1. a.

On May 10, 2012, the Company entered into an Agreement to Convert Debt pursuant to which the Claimant agreed to accept, and the Company agreed to issue, an aggregate of 1,147,324 shares of common stock, $.0001 par value (the Common Stock or Shares) in satisfaction of previously announced promissory notes and advances in the aggregate amount of $286,831 in principal and accrued and unpaid interest (the Debt).

The shares issued upon conversion of the Debt and were issued to one person whom is qualified as an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933 as amended (the "Securities Act"). The shares issued upon conversion of the Debt were restricted securities under the Securities Act.

c.

The sale of the Securities was undertaken without registration under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act set forth in Sections 4(2) thereunder. The investor qualified as an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D. In addition, the Securities, which were taken for investment purposes and not for resale, were subject to restrictions on transfer. We did not engage in any public advertising or general solicitation in connection with this transaction, and we provided the investor with disclosure of all aspects of our business, including providing the investor with our reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and other financial, business and corporate information. Based on our investigation, we believed that the accredited investor obtained all information regarding the Company that was requested, received answers to all questions posed and otherwise understood the risks of accepting our Securities for investment purposes.

The issuance of the Shares in satisfaction of the Debt is described in Item 3.02(a) above.

f.

There were no proceeds received as a result of the conversion of the Debt.

2. a.

c.

d.
