72,605 SHARES

COMMON STOCK

($5.00 par value per share)

We are registering the sale of a maximum of 72,605 shares of our common stock that may be sold by the selling shareholders listed in this prospectus upon their exercise of warrants to purchase our common stock. We assumed the warrants in connection with the merger of Renasant Bancshares, Inc. with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of the company, effective as of July 1, 2004.

We expect that the selling shareholders will sell the shares, from time to time, on the Nasdaq Global Market, in privately negotiated transactions or by a combination of these methods. The selling shareholders will determine when they sell their shares, and sales will be made at the market price or at negotiated prices. We will pay all of the expenses of registration incurred in connection with this offering, but the selling shareholders will pay all of their selling commissions, brokerage fees or other expenses of sale. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of our stock by the selling shareholders.

Our common stock is traded on the Nasdaq Global Market under the trading symbol RNST. On June 2, 2006, the closing sales price of our stock was $38.88 per share.

Investing in our common stock involves risks. You should review the section of this prospectus labeled Risk Factors on page 1 prior to making an investment decision.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor the securities commission of any state has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Unless we indicate otherwise, references to the company, Renasant, we, us, and our or similar terms are to Renasant Corporation. Reference to Renasant Bancshares are to Renasant Bancshares, Inc., which we acquired by merger effective July 1, 2004.

1. Risk Factors

An investment in the company's common stock may involve risk. Our common stock is an equity security, not an insured deposit. Before investing, you should consider all of the risks commonly associated with an investment in equity securities, the particular risks of an investment in our common stock that are summarized below, and those risks incorporated into this prospectus by reference to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Although our common stock is listed for trading on the Nasdaq Global Market, the average daily trading volume in our common stock is low, generally less than that of many of our competitors and other larger bank holding companies. For the three months ending June 5, 2006, the average daily trading volume was 22,195 shares per day. Given this trading volume, significant sales of our common stock, or even the expectation of these sales, could cause volatility.

In addition, our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and federal banking laws, including regulatory approval requirements, could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire the company, even if doing so would be beneficial to our shareholders. The combination of these provisions impedes a non-negotiated merger or other business combination, which could adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

6. Issuance of Securities to Selling Shareholders

Effective as of July 1, 2004, Renasant Bancshares, Inc., a Tennessee bank holding company, was merged with and into Peoples Merger Corporation, a subsidiary of the company created for purposes of the merger. In connection with the merger, we assumed outstanding warrants to purchase common stock, which were first issued on May 3, 1999, by the predecessor to Renasant Bancshares, Inc., Community Commercial Bancshares, Inc. Effective as of March 31, 2005, Peoples Merger Corporation was merged with and into the company.

As a result of the merger in 2004, the warrants were converted to rights to acquire an aggregate of 72,605 shares of our common stock. The proceeds from these resales will be paid to the selling shareholders and not to us. We have paid the expenses of this prospectus and registration statement of which it is a part, but the selling shareholders will pay any brokerage commissions or similar expenses incurred in connection with their resale of our common stock.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 14. Other Expenses of Issuance and Distribution.

Below are the costs and expenses payable by the company in connection with the proposed sale of common stock being registered. All amounts are estimates except the SEC registration fee.

SEC registration fee	$ 283.00
Legal fees and expenses	10,000.00
Accounting fees and expenses	7,500.00
Total	$ 17,783.00

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act (MBCA) empowers a corporation to indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

He conducted himself in good faith;

He reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in his official capacity, that his conduct was in the best interests of the corporation, and in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and

In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

A corporation may also indemnify an individual who engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation as authorized by Section 79-4-2.02(b)(5) of the MBCA. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the relevant standard of conduct.

Unless ordered by a court, under Section 79-4-8.54(a)(3) of the MBCA, a corporation may not indemnify a director:

In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct under the MBCA; or

In connection with any proceeding with respect to conduct for which he was adjudged liable on the basis that he received a financial benefit to which he was not entitled, whether or not involving action in his official capacity.

Table of Contents

The MBCA further provides that a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party because he was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding. Also, a corporation may, before final disposition of a proceeding, advance funds to pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director. The director must deliver to the corporation: (1) a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the relevant standard of conduct described in the MBCA or that the proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated under a provision of the articles of incorporation as authorized by the MBCA; and (2) his written undertaking to repay any funds advanced if he is not entitled to mandatory indemnification under the MBCA and it is ultimately determined under the MBCA that he has not met the relevant standard of conduct described in the MBCA. The undertaking required must be an unlimited general obligation of the director. It need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to the financial ability of the director to make repayment.

A corporation may not indemnify a director as described above unless authorized by:

The board of directors if there are two or more disinterested directors, by a majority vote of all the disinterested directors (a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute a quorum) or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested directors appointed by such a vote;

The board of directors if there are fewer than two disinterested directors, by the vote necessary for action by the board in accordance with the MBCA, in which authorization directors who do not qualify as disinterested directors may participate or

The shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who at the time does not qualify as a disinterested director may not be voted on the authorization.

A corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding because he is an officer to the same extent as for a director.

The bylaws of the Company contain indemnification provisions that require the Company to indemnify any director or officer made party to any proceeding if such director or officer met the requisite standard of conduct. The required standard of conduct under the Bylaws is the same as that under the MBCA. Under the bylaws, special legal counsel may be appointed to determine whether a director or officer met the required standard of conduct if there are fewer than two disinterested directors on the board of directors. The advancement of expenses is also mandatory under the Company's bylaws, provided that the director or officer makes the deliveries described above and such advancement is authorized as provided under the MBCA.

The Company also maintains an insurance policy insuring the Company and its directors and officers against certain liabilities.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act);
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule

424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.
- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser: (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424; (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant; (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

Table of Contents

- (6) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (7) To deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Exchange Act; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

- (8) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
