Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On April 22, 2013, MEMSIC, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with MZ Investment Holdings Limited, an exempted company with limited liability incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Parent”), and MZ Investment Holdings Merger Sub Limited, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), providing for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the “Merger”), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Parent and Merger Sub are affiliates of IDG-Accel China Capital II L.P. (“Sponsor”).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each share of the Company’s common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than stock held (i) by the Company as treasury stock, (ii) directly or indirectly by Parent or Merger Sub, (iii) by any Company subsidiary, or (iv) by stockholders who have perfected and not withdrawn a demand for appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive $4.225 in cash (the “Per Share Merger Consideration”), without interest.

The Company has made various representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including covenants regarding: (i) the conduct of the business of the Company prior to the consummation of the Merger, which generally must be conducted in the ordinary course consistent with past practice; (ii) the calling and holding of a meeting of the Company’s stockholders to vote upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement; and (iii) the use of reasonable best efforts to cause the consummation of the Merger.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company is subject to a “no-shop” covenant that, among other things, restricts its ability to solicit proposals or offers relating to a competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement), to provide non-public information to or engage in discussions or negotiations with third parties regarding a competing transaction, or to enter into agreements regarding, or recommend, a competing transaction. However, the no-shop covenant is subject to a “fiduciary-out” provision that allows the Company, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to provide information to, and participate in discussions with, third parties regarding certain unsolicited written proposals regarding a competing transaction if, among other conditions: (i) the Company’s Board of Directors (or applicable committee thereof) has determined, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside counsel, that the proposal is, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a transaction more favorable to the Company’s stockholders than the Merger; (ii) such competing transaction is reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed without unreasonable delay; and (iii) not doing so would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the directors’ fiduciary duties under applicable law. Subject to a similar “fiduciary-out” exception and certain other conditions, neither the Company’s Board of Directors nor any committee thereof may change, withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify (or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing), in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, its recommendation that the Company’s stockholders approve the adoption of the Merger Agreement or adopt, approve or recommend (or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing) a competing transaction. The Merger Agreement also provides to Parent certain rights to match any superior proposal.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various closing conditions, including: (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote on the Merger; (ii) procurement of all relevant regulatory approvals, except where a failure to obtain such approval(s) would not result in a material adverse effect on the Company (as that term is defined in the Merger Agreement), or otherwise prevent the consummation of the Merger; and (iii) no governmental authority of competent jurisdiction having enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, law, ordinance, regulation, rule, code, executive order, injunction, judgment, decree or other order (whether in effect, pending, proposed or threatened), that has or would have the effect of making the Merger illegal, or that otherwise prohibits the consummation of the Merger (each, an "Injunction"), in the United States, the People's Republic of China or any other jurisdiction where such Injunction would have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Moreover, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including: (i) the accuracy of the other party's or parties' representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement (subject in some cases to various materiality qualifications); and (ii) the other party's or parties' performance, in all material respects, of all obligations required to be performed by it or them under the Merger Agreement on or prior to the closing date. In addition, the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger are subject to the condition that, after the date of the Merger Agreement, there shall not have occurred and be continuing a material adverse effect on the Company.

Consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in an equity commitment letter between Sponsor and Parent, Sponsor has committed to purchase (or cause to be purchased), at or immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, up to $86.3 million of the equity securities of Parent. Parent has agreed to use the invested funds only to: (i) fund, to the extent necessary, the aggregate Per Share Merger Consideration and all other amounts payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement in satisfaction of all restricted stock awards, restricted stock units and stock options; and (ii) pay all fees, expenses and other amounts payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement. In addition, five investment funds affiliated with Sponsor (the "IDG Funds," which, collectively, beneficially own approximately 19.5% of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock), and seventeen executive officers and employees of the Company (such executive officers and employees, together with the IDG Funds, the "Rollover Holders") have entered into an agreement with Parent whereby the Rollover Holders will acquire equity securities of Parent in exchange for cash consideration and/or contributions of Company common stock beneficially owned by these Rollover Holders. The aggregate proceeds from the Sponsor's equity financing and the Rollover Holders' contributions of cash and Company common stock are expected to be sufficient for Parent to finance the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Parent. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $1.77 million, including upon acceptance of a superior proposal, a change in the recommendation of the Merger by the Company's Board of Directors or a committee thereof, a material breach of the Company's "no-shop" covenant or, in certain cases, upon consummation of a competing transaction within 12 months after termination of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement also provides that Parent will be required to pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $3.54 million under limited circumstances. The Sponsor has agreed to guarantee certain obligations of Parent under the Merger Agreement, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in a limited guaranty in favor of the Company, in an amount up to $3.89 million. Such limited guaranty includes the payment of any reverse termination fee and other specified costs and expenses that may become payable by Parent. If the Merger is not consummated by April 22, 2014, either party generally has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties thereto or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Voting Agreement

On April 22, 2012, the Company, Parent, the IDG Funds and certain other Rollover Holders entered into a voting agreement (the "Voting Agreement"), whereby the IDG Funds and those Rollover Holders committed to vote the shares of Company common stock over which they have voting control in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, against certain competing transactions, and against any action, agreement or transaction that could reasonably be expected to materially impede, frustrate, interfere with, delay, postpone, adversely affect or prevent the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. During the term of the Voting Agreement and subject to stated exceptions, the stockholders who are parties thereto may not offer for sale, sell, transfer, tender, pledge, encumber, assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to, or consent to the offer for sale, sale, transfer, tender, pledge, encumbrance, assignment or other disposition of, enter into a loan of, or otherwise grant a proxy or power of attorney (other than as set forth in the Voting Agreement) with respect to, such Company common stock.

General

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified in their entirety by reference to, the complete terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement, which are filed as Exhibits 2.1 and 10.1 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.
