On January 16, 2012, the Board of Directors of Ingram Micro Inc. (the Company) promoted Alain Monié, age 61, to serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective January 20, 2012.

Mr. Monié joined the Company as executive vice president in January 2003 and was appointed president of the Asia-Pacific region a year later. He was promoted to president and chief operating officer of the Company in August 2007 and resigned three years later to become chief executive officer of APRIL Management Pte., a multi-national industrial company based in Asia. On November 1, 2011, Mr. Monié returned to the Company as chief operating officer, re-assuming his prior responsibilities. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Monié was the head of Latin American operations at Honeywell International and Asia-Pacific operations at Allied Signal Inc., where he led the company's expansion into China and India. Mr. Monié has been a member of the Board of Directors of Amazon.com, Inc. since November 2008 and was recently elected to the Board of the Company in November 2011.

In connection with Mr. Monié's promotion as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Mr. Monié will receive an annual base salary of $850,000, a target annual incentive bonus equal to 150% of his annual base salary under the Company's annual executive incentive award program during fiscal year 2012 (with the opportunity to receive payment above the target amount for above-target performance but capped at 220% of the target annual incentive bonus), and certain grants of performance-based equity awards under the Company's long-term incentive award programs. In addition, Mr. Monié will be subject to certain stock ownership guidelines based on his position as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Gregory M. Spierkel has also stepped down from his position as Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective January 20, 2012, and will resign from his position as a member of its Board of Directors effective April 15, 2012. Mr. Spierkel will remain with the Company to assist with the transition until April 15, 2012. Mr. Spierkel's termination of employment with the Company will be treated as a termination by the Company without cause under the Company's Executive Officer Severance Policy, and based on age and years of service, a retirement with respect to the outstanding equity awards held by Mr. Spierkel under the Company's long-term incentive award programs.
