On February 24, 2005, the Company issued a subordinated note in the principal amount of $10.0 million to Columbia Ventures Corporation. The note was issued pursuant to a Note Purchase Agreement dated February 24, 2005. The note has an initial interest rate of 10% per annum and the interest rate increases by one percent on August 24, 2005, six months after the note was issued, and by a further one percent at the end of each successive six-month period up to a maximum of 17%. Interest on the note accrues and is payable on the note's maturity date of February 24, 2009. The Company may prepay the note in whole or in part at any time. The terms of the note require that the Company pays all principal and accrued interest upon the occurrence of a liquidity event, which is defined as an equity offering in which the Company raises at least $30 million in net proceeds. The Company is contemplating an equity offering, pursuant to a registration statement filed on Form S-1 with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 14, 2005, which constitutes a liquidity event under the note. Accordingly, the Company will be required to use a portion of the proceeds of the offering to repay the principal and accrued interest on the note. The note is subordinated to other debt in the amount of $17.0 million as well as up to $10.0 million in debt the Company may incur pursuant to an accounts receivable line of credit. Columbia Ventures Corporation is owned by one of the Company's directors, Kenneth D. Peterson, Jr., and is a holder of approximately 9.6% of the Company's common stock.
