentures, among other things, allow the company until March 31, 2006 to regain compliance with the requirement to make timely SEC filings. In addition, the supplemental indenture relating to the company's 7.78% Convertible Senior Subordinated Notes, changes the conversion rate from 38.9520 to 44.9438 shares of United Rentals common stock for each $1,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes.

Pursuant to the terms of the consent solicitation, the company has paid aggregate consent fees of approximately $34 million to holders of its nonconvertible notes and QUIPs securities. In addition to the consent fees, the company incurred transaction costs relating to the consent solicitation of approximately $4 million on a pre-tax basis.

Copies of the supplemental indentures are attached as exhibits to this report. The description of the supplemental indentures contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text.

B. Other Matters

The company entered into agreements dated as of September 22, 2005 with Michael Kneeland and Joseph Sherk. Mr. Kneeland is the company's executive vice president, operations, and Mr. Sherk is the company's corporate controller.
