PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, the registrant has been performing a review of its accounting practices. The registrant announced in a press release dated June 18, 2004 that it is targeting the week of August 9th for filing its financial statements and accompanying independent accountants report for the fiscal year ended March 1, 2003 as well as the quarterly results on Form 10-Q for the first three quarters of fiscal 2004. The June 18, 2004 press release also stated that the registrant expects to file audited financial statements for the full fiscal year ended February 28, 2004 by the end of August and that thereafter the registrant intends to work promptly to file its Form 10-Q for the first quarter of fiscal 2005. The registrant is attempting to conclude its review of its accounting practices and issue the restatements promptly, but there can be no assurance that the registrant will be able to complete the accounting practices review and file its reports within the time periods announced in the June 18, 2004 release.

The registrant plans to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 29, 2004, due on July 8, 2004, as soon as practicable but does not currently expect that the Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 29, 2004 will be filed on or before the fifth day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As previously disclosed, the registrant has received a request from the Securities and Exchange Commission for the voluntary production of certain information in connection with the registrant's accounting practices. As previously announced, the registrant has been informed that the SEC has issued a formal order of investigation in connection with the matters which were the subject of the request for information. The registrant is fully cooperating with the SEC.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Form 12b-25, including the registrant's expectations as to the timing of any restatement and the filing of its audited financial statements and Forms 10-Q and the timing of preliminary estimates for the first quarter of fiscal 2005, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the results and effect of the accounting practices review, Ernst & Young's providing an audit opinion, any issues that may be identified by the SEC upon their review of the registrant's restated financials, changes in the scope and nature of, and the outcome of, the SEC investigation regarding the registrant's accounting practices, the ability of the registrant to file its periodic reports, whether the registrant's outstanding convertible notes are subject to accelerated repayment under the terms of the indenture governing the notes, the impact of any such repayment on the registrant or its business and related litigation, the impact of the restatement on the registrant's financial results, and the risks detailed from time to time in the registrant's periodic reports filed under the Exchange Act, including its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended November 30, 2002 and amended current report on Form 8-K/A dated August 27, 2003. The registrant disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements.
