Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this report that are not historical are forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as believe, expect, expectations, plans, strategy, prospects, estimate, project, target, anticipate, will, should, see, guidance, confident and meaning in connection with a discussion of future operating or financial performance. It is uncertain whether the events anticipated will transpire, or if they do occur what impact they will have on the results of operations and financial condition of UTC, Goodrich and their affiliates. These forward looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated, including but not limited to risks that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement disrupt plans and operations of UTC, UTC's ability to realize anticipated synergies, UTC's ability to achieve anticipated financial results, the amount of costs, fees, expenses and charges incurred by UTC and Goodrich related to the transaction, the risks associated with international business operations, the risks associated with governance and control matters, and changes in vendor, payer and customer relationships and terms. Other important economic, political, regulatory, legal, technological, competitive and other uncertainties are identified in the SEC filings submitted by UTC from time to time, including its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Annual Reports on Form 10-K, and Current Reports on Form 8-K. The forward looking statements included in this Report are made only as of the date of this Report. UTC does not undertake any obligation to update the forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.

SIGNATURE
