Part III Narrative

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Motive, Inc. (the Company) is unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 (the Annual Report) within the time period prescribed for such report.

As previously disclosed, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has been conducting a review of certain accounting matters. Also as previously disclosed, the Company will restate its previously issued financial statements for periods beginning with fiscal 2001 as a result of findings from the Audit Committee review. As a result of the Company's ongoing restatement activities, the Company is unable to complete the preparation of the Annual Report within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company anticipates that it will file the Annual Report as promptly as possible after the completion of its ongoing restatement activities and the completion of audited financial statements required to be included in the Annual Report.
