Board of Directors informs on public tender offer

Lisbon, Portugal, 8 February 2006 The Board of Directors met today to review the terms of the preliminary tender offer announcement, which was unsolicited and hence hostile, over PT Multimedia (PTM).

Following the information on the preliminary announcement, PTM's Board considers that the offer:

- > does not outline a strategy or long term vision for PTM;
- > implies a high degree of uncertainty as it is conditional upon the success of the offer for Portugal Telecom shares. Additionally, there may be eventual anti-trust and regulatory restrictions with significant impact on both PTM and its shareholders;
- > limits, or seeks to limit, PTM's management flexibility, well in excess of what is determined under Portuguese law, in a highly competitive and dynamic sector, which demands a high level of investment.

The Board of Directors is of the opinion that the value of PTM is considerably higher than that of the offer price, which was below the share price at the time of announcement, and will inform the company's shareholders of its response once a formal offer document has been posted. In the meantime, shareholders are strongly advised to wait for the Board's recommendations to be issued in due course.
