Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

Pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of March 1, 2002 and amended on May 16, 2002 (the "Merger Agreement"), CMJ Ventures, Inc. ("CMJ") became a wholly owned subsidiary of Next, Inc. (the "Company") effective as of June 1, 2002 (the "Effective Date"). Prior to the Merger, CMJ, a customer of Next, was a privately held company that designed and distributed licensed promotional products.

At the Effective Date, each outstanding share of CMJ common stock, $1.00 par value per share, converted into 2,545.4545 shares of Company common stock, $.001 par value per share, resulting in 1,400,000 shares of the Company's common stock issued to all the CMJ Stockholders.

The amount of the consideration paid in the Merger was determined through arms-length negotiations between representatives of the Company and CMJ. In connection with the Merger, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Sean Garber, the president and chief executive officer of CMJ.

On May 15, 2003 ("Effective Amendment Date"), the Company, Sean Garber and Lisa Garber (former stockholders of CMJ), with the consent of CMJ, entered into an amendment to the Merger Agreement. At the Effective Amendment Date, Mr. Garber resigned his positions with the Company. These transactions, taken together with the Company's plan to consolidate the operational functions, will result in a net cash savings of approximately $700,000 over the next four years. The additional merger consideration is $475,000 (payable monthly over four years) and costs savings due to the termination of Mr. Garber's employment agreement and consolidation of operations have been considered in the cash savings.

The Company has also undertaken, on a best efforts basis, to arrange for the purchase by a third party of Sean Garber and Lisa Garber's 1,260,000 shares issued at the Effective Date, subject to the same lock up agreement and other terms currently in effect, for an aggregate purchase price of $1,260,000 ("Private Distribution"). If the Company is unable to arrange for the Private Distribution on or before May 15, 2004, the Company agrees to issue to Sean Garber and Lisa Garber 300,000 shares of its common stock as additional merger consideration.
