ITEM 9. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On October 4, 2002, Standard & Poor's Rating Service (S&P) announced that it had downgraded the Insurer Financial Strength rating of Radian Reinsurance Inc., one of the subsidiaries through which the Company conducts its financial guaranty operations (Radian Reinsurance), from AAA to AA. On April 8, 2003, Fitch Rating Service (Fitch) downgraded the Insurer Financial Strength rating of Radian Reinsurance from AAA to AA and removed it from negative watch. Radian Reinsurance and Radian Asset Assurance Inc., the Company's other financial guaranty subsidiary (Radian Asset Assurance), are parties to numerous reinsurance agreements with primary insurers that grant the primary insurers the right to recapture all of the business ceded to Radian Reinsurance or Radian Asset Assurance under these agreements if the Insurer Financial Strength rating of Radian Reinsurance or Radian Asset Assurance, as the case may be, is downgraded below the rating levels from specified rating agencies established in the agreements, and, in some cases, to increase the commissions in order to compensate the primary insurers for the decrease in credit the rating agencies give the primary insurers for the reinsurance provided by Radian Reinsurance and Radian Asset Assurance.

As a result of the downgrade by S&P, one of the primary insurers exercised its right to recapture the financial guaranty reinsurance ceded to Radian Reinsurance. None of the primary insurers has a similar right with respect to the downgrade by Fitch. Radian Reinsurance has now reached agreement with the remaining primary insurers whereby such primary insurers have agreed not to exercise their rights with respect to the downgrade of Radian Reinsurance by S&P, without additional cost to Radian Reinsurance.

Pursuant to agreements with the primary insurer that has exercised its rights, effective January 31, 2004, approximately $16.7 billion of par in force reinsurance ceded to Radian Reinsurance will be recaptured. Radian Reinsurance is required to return approximately $98.1 million of Statutory (STAT) unearned premium reserves for which the carrying value under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) is approximately $73.0 million. In addition, Radian Reinsurance will be reimbursed for policy acquisition costs of approximately $31.6 million for which the carrying value under GAAP is $21.3 million. Radian Reinsurance will also reimburse the primary insurer for case reserves recorded under both STAT and GAAP for approximately $11.4 million. Finally, Radian Reinsurance will take a charge of $0.8 million for mark to market adjustments related to certain insurance policies associated with the recapture. The sum of the above adjustments related to this recapture results in an estimated initial reduction of pre-tax income of $15.5 million and is summarized as follows:

(Thousands of dollars)	Cash Paid (Received)	GAAP Book Basis	Initial Gain (Loss)
Unearned Premium	$ 98,113	$ 73,043	$ (25,070)
Deferred Acquisition Cost	(31,582)	(21,256)	10,326
Case Reserves	11,381	11,381
Receivable From Unrealized Credit Derivatives Gain		(791)	(791)
Totals	$ 77,912	$ 62,377	$ (15,535)

The Company estimates that the amount of capital it is holding to support this recaptured insurance business approximates $170.0 million. Such capital could potentially be redeployed for additional reinsurance, including reinsurance of obligations primarily insured by Radian Asset Assurance, or for other opportunities with possibly higher returns to the Company than the reinsurance business recaptured by the primary insurer. Since the acquisition of Radian Reinsurance by the Company in February 2001, reinsurance assumed from this primary insurer resulted in $25.1 million of written premium and $20.6 million of earned premium in 2001, $30.8 million of written premium and $32.0 million of earned premium in 2002 and $33.1 million of written premium and $37.0 million of earned premium in 2003.

A table showing the Company's estimate of the 2004 effect of the recaptured insurance business from this primary insurer is included in Exhibit A.
