Note 1: Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Diebold, Incorporated and its subsidiaries (collectively, the Company) have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and therefore do not include all information and footnotes necessary for a fair presentation of financial position, results of operations and cash flows in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP); however, such information reflects all adjustments (consisting solely of normal recurring adjustments) that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods.

The condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes contained in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015. In addition, some of the Company's statements in this quarterly report on Form 10-Q may involve risks and uncertainties that could significantly impact expected future results. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the full year.

The Company has reclassified the presentation of certain prior-year information to conform to the current presentation disclosed in the notes included elsewhere in this quarterly report on Form 10-Q.

Recently Adopted Accounting Guidance

In April 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2015-03, Interest-Imputation of Interest: Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs (ASU 2015-03), which requires that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. Additionally, in August 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-15, Interest-Imputation of Interest: Presentation and Subsequent Measurement of Debt Issuance Costs Associated with Line-of-Credit Arrangements Amendments to SEC Paragraphs Pursuant to Staff Announcement at June 18, 2015 EITF Meeting (ASU 2015-15). The standards became effective for the Company on January 1, 2016. The adoption of ASU 2015-03 and ASU 2015-15 resulted in $64.5 of debt issuance costs included in long-term debt as of September 30, 2016 and a reclassification of $6.9 from other assets to long-term debt as of December 31, 2015.

Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASU 2014-09), which requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. ASU 2014-09 will replace most existing revenue recognition guidance in U.S. GAAP when it becomes effective. The standard is effective for the Company on January 1, 2018. Early application is permitted on the original adoption date of January 1, 2017. The standard permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2014-09 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company has not yet selected a transition method nor has it determined the effect of the standard on its ongoing financial reporting.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-17, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes (ASU 2015-17). This amendment requires the presentation of deferred tax assets and liabilities to be categorized as noncurrent on the balance sheet, instead of being classified as current or noncurrent. ASU 2015-17 is effective for the Company on January 1, 2017, with early adoption permitted. The adoption of ASU 2015-17 is not expected to have a material impact on the financial statements of the Company.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) (ASU 2016-02). The FASB issued the update to require the recognition of lease assets and liabilities on the balance sheet of lessees. ASU 2016-02 will be effective for the Company on January 1, 2019, including interim periods. ASU 2016-02 requires a modified retrospective transition method with the option to elect a package of practical expedients. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2016-02 will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-08, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Principal versus Agent Considerations (Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net) (ASU 2016-08). The FASB issued the amendment to clarify the implementation guidance on principal versus agent considerations. The effective date and transition requirements for the amendments in this update are the same as the effective date and transition requirements of ASU 2014-09. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2016-08 will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

In April 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-10, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Identifying Performance Obligations and Licensing (ASU 2016-10). The FASB issued the amendment to clarify the following two aspects of Topic 606: identifying performance obligations and the licensing implementation guidance, while retaining the related principles for those areas. The effective date and transition requirements for the amendments in this update are the same as the effective date and transition requirements of ASU 2014-09. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2016-10 will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

In May 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-11, Revenue Recognition (Topic 605) and Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815): Rescission of SEC Guidance Because of Accounting Standards Updates 2014-09 and 2014-16 Pursuant to Staff Announcements at the March 3, 2016 EITF Meeting (ASU 2016-11). The FASB issued the amendment to rescind the following aspects of Topic 606. Specifically, registrants should not rely on the following SEC Staff Observer comments upon adoption of Topic 606: Revenue and Expense Recognition for Freight Services in Process, which is codified in paragraph 605-20-S99-2; Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fees and Costs, which is codified in paragraph 605-45-S99-1; Accounting for Consideration Given by a Vendor to a Customer (including Reseller of the Vendor's Products), which is codified in paragraph 605-50-S99-1; Accounting for Gas-Balancing Arrangements (that is, use of the "entitlements method"), which is codified in paragraph 932-10-S99-5. The effective date and transition requirements for the amendments in this update are the same as the effective date and transition requirements of ASU 2014-09. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2016-11 will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

In May 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-12, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Identifying Performance Obligations and Licensing: Narrow-Scope Improvements and Practical Expedients (ASU 2016-12). The FASB issued the amendment to improve Topic 606 by reducing the potential for diversity in practice at initial application and reducing the cost and complexity of applying Topic 606 both at transition and on an ongoing basis. The effective date and transition requirements for the amendments in this update are the same as the effective date and transition requirements of ASU 2014-09. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2016-12 will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Note 2: Acquisitions

Wincor Nixdorf

Wincor Nixdorf Aktiengesellschaft (Wincor Nixdorf) is one of the world's leading providers of IT solutions and services to retail banks and the retail industry. The acquisition of Wincor Nixdorf (the Acquisition) is consistent with the Company's transformation into a world-class, services-led and software-enabled company, supported by innovative hardware. Wincor Nixdorf complements and extends our existing capabilities. The Company considered a number of factors in connection with its evaluation of the proposed transaction, including significant strategic opportunities and potential synergies, as generally supporting its decision to enter into the business combination agreement with Wincor Nixdorf. The Acquisition expands the Company's presence substantially, especially in Europe, Middle East, and Africa (EMEA). The Wincor Nixdorf business enhances the Company's existing portfolio. Wincor Nixdorf has a fiscal year end of September 30. For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2015, Wincor Nixdorf recorded net sales of €2,427.0 as reported using International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the European Union (EU).

In the fourth quarter of 2015, the Company announced its intention to acquire all 29.8 Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares outstanding (33.1 total Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares issued inclusive of 3.3 treasury shares) through a voluntary tender offer for €38.98 in cash and 0.434 common shares of the Company per Wincor Nixdorf ordinary share outstanding.

On August 15, 2016, the Company consummated the Acquisition by acquiring, through Diebold Holding Germany Inc. & Co. KGaA (Diebold KGaA), a German partnership limited by shares and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, 22.9 Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares representing 69.2 percent of total number of Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares inclusive of treasury shares (76.7 percent of all Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares outstanding) in exchange for an aggregate preliminary purchase price consideration of $1,265.7, which included the issuance of 9.9 common shares of the Company.

On August 15, 2016, the Company consummated the Acquisition. The Company financed the cash portion of the Acquisition as well as the Wincor Nixdorf debt outstanding with funds available under the Company's Credit Agreement (as defined in note 12) and proceeds from the issuance and sale of the $400.0 aggregate principal amount of 8.50 percent senior notes due 2024 (the 2024 Senior Notes).

The information included herein has been prepared based on the preliminary allocation of the purchase price using estimates of the fair value and useful lives of assets acquired and liabilities assumed which were determined with the assistance of independent valuations using discounted cash flow and comparative market multiple approaches, quoted market prices and estimates made by management. The purchase price allocation is subject to further adjustment until all pertinent information regarding the assets and liabilities acquired are fully evaluated by the Company, including but not limited to, the fair value accounting, legal and tax matters, obligations, deferred taxes and the allocation of goodwill.

The aggregate preliminary consideration, excluding $104.7 of cash acquired, for the Acquisition was $1,265.7, which consisted of the following:

The following table presents the preliminary estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from the Acquisition as of the date of acquisition based on the allocation of the total preliminary consideration, net of cash acquired:

	August 15, 2016
Trade receivables	$474.1
Inventories	487.2
Deferred income taxes	46.5
Prepaid expenses	39.3
Current assets held for sale	100.5
Other current assets	79.7
Property, plant and equipment	236.9
Intangible assets	803.6
Other assets	27.0
Total assets acquired	2,294.8
Notes payable	159.8
Accounts payable	321.5
Deferred revenue	164.8
Payroll and other benefits liabilities	191.0
Current liabilities held for sale	62.5
Other current liabilities	183.4
Pensions and other benefits	87.6
Other noncurrent liabilities	393.5
Total liabilities assumed	1,564.1
Fair value of noncontrolling interest	(386.7)
Total identifiable net assets acquired, including noncontrolling interest	344.0
Goodwill	$817.0

The Company preliminarily recorded acquired intangible assets in the following table as of the acquisition date:

	Weighted-average useful lives	August 15, 2016
Trade name	3.0 years	$37.9
Technologies	4.0 years	107.2
Customer relationships	9.5 years	658.5
Intangible assets		$803.6

Noncontrolling interest reflects a fair value adjustment of $386.7 related to the minority shareholders. Subsequent to the closing of the Acquisition, the board of directors of the Company and the supervisory and management boards of Wincor Nixdorf approved the proposed Domination and Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement (DPLTA). The Company and Wincor Nixdorf executed the agreement at an extraordinary meeting of shareholders of Wincor Nixdorf on September 26, 2016. Upon effectiveness and registration of the DPLTA, Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders will be offered to elect either (1) to continue to hold their Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares and receive an adequate fixed or variable annual guaranteed dividend or annual share of profit in the amount of the guaranteed dividend or (2) receive adequate cash compensation for the tender of the share. The ultimate timing of any future cash payments related to the DPLTA are uncertain. Noncontrolling interests with certain redemption features, such as put rights that are not within the control of the issuer and are considered redeemable noncontrolling interests. As of September 30, 2016, the DPLTA was and will not be effective until registration with the commercial register of the local court of Paderborn. As a result the carrying value of the noncontrolling interest has been presented as a component of total equity. As of and for the period of time that the DPLTA is effective, the carrying value of the noncontrolling interest will be reclassified from total equity to redeemable noncontrolling interest and presented outside of equity in the consolidated balance sheets of the Company.

Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed from the Acquisition, and represents the future economic benefits arising from other assets acquired that could not be individually identified and separately recognized. This goodwill is primarily the result of anticipated synergies achieved through increased scale, a streamlined portfolio of products and solutions, higher utilization of the service organization, workforce rationalization in overlapping regions and shared back office resources. The Company has yet to allocate goodwill to its Domestic and Canada, EMEA, Asia Pacific (AP) and Latin America (LA) reporting units. The goodwill associated with the Acquisition is not deductible for income tax purposes.

Net sales, income (loss) from continuing operations before taxes and net income (loss) attributable to Diebold, Incorporated from the Acquisition included in the Company's results since August 15, 2016, the date of the Acquisition, are as follows:

	August 15, 2016 to September 30, 2016
Net sales	$ 405.3
Income (loss) from continuing operations before taxes	$ (57.9)
Net income (loss) attributable to Diebold, Incorporated	$ (41.6)

The Acquisition's income (loss) from continuing operations before taxes subsequent to the acquisition date includes purchase accounting pretax charges related to deferred revenue of $4.9, inventory valuation adjustment of $31.7 and amortization of acquired intangibles of $17.9, offset by a reduction of $0.8 depreciation expense related to the change in useful lives.

The Company incurred deal-related costs in connection with the Acquisition, of $28.1 and $53.3, which are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the Company's consolidated statements of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively.

The DPLTA registration is expected to occur following fast-track clearance or final dismissal of pending shareholder litigation in Germany aimed at preventing the effectiveness of the DPLTA. The Company is currently aware of certain Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders who have filed contestation actions against the DPLTA resolutions adopted at Wincor Nixdorf's extraordinary meeting of shareholders on September 26, 2016. Wincor Nixdorf initiated fast-track proceedings to obtain court approval to register the DPLTA despite such pending shareholder litigation. While the conclusion of fast-track proceedings typically takes between three to five months following the initial filing, no assurance can be given as to the duration and outcome of such proceedings.

Under the DPLTA, when effective and subject to certain limitations pursuant to applicable law, (i) Diebold KGaA will be entitled to issue binding instructions to the management board of Wincor Nixdorf, (ii) Wincor Nixdorf will transfer all of its annual profits to Diebold KGaA, subject to, among other things, the creation or dissolution of certain reserves, and (iii) Diebold KGaA will generally absorb all annual losses incurred by Wincor Nixdorf. In addition, when effective and subject to certain limitations pursuant to applicable law, the DPLTA will provide that Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders be offered, at their election, (i) to put their Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares to Diebold KGaA in exchange for a compensation in cash of €55.02 per Wincor Nixdorf ordinary share, or (ii) to remain Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders and receive a recurring compensation in cash of €3.13 (€2.82 net under the current taxation regime) for each full fiscal year of Wincor Nixdorf and for each Wincor Nixdorf ordinary share.

In connection with the DPLTA and pursuant to the German stock corporation act, Diebold KGaA and Wincor Nixdorf published a joint contract report, dated August 16, 2016, of the management board of Wincor Nixdorf and the management of Diebold KGaA that includes a description of the transactions contemplated by the DPLTA and other information (the Contract Report), attaching the form of the proposed DPLTA and a valuation report of PricewaterhouseCoopers AG Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft, dated August 16, 2016, regarding the enterprise value of Wincor Nixdorf as of September 26, 2016, and other information. In connection with the proposed DPLTA, Diebold KGaA and Wincor Nixdorf also obtained an audit report by an independent court-appointed auditor, ADKL AG, dated August 16, 2016 (the Audit Report). Diebold KGaA's obligations under the DPLTA will be fully guaranteed by the Company.

Diluted weighted-average shares outstanding - pro forma	75.7	75.5	75.7	75.4

The unaudited pro forma information has been adjusted with respect to certain aspects of the Acquisition to reflect the following:

Additional depreciation and amortization expenses that would have been recognized assuming preliminary fair value adjustments to the existing Wincor Nixdorf assets acquired and liabilities assumed, including intangible assets, fixed assets and expense associated with the valuation of inventory acquired.

Increased interest expense due to additional borrowings to fund the Acquisition.

The pro forma results do not include any anticipated cost synergies or other effects of the planned integration of the acquired business. Accordingly, such pro forma amounts are not necessarily indicative of the results that actually would have occurred had the Acquisition been completed as of January 1, 2015, nor are they indicative of the future operating results of the Company.

Phoenix Interactive Design, Inc.

In the first quarter of 2015, the Company acquired 100 percent of the equity interests of Phoenix Interactive Design, Inc. (Phoenix) for a total purchase price of $72.9, including $12.6 of deferred cash payment payable over the next three years. Acquiring Phoenix, a leading developer of innovative multi-vendor software solutions for automated teller machines (ATMs) and a host of other financial self-service (FSS) applications, was a foundational move to accelerate the Company's growth in the fast-growing managed services and branch automation spaces. The results of operations for Phoenix are primarily included in the NA reportable operating segment within the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements from the date of its acquisition.

Note 3: Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share includes the dilutive effect of potential common shares outstanding. Under the two-class method of computing earnings per share, non-vested share-based payment awards that contain rights to receive non-forfeitable dividends are considered participating securities. The Company's participating securities include restricted stock units (RSUs), deferred shares, and shares that were vested, but deferred by the employee. The Company calculated basic and diluted earnings per share under both the treasury stock method and the two-class method. For the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, there was no impact in the per share amounts calculated under the two methods. Accordingly, the treasury stock method is disclosed below.

Note 6: Share-Based Compensation

The Company's share-based compensation payments to employees are recognized based on their grant-date fair values during the period in which the employee is required to provide services in exchange for the award. Share-based compensation is primarily recognized as a component of selling and administrative expense. Total share-based compensation expense was $4.1 and $1.8 for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and was $14.2 and $10.9 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Options outstanding and exercisable as of September 30, 2016 under the Company's 1991 Equity and Performance Incentive Plan (as Amended and Restated as of February 12, 2014) (the 1991 Plan) and changes during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 were as follows:

	Number of Shares	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Term	Aggregate Intrinsic Value ⁽¹⁾
		(per share)	(in years)
Outstanding at January 1, 2016	1.7	$ 34.21

Options vested and expected to vest at September 30, 2016 (2)	1.6	$ 32.07	7	$ —

The aggregate intrinsic value (the difference between the closing price of the Company's common shares on the last trading day of the third quarter of 2016 and the exercise price, multiplied by the number of "in-the-money" options)

(1) that would have been received by the option holders had all option holders exercised their options on September 30, 2016. The amount of aggregate intrinsic value will change based on the fair market value of the Company's common shares.

The options expected to vest are the result of applying the pre-vesting forfeiture rate assumption to total outstanding non-vested options.

Vested	(0.2)	$ 29.36
Granted	0.6	$ 27.27
Non-vested at September 30, 2016	1.1	$ 31.59

Performance shares are granted to employees and vest based on the achievement of certain performance objectives, as determined by the Board of Directors each year. Each performance share earned entitles the holder to one common share of the Company. The Company's performance shares include performance objectives that are assessed after a three-year period as well as performance objectives that are assessed annually over a three-year period. No shares are vested unless certain performance threshold objectives are met.

As of September 30, 2016, there were 0.1 non-employee director deferred shares vested and outstanding.

Note 7: Income Taxes

The effective tax rate on loss from the continuing operations was 16.2 percent for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 26.2 percent for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. The tax rate benefit on the loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 was negatively impacted due to the recognition of unfavorable discrete items and expenses relating to the Acquisition. The tax rate benefit on the loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was also impacted by the favorable release of an uncertain tax position due to the expiration of the statute of limitations. The rates for both periods were also negatively impacted by an increase in the deferred tax liability associated with the Company's undistributed foreign subsidiary earnings. The non-taxable foreign currency hedges related to the Acquisition generated a loss for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and a net gain for nine months ended September 30, 2016, resulting in a decrease in the rate for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and an increase in the tax benefit rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

The effective tax rate on income from continuing operations was (87.6) percent for the three months ended September 30, 2015 and (46.3) percent on the income for the nine months ended September 30, 2015. The tax rate benefit on income for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2015 resulted from the repatriation of foreign earnings and the associated recognition of foreign tax credits and releases of uncertain tax positions due to the expiration of the statute of limitations. Additionally, the tax rate benefit for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 included discrete tax items related to the Venezuela divestiture and the release of a valuation allowance.

Note 8: Investments

The Company's investments, primarily in Brazil, consist of certificates of deposit that are classified as available-for-sale and stated at fair value based upon quoted market prices. Unrealized gains and losses are recorded in AOCI. Realized gains and losses are recognized in investment income and are determined using the specific identification method. There were no realized gains from the sale of securities and proceeds from the sale of available-for-sale securities for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015.

Provision for credit losses	0.3	—	0.3
Write-offs	(0.1)	—	(0.1)
Balance at September 30, 2015	$ 0.6	$ 4.1	$4.7

There were no significant changes in provision for credit losses, recoveries and write-offs during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015. In the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, the Company sold finance lease receivables of $7.4 and $5.4, respectively. As of September 30, 2016, finance leases and notes receivable individually evaluated for impairment were $78.7 and $20.7, respectively, of which $24.3 and $12.2, respectively, relates to the Acquisition, were assessed with no provision recorded. As of September 30, 2015, finance leases and notes receivable individually evaluated for impairment were $86.5 and $13.5, respectively. As of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the Company's finance lease receivables in LA were $43.4 and $58.8, respectively. The decrease is related primarily to recurring customer payments for financing arrangements.

The Company records interest income and any fees or costs related to financing receivables using the effective interest method over the term of the lease or loan. The Company reviews the aging of its financing receivables to determine past due and delinquent accounts. Credit quality is reviewed at inception and is re-evaluated as needed based on customer-specific circumstances. Receivable balances 60 days to 89 days past due are reviewed and may be placed on nonaccrual status based on customer-specific circumstances. Receivable balances are placed on nonaccrual status upon reaching greater than 89 days past due. Upon receipt of payment on nonaccrual financing receivables, interest income is recognized and accrual of interest is resumed once the account has been made current or the specific circumstances have been resolved.

As of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the recorded investment in past due financing receivables on nonaccrual status was $0.5 and $0.7, respectively, and there were no recorded investments in finance receivables past due 90 days or more and still accruing interest. The recorded investment in impaired notes receivable was $4.1 as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 and was fully reserved.

In March 2015, the Company acquired Phoenix, a leader in developing innovative multi-vendor software solutions for ATMs and a host of other FSS applications. During the second quarter of 2016, the Company adjusted the preliminary goodwill by $(0.5) primarily to reflect adjustments to the finalization of deferred income taxes.

In August 2016, the Company acquired Wincor Nixdorf. The unallocated portion of acquired goodwill as of September 30, 2016 of $817.0 is attributable to Wincor Nixdorf. In connection with the business combination agreement related to the Acquisition, the Company announced the realignment of its lines of business to drive greater efficiency and further improve customer service. The Company began evaluating and assessing the line of business reporting structure and its impact on the allocation of the Wincor Nixdorf acquired goodwill among the reporting units. The Company does not anticipate the assessment to be completed until the first quarter of 2017. Beginning with the first quarter of 2017, the Company anticipates allocating goodwill to its reporting units based on the conclusion of the assessment on the following lines of business: Software, Systems, and Services.

The acquired Wincor Nixdorf goodwill is primarily the result of anticipated synergies achieved through increased scale, a streamlined portfolio of products and solutions, higher utilization of the service organization, workforce rationalization in overlapping regions and shared back office resources. The Company also expects that, after completion of the business combination and integration, we will generate strong free cash flow, which would be used to make investments in innovative software and solutions and reduce debt.

There have been no impairment indicators identified during the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

The following summarizes information on intangible assets by major category:

	September 30, 2016			December 31, 2015
	Gross Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization	Net Carrying Amount	Gross Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization	Net Carrying Amount

As of September 30, 2016, the Company had various international short-term uncommitted lines of credit with borrowing limits of $159.3. The weighted-average interest rate on outstanding borrowings on the short-term uncommitted lines of credit as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was 5.16 percent and 5.66 percent, respectively. The increase in the weighted-average interest rate is attributable to a change in mix of borrowings of foreign entities. Short-term uncommitted lines mature in less than one year. The amount available under the short-term uncommitted lines at September 30, 2016 was $138.2.

The Company entered into a revolving and term loan credit agreement (the Credit Agreement), dated as of November 23, 2015, among the Company and certain of the Company's subsidiaries, as borrowers, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Administrative Agent, and the lenders named therein. The Credit Agreement included, among other things, mechanics for the Company's existing revolving and term loan A facilities to be refinanced under the Credit Agreement. On December 23, 2015, the Company entered into a Replacement Facilities Effective Date Amendment, which amended the Credit Agreement, among the Company, certain of the Company's subsidiaries, the lenders identified therein and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Administrative Agent, pursuant to which the Company refinanced its $520.0 revolving and $230.0 term loan A senior unsecured credit facilities (which have been terminated and repaid in full) with, respectively, a new unsecured revolving facility (the Revolving Facility) in an amount of up to $520.0 and a new (non-delayed draw) unsecured term loan A facility (the Term Loan A Facility) on substantially the same terms as the Delayed Draw Term Facility (as defined in the Credit Agreement) in the amount of up to $230.0. The Delayed Draw Term Facility of $250.0 may be drawn up to one year after the closing date of the Acquisition. The Revolving Facility and Term Loan A Facility are subject to the same maximum consolidated net leverage ratio and minimum consolidated interest coverage ratio as the Delayed Draw Term Facility. On December 23, 2020, the Term Loan A Facility will mature and the Revolving Facility will automatically terminate. The weighted-average interest rate on outstanding revolving credit facility borrowings as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was 1.94 percent and 2.33 percent, respectively, which is variable based on the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR). The amount available under the revolving credit facility as of September 30, 2016 was $520.0.

On April 19, 2016, the Company issued the 2024 Senior Notes in an offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act in connection with the Acquisition. The 2024 Senior Notes are and will be guaranteed by certain of the Company's existing and future domestic subsidiaries.

Also in April 2016, allocation and pricing of the term loan B facility (the Term Loan B Facility) provided under the Credit Agreement (which the Term Loan B Facility was used to provide part of the financing for the Acquisition) was completed. The Term Loan B Facility consists of a $1,000.0 U.S. dollar-denominated tranche that bears interest at LIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.50 percent (or, at the Company's option, prime plus an applicable margin of 3.50 percent), and a €350.0 euro-denominated tranche that will bear interest at the Euro Interbank Offered Rate (EURIBOR) plus an applicable margin of 4.25 percent. Each tranche was funded during the second quarter of 2016 at 99 percent of par. In November, the Company repaid $200.0 of the outstanding debt from the Term Loan B Facility - USD, which was included in notes payable as of September 30, 2016.

On May 6, and August 16, 2016, the Company entered into the Second and Third Amendments to the Credit Agreement, which re-denominated a portion of the Term Loan B Facility into euros and guaranteed the prompt and complete payment and performance of the obligations when due under the Credit Agreement.

The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement financial ratios at September 30, 2016 are as follows:

- a maximum total net debt to adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) leverage ratio of 4.50 for the three months ended September 30, 2016 (reducing to 4.25 on December 31, 2017, further reduced to 4.00 on December 31, 2018, and further reduced to 3.75 on June 30, 2019); and
- a minimum adjusted EBITDA to net interest expense coverage ratio of not less than 3.00

The key affirmative and negative covenants of the Credit Agreement include:

Affirmative Covenants	Negative Covenants - Limitations on
pay principal and interest on time	merger, consolidation and fundamental changes
mandatory prepayments	sale of assets
timely financial reporting (including compliance certificate)	investments and acquisitions
use of proceeds	liens and security interests
notice of defaults	transactions with affiliates
continue with line of business	dividends and other restricted payments
paying taxes	negative pledge clause
maintain insurance	restrictions on subsidiary distributions
compliance with applicable laws	hedges for financial speculation
maintain property and title to property	receivable indebtedness
provide updates to guaranties and collateral when acquiring new assets or subsidiaries	incurrence of indebtedness (secured, unsecured and subordinated) and receivables indebtedness
engage in periodic credit rating reviews	payments of junior/unsecured/subordinated debt
perfecting security interest on material U.S. based assets	organizational documents amendments

Mandatory prepayments are required if the outstanding revolving loans or facility letters of credit exceed the aggregate revolving credit commitments, including due to currency fluctuations if difference is greater than 105%, the excess loans must be repaid or facility letters of credit must be cash collateralized. Voluntary prepayments require one business day notice for floating rate loans in $1.0 or multiples thereof and three business days for euro currency rate loans in $5.0 or $1.0 multiples thereof. There is a prepayment premium with respect to the Term B Facility only. Until May 6, 2017, if there is a repricing event, where the Term B Facility is refinanced or amended to reduce the yield, there is a prepayment premium of 1.00% refinanced or amended. Other mandatory prepayments include incurrence of new debt outside what is allowed in the Credit Agreement, sale of certain assets beyond a de-minimis exception amount and depending on the net debt leverage, a percentage of "Excess Cash Flows" as defined in the Credit Agreement beginning with 2017 cash flows.

The Company incurred $28.0 and $39.2 of fees in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, related to the Credit Agreement and 2024 Senior Notes, which are amortized as a component of interest expense over the terms.

- (i) Upon completion of the fourth quarter compliance certificate, the anticipated interest rate index and margin will be LIBOR + 1.75%.
- (ii) LIBOR with a floor of 0.75%.
- (iii) EURIBOR with a floor of 0.75%.

Following the close of the Acquisition, the debt facilities under the Credit Agreement are secured by substantially all assets of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries that are borrowers or guarantors under the Credit Agreement, subject to certain exceptions and permitted liens.

In March 2006, the Company issued senior notes (2006 Senior Notes) in an aggregate principal amount of $300.0. The Company funded the repayment of $75.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2006 Senior Notes at maturity in March 2013 using borrowings under its revolving credit facility and the repayment of $175.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2006 Senior Notes that matured in March 2016 through the use of proceeds from the divestiture of the Company's NA electronic security business. Prepayment of the remaining $50.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2006 Senior Notes were paid in full on May 2, 2016. The prepayment included a make-whole premium of $3.9, which was paid in addition to the principal and interest of the 2006 Senior Notes and is included in interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

The Company's financing agreements contain various restrictive financial covenants, including net debt to capitalization, net debt to EBITDA and net interest coverage ratios. As of September 30, 2016, the Company was in compliance with the financial and other covenants within its debt agreements.

Restricted Cash

As a result of the Acquisition, the Company has no cash classified as restricted as of September 30, 2016. The restricted cash was used for the cash portion of the Acquisition, paying off existing debt and related interest, as well as any transaction costs pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement. The carrying value of restricted cash approximated its fair value and was included in cash flows from investing and financing activities until it was utilized for the Acquisition. Restricted cash in investing activities consisted of the proceeds from the debt borrowings related to the Acquisition. Restricted cash in financing activities consisted of the domestic net proceeds from the NA electronic security divestiture offset by the $175.0 and $50.0 payments of the 2006 Senior Notes during the first and second quarter of 2016, respectively.

Note 13: Benefit Plans

The Company has qualified pension plans covering certain U.S. employees that have been closed to new participants since 2003 and frozen since December 2013. Plans that cover salaried employees provide pension benefits based on the employee's compensation during the ten years before retirement. The Company's funding policy for salaried plans is to contribute annually based on actuarial projections and applicable regulations. Plans covering hourly employees generally provide benefits of stated amounts for each year of service. The Company's funding policy for hourly plans is to make at least the minimum annual contributions required by applicable regulations. Employees of the Company's operations in countries outside of the United States participate to varying degrees in local pension plans, which in the aggregate, are not significant.

The Company has non-qualified pension plans to provide supplemental retirement benefits to certain officers, which was also frozen since December 2013. Benefits are payable at retirement based upon a percentage of the participant's compensation, as defined. In addition to providing pension benefits, the Company provides post-retirement healthcare and life insurance benefits (referred to as other benefits) for certain retired employees. Currently, there are no plan assets and the Company funds the benefits as the claims are paid.

Eligible employees may be entitled to these benefits based upon years of service with the Company, age at retirement and collective bargaining agreements. Currently, the Company has made no commitments to increase these benefits for existing retirees.

After the Acquisition, the following plans, among others, were acquired by the Company:

In Germany, post-employment benefit plans are set up as employer funded pension plans and deferred compensation plans. The employer funded pension commitments in Germany are based upon direct performance-related commitments in terms of defined contribution plans. Each beneficiary receives, depending on individual pay-scale grouping, contractual classification, or income level, different yearly contributions. The contribution is multiplied by an age factor appropriate to the respective pension plan and credited to the individual retirement account of the employee. The retirement accounts may be used up at retirement by either a one-time lump-sum payout or payments of up to ten years. Insured events include disability, death and reaching of retirement age.

In Switzerland, the post-employment benefit plan is required due to statutory provisions. The employees receive their pension payments as a function of contributions paid, a fixed interest rate and annuity factors. Insured events are disability, death and reaching of retirement age.

The Netherlands' based career average pension plan is financed by employers and employees and managed by an external pension fund. Insured events are disability, death and reaching of retirement age.

Contributions

There have been no significant changes to the expected 2016 plan year contribution amounts previously disclosed, except for $2.0 of anticipated pension contributions related to the pension plans assumed as a result of the Acquisition. For the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, contributions of $3.5 and $12.9, respectively, were made to the qualified and non-qualified pension plans.

Note 14: Guarantees and Product Warranties

The Company provides its global operations guarantees and standby letters of credit through various financial institutions for suppliers, customers, regulatory agencies and insurance providers. If the Company is not able to make payment or fulfill contractual obligations, the suppliers, customers, regulatory agencies and insurance providers may draw on the pertinent bank. At September 30, 2016, the maximum future payment obligations related to these various guarantees totaled $186.7, of which $28.0 represented standby letters of credit to insurance providers, and no associated liability was recorded. At December 31, 2015, the maximum future payment obligations relative to these various guarantees totaled $89.9, of which $30.0 represented standby letters of credit to insurance providers, and no associated liability was recorded.

The Company provides its customers a manufacturer's warranty and records, at the time of the sale, a corresponding estimated liability for potential warranty costs. Estimated future obligations due to warranty claims are based upon historical factors such as labor rates, average repair time, travel time, number of service calls per machine and cost of replacement parts. As of September 30, 2016 and 2015, the Company's warranty liability balances were $106.5 and $77.3, respectively. The increase in the warranty liability was largely attributable to the acquired warranty accruals associated with the Acquisition, which was offset by an increase in currency translation in Brazil.

Note 15: Commitments and Contingencies

Contractual Obligations

At September 30, 2016, the Company had purchase commitments due within one year totaling $22.6 for materials through contract manufacturing agreements at negotiated prices.

Indirect Tax Contingencies

The Company accrues non-income-tax liabilities for indirect tax matters when management believes that a loss is probable and the amounts can be reasonably estimated, while contingent gains are recognized only when realized. In the event any losses are sustained in excess of accruals, they are charged against income. In evaluating indirect tax matters, management takes into consideration factors such as historical experience with matters of similar nature, specific facts and circumstances, and the likelihood of prevailing. Management evaluates and updates accruals as matters progress over time. It is reasonably possible that some of the matters for which accruals have not been established could be decided unfavorably to the Company and could require recognizing future expenditures. Also, statutes of limitations could expire without the Company paying the taxes for matters for which accruals have been established, which could result in the recognition of future gains upon reversal of these accruals at that time.

At September 30, 2016, the Company was a party to several routine indirect tax claims from various taxing authorities globally that were incurred in the normal course of business, which neither individually nor in the aggregate are considered material by management in relation to the Company's financial position or results of operations. In management's opinion, the consolidated financial statements would not be materially affected by the outcome of these indirect tax claims and/or proceedings or asserted claims.

In addition to these routine indirect tax matters, the Company was a party to the proceedings described below:

In August 2012, one of the Company's Brazil subsidiaries was notified of a tax assessment of approximately R$270.0, including penalties and interest, regarding certain Brazil federal indirect taxes (Industrialized Products Tax, Import Tax, Programa de Integração Social and Contribution to Social Security Financing) for 2008 and 2009. The assessment alleges improper importation of certain components into Brazil's free trade zone that would nullify certain indirect tax incentives. On September 10, 2012, the Company filed its administrative defenses with the tax authorities.

In response to an order by the administrative court, the tax inspector provided further analysis with respect to the initial assessment in December 2013 that indicates a potential exposure that is significantly lower than the initial tax assessment received in August 2012. This revised analysis has been accepted by the initial administrative court and lower level appellate court; however, this matter remains subject to ongoing administrative proceedings and appeals. Accordingly, the Company cannot provide any assurance that its exposure pursuant to the initial assessment will be lowered significantly or at all. In addition, this matter could negatively impact Brazil federal indirect taxes in other years that remain open under statute. It is reasonably possible that the Company could be required to pay taxes, penalties and interest related to this matter, which could be material to the Company's consolidated financial statements. The Company continues to defend itself in this matter.

The Company has challenged customs rulings in Thailand seeking to retroactively collect customs duties on previous imports of ATMs. Management believes that the customs authority's attempt to retroactively assess customs duties is in contravention of World Trade Organization agreements and, accordingly, is challenging the rulings. In the third quarter of 2015, the Company received a prospective ruling from the United States Customs Border Protection which is consistent with the Company's interpretation of the treaty in question. The Company has submitted that ruling for consideration in its ongoing dispute with Thailand. In August 2016, the tax court of appeals rendered a decision in favor of the Company related to approximately half of the assessments at issue. The remaining matters are currently in various stages of the appeals process and management continues to believe that the Company has a valid legal position in these appeals. Accordingly, the Company has not accrued any amount for this contingency; however, the Company cannot provide any assurance that it will not ultimately be subject to retroactive assessments.

At September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the Company had an accrual related to the Brazil indirect tax matter disclosed above of $9.2 and $7.5, respectively. The movement between periods relates to the currency fluctuation in the Brazil real.

A loss contingency is reasonably possible if it has a more than remote but less than probable chance of occurring. Although management believes the Company has valid defenses with respect to its indirect tax positions, it is reasonably possible that a loss could occur in excess of the estimated accrual. The Company estimated the aggregate risk at September 30, 2016 to be up to approximately $225.2 for its material indirect tax matters, of which $176.0 and $25.0, respectively, relates to the Brazil indirect tax matter and Thailand customs matter disclosed above. The aggregate risk related to indirect taxes is adjusted as the applicable statutes of limitations expire.

Legal Contingencies

At September 30, 2016, the Company was a party to several lawsuits that were incurred in the normal course of business, which neither individually nor in the aggregate are considered material by management in relation to the Company's financial position or results of operations. In management's opinion, the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements would not be materially affected by the outcome of these legal proceedings, commitments or asserted claims.

On October 22, 2013, the Company finalized a settlement agreement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and a Deferred Prosecution Agreement (DPA) with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) to settle charges arising from violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). Pursuant to those agreements, Diebold was required to retain an independent corporate monitor to review our compliance program, internal accounting controls, record-keeping, and financial reporting policies and procedures relating to the FCPA and other applicable anti-corruption laws. Since that time, the Company has made significant enhancements to its global ethics and compliance program. On October 24, 2016, the corporate monitor certified to the SEC and DOJ that our compliance program is reasonably designed and implemented to prevent and detect violations of anti-corruption laws. The DPA and the independent corporate monitorship expired on October 29, 2016. With the completion of the monitorship, the Company has fulfilled its obligations under the settlement agreements with the DOJ and SEC.

Note 16: Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company is exposed to certain risks arising from both its business operations and economic conditions. The Company principally manages its exposures to a wide variety of business and operational risks through management of its core business activities. The Company manages economic risks, including interest rate and foreign exchange rate risk, through the use of derivative financial instruments. Specifically, the Company enters into derivative financial instruments to manage exposures that arise from business activities that result in the receipt or payment of future known and uncertain cash amounts, the value of which are determined by interest rates. The Company's derivative financial instruments are used to manage differences in the amount, timing, and duration of the Company's known or expected cash receipts and its known or expected cash payments principally related to the Company's borrowings.

Certain of the Company's foreign operations expose the Company to fluctuations of foreign interest rates and exchange rates. These fluctuations may impact the value of the Company's cash receipts and payments in terms of the Company's functional currency. The Company enters into derivative financial instruments to protect the value or fix the amount of certain obligations in terms of its functional currency.

Foreign Exchange

Net Investment Hedges The Company has international subsidiaries with net balance sheet positions that generate cumulative translation adjustments within AOCI. The Company uses derivatives to manage potential changes in value of its net investments. The Company uses the forward-to-forward method for its quarterly retrospective and prospective assessments of hedge effectiveness. No ineffectiveness results if the notional amount of the derivative matches the portion of the net investment designated as being hedged because the Company uses derivative instruments with underlying exchange rates consistent with its functional currency and the functional currency of the hedged net investment. Changes in value that are deemed effective are accumulated in AOCI where they will remain until they are reclassified to income together with the gain or loss on the entire investment upon substantial liquidation of the subsidiary. The fair value of the Company's net investment hedge contracts were $0.9 and $1.0 as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively. The net gain (loss) recognized in AOCI on net investment hedge derivative instruments was $(0.6) and $6.2 in the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and $(12.1) and $11.3 in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

On August 15, 2016 the Company designated its €350.0 euro-denominated Term Loan B Facility as a net investment hedge of its investments in certain subsidiaries that use the Euro as their functional currency in order to reduce volatility in stockholders' equity caused by the changes in foreign currency exchange rates of the Euro with respect to the U.S. Dollar. The notes will bear interest at the EURIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.25 percent. Effectiveness will be assessed at least quarterly by confirming that the respective designated net investments' net equity balances at the beginning of any period collectively continues to equal or exceed the balance outstanding on the Company's Euro-denominated term loan. Changes in value that are deemed effective are accumulated in AOCI. When the respective net investments are sold or substantially liquidated, the balance of the cumulative translation adjustment in AOCI will be reclassified into earnings. The net gain (loss) recognized in AOCI on net investment hedge foreign currency borrowings was $(2.3) for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016.

Non-Designated Hedges A substantial portion of the Company's operations and revenues are international. As a result, changes in foreign exchange rates can create substantial foreign exchange gains and losses from the revaluation of non-functional currency monetary assets and liabilities. The Company's policy allows the use of foreign exchange forward contracts with maturities of up to 24 months to mitigate the impact of currency fluctuations on those foreign currency asset and liability balances. The Company elected not to apply hedge accounting to its foreign exchange forward contracts. Thus, spot-based gains/losses offset revaluation gains/losses within foreign exchange loss, net and forward-based gains/losses represent interest expense or income. The fair value of the Company's non-designated foreign exchange forward contracts was $0.3 and $0.9 as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively.

Cash Flow Hedges The Company is exposed to fluctuations in various foreign currencies against its functional currency. At the Company, both sales and purchases are transacted in foreign currencies. Wincor Nixdorf International GmbH is the Wincor Nixdorf currency management center. Currency risks in the aggregate are identified, quantified, and controlled at the Wincor Nixdorf International GmbH treasury center, and furthermore, it provides foreign currencies if necessary. The Wincor Nixdorf subsidiaries are primarily exposed to the USD and GBP as the EUR is its functional currency. This risk is considerably reduced by natural hedging (i.e. management of sales and purchases by choice location and suppliers). For the remainder of the risk that is not naturally hedged, foreign currency forwards are used to manage the exposure between EUR-GBP and EUR-USD.

Derivative transactions are recorded on the balance sheet at fair value. For transactions designated as cash flow hedges, the effective portion of changes in the fair value are recorded in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income and are subsequently reclassified into earnings in the period that the hedged forecasted transactions impact earnings. The ineffective portion of the change in fair value of the derivatives is recognized directly in earnings. As of September 30, 2016, the Company had the following outstanding foreign currency derivatives that were used to hedge its foreign exchange risks:

Foreign Currency Derivative	Number of Instruments	Notional Sold	Notional Purchased
Currency forward agreements (EUR-USD)	18	53.0USD	47.3 EUR
Currency forward agreements (EUR-GBP)	13	40.7GBP	51.6 EUR

The remaining net currency risk not hedged by forward currency transactions amounts to approximately $16.4 and £10.2 for nine months ended September 30, 2016. The flows of foreign currency are recorded centrally for Wincor Nixdorf and, where feasible, equalized out. No foreign currency options were transacted during the current and previous year. If the euro had been revalued and devalued respectively by 10% against the U.S. dollar the other components of equity (before deferred taxes) and the fair value of forward currency transactions would have been €4.3 higher, and €5.1 lower, respectively for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. If the euro had been revalued and devalued respectively by 10% against pounds sterling as of September 30, 2015, the other components of equity (before deferred taxes) and the fair value of forward currency transactions would have been €4.3 higher, and €5.2 lower, respectively for the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

Foreign Currency Option and Forward Contracts - acquisition related On November 23, 2015, the Company entered into two foreign currency option contracts to purchase €1,416.0 for $1,547.1 to hedge against the effect of exchange rate fluctuations on the euro-denominated cash consideration related to the Acquisition and estimated euro-denominated transaction related costs and any outstanding Wincor Nixdorf borrowings. At that time, the euro-denominated cash component of the purchase price consideration approximated €1,162.2. The foreign currency option contracts were sold during the second quarter of 2016 for cash proceeds of $42.6, which are included in investing activities in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows, resulting in a gain of $35.6 during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and $7.0 during the fourth quarter of 2015. The weighted average strike price was $1.09 per euro. These foreign currency option contracts were non-designated and included in other current assets on the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2015 based on the net asset position.

On April 29, 2016, the Company entered into one foreign currency forward contract to purchase €713.0 for $820.9 to hedge against the effect of exchange rate fluctuations on the euro-denominated cash consideration related to the Acquisition and estimated euro denominated transaction related costs and any outstanding Wincor Nixdorf borrowings. The forward rate is $1.1514. The foreign currency forward contract was settled for $792.6 during the third quarter of 2016, which is included in investing activities in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows, resulting in a loss of $26.3 during the nine months ended September 30, 2016. This foreign currency forward contract is non-designated and included in other current assets or other current liabilities based on the net asset or net liability position, respectively, in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. The gains and losses from the revaluation of the foreign currency forward contract are included in other income (expense) miscellaneous, net on the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, the Company recorded a $(3.6) and $9.3, respectively, mark-to-market gain (loss) on foreign currency and forward option contracts reflected in miscellaneous, net. The fair value of the Company's foreign currency forward and option contracts were nothing and $7.0 as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively, and are included in other current liabilities and other current assets, respectively.

Interest Rate

Cash Flow Hedges The Company has variable rate debt that is subject to fluctuations in interest related cash flows due to changes in market interest rates. In order to add stability to interest expense and to manage exposure to interest rate movements, the Company primarily uses interest rate swaps as part of its risk management strategy. Interest rate swaps designated as cash flow hedges involve the receipt of variable amounts from a counterparty in exchange for the Company making fixed-rate payments over the life of the agreements without exchange of the underlying notational amount.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives designated and that qualify as cash flow hedges is recorded in AOCI and is subsequently reclassified into earnings in the period that the hedged forecasted transactions affect earnings. The ineffective portion of the change in fair value of the derivatives is recognized directly in earnings. As of September 30, 2016 the Company had no ineffectiveness. The fair value of the Company's interest rate contracts was minimal as of December 31, 2015.

In June 2016, the Company paid off its pay-fixed receive-variable interest rate swap. As a result, the Company had no pay-fixed receive-variable interest rate swaps outstanding as of September 30, 2016. In November 2016, the Company entered into multiple pay-fixed receive-variable interest rate swaps outstanding with an aggregate notional amount of $400.0.

In connection with the Acquisition, the Company acquired an interest swap for a nominal sum of €50.0, which was entered into in May 2010 with a ten-year term from October 1, 2010 until September 30, 2020. For this interest swap, the three-month EURIBOR is received and a fixed interest of 2.974% is paid. The fair value, which is measured at market prices, is €(8.1) and, because this swap was accounted for as a cash flow hedge, has been directly recognized in the other components of equity, having taken into account deferred taxes. For the three and nine months ending September 30, 2016 the amount reclassified from equity to profit or loss was not significant. The remaining net interest risk not hedged amounts to approximately €15.0 and may be, overall, regarded as minor due to the current interest environment.

In December 2005 and January 2006, the Company executed cash flow hedges by entering into pay-fixed receive-variable interest rate swaps, with a total notional amount of $200.0, related to the 2006 Senior Notes. Amounts previously recorded in AOCI related to the pre-issuance cash flow hedges were reclassified to interest expense on a straight-line basis through February 2016.

The gain recognized on designated cash flow hedge derivative instruments was minimal for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, and $0.2 and $0.5 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively. Gains and losses related to interest rate contracts that are reclassified from AOCI are recorded in interest expense on the condensed consolidated statements of operations. The Company does not anticipate reclassifying any amount from AOCI to interest expense within the next 12 months.

Multi-Year Transformation Plan

During the first quarter of 2013, the Company announced a multi-year transformation plan. Certain aspects of this plan were previously disclosed under the Company's global realignment plan and global shared services plan. This multi-year transformation focuses on globalizing the Company's service organization and creating a unified center-led global organization for research and development, as well as transforming the Company's general and administrative cost structure. Restructuring charges of $4.3 and $7.6 for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and $9.7 and $17.8 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, related to the Company's multi-year transformation plan. As of September 30, 2016, the restructuring accrual balance consists of severance restructuring activities in connection with the multi-year transformation plan. As of September 30, 2016, the Company anticipates minimal additional restructuring costs to be incurred through the end of 2016 in connection with the multi-year transformation plan. As management finalizes certain aspects of the transformation plan, the anticipated future costs related to this plan are subject to change.

Delta Program

At the beginning of the 2015, Wincor Nixdorf initiated the Delta Program related to restructuring and realignment. As part of a change process that will span several years, the Delta Program is designed to hasten the expansion of software and professional services operations and to further enhance profitability in the services business. This program includes expansion in the high-end fields of as managed services and outsourcing. It also involves capacity adjustments on the hardware side, enabling the Company to respond more effectively to market volatility while maintaining its abilities with innovation. As of August 15, 2016, the date of the Acquisition, the restructuring accrual balance acquired was $45.5 and consisted of severance activities. The Company incurred restructuring charges of $3.1 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 related to this plan. As of September 30, 2016, the Company does not anticipate additional restructuring costs to be incurred through the end of the plan.

Impairment and Other Charges

During the first quarter of 2015, the Company recorded an impairment of certain capitalized software of $9.1 related to redundant legacy Diebold software as a result of the acquisition of Phoenix. In addition, the Company agreed to sell its equity interest in its Venezuela joint venture to its joint venture partner and recorded a $10.3 impairment of assets in the first quarter of 2015. On April 29, 2015, the Company closed the sale for the estimated fair market value and recorded a $1.0 reversal of impairment of assets based on final adjustments in the second quarter of 2015, resulting in a $9.3 impairment of assets for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 (refer to note 20).

Other charges consist of items that the Company has determined are non-routine in nature and are not expected to recur in future operations. Net non-routine expense of $127.2 and $159.5 impacted the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, and $4.3 and $14.3 impacted the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively. Net non-routine expense was partially due to legal, indemnification and professional fees related to corporate monitor efforts. Additionally, net non-routine expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 included acquisition, divestiture and integration related fees and expenses of $75.1 and $100.6, respectively, within selling and administrative expense.

Note 19: Segment Information

The Company considers its operating structure and the information subject to regular review by its Chief Executive Officer, who is the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM), to identify reportable operating segments. The CODM makes decisions, allocates resources and assesses performance by the following regions, which are also the Company's four reportable operating segments: NA, AP, EMEA and LA. The four geographic segments sell and service FSS, retail and security systems around the globe, as well as elections, lottery and information technology solutions in Brazil other, through wholly-owned subsidiaries, majority-owned joint ventures and independent distributors in most major countries.

Certain information not routinely used in the management of the segments, information not allocated back to the segments or information that is impractical to report is not shown. Segment operating profit is defined as revenues less expenses identifiable to those segments. Segment operating profit reconciles to consolidated income before income taxes by deducting corporate costs and other income or expense items that are not attributed to the segments (refer to note 18). Total assets are not allocated to segments and are not included in the assessment of segment performance and therefore are excluded from the segment information disclosed as follows.

The following tables represent information regarding the Company's segment information and provides a reconciliation between segment operating profit and the consolidated income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes:

In August 2016, in connection with the business combination agreement related to the Acquisition, the Company announced the realignment of its lines of business to drive greater efficiency and further improve customer service. As a result of the Acquisition, the Company has reorganized the management team reporting to the CODM and has begun evaluating and assessing the lines of business reporting structure. The Company does not anticipate the assessment to be completed until the first quarter of 2017. Beginning with the first quarter of 2017, the Company anticipates its reportable operating segments will be based on the conclusion of the assessment on the following lines of business: Software, Systems, and Services and will reclassify comparative periods for consistency. Until such assessment is completed, the CODM will continue to regularly review, make decisions, allocate resources and assess performance based on the current regional reportable operating segments.

Note 20: Divestitures

In December 2015, the Company announced it was forming a new joint venture with a subsidiary of the Inspur Group, a Chinese cloud computing and data center company, to develop, manufacture and distribute FSS solutions in China. The Inspur Group will hold a majority stake of 51.0 percent in the new joint venture, which will be named Inspur (Suzhou) Financial Technology Service Co. Ltd. (Inspur JV). The Inspur JV will offer a complete range of self-service terminals within the Chinese market, including ATMs. The Company will serve as the exclusive distributor outside of China for all products developed by the Inspur JV, which will be sold under the Diebold brand. The Company will not consolidate Inspur JV once the joint venture is formed and will include its results of operations in equity in earnings of an investee included in other (expense) income of the condensed consolidated statements of operations. In November 2016, the Inspur JV was formed and the Company does not expect a significant gain or loss from the transaction.

In addition, to support Diebold's services-led approach to the market, the Inspur Group will acquire a minority share of Diebold's current China joint venture. Moving forward, this business will be focused on providing a whole suite of services, including installation, maintenance, professional and managed services related to ATMs and other automated transaction solutions.

During the third quarter of 2016, the Company received cash proceeds of $27.7 related to the sale of stock in its Aevi International GmbH and Wincor Nixdorf China subsidiaries. In addition to the cash proceeds, the Company obtained receivables of $44.7 for the divestiture of its Wincor Nixdorf China subsidiaries. The Wincor Nixdorf China sale was reflected in the opening balance sheet and no gain or loss was recorded. The Wincor Nixdorf China sale was in connection with the June 2016, Wincor Nixdorf announcement to establish a joint venture with Aisino Corporation, to position itself in China to offer solutions that meet Chinese banking regulations. Aisino Corporation is a Chinese company that specializes in intelligent anti-forgery tax control systems, electronic fund transfer (EFT) point of sale (POS) solutions, financial IC cards, bill receipt printing solutions and public IT security solutions. The joint venture (Aisino JV) with Wincor Nixdorf in China will develop, produce and market IT solutions for banking and retail companies in China. Operating under the name Aisino Wincor, the Aisino JV will offer banks and retailers an extensive range of hardware, software and services. The Aisino JV's comprehensive portfolio comprises POS systems and self-checkout solutions for the retail segment as well as self-service solutions for the banking segment. Banking solutions include ATMs, cash recycling systems and the software necessary to operate the systems. The Aisino JV's portfolio will also extend to offering the banking segment end-to-end services that help customers manage their self-service networks. These professional and managed services range from deployment and project management to life-cycle maintenance. Following the closing of the transaction, the Company will hold a noncontrolling interest in the Aisino JV of 43.6 percent. The Company will include the Aisino results of operations in equity in earnings of an investee included in other income (expense) of the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

On October 25, 2015, the Company entered into a definitive asset purchase agreement with a wholly owned subsidiary of Securitas AB (Securitas Electronic Security) to divest its NA electronic security business located in the United States and Canada for an aggregate purchase price of $350.0 in cash, 10.0 percent of which was contingent based on the successful transition of certain customer relationships. The Company received the full payment of $35.0 in the first quarter of 2016 as all contingencies for this payment were achieved. For the NA electronic security business to continue its growth, it would have required resources and investment that the Company was not committed to make given its focus on the self-service market. The closing of the NA electronic security divestiture occurred on February 1, 2016 and the Company recorded a gain on sale, net of tax, of $(4.6) and $145.0 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively. The closing purchase price was subject to a customary working capital adjustment, which was finalized in the third quarter of 2016. The purchase agreement provides for customary representations, warranties, covenants and agreements.

The Company also agreed to provide certain transition services to Securitas Electronic Security after the closing, including providing Securitas Electronic Security a $6.0 credit for such services, of which $5.0 relates to a quarterly payment to Securitas Electronic Security and $1.0 is a credit against payments due from Securitas Electronic Security. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, $1.3 and $3.8, respectively, were paid as part of the quarterly payments and for the nine months ended September 30, 2016, $1.0 were used against amounts owed by Securitas Electronic Security.

The operating results for the NA electronic security business were previously included in the Company's NA segment and have been reclassified to discontinued operations for all of the periods presented. The assets and liabilities of this business were classified as held for sale in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2015. Cash flows provided or used by the NA electronic security business are presented as cash flows from discontinued operations for all of the periods presented.

As of December 31, 2015 all assets and liabilities classified as held for sale were included in total current assets based on the cash conversion of these assets and liabilities during the first quarter of 2016. The cash and cash equivalents of the NA electronic security business represents outstanding checks as of December 31, 2015.

During the first quarter of 2015, the Company agreed to sell its equity interest in its Venezuela joint venture to its joint venture partner and recorded a $10.3 impairment of assets. On April 29, 2015, the Company closed the sale for the estimated fair market value and recorded a $1.0 reversal of impairment of assets based on final adjustments in the second quarter of 2015, resulting in a $9.3 impairment of assets for the nine months ended September 30, 2015. During the remainder of 2015, the Company incurred an additional $0.4 related to uncollectible accounts receivable, which is included in selling and administrative expense on the consolidated statements of operations.

Prior to the sale, the Company's Venezuela operations consisted of a fifty-percent owned subsidiary, which was consolidated. Venezuela was measured using the U.S. dollar as its functional currency because its economy is considered highly inflationary. On February 10, 2015, the Venezuela government introduced a new foreign currency exchange platform called the Marginal Currency System, or SIMADI, which replaced the SICAD 2 mechanism, yielding another significant increase in the exchange rate. As of March 31, 2015, management determined it was unlikely that the Company would be able to convert bolivars under a currency exchange other than SIMADI and remeasured its Venezuela balance sheet using the SIMADI rate of 192.95 compared to the previous SICAD 2 rate of 50.86, which resulted in a loss of $7.5 recorded within foreign exchange loss, net in the condensed consolidated statements of operations in the first quarter of 2015.

Note 21: Supplemental Guarantor Information

The Company issued the 2024 Senior Notes in an offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act in connection with the Acquisition. The 2024 Senior Notes are and will be guaranteed by certain of the Company's existing and future domestic subsidiaries. The following presents the condensed consolidating financial information separately for:

- (i) Diebold, Incorporated (the Parent Company), the issuer of the guaranteed obligations;
- (ii) Guarantor Subsidiaries, on a combined basis, as specified in the indentures related to the Company's obligations under the 2024 Senior Notes;
 - Consolidating entries and eliminations representing adjustments to (a) eliminate intercompany transactions
- (iii) between the Parent Company, the Guarantor Subsidiaries and the Non-guarantor Subsidiaries, (b) eliminate the investments in our subsidiaries, and (c) record consolidating entries; and
- (iv) Diebold, Incorporated and Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

Each guarantor subsidiary is 100% owned by the Parent Company at the date of each balance sheet presented. The notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a joint and several basis by each guarantor subsidiary. The guarantees of the guarantor subsidiaries are subject to release in limited circumstances only upon the occurrence of certain customary conditions. Each entity in the consolidating financial information follows the same accounting policies as described in the consolidated financial statements, except for the use by the Parent Company and the guarantor subsidiaries of the equity method of accounting to reflect ownership interests in subsidiaries which are eliminated upon consolidation. Changes in intercompany receivables and payables related to operations, such as intercompany sales or service charges, are included in cash flows from operating activities. Intercompany transactions reported as investing or financing activities include the sale of capital stock of various subsidiaries, loans and other capital transactions between members of the consolidated group.

Certain non-guarantor subsidiaries of the Parent Company are limited in their ability to remit funds to it by means of dividends, advances or loans due to required foreign government and/or currency exchange board approvals or limitations in credit agreements or other debt instruments of those subsidiaries.

Item 2: Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

Management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes that appear within this quarterly report on Form 10-Q.

Introduction

Diebold, Incorporated and its subsidiaries provides the services, software and technology that enable connected commerce for millions of consumers each day across the financial and retail industries. The Company's software-defined solutions bridge the physical and digital worlds of cash and consumer transactions conveniently, securely and efficiently. As an innovation partner for nearly all of the world's top 100 financial institutions and a majority of the top 25 global retailers, the Company delivers unparalleled services and technology that are essential to evolve in an 'always on' and changing consumer landscape.

Since its founding in 1859, the Company has evolved to become a leading provider of exceptional self-service innovation, retail solutions, security and services. As a result of the Acquisition, the Company has significantly increased its presence around the world with operations in more than 130 countries with approximately 25,000 employees worldwide. In conjunction with the close of the Acquisition, the Company introduced the new Diebold Nixdorf brand to customers, employees and shareholders.

The Company has launched the integration of operations designed to realize approximately $160 million of annual synergies by 2019. This integration plan focuses on the utilization of cost efficiencies and synergy opportunities that result from the Acquisition. The Company continues to execute its multi-year transformation with the primary objective of transforming the Company into a world-class, services-led and software-enabled Company, supported by innovative hardware. The Company anticipates approximately $130 - $160 of costs to be incurred through 2019 in connection with the execution of the integration plan.

Financial Self-Service Solutions

The Company is a leader in managed and maintenance services with a dedicated service network serving its customers across the globe. The combination of the Company's differentiated security, remote management and highly-trained field technicians has made the Company a preferred choice for current and emerging self-service solutions. Through managed services, banks entrust the management of their ATM and security operations to the Company, allowing their associates to focus on core competencies. Furthermore, the Company's managed services provide financial institutions with a leading-edge solutions that they need to stay competitive in the marketplace.

A significant demand driver in the global ATM marketplace is branch automation, which helps financial institutions grow revenue, reduce costs, and increase convenience and security for the banks' customers by migrating routine transactions, typically done inside the branch, to lower-cost automated channels. The Company serves as a strategic partner to its customers by offering a complete branch automation solution - services, software and technology - that addresses the complete value chain of consult, design, build and operate. The Company's Advisory Services team collaborates with its clients to help define the ideal customer experience, modify processes, refine existing staffing models and deploy technology to meet branch automation objectives. The in-lobby teller terminal (ILT) provides branch automation technology by combining the speed and accuracy of a self-service terminal with intelligence from the bank's core systems, as well as the ability to complete higher value transactions away from the teller line.

The Company also offers hardware-agnostic, omni-channel software solutions for ATMs and a host of other self-service applications. These offerings include highly configurable, enterprise-wide software that automates and migrates financial services across channels, changing the way financial products are delivered to consumers.

The Company continues to invest in supporting current and developing new services, software and security solutions that align with the needs of its customers. At the Money 20/20 conference in October 2016, the Company showcased several new FSS concepts. Diebold is piloting advanced analytics capabilities with Banco Popular that enable financial institutions to have a complete view of the self-service channel and improve ATM uptime by anticipating maintenance needs. Additionally, the Company introduced the new Extreme ATM concept - the smallest ATM ever developed - which utilizes a cardless Bluetooth-enabled mobile interface.

Retail Solutions

The Company's retail solutions primarily consist of omni-channel retailing, store transformation and global delivery excellence. Omni-channel retailing ensures a seamless consumer experience across all consumer touchpoints. Store transformation is focused on providing leading technologies that improve consumer experience and productivity. Global delivery excellence drives operational improvements that increase efficiency while reducing costs. The Company differentiates itself by developing, delivering and operating globally integrated IT solutions for customers and adjusting them with the help of local experts to meet customer requirements globally. For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2015 retail solution revenues were €845.4 as reported using IFRS issued by the EU.

Software is a key differentiator for the retail business and in this sector the Company provides a comprehensive, modular solutions platform. Click & collect, reserve & collect, in-store ordering and return to store are typical shopping processes that consumers expect retailers to be able to deliver across their footprint and digital sales channels. With TP.net, the Company offers a comprehensive software solution to improve end-to-end store processes in support of omni-channel retailing. TP.net and the other components of the TP Application Suite are designed on a modular principle and can be integrated fully or partially into existing infrastructures. Data from typical information sources such as inventories, omni-channel transactions and customer information are available at the customer touchpoints in stores, including traditional POS terminals and self-service checkout systems, kiosk terminals and mobile devices like tablets, as well as at enterprise functions at the retailers' headquarter.

Retail service experts are trained to install, monitor and operate store IT solutions on a global scale and provide retail companies with full service support throughout the store's lifecycle. The service experts can install and operate multi-vendor solutions. Retailers that aim to optimize their total cost of ownership utilize the Company's services to increase system availability. The services ensure the rapid recovery of system failures and are provided on-site by field service engineers or by means of remote maintenance. The Company also provides cash cycle management services, which ensures the availability of cash recycling systems in both the front and back-offices.

The Company also provides innovative and reliable POS technology that is being optimized continually to meet increasing automation requirements and to support omni-channel retailing. The checkout portfolio includes modular, integrated and mobile POS systems. Supplementing the POS systems is a broad range of peripherals, including printers, scales and mobile scanners, as well as the cash management portfolio which offers a wide range of banknote and coin processing systems. Also in the portfolio, the Company provides self-checkout terminals that ensure a consistent purchasing experience with their focus on speed, convenience and flexibility. The latest hybrid product generation can be switched from attended operation to self-checkout by the cashier with the press of a button and is thus a highly attractive solution for retailers with fluctuating store traffic throughout the day.

Business Drivers

The business drivers of the Company's future performance include, but are not limited to:

- demand for services and software, including managed services and professional services;
- timing of equipment upgrades and/or replacement cycles;
- demand for products and solutions related to branch and store transformation;
- demand for security products and services for the financial, retail and commercial sectors; and high levels of deployment growth for new self-service products in emerging markets.

Significant Highlights

During the third quarter of 2016, the following significant items occurred:

- Completed the acquisition of Wincor Nixdorf on August 15, 2016 within the company's expected timing, after receiving final required regulatory approvals
- Completed our corporate monitorship, demonstrating strengthened internal controls, compliance policies and processes
- Re-building competitive position in China, finalizing previously disclosed joint ventures with prominent China-based IT providers Aisino and Inspur

During the third quarter of 2016, the Company received cash proceeds of $27.7 related to the sale of stock in its Aevi International GmbH and Wincor Nixdorf China subsidiaries. In addition to the cash proceeds, the Company obtained receivables of $44.7 for the divestiture of its Wincor Nixdorf China subsidiaries.

On October 25, 2015, the Company entered into a definitive asset purchase agreement with Securitas Electronic Security to divest its electronic security business located in the United States and Canada for an aggregate purchase price of $350.0 in cash, 10.0 percent of which was contingent based on the successful transition of certain customer relationships. The Company received the full payment of $35.0 in the first quarter of 2016 now that all contingencies for this payment have been achieved. For the NA electronic security business to continue its growth, it would require resources and investment that the Company was not committed to make given its focus on the self-service market. The closing of the NA electronic security divestiture occurred on February 1, 2016 and the Company recorded a gain on sale, net of tax, of $(4.6) and $145.0 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016. The Company also agreed to provide certain transition services to Securitas Electronic Security after the closing, including providing Securitas Electronic Security a $6.0 credit for such services, of which $5.0 relates to a quarterly payment to Securitas Electronic Security and $1.0 is a credit against payments due from Securitas Electronic Security. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, $1.3 and $3.8, respectively, were paid as part of the quarterly payments and $1.0 during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was used against amounts owed by Securitas Electronic Security. The operating results for the NA electronic security business were previously included in the Company's NA segment and have been reclassified to discontinued operations for all of the periods presented.

On March 13, 2015, the Company acquired all of the equity interests of Phoenix for a total purchase price of $72.9, including $12.6 of deferred cash payment payable over the next three years. Acquiring Phoenix, a leader in developing innovative multi-vendor software solutions for ATMs and a host of other FSS applications, is a foundational move to accelerate the Company's growth in the fast-growing managed services and branch automation spaces. The results of operations for Phoenix are primarily included in NA within the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements from the date of the acquisition.

Results of Operations

The following discussion of the Company's financial condition and results of operations provides information that will assist in understanding the financial statements and the changes in certain key items in those financial statements. FSS sales in the three months ended September 30, 2016 increased $187.0 or 36.7 percent compared to the same period of 2015, including net unfavorable currency impact of $2.6. FSS sales in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $63.7 or 4.1 percent compared to the same period of 2015, including net unfavorable currency impact of $47.4 or 3.0 percent. The Acquisition accounted for $231.7 in FSS sales. FSS revenue in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 was negatively impacted $2.9 related to purchase accounting adjustments. The following results include the impact of foreign currency and purchase accounting adjustments:

NA FSS sales in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $30.1 and $0.9 or 14.2 and 0.1 percent, respectively, compared to the prior year periods. Unfavorable currency impact of $4.1 negatively influenced the nine months ended September 30, 2016 related to the Canada dollar. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $18.9 and currency, FSS sales in the three months ended September 30, 2016 increased as a result of higher installation services revenue correlated with increased product sales as a result of our national customer portfolio. Additionally, maintenance service revenue was favorably impacted as a result of increased multi-vendor service contracts. These increases were partially offset by lower product revenue in the U.S. regional bank space related to the completion of the Agilis 3/Windows 7 upgrade activity and lower volume in Canada as a result of a large deposit automation upgrade project that ended in the third quarter of 2015. FSS sales in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased compared to the prior year period related to the aforementioned decline in product revenue in the U.S. regional bank space and Canada. Additionally, overall lower installation revenue related to the decline in product revenue adversely impacted the nine-month period. These declines were partially offset by higher maintenance service revenue related to an increase in multi-vendor service contracts.

AP FSS sales in the three months ended September 30, 2016 increased $12.0 or 11.5 percent. FSS sales in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased $40.9 or 12.9 percent compared to the prior year. Unfavorable currency impact mainly related to the China renminbi and India rupee of $3.3 and $15.1 negatively influenced the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $45.5 and currency, the decrease in both periods was largely attributable to a decline in product revenue stemming from lower volume primarily in China, where the government continues to encourage banks to increase their use of domestic ATM suppliers. India also contributed to the decline due to lower product sales volume and the correlating installation service revenue along with a decrease in managed services revenue compared to the prior periods.

EMEA FSS sales in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $137.6 and $136.4 or 153.8 and 48.3 percent, respectively, compared to the prior year periods. Unfavorable currency impact mainly related to the South Africa rand, Great Britain pound and Turkey lira of $2.4 and $11.6 negatively impacted the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $158.6 and currency, FSS product revenue decreased in both the three- and nine-month periods as a result of large projects in the prior year that did not recur, primarily in Turkey, combined with lower product volume within our distributor channels as well as in Italy and Poland. A significant increase in product volume in Spain, in the three- and nine- month periods, and in Switzerland, in the nine-month period, helped to partially offset the overall decline in product revenue. In the three months ended September 30, 2016, FSS service revenue decreased slightly related to a decline in service parts sales volume. Conversely, FSS service revenue was higher in the nine-month period due to incremental installation services projects in France and Switzerland.

LA FSS sales in the three months ended September 30, 2016 increased $7.3 or 7.1 percent inclusive of a $3.1 favorable currency impact related to the Brazil real. FSS sales in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased $32.7 or 10.6 percent compared to the prior year period. Unfavorable currency impact of $16.8 related to the Brazil real negatively impacted the nine months ended September 30, 2016. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $8.7 and currency, the decrease in the three-month period was primarily the result of a product volume decline in Mexico and Colombia related to large non-recurring projects in the prior year. These increases were partially offset by higher product volume in Brazil, an increase in service revenue related to incremental maintenance service contracts in Mexico and Colombia and improved contract pricing on existing service maintenance contracts in Brazil. The decrease in the nine months ended September 30, 2016, was principally a result of product volume declines in Brazil, Central America, Colombia and Chile that were partially offset by higher volume in regional distributor channels.

Retail sales in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 were $173.6 as a result of the Acquisition.

Security sales in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased $8.5 and $20.6 or 11.4 and 9.4 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods in 2015. Favorable currency impact of $0.2 positively impacted the three month time period while unfavorable currency impact of $1.7 negatively influenced the nine months ended September 30, 2016, both primarily related to the Brazil real. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition and currency, the NA physical security business decreased in both the three- and nine- month periods due to a decline in service contract base and product volume declines more heavily weighted in the national bank space when compared to the prior year. The electronic security business declined in both periods primarily in LA attributable to lower sales in Chile, Colombia and Ecuador, which was partially offset by the transition services revenue in NA as a sub-contractor to Securitas.

Brazil other sales in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $41.6 and $47.3, respectively due to an increase in election equipment sales and a reduction in information technology sales compared to the same prior year periods. Favorable currency impact of $0.9 positively influenced the three months ended September 30, 2016 while the nine-month period was adversely impacted $2.5 related to unfavorable currency.

Total gross margin	20.1	% 25.5	%	23.7	% 26.6	%

Service gross margins for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 were lower due to the impact of the Acquisition as well as declines in AP related to customer mix in addition to service level agreement penalties in the region. Additionally, NA was unfavorably impacted in the three-month period due to retro-active contract amendments and customer service level agreement penalties. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition, EMEA and LA partially offset these declines driven primarily by favorable revenue and customer mix as well as improved cost controls. In the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, service gross profit included non-routine charges of $2.4 related to purchase accounting adjustments associated with the Acquisition. Service gross profit in the three- and nine-month periods also included restructuring charges of $0.8 and $2.5, respectively. The three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 included restructuring charges of $1.6 and $2.7, respectively.

Product gross margin for the three months ended September 30, 2016 compared to the same period in 2015 decreased as a result of purchase accounting adjustments associated with the Acquisition, primarily related to inventory revaluation. Purchase accounting adjustments included a $2.4 reduction in product revenue and an increase in product cost of sales of $38.7, primarily related to the valuation adjustment of acquired inventory balances. In addition, product gross profit included other non-routine charges of $0.9 and $1.5 in the three- and nine-month periods, respectively. The three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 included restructuring charges of $1.6, compared to $0.2 and $1.4 in the comparable periods of 2015, respectively. Excluding the impact of non-routine and restructuring, product gross profit in the three months ended September 30, 2016 increased due to incremental gross profit in EMEA and AP associated with the Acquisition. Offsetting this increase, NA product gross margin declined due to unfavorable customer and product solution mix. In the nine months ended September 30, 2016, excluding the impact of non-routine and restructuring charges, product gross profit was relatively flat due to the favorable impact of the Acquisition which was partially offset by lower volume combined with an unfavorable blend of country revenue, customer and product solution mix in AP, NA and EMEA. Additionally, the nine-month period was impacted by the deteriorating market conditions in China.

Operating Expenses

The following table represents information regarding our operating expenses:

	Three Months Ended			Nine Months Ended
	September 30,			September 30,
	2016	2015	% Change	2016	2015	% Change
Selling and administrative expense	$253.5	$117.8	N/M	$506.4	$363.2	39.4
Research, development and engineering expense	31.3	20.0	56.5	67.4	66.2	1.8
Impairment of assets	—	—	N/M	—	18.9	N/M
(Gain) loss on sale of assets, net	(0.5)	0.1	N/M	(0.2)	(1.4)	N/M
Total operating expenses	$284.3	$137.9	N/M	$573.6	$446.9	28.4

Excluding the impact of incremental expense associated with the Acquisition, the increase in selling and administrative expense in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 compared to the same periods of 2015 primarily resulted from higher non-routine charges. These increases were partially offset by favorable selling expense primarily related to the recovery of bad debt expense in Brazil, a decrease in sales commission expense, lower IT and marketing expense tied to transformation initiatives and a favorable currency impact.

Non-routine expenses in selling and administrative expense of $81.9 and $4.0 were included in the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The primary component of the non-routine expenses in the three months ended September 30, 2016 pertained to acquisition and divestiture costs totaling $73.8. Selling and administrative expense included restructuring charges of $5.0 and $5.8 in the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Non-routine expenses of $113.6 and $13.5 were included in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The primary component of the non-routine expenses in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 pertained to acquisition and divestiture costs totaling $99.2 as well as $5.4 of legal, indemnification and professional fees related to the corporate monitor. Selling and administrative expense included restructuring charges of $8.6 and $13.1 in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Research, development and engineering expense as a percent of net sales in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 were 3.2 percent and 3.3 percent, respectively, compared with the same periods in 2015, which were 3.3 percent and 3.7 percent, respectively. Excluding the impact of acquisitions, research and development expense decreased in both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 primarily as a result of lower reinvestment associated with the maturity of the Company's transformation initiatives compared to the same prior year periods.

The (gain) loss on sale of assets in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 was primarily due to the sale of a building in NA.

The change in operating profit for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 compared to the same periods in 2015 were due to a decline in product gross profit primarily associated with the inventory valuation adjustment from the Acquisition and higher operating expenses. These operating expenses included amortization of acquired intangible assets and costs of acquisitions and divestitures.

Other Income (Expense)

The following table represents information regarding our other income (expense), net:

	Three Months Ended September 30,			Nine Months Ended September 30,

Other income (expense), net	$(29.3)	$(2.7)	N/M	$(49.7)	$(14.4)	N/M

The decrease in interest income in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, compared with the same period in 2015, was driven primarily by a decrease in customer financing in Brazil. Interest income in the three-month period was favorably impacted by currency of $0.4 while the nine-month period was negatively impacted by currency of $1.9. Interest expense in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 was higher than the prior year periods associated with the financing required for the Acquisition. The foreign exchange gain, net for the three months ended September 30, 2016 was relatively flat compared to 2015. Additionally, during the nine months ended September 30, 2015, foreign exchange loss, net included $7.5 related to the devaluation of Venezuela currency. Miscellaneous, net in the three months ended September 30, 2016 included a mark-to market loss of $3.6 associated with the Company's foreign currency forward contract entered into on April 29, 2016. In addition, the nine months ended September 30, 2016 included a mark-to-market gain of $35.6 associated with the Company's foreign currency option contracts entered into on November 23, 2015, a mark-to-market loss of $26.3 associated with the Company's foreign currency forward contract entered into on April 29, 2016 and $6.3 in financing fees related to the Company's bridge financing required for the Acquisition.

Income (Loss) From Continuing Operations, Net of Tax

The following table represents information regarding our income (loss) from continuing operations, net of tax:

	Three Months Ended September 30,			Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2016	2015	% Change	2016	2015	% Change
Income (loss) from continuing operations, net of tax	$(97.2)	$18.2	N/M	$(97.3)	$27.8	N/M
Percent of net sales	(9.9)%	3.1 %		(4.7)%	1.5 %
Effective tax rate	16.2 %	(87.6)%		26.2 %	(46.3)%

Income (loss) from continuing operations, net of tax was $(97.2) and $18.2 for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and was $(97.3) and $27.8 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The decrease is primarily due to the reasons described above and the change in income tax (benefit) expense.

The tax rate benefit on the loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 was negatively impacted due to the recognition of unfavorable discrete items and expenses relating to the Acquisition. The tax rate benefit on the loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was also impacted by the favorable release of an uncertain tax position due to the expiration of the statute of limitations. The rates for both periods were also negatively impacted by an increase in the deferred tax liability associated with the Company's undistributed foreign subsidiary earnings. The non-taxable foreign currency hedges related to the Acquisition generated a loss for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and a net gain for nine months ended September 30, 2016, resulting in a decrease in the rate for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and an increase in the tax benefit rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

The tax rate benefit on income for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2015 resulted from the repatriation of foreign earnings and the associated recognition of foreign tax credits and releases of uncertain tax positions due to the expiration of the statute of limitations. Additionally, the tax rate benefit for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 included discrete tax items related to the Venezuela divestiture and the release of a valuation allowance.

Income (Loss) From Discontinued Operations, Net of Tax

Income (loss) from discontinued operations, net of tax was $(4.6) and $4.7 for the three months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and was $143.7 and $13.4 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The closing of the NA electronic security divestiture occurred on February 1, 2016 and the Company recorded a gain (loss) on sale, net of tax, of $(4.6) and $145.0 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively. Additionally, the income from discontinued operations, net of tax includes a net loss of $1.3 as a result of the operations included through February 1, 2016 and net income of $4.6 and $13.4 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively. The closing purchase price was subject to a customary working capital adjustment, which was finalized in the third quarter of 2016.

Net Income (Loss)

Net income (loss) decreased $124.7 to a net loss of $(101.8) for the three months ended September 30, 2016, compared to income of $22.9 for the same period in 2015, and increased $5.2 to net income of $46.4 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016, compared to income of $41.2 for the same period in 2015, due to the reasons described above.

Segment Revenue and Operating Profit Summary

The following tables represent information regarding our revenue and operating profit by reporting segment:

	Three Months Ended September 30,			Nine Months Ended September 30,
North America	2016	2015	% Change	2016	2015	% Change
Revenue	$305.4	$270.1	13.1	$832.3	$831.8	0.1
Segment operating profit	$50.1	$59.6	(15.9)	$166.5	$187.5	(11.2)
Segment operating profit margin	16.4	% 22.1	%	20.0	% 22.5	%

NA revenue increased in both the three and nine month time periods $35.3 and $0.5, respectively. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $29.0, NA revenue in the three months ended September 30, 2016 increased compared to the prior year period primarily due to higher service revenue in the U.S. as a result of increased multi-vendor service contracts and higher product sales within our national customer portfolio. These increases were partially offset by lower revenue in the U.S. regional and Canadian FSS businesses as well as lower revenue from physical security. Revenue in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased as a result of lower product revenue in Canada and the U.S. regional bank space, which overshadowed the growth in multi-vendor service contracts. Segment operating profit decreased in both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 due to lower product volume and unfavorable customer and product solution mix, which adversely impacted gross profit. In the three months ended September 30, 2016, service gross profit was flat. Service gross profit was higher in the nine month time period driven by higher volume and incremental profit associated with the Acquisition, which helped to offset the decline in product gross profit. Segment operating profit was also impacted by higher operating expense in both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 as a result of incremental expense associated with the Acquisition and higher bad debt expense. In addition, during the nine months ended September 30, 2015 segment operating profit was favorably impacted due to the gain on sale of a manufacturing plant.

AP revenue increased $30.9 in the three months ended September 30, 2016 and decreased $23.0 in the nine months ended September 30, 2016. Revenue for the three and nine month periods was also adversely impacted by unfavorable currency of $3.3 and $15.6, respectively. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $66.7 and currency, AP revenue in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased from the prior year comparable periods mainly as a result of a decline in product revenue stemming from lower volume particularly in China, where the government continues to encourage banks to increase their use of domestic ATM suppliers. India also contributed to the decline due to lower product sales volume and corresponding installation service revenue as well as a decrease in managed services revenue.

Segment operating profit in the three months ended September 30, 2016 compared to the same period of 2015 increased as a result of incremental product and service gross profit which was partially offset by higher operating expense associated with acquisitions and divestitures. Segment operating profit in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 decreased from a combination of lower product gross profit primarily driven by volume declines and deteriorating market conditions in China and lower service gross profit related to customer service level agreement contract requirements in India. These declines were partially offset by incremental gross profit associated with the Acquisition. Operating expenses increased in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 as a result of incremental expense associated with acquisitions and divestitures.

EMEA revenue in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $281.8 and $281.0, respectively. Revenue for the three and nine month periods was also adversely impacted by unfavorable currency of $2.4 and $11.6, respectively. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $299.4 and currency, product revenue decreased in both the three- and nine-month periods as a result of large projects in the prior year that did not recur, primarily in Turkey, combined with lower product volume within our distributor channels, Italy and Poland. A significant increase in product volume in Spain, in the three- and nine-month periods, and in Switzerland, in the nine-month period, helped to partially offset the overall decline in product revenue. In the three months ended September 30, 2016, service revenue decreased slightly related to a decline in service parts sales volume. In the nine months ended September 30, 2016, service revenue was higher due to incremental installation projects in France and Switzerland.

Segment operating profit increased in the three months ended September 30, 2016 due to the additional gross profit contributed as a result of the Acquisition. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition, operating profit decreased in the three and nine month periods mainly attributable to volume declines and unfavorable product mix which was partially offset by an increase in service gross profit driven by amended contracts in distributor channels, higher volume in France, and favorable mix in South Africa. In Spain, prior year installation projects unfavorably impacted service gross profit. Operating expenses were relatively flat in both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016.

LA revenue in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $45.7 and $5.5, respectively. Excluding the impact of the Acquisition of $10.2, LA revenue increased in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 inclusive of a favorable currency impact of $4.2 in the three-month period and an unfavorable currency impact $20.3 in the nine-month period. Excluding the impact of currency, revenue increased mainly by higher election equipment sales in Brazil, partially offset by a decrease in FSS product and information technology sales. Additionally, service revenue was higher in the three months ended September 30, 2016 primarily in Mexico and Colombia, while service revenue declined in the nine-month period related to Venezuela as the Company sold its equity interest in the joint venture in April 2015.

Segment operating profit increased in both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016. The three-month period increased primarily as a result of higher product and service gross profit in Brazil as well as incremental profit associated with the Acquisition. Operating expenses decreased slightly as a result of cost control measures but were partially offset by incremental expense associated with the Acquisition. Operating profit in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was higher due to favorable product gross profit in Brazil while service gross profit remained relatively flat. Lower operating expenses in the nine month time period benefited from bad debt recovery and cost control measures while being partially offset by incremental expense associated with the Acquisition.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's total cash and cash availability as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was as follows:

	September 30, 2016	December 31, 2015
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 748.2	$ 313.6
Additional cash availability from
Uncommitted lines of credit	138.2	69.0
Revolving credit facility	520.0	352.0
Short-term investments	39.9	39.9
Total cash and cash availability	$ 1,446.3	$ 774.5

Capital resources are obtained from income retained in the business, borrowings under the Company's senior notes, committed and uncommitted credit facilities and operating and capital leasing arrangements. Management expects that the Company's capital resources will be sufficient to finance planned working capital needs, research and development activities, investments in facilities or equipment, pension contributions, repayments of debt, the payment of dividends on the Company's common shares and any repurchases of the Company's common shares for at least the next 12 months. As of September 30, 2016, $441.3 or 56.0 percent of the Company's cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments reside in international tax jurisdictions. Repatriation of these funds could be negatively impacted by potential payments for foreign and domestic taxes. The Company has approximately $172.8 of earnings that are available for repatriation with no additional tax expense as the Company has already provided for such taxes. Part of the Company's growth strategy is to pursue acquisitions complementary to the Company's future structure. The Company has made acquisitions in the past and intends to make acquisitions in the future. The Company intends to finance any future acquisitions with either cash and short-term investments, cash provided from operations, borrowings under available credit facilities, proceeds from debt or equity offerings and/or the issuance of common shares. During the first half of 2016, the Company successfully obtained the appropriate financing for the Acquisition with the revolver and term loans under the Credit Agreement and the 2024 Senior Notes. In November 2016, the Company repaid $200.0 of the outstanding debt from the Term Loan B Facility - USD, which was included in notes payable as of September 30, 2016.

The following table summarizes the results of our condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30:

Summary of cash flows:	2016	2015
Net cash used by operating activities - continuing operations	$(186.7)	$(122.6)
Net cash used by investing activities - continuing operations	(879.0)	(103.4)
Net cash provided by financing activities	1,138.7	133.4
Discontinued operations, net	353.7	0.1
Effect of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents	9.4	(31.0)
Increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	$436.1	$(123.5)

Operating Activities

Cash flows from operating activities can fluctuate significantly from period to period as working capital needs and the timing of payments for income taxes, restructuring activities, pension funding and other items impact reported cash flows.

Net cash used by operating activities - continuing operations was $186.7, of which $40.3 related to the Acquisition, for the nine months ended September 30, 2016, an increased use of $64.1 from $122.6 for the same period in 2015, primarily as a result of acquisition-related costs and interest paid offset by improvements in working capital usage.

The net aggregate of trade accounts receivable, inventories and accounts payable used $90.0 in operating cash flows during the nine months ended September 30, 2016, compared to $161.8 used during the same period of 2015. In general, the amount of cash flow provided or used by the aggregate of trade accounts receivable, inventories and trade accounts payable depends upon how effectively the Company manages the cash conversion cycle, which represents the number of days that elapse from the day it pays for the purchase of raw materials and components to the collection of cash from its customers and can be significantly impacted by the timing of collections and payments in a period. The accounts receivable use is lower due to an increase in collections compared to the prior year same period. When excluding the non-cash purchase accounting adjustments, inventory was relatively consistent year over year. Accounts payable remained relatively flat compared to prior year same period. The cash flows provided by the aggregate amount of the trade accounts receivable, inventories and accounts payable related to the Acquisition, for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was $32.8 primarily due to the timing of payments in accounts payable and the non-cash impact of the inventory step-up purchase accounting adjustment.

In the aggregate the other combined certain assets and liabilities used $78.1 of operating cash during the nine months ended September 30, 2016, compared to $72.5 provided in the same period of 2015. The decrease is primarily due to a reduction in collections of other receivables and an increase in deferred revenue. The cash flows provided by the aggregate amount of the other combined certain assets and liabilities related to the Acquisition, for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was $16.8.

Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 increased $5.2, which is primarily attributable to the gain from the NA electronic security business divestiture offset by acquisition costs and increase interest expense related the the debt utilized to complete the Acquisition. The net loss related to the Acquisition, for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 was $41.6. Net income (loss) from continuing operations, net of tax, decreased $(125.1) primarily due to the Acquisition costs and the increase in interest expense 2016 compared to the same period of 2015 for the

On November 23, 2015, the Company entered into two foreign currency option contracts to purchase €1,416.0 for $1,547.1 to hedge against the effect of exchange rate fluctuations on the euro-denominated cash consideration related to the Acquisition and estimated euro denominated acquisition-related costs and any outstanding Wincor Nixdorf borrowings. At that time, the cash component of the purchase price consideration approximated €1,162.2. The foreign currency option contracts were sold during the second quarter of 2016 for cash proceeds of $42.6, which are included in investing activities in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows, resulting in a gain of $35.6 during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and $7.0 during the fourth quarter of 2015. The weighted average strike price was $1.09 per euro. These foreign currency option contracts were non-designated and included in other current assets on the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2015 based on the net asset position.

On April 29, 2016, the Company entered into one foreign currency forward contract to purchase €713.0 for $820.9 to hedge against the effect of exchange rate fluctuations on the euro-denominated cash consideration related to the Acquisition and estimated euro denominated acquisition-related costs and any outstanding Wincor Nixdorf borrowings. The forward rate was $1.1514. The foreign currency forward contract was settled for $792.6 during the third quarter of 2016, which is included in investing activities in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows, resulting in a loss of $26.3 during the nine months ended September 30, 2016. This foreign currency forward contract is non-designated and included in other current assets or other current liabilities based on the net asset or net liability position, respectively, in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. The gains and losses from the revaluation of the foreign currency forward contract are included in other income (expense) miscellaneous, net on the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, the Company recorded a $(3.6) and $9.3, respectively, mark-to-market gain (loss) on foreign currency and forward option contracts reflected in miscellaneous, net. These instruments were sold prior to September 30, 2016 however the fair value of the Company's foreign currency forward and option contracts was $7.0 as of December 31, 2015 which was included in other current assets, respectively.

Investing Activities

Net cash used by investing activities - continuing operations was $879.0 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 compared to net cash used by investing activities of $103.4 for the same period in 2015. The $775.6 change was primarily related to the 2016 payments for acquisition, net of cash acquired of $890.6 offset by the proceeds from sale of assets of $28.7 and the $16.2 net proceeds from sale of the foreign currency option and forward contracts. The proceeds from sale of assets primarily related the $27.7 of cash received for the sale of stock in Aevi International GmbH and Wincor Nixdorf China subsidiaries. The prior year acquisition of Phoenix and capital expenditures were the primary uses of cash in investing.

Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was $1,138.7 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $133.4 for the same period in 2015 for a period over period increase of $1,005.3. The change was primarily due to the period over period increase of $1,009.9 in debt borrowings, net of repayments and $39.2 debt issuance costs associated with the debt borrowings for the Acquisition.

The cash flows related to debt borrowings and repayments were as follows:

	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2016

The cash provided by the discontinued operations, net, primarily related to the $361.9 proceeds received for the NA electronic security business divestiture that includes working capital adjustments which were finalized in the third quarter of 2016.

The effect of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents was negatively impacted by $9.5 related to the currency devaluation in Venezuela for the nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Debt As of September 30, 2016, the Company had various international short-term uncommitted lines of credit with borrowing limits of $159.3. The weighted-average interest rate on outstanding borrowings on the short-term uncommitted lines of credit as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was 5.16 percent and 5.66 percent, respectively. The increase in the weighted-average interest rate is attributable to a change in mix of borrowings of foreign entities. Short-term uncommitted lines mature in less than one year. The amount available under the short-term uncommitted lines at September 30, 2016 was $138.2.

The Company entered into the Credit Agreement, dated as of November 23, 2015, among the Company and certain of the Company's subsidiaries, as borrowers, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Administrative Agent, and the lenders named therein. The Credit Agreement included, among other things, mechanics for the Company's existing revolving and term loan A facilities to be refinanced under the Credit Agreement. On December 23, 2015, the Company entered into a Replacement Facilities Effective Date Amendment, which amended the Credit Agreement, among the Company, certain of the Company's subsidiaries, the lenders identified therein and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Administrative Agent, pursuant to which the Company refinanced its $520.0 revolving and $230.0 term loan A senior unsecured credit facilities (which have been terminated and repaid in full) with, respectively, a new unsecured Revolving Facility in an amount of up to $520.0 and a new (non-delayed draw) unsecured Term Loan A Facility on substantially the same terms as the Delayed Draw Term Facility (as defined in the Credit Agreement) in the amount of up to $230.0. The Delayed Draw Term Facility of $250.0 may be drawn up to one year after the closing date of the Acquisition. The Revolving Facility and Term Loan A Facility are subject to the same maximum consolidated net leverage ratio and minimum consolidated interest coverage ratio as the Delayed Draw Term Facility. On December 23, 2020, the Term Loan A Facility will mature and the Revolving Facility will automatically terminate. The weighted-average interest rate on outstanding revolving credit facility borrowings as of September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was 1.94 percent and 2.33 percent, respectively, which is variable based on the LIBOR. The amount available under the revolving credit facility as of September 30, 2016 was $520.0.

On April 19, 2016, the Company issued the 2024 Senior Notes in an offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act in connection with the Acquisition. The 2024 Senior Notes are and will be guaranteed by certain of the Company's existing and future domestic subsidiaries.

Also in April 2016, allocation and pricing of the Term Loan B Facility provided under the Credit Agreement (which the Term Loan B Facility was used to provide part of the financing for the Acquisition) was completed. The Term Loan B Facility consists of a $1,000.0 U.S. dollar-denominated tranche that bears interest at LIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.50 percent (or, at the Company's option, prime plus an applicable margin of 3.50 percent), and a €350.0 euro-denominated tranche that will bear interest at EURIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.25 percent. Each tranche was funded during the second quarter of 2016 at 99 percent of par. In November, the Company repaid $200.0 of the outstanding debt from the Term Loan B Facility - USD, which was included in notes payable as of September 30, 2016.

On May 6, and August 16, 2016, the Company entered into the Second and Third Amendments to the Credit Agreement, which re-denominated a portion of the Term Loan B Facility into euros and guaranteed the prompt and complete payment and performance of the obligations when due under the Credit Agreement.

The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement financial ratios at September 30, 2016 are as follows:

- a maximum total net debt to adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) leverage ratio of 4.50 for the three months ended September 30, 2016 (reducing to 4.25 on December 31, 2017, further reduced to 4.00 on December 31, 2018, and further reduced to 3.75 on June 30, 2019); and
- a minimum adjusted EBITDA to net interest expense coverage ratio of not less than 3.00

The key affirmative and negative covenants of the Credit Agreement include:

Affirmative Covenants	Negative Covenants - Limitations on:
pay principal and interest on time	merger, consolidation and fundamental changes
mandatory prepayments	sale of assets
timely financial reporting (including compliance certificate)	investments and acquisitions
use of proceeds	liens and security interests
notice of defaults	transactions with affiliates
continue with line of business	dividends and other restricted payments
paying taxes	negative pledge clause
maintain insurance	restrictions on subsidiary distributions
compliance with applicable laws	hedges for financial speculation
maintain property and title to property	receivable indebtedness
provide updates to guaranties and collateral when acquiring new assets or subsidiaries	incurrence of indebtedness (secured, unsecured and subordinated)
engage in periodic credit rating reviews	payments of junior/unsecured/subordinated debt
perfecting security interest on material U.S. based assets	organizational documents amendments

Mandatory prepayments are required if the outstanding revolving loans or facility letters of credit exceed the aggregate revolving credit commitments, including due to currency fluctuations if difference is greater than 105%, the excess loans must be repaid or facility letters of credit must be cash collateralized. Voluntary prepayments require one business day notice for floating rate loans in $1.0 or multiples thereof and three business days for euro currency rate loans in $5.0 or $1.0 multiples thereof. There is a prepayment premium with respect to the Term B Facility only. Until May 6, 2017, if there is a repricing event, where the Term B Facility is refinanced or amended to reduce the yield, there is a prepayment premium of 1.00% refinanced or amended. Other mandatory prepayments include incurrence of new debt outside what is allowed in the Credit Agreement, sale of certain assets beyond a de-minimis exception amount and depending on the net debt leverage, a percentage of "Excess Cash Flows" as defined in the Credit Agreement beginning with 2017 cash flows.

The Company incurred $28.0 and $39.2 of fees in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, related to the Credit Agreement and 2024 Senior Notes, which are amortized as a component of interest expense over the terms.

Following the close of the Acquisition, the debt facilities under the Credit Agreement are secured by substantially all assets of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries that are borrowers or guarantors under the Credit Agreement, subject to certain exceptions and permitted liens.

In March 2006, the Company issued senior notes (2006 Senior Notes) in an aggregate principal amount of $300.0. The Company funded the repayment of $75.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2006 Senior Notes at maturity in March 2013 using borrowings under its revolving credit facility and the repayment of $175.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2006 Senior Notes that matured in March 2016 through the use of proceeds from the divestiture of the Company's NA electronic security business. Prepayment of the remaining $50.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2006 Senior Notes were paid in full on May 2, 2016. The prepayment included a make-whole premium of $3.9, which was paid in addition to the principal and interest of the 2006 Senior Notes and is included in interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

The Company's financing agreements contain various restrictive financial covenants, including net debt to capitalization, net debt to EBITDA and net interest coverage ratios. As of September 30, 2016, the Company was in compliance with the financial and other covenants within its debt agreements.

Restricted Cash As a result of the Acquisition, the Company has no cash classified as restricted as of September 30, 2016. The restricted cash was used for the cash portion of the Acquisition, paying off existing debt and related interest, as well as any transaction costs pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement. The carrying value of restricted cash approximated its fair value and was included in cash flows from investing and financing activities until it was utilized for the Acquisition. Restricted cash in investing activities consisted of the proceeds from the debt borrowings related to the Acquisition. Restricted cash in financing activities consisted of the domestic net proceeds from the NA electronic security divestiture offset by the $175.0 and $50.0 payments of the 2006 Senior Notes during the first and second quarter of 2016, respectively.

Dividends The Company paid dividends of $57.0 and $56.5 in the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Quarterly dividends were $0.2875 per share for both periods. The Company announced a $0.10 dividend per share for its fourth quarter of 2016.

Contractual Obligations In the first nine months of 2015, the Company entered into purchase commitments due within one year for materials through contract manufacturing agreements for a total negotiated price. At September 30, 2016, the Company had purchase commitments due within one year totaling $22.6 for materials through contract manufacturing agreements at negotiated prices.

The Company has borrowed term loans available under the Credit Agreement and issued $400.0 aggregate principal amount of the 2024 Senior Notes. In November 2016 the Company repaid $200.0 of the outstanding debt from the Term Loan B Facility - USD, which was included in notes payable as of September 30, 2016. Refer to the aforementioned debt section for more details.

On August 16, 2016, the board of directors of the Company and the supervisory and management boards of Wincor Nixdorf approved the conclusion of a proposed DPLTA between Diebold KGaA, as controlling company, and Wincor Nixdorf, as controlled company. The parties executed the DPLTA after an extraordinary meeting of shareholders of Wincor Nixdorf that approved the DPLTA on September 26, 2016.

The DPLTA registration is expected to occur following fast-track clearance or final dismissal of pending shareholder litigation in Germany aimed at preventing the effectiveness of the DPLTA. Diebold is currently aware of certain Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders who have filed contestation actions against the DPLTA resolutions adopted at Wincor Nixdorf's extraordinary meeting of shareholders on September 26, 2016. Wincor Nixdorf initiated fast-track proceedings to obtain court approval to register the DPLTA despite such pending shareholder litigation. While the conclusion of fast-track proceedings typically takes between three to five months following the initial filing, no assurance can be given as to the duration and outcome of such proceedings.

Under the DPLTA, when effective and subject to certain limitations pursuant to applicable law, (i) Diebold KGaA will be entitled to issue binding instructions to the management board of Wincor Nixdorf, (ii) Wincor Nixdorf will transfer all of its annual profits to Diebold KGaA, subject to, among other things, the creation or dissolution of certain reserves, and (iii) Diebold KGaA will generally absorb all annual losses incurred by Wincor Nixdorf. In addition, when effective and subject to certain limitations pursuant to applicable law, the DPLTA will provide that Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders be offered, at their election, (i) to put their Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares to Diebold KGaA in exchange for a compensation in cash of €55.02 per Wincor Nixdorf ordinary share, or (ii) to remain Wincor Nixdorf minority shareholders and receive a recurring compensation in cash of €3.13 (€2.82 net under the current taxation regime) for each full fiscal year of Wincor Nixdorf and for each Wincor Nixdorf ordinary share.

In connection with the DPLTA and pursuant to the German stock corporation act, Diebold KGaA and Wincor Nixdorf published a joint contract report, dated August 16, 2016, of the management board of Wincor Nixdorf and the management of Diebold KGaA that includes a description of the transactions contemplated by the DPLTA and other information (the Contract Report), attaching the form of the proposed DPLTA and a valuation report of PricewaterhouseCoopers AG Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft, dated August 16, 2016, regarding the enterprise value of Wincor Nixdorf as of September 26, 2016, and other information. In connection with the proposed DPLTA, Diebold KGaA and Wincor Nixdorf also obtained an audit report by an independent court-appointed auditor, ADKL AG, dated August 16, 2016 (the Audit Report). Diebold KGaA's obligations under the DPLTA will be fully guaranteed by the Company.

Except for the items noted above, all contractual cash obligations with initial and remaining terms in excess of one year and contingent liabilities remained generally unchanged at September 30, 2016 compared to December 31, 2015.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements The Company enters into various arrangements not recognized in the condensed consolidated balance sheets that have or could have an effect on its financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources. The principal off-balance sheet arrangements that the Company enters into are guarantees, operating leases and sales of finance receivables. The Company provides its global operations guarantees and standby letters of credit through various financial institutions to suppliers, regulatory agencies and insurance providers. If the Company is not able to make payment, the suppliers, regulatory agencies and insurance providers may draw on the pertinent bank. Refer to note 14 to the condensed consolidated financial statements for further details of guarantees. The Company has sold finance receivables to financial institutions while continuing to service the receivables. The Company records these sales by removing finance receivables from the condensed consolidated balance sheets and recording gains and losses in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Management's discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations are based upon the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, disclosures about contingent assets and liabilities and reported amounts of revenues and expenses. Such estimates include revenue recognition, the valuation of trade, finance lease receivables, inventories, goodwill, intangible assets, other long-lived assets, legal contingencies, guarantee obligations and assumptions used in the calculation of income taxes, pension and post-retirement benefits and customer incentives, among others. These estimates and assumptions are based on management's best estimates and judgment. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors. Management monitors the economic conditions and other factors and will adjust such estimates and assumptions when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates.

Management believes there have been no significant changes during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 to the items that the Company disclosed as its critical accounting policies and estimates in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015.

Forward-Looking Statement Disclosure

In this quarterly report on Form 10-Q, statements that are not reported financial results or other historical information are "forward-looking statements." Forward-looking statements give current expectations or forecasts of future events and are not guarantees of future performance. These forward-looking statements relate to, among other things, the Company's future operating performance, the Company's share of new and existing markets, the Company's short- and long-term revenue and earnings growth rates, and the Company's implementation of cost-reduction initiatives and measures to improve pricing, including the optimization of the Company's manufacturing capacity.

The use of the words "will," "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and similar expressions is intended to identify forward-looking statements that have been made and may in the future be made by or on behalf of the Company. Although the Company believes that these forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions regarding, among other things, the economy,

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. Some of the risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

- the ultimate impact and outcome of the review of the Acquisition by the Competition and Markets Authority in the United Kingdom;
- the implementation, ultimate impact and outcome of the DPLTA, including that its effectiveness may be delayed as a result of litigation or otherwise;
- the ultimate outcome and results of integrating the operations of the Company and Wincor Nixdorf, the ultimate outcome of the Company's pricing, operating and tax strategies applied to Wincor Nixdorf and the ultimate ability to realize synergies;
- the success of the Company's strategic business alliance with Securitas AB;
- the Company's ability to successfully launch and operate its joint ventures in China with the Inspur Group and Aisino Corp.;
- the Company's ability to reduce stranded costs related to its NA electronic security business from its ongoing operations;
- competitive pressures, including pricing pressures and technological developments;
- changes in the Company's relationships with customers, suppliers, distributors and/or partners in its business ventures;
- changes in political, economic or other factors such as currency exchange rates, inflation rates, recessionary or expansive trends, taxes and regulations and laws affecting the worldwide business in each of the Company's operations;
- global economic conditions, including any additional deterioration and disruptions in the financial markets, including bankruptcies, restructurings or consolidations of financial institutions or otherwise, which could reduce our customer base and/or adversely affect our customers' ability to make capital expenditures, as well as adversely impact the availability and cost of credit;
- acceptance of the Company's product and technology introductions in the marketplace;
- the Company's ability to maintain effective internal controls over financial reporting;
- changes in the Company's intention to further repatriate cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments residing in international tax jurisdictions could negatively impact foreign and domestic taxes;
- unanticipated litigation, claims or assessments, as well as the outcome/impact of any current/pending litigation, claims or assessments;
- variations in consumer demand for FSS technologies, products and services;
- potential disruptions, breaches or other violations of the Company's information technology systems;
- the investment performance of the Company's pension plan assets, which could require the Company to increase its pension contributions, and significant changes in healthcare costs, including those that may result from government action;
- the amount and timing of repurchases of the Company's common shares, if any; and
- the Company's ability to achieve benefits from its cost-reduction initiatives and other strategic changes as well as its business process outsourcing initiative.

Item 3: Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

On August 15, 2016 the Company designated its €350.0 euro-denominated Term Loan B Facility as a net investment hedge of its investments in certain subsidiaries that use the Euro as their functional currency in order to reduce volatility in stockholders' equity caused by the changes in foreign currency exchange rates of the Euro with respect to the U.S. Dollar. The notes will bear interest at the EURIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.25 percent. Effectiveness will be assessed at least quarterly by confirming that the respective designated net investments' net equity balances at the beginning of any period collectively continues to equal or exceed the balance outstanding on the Company's Euro-denominated term loan. Changes in value that are deemed effective are accumulated in AOCI. When the respective net investments are sold or substantially liquidated, the balance of the cumulative translation adjustment in AOCI will be reclassified into earnings. The net gain (loss) recognized in AOCI on net investment hedge foreign currency borrowings was $(2.3) for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016.

Refer to the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 for a discussion of market risk exposures. There have been no material changes in this information since December 31, 2015.

Item 4: Controls and Procedures

This quarterly report on Form 10-Q includes the certifications of our chief executive officer (CEO) and chief financial officer (CFO) required by Rule 13a-14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act). See Exhibits 31.1 and 31.2. This Item 4 includes information concerning the controls and control evaluations referred to in those certifications.

Based on the performance of procedures by management, designed to ensure the reliability of financial reporting, management believes that the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements fairly present, in all material respects, the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows as of the dates, and for the periods presented.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) promulgated under the Exchange Act) are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports filed or submitted under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and that such information is accumulated and communicated to management, including the CEO and CFO as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures.

In connection with the preparation of this quarterly report on Form 10-Q, the Company's management, under the supervision and with the participation of the CEO and CFO, conducted an evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on this evaluation, the CEO and CFO have concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of September 30, 2016.

Change in Internal Controls

We continued a phased implementation of enterprise resource planning systems in our NA operations, a portion of which was completed during 2015 and the balance expected to be substantially completed during 2016. We believe we are maintaining and monitoring appropriate internal controls during the implementation period. On August 15, 2016, the Company completed the acquisition of Wincor Nixdorf. As permitted by SEC guidance, the scope of management's evaluation of internal control over financial reporting as of September 30, 2016 did not include the internal control over financial reporting of Wincor Nixdorf. However, we are extending our oversight and monitoring processes that support our internal control over financial reporting to include Wincor Nixdorf's operations.

During the quarter ended September 30, 2016, there have been no other changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the period covered by this quarterly report on 10-Q that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Part II – Other Information

Item 1: Legal Proceedings

At September 30, 2016, the Company was a party to several lawsuits as well as several routine indirect tax claims from various taxing authorities globally that were incurred in the normal course of business, which neither individually nor in the aggregate are considered material by management in relation to the Company's financial position or results of operations. In addition, the Company has indemnification obligations with certain former employees and costs associated with these indemnifications are expensed as incurred. In management's opinion, the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements would not be materially affected by the outcome of those legal proceedings, commitments or asserted claims.

On October 22, 2013, Diebold, Inc. finalized a settlement agreement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and a Deferred Prosecution Agreement (DPA) with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) to settle charges arising from violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). Pursuant to those agreements, Diebold was required to retain an independent corporate monitor to review our compliance program, internal accounting controls, record-keeping, and financial reporting policies and procedures relating to the FCPA and other applicable anti-corruption laws. Since that time, the Company has made significant enhancements to its global ethics and compliance program. On October 24, 2016, the corporate monitor certified to the SEC and DOJ that our compliance program is reasonably designed and implemented to prevent and detect violations of anti-corruption laws. The DPA and the independent corporate monitorship expired on October 29, 2016. With the completion of the monitorship, the Company has fulfilled its obligations under the settlement agreements with the DOJ and SEC.

For more information regarding legal proceedings, please refer to Part I, Item 3 of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015. There have been no material developments with respect to the legal proceedings reported in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015.

Item 1A: Risk Factors

Refer to the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015. Except as presented below, there has been no material change to this information since December 31, 2015.

The business combination remains subject to antitrust review by the Competition and Markets Authority of the United Kingdom, which, if approval is delayed or not granted, may impact our ability to integrate Wincor Nixdorf successfully.

While the Acquisition closed on August 15, 2016, and, accordingly, Wincor Nixdorf is an indirect subsidiary of Diebold, the business combination remains subject to review by the Competition and Markets Authority of the United Kingdom (CMA). Although receipt of clearance from the CMA was not a condition to the consummation of the business combination, Diebold and Wincor Nixdorf are required to operate their businesses in the U.K. separately until such clearance has been received. The CMA has broad discretion in administering the governing regulations and may impose requirements, limitations or costs, mandate remedies, such as divestitures of certain business assets, or place additional restrictions on the conduct of our businesses, to ensure sufficient competition in the U.K. market. No assurance can be given as to the ultimate impact and outcome of the CMA review, that approval from the CMA will be obtained, or the terms, conditions and timing of such approval. Any delay or uncertainty relating to such approval may result in additional transaction costs and make it more difficult for us to maintain or pursue particular business strategies and integrate Wincor Nixdorf successfully. Conditions imposed by the CMA may restrict our ability to modify the operations of our business in response to changing circumstances or our ability to expend cash for other uses or otherwise have an adverse effect on the anticipated benefits of the business combination, thereby adversely impacting the business, financial condition and results of operations of Diebold.

Economic conditions and regulatory changes leading up to and following the United Kingdom's likely exit from the European Union could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Following a referendum in June in which voters in the United Kingdom (U.K.) approved an exit from the European Union (EU), it is expected that the U.K. government will initiate a process to leave the EU (often referred to as Brexit) and begin negotiating the terms of the U.K.'s future relationship with the EU. The Company faces uncertainty regarding the impact of the likely exit of the U.K. from the EU. Adverse consequences such as deterioration in global economic conditions, stability in global financial markets, volatility in currency exchange rates or adverse changes in regulation of the cross-border agreements could have a negative impact on our operations, financial condition and results of operations.
