

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On June 28, 2018, SYNEX Corporation (“SYNEX”), Delta Merger Sub I, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of SYNEX (“Merger Sub I”), Delta Merger Sub II, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of SYNEX (“Merger Sub II”), and Convergys Corporation, an Ohio corporation (“Convergys”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub I will merge with and into Convergys (the “Initial Merger”), with Convergys surviving the Initial Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of SYNEX (such surviving corporation, the “Surviving Corporation”), followed immediately by the merger of the Surviving Corporation with and into Merger Sub II (the “Subsequent Merger” and together with the Initial Merger, the “Mergers”), with Merger Sub II surviving the Subsequent Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of SYNEX. The board of directors of SYNEX, Merger Sub I, Merger Sub II and Convergys, respectively, have unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the Mergers.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and upon the terms and subject to the conditions described therein, at the effective time of the Initial Merger (the “Effective Time”), except as otherwise set forth in the Merger Agreement, each issued and outstanding common share, without par value, of Convergys (the “Company Common Shares”) will be converted automatically into and thereafter represent only (i) the right to receive $13.25 in cash (the “Cash Consideration”) and (ii) 0.1193 shares of common stock, par value $0.001, of SYNEX (“SYNEX Stock”), subject to certain adjustments to be made at closing if the 20 day average trading price of SYNEX Stock three trading days prior to closing has increased or decreased by more than 10% from a baseline price, plus cash in lieu of any fractional shares of SYNEX Stock (the “Stock Consideration”), in each case, without interest ((i) and (ii) together, the “Merger Consideration”).

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of Convergys and SYNEX relating to their respective businesses and public filings, in each case generally subject to a materiality and “Material Adverse Effect” qualifiers. Additionally, the Merger Agreement provides for customary pre-closing covenants of Convergys, including a covenant to conduct its business in the ordinary course and materially consistent with past practice and to refrain from taking certain actions without SYNEX’ consent. Convergys has also agreed not to solicit proposals relating to specified alternative transactions or, subject to certain exceptions relating to the receipt of unsolicited offers that may be deemed to be “Company Superior Proposals” (as defined in the Merger Agreement), enter into discussions concerning or provide information in connection with alternative transactions and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that Convergys’ shareholders adopt the Merger Agreement. Convergys’ board of directors is permitted to change its recommendation in response to a Company Superior Proposal or if the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties. The Merger Agreement also provides for covenants of SYNEX, including a covenant to conduct its business in the ordinary course and materially consistent with past practice.

Consummation of the Mergers is subject to various conditions, including, among others, (i) customary conditions relating to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the vote of Convergys’ shareholders holding two thirds of the outstanding Company Common Shares (the “Company Shareholder Approval”) and the approval of the issuance of SYNEX Stock by a majority of votes cast by SYNEX’ stockholders (the “SYNEX Stockholder Approval”), (ii) the expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and other similar antitrust laws in Canada, the European Community and the Philippines and (iii) the approval of the listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the shares of SYNEX Stock to be issued as consideration in the Initial Merger. The obligation of each party to consummate the Mergers is also conditioned upon the other party’s representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality exceptions), the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement and the absence of a “Material Adverse Effect” (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement also provides for certain termination rights of SYNEX and Convergys, including the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Mergers have not been consummated by December 28, 2018, which may be extended for 90 days in order to obtain any required regulatory approvals. Either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Company Shareholder Approval has not been obtained at a duly convened meeting of Convergys' shareholders, the SYNEX Stockholder Approval has not been obtained at a duly convened meeting of SYNEX' stockholders, or an order permanently restraining, enjoining, or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Mergers becomes final and non-appealable.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by Convergys prior to the Company Shareholder Approval to enter into a definitive agreement relating to a Company Superior Proposal, or (ii) by SYNEX following a recommendation by Convergys' board of directors of an alternative transaction or following a material, willful breach by Convergys of its non-solicitation obligations under the Merger Agreement, then Convergys shall be obligated to pay SYNEX a fee equal to $74 million (the "Company Termination Fee"). Additionally, in the event that an alternative transaction is proposed publicly by a third party and not withdrawn at least four business days prior to Convergys' shareholder meeting and the Company Shareholder Approval is thereafter not obtained, then either Convergys or SYNEX has the right to terminate the merger agreement, and if after such termination Convergys enters into an agreement regarding such alternative transaction within the following 12 months, Convergys will pay one half of the Company Termination Fee, with the other half payable by Convergys upon consummation of such alternative transaction.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by either party (i) after a meeting of the Convergys' shareholders in which the Company Shareholder Approval was not obtained, Convergys shall be obligated to pay SYNEX a fee equal to $12.35 million or (ii) after a meeting of SYNEX' stockholders in which the SYNEX Stockholder Approval was not obtained, SYNEX shall be obligated to pay Convergys a fee equal to $12.35 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the parties. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential Disclosure Schedules provided by each party in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These confidential Disclosure Schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties, and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties thereto or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the parties.

Commitment Letter

In connection with the Merger Agreement, SYNEX entered into a debt commitment letter (the "Commitment Letter"), dated as of June 28, 2018, with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMCB"), Bank of America, N.A. ("Bank of America" and, together with JPMCB, the "Initial Lenders") and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("MLPFS"), pursuant to which the Initial Lenders have committed to provide a 364-day senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $3.57 billion, subject to the satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions (the "Bridge Facility"). The Bridge Facility is available (i) to pay for a portion of the Merger Consideration, (ii) to directly or indirectly pay, repay, repurchase, or settle, as applicable, certain existing indebtedness of Convergys and its subsidiaries, (iii) to refinance in full all outstanding obligations under the Existing Credit Agreement, but only to the extent that an amendment from the requisite lenders to SYNEX' existing credit agreement dated as of November 27, 2013 among SYNEX, the guarantors party thereto, the lenders party thereto and Bank of America, N.A., as agent (the "Existing Credit Agreement"), permitting the incurrence of the Bridge Facility or other indebtedness that may be obtained to finance the merger with Convergys and the assumption of certain indebtedness of Convergys is not obtained, and (iv) to pay the costs and expenses related to the merger with Convergys, the Bridge Facility and the transactions being entered into or otherwise contemplated in connection therewith.

If SYNEX is required to utilize the Bridge Facility, then depending on the use of proceeds described above for which the Bridge Facility may be utilized, amounts drawn thereunder will bear interest at an annual rate equal to LIBOR plus a margin which may initially range from 1.25% to 2.00%, depending on SYNEX' consolidated leverage ratio, which margin will be increased by 0.25% for each 90 days that elapse after the closing of the Bridge Facility, up to a maximum range of 2.00% to 2.75%. In addition, up to the lesser of (i) the unfunded commitments under the Bridge Facility and (ii) $350.0 million are available to be drawn down during the 90 day period following the closing of the Bridge Facility to repurchase or settle convertible debentures of Convergys that are tendered for repurchase or converted in connection with the Mergers, and SYNEX will pay commitment fees on the undrawn amount of this commitment ranging from 0.15% to 0.25% based upon SYNEX' consolidated leverage ratio.

Under the terms of the Commitment Letter, JPMCB and MLPFS will act as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunning managers in connection with the Debt Financing. SYNEX will pay certain customary fees and expenses in connection with obtaining the Bridge Facility.

The foregoing description of the Commitment Letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Commitment Letter, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, SYNEX entered into a voting agreement (the "Voting Agreement") with Convergys's chief executive officer, chief financial officer and all of Convergys's directors (collectively, the "Shareholders"). The Company Common Shares beneficially owned by the Shareholders subject to the Voting Agreement ("Voting Agreement Shares") constituted approximately 1.19% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Convergys' common shares as of June 27, 2018. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, the Shareholders have agreed to vote, or cause the holder of record to vote, in favor of (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers and (ii) any proposal to adjourn or postpone a meeting of shareholders to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement.

Further, the Shareholders have agreed to vote against (i) any action or proposal in favor of an alternative transaction, (ii) any action or proposal that could be reasonably expected to interfere with or delay the timely consummation of the Mergers and (iii) any amendments to Convergys's organizational documents that could reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the consummation of closing under the Merger Agreement. The Shareholders also agreed under the Voting Agreement, not to, among other things, sell, transfer, assign, pledge, give, tender in any tender or exchange offer or similarly dispose of any Voting Agreement Shares. The Voting Agreement will terminate upon the earliest of (i) the termination of the Merger Agreement, (ii) the time at which the Initial Merger has become effective and (iii) a recommendation by Convergys' board of directors of an alternative transaction. In addition, any Shareholder may terminate the Voting Agreement with respect to such Shareholder upon written notice to SYNEX following a change to the Merger Agreement that decreases the amount or changes the form of the Merger Consideration.

The foregoing description of the Voting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Voting Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-Looking Statements

DISCLOSURE NOTICE: This document contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 related to SYNEX Corporation (“SYNEX”), Convergys Corporation (“Convergys”) and the proposed acquisition of Convergys by SYNEX. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements for purposes of federal and state securities laws. These forward-looking statements involve uncertainties that could significantly affect the financial or operating results of Convergys, SYNEX or the combined company. These forward-looking statements may be identified by terms such as anticipate, believe, foresee, expect, intend, plan, may, will, could and should and the negative of these terms or other similar expressions. Forward-looking statements in this document include, among other things, statements about the potential benefits of the proposed acquisition, including future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions; the anticipated timing of closing of the acquisition; and the methods SYNEX will use to finance the cash portion of the transaction. In addition, all statements that address operating performance, events or developments that we expect or anticipate will occur in the future — including statements relating to creating value for stockholders, benefits of the proposed transactions to customers, vendors, employees, stockholders and other constituents of the combined company, integrating our companies, cost savings and the expected timetable for completing the proposed transaction — are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve substantial risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Risks and uncertainties include, among other things, risks related to the satisfaction of the conditions to closing the acquisition (including the failure to obtain necessary regulatory and shareholder approvals) in the anticipated timeframe or at all; risks related to the ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the acquisition, including the possibility that the expected benefits from the proposed acquisition will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; disruption from the transaction making it more difficult to maintain business, contractual and operational relationships; the unfavorable outcome of any legal proceedings that have been or may be instituted against SYNEX, Convergys or the combined company; failure to protect proprietary or personally identifiable data against unauthorized access or unintended release; the ability to retain key personnel; negative effects of this announcement or the consummation of the proposed acquisition on the market price of the capital stock of SYNEX and Convergys, and on SYNEX’ and Convergys’s operating results; significant transaction costs, fees, expenses and charges; unknown liabilities; the risk of litigation and/or regulatory actions related to the proposed acquisition; the financing of the transaction; other business effects, including the effects of industry, market, economic, political or regulatory conditions; future exchange and interest rates; changes in tax and other laws, regulations, rates and policies; future business combinations or disposals; and competitive developments. A further description of risks and uncertainties relating to SYNEX and Convergys can be found in their respective most recent Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and available at www.sec.gov. Neither SYNEX nor Convergys assumes any obligation to update the forward-looking statements contained in this document as the result of new information or future events or developments.
