6D Global Technologies Sues Perficient and Former Employee, Motion to Dismiss by Perficient is DENIED
PR Newswire – June 15, 2018, New York, New York. 6D Global Technologies, Inc. (“Company”, “6D”, stock symbol: SIXD) today announced that a federal judge (Honorable Judge David Hittner) in the Southern District of Texas has denied Perficient and Lynn Brading’s Motion to Dismiss, ruling in favor of Six Dimensions, a 6D Global Technologies firm.

The ruling was made in a pending lawsuit against Lynn Brading, a former employee and Perficient over breach of contract, tortious interference, prospective economic advantage, misappropriation of trade secrets, violation of non-solicitation agreement, and theft of trade secrets.

“I am very pleased with this initial ruling,” said Tejune Kang, Chairman and CEO for 6D Global Technologies. “When you have former employees such as Lynn Brading, Dan Klco, Aaron Price, and others completely disregard contracts they have signed, they deserve to be punished to the fullest extent of the law. These employees can never be trusted nor would I ever recommend them to any employer because of the unscrupulous actions and complete lack of integrity.”

The court has also given the Company twenty one days to file an amended complaint which the Company fully intends to do so.

6D, despite all the hardships and challenges it has faced will continue to make a stand and right all wrongs and fight dishonest and unscrupulous parties. Unfortunately these problems would not have occurred or surfaced if it wasn’t for Nasdaq wrongfully delisting the company based on fabrications and intentionally causing irreparable harm.
