INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors

Voyager Expanded Learning, Inc.

Dallas, Texas

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Voyager Expanded Learning, Inc. (the Company) as of March 31, 2004 and 2003, and the related statements of operations, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at March 31, 2004 and 2003, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company changed its method of accounting for curriculum development costs in 2003.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Years Ended March 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002

1. DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of the Business - Voyager Expanded Learning, Inc. (the Company) develops and markets innovative reading programs for elementary and middle schools nationwide. In grades K-3, the reading programs are implemented in school, after school and during the summer as part of the Voyager Universal Literacy System. The Company's reading intervention programs for grades K-9 are also implemented in school, after school and in summer classes. All of the Company's programs are academically focused adventures that capture students' imaginations and increase their interest in learning and school attendance. The Company also designs innovative professional development programs that are used to train teachers and administrators. Through its VoyagerU division, the Company combines online learner-paced curriculum with face-to-face instruction on relevant topics designed to improve the performance of educators. Certain of the programs are developed in conjunction with the Discovery Channel, The Smithsonian Institution and Harvard University.

The Company has financed its operations through various financing activities, including borrowings and sales of stock. Management believes that its increasing revenue base, current available working capital, and short-term financing with banks, asset-based lenders or other parties will be sufficient to meet the Company's current obligations.

Change in Accounting for Curriculum Development Costs - Prior to fiscal 2003, curriculum development costs were expensed in the year incurred. Beginning April 1, 2002, curriculum costs on programs that have a shelf life of more than one year are being capitalized and amortized over the expected lives of the programs. Curriculum development costs on programs with a one-year shelf life continue to be expensed as incurred. The new method of accounting for curriculum development costs was adopted in fiscal 2003 as a result of the Company developing grade-level programs with shelf lives of more than one year beginning in fiscal 2002. Prior to fiscal 2002, all the programs sold by the Company were generally rewritten each year. The effect of the change in accounting policy in fiscal 2003 was to decrease curriculum development expenses by approximately $1,018,000. In addition, the cumulative effect of the change in accounting policy as of April 1, 2002 of $582,000 is included in the statement of operations for fiscal 2003. The pro forma amounts shown in the statement of operations have been adjusted for the effect of retroactive application on curriculum development costs had the new method been in effect in fiscal 2002.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk - Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents and trade accounts receivable. The Company places its cash and cash equivalents with financial institutions that it believes to be of high credit quality. Management does not expect credit losses from such financial instruments.

Table of Contents

Customers of the Company's principal products consist primarily of educational institutions. Credit is extended based on an evaluation of the customer's financial condition, and collateral is not required. In fiscal 2004, one customer accounted for approximately 33% of the Company's net revenue and 32% of the Company's total net trade accounts receivable. In fiscal 2003, one customer accounted for approximately 11% of the Company's net revenue and 8% of the Company's total net trade accounts receivable. In fiscal 2002, one customer accounted for approximately 15% of the Company's net revenue and 47% of the Company's total net trade accounts receivable.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash in bank accounts, money market funds and certificates of deposit with maturities of 90 days or less.

Accounts Receivable - Accounts receivable are stated net of allowances for doubtful accounts of $389,000 and $183,000 at March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Inventory - Inventory, consisting of program materials, is valued at the lower of cost or market with cost determined under the first-in, first-out method.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation is computed over the assets' estimated useful lives, ranging from three to seven years, using the straight-line method. Amortization of leasehold improvements is computed based on the shorter of the assets' estimated useful lives or the lease term.

Intangible Assets - Intangible assets consist primarily of the fair value of identified intangibles acquired from gradschoolonline.org in December 2001 and curriculum development costs. The acquired intangibles are being amortized primarily over a three- to eight-year period. Curriculum development costs are being amortized over the expected lives of the related programs, primarily a three- to four-year period.

Long-Lived Asset Impairment - The net realizable value of the Company's long-lived assets, as well as intangible assets subject to amortization, are periodically assessed by comparing the expected future net operating cash flows to the carrying amount of the underlying assets. Evaluation of a potential impairment would occur if the recorded value of these assets exceeded the associated future net operating cash flows. Any potential impairment loss would be measured as the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of the asset.

Revenue - Revenue is recognized when program materials or services are provided to customers. Revenue is accrued for services, provided that the Company has not billed its customers at the reporting date. Revenue from the Company's services are provided under fixed-price contracts. For fixed-price contracts, revenue is recorded on the basis of the estimated percentage of completion of services rendered. Such contracts are subject to annual renewal.

Sales Returns - In accordance with the Company's established sales return policy, management reviews the need for a sales returns allowance on an ongoing basis. Historically, sales returns have been minimal. The reserve for sales returns, which is included in accrued expenses, was $126,000 and $100,000 at March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Edgar Filing: PROQUEST CO - Form 8-K/A

Warranty - Certain Universal Literacy System contracts include a literacy warranty to the customer whereby if literacy thresholds are not achieved within a school the Company will provide additional program materials to the school. As of March 31, 2004, no amounts had been expended in connection with the warranty and the Company determined any potential liability for the warranty was immaterial.

Income Taxes - The Company accounts for income taxes using the liability method. Deferred income taxes represent the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of the assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Valuation reserves are provided against net deferred tax assets when realization of those assets is uncertain. The change in the valuation reserve is provided in Note 8.

Stock Compensation - The Company has elected to follow Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 ( APB 25 ), Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, in accounting for its employee stock options and stock-based awards. Under APB 25, if the exercise price of an employee's stock option equals or exceeds the market price of the underlying stock on the date of grant, no compensation expense is recognized.

Pro forma information regarding net income (loss) and the net income (loss) attributable to common shareholders is required by SFAS No. 123 and has been determined as if the Company had accounted for employee stock options granted under the fair-value method. The fair value for options granted was estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes valuation model with the following assumptions for fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002: risk-free interest rates of 3.9%, 4.3% and 4.4%, respectively; dividends are expected to be declared; and an expected life of the options of 10 years. No fair value was attributed to the options granted in fiscal 2004 and 2002. For fiscal 2003, the weighted average fair value of options granted was $5.16 per option. For fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, pro forma net income (loss) under SFAS No. 123 would have been adjusted to the following pro forma amounts (in thousands):

	2004	2003	2002
Net income (loss) as reported	$ 14,068	$ (1,457)	$ (2,455)
Total stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value-based method for all awards	(129)	(255)	(232)
Pro forma net income (loss)	$ 13,939	$ (1,712)	$ (2,687)

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements - In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. SFAS No. 150 establishes standards for how a company classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. SFAS No. 150, as amended by FASB Staff Position 150-3, is effective for the Company in fiscal year 2005. SFAS No. 150 will require, among other matters, mandatorily redeemable preferred stock to be classified as a liability. The accounting treatment for convertible and redeemable preferred stock currently is not changed by this statement. The adoption of this pronouncement is not expected to have a material impact on the financial statements.

In May 2003, FIN 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, was issued, which clarifies the application of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, Consolidated Financial Statements, to certain entities in which equity investors do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or do not have sufficient equity at risk for the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties. The adoption of FIN 46 and its subsequent revisions in the year ended 2004 had no impact on the Company's financial statements.

Reclassifications - Reclassifications of certain fiscal 2003 and 2002 amounts have been made to conform to the fiscal 2004 presentation.

4. DEBT

On March 31, 2004, the Company entered into a bank credit agreement under which it may borrow up to $5,000,000 through July 1, 2005. The loan bears interest at prime plus 0.5% per annum. The Company paid a loan origination fee of $25,000 and is required to pay a fee of 0.25% per annum on the unused portion of the loan. The credit agreement contains various covenants, including maintaining a minimum tangible net worth and fixed charge coverage ratio and reporting requirements. Collateral for this agreement consists of substantially all the assets of the Company. As of June 23, 2004, the Company had borrowed no amounts under the credit agreement.

On June 15, 2003, the Company entered into a bank credit agreement under which it could have borrowed up to $5,000,000 through December 15, 2003. The short-term loan bore interest at prime plus 0.5% per annum. The Company was required to pay a fee of 0.25% per annum on the unused portion of the loan. The credit agreement contained various covenants, including maintaining a minimum tangible net worth and reporting requirements. Collateral for this agreement consisted of substantially all the assets of the Company. The Company borrowed no amounts during fiscal 2004, and the loan terminated on September 17, 2003.

In April 2002, the Company entered into a bank credit agreement under which it could have borrowed up to $5,000,000. The bank loan bore interest at prime plus 1% per annum. The Company was required to pay a fee of 0.5% per annum on the unused portion of the loan. The credit agreement contained various covenants, including minimum tangible net worth and reporting requirements. In November 2002, the Company reduced the size of the loan to allow for a maximum borrowing of $1,500,000. The Company borrowed no amounts during fiscal 2003, and the loan expired on January 31, 2003.

5. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Operating Leases - The Company leases its offices and distribution center facilities, as well as certain office equipment, under various operating leases. Future minimum rental payments under all operating leases with initial or remaining lease terms of one year or more at March 31, 2004 are as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal Year Ending March 31,
2005	$ 683
2006	638
2007	235
2008	149
2009	25

Total rent expense for all operating leases was approximately $639,000, $630,000 and $613,000 in fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively, including amounts paid to related parties (see Note 6).

On April 29, 2004, the Company entered into an office space lease with a commencement date of August 1, 2004 and a lease term of 64 months. The Company's monthly base rental payments of $34,427 commence on April 1, 2005. The lease includes a tenant improvement allowance, renewal and expansion options, and an option to purchase furniture from the landlord at the end of the initial lease term for $1.

Capital Leases - The Company leases certain fixtures in its distribution center under a capital lease. The aggregate future minimum lease payments related to this capital lease at March 31, 2004 are as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal Year Ending March 31,
2005	$ 48

Edgar Filing: PROQUEST CO - Form 8-K/A

On April 16, 2004, the Company entered into a capital lease for additional equipment in the distribution center with an approximate fair market value of $57,000.

Litigation - The Company is subject to various legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the amount of ultimate liability with respect to these actions will not materially affect the financial position or results of operations of the Company.

Royalties - In connection with curriculum development, the Company has entered into collaborative agreements with a number of organizations, including The Smithsonian Institution, Discovery Enterprises, LLC, Harvard College and Education Leaders Council. The Company is obligated to pay a royalty on sales of the products developed in connection with these organizations. For fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, the Company incurred royalty expense of approximately $453,000, $378,000 and $791,000, respectively.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company occupies office space currently leased by an entity owned by one of the Company's shareholders. The Company reimburses its affiliate for rent, telephone and other occupancy-related expenses. Total payments to the affiliate for occupancy-related expenses approximated $127,000, $165,000 and $126,000 for fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The Company provides administrative support, including payroll processing services, to a company owned by one of the Company's shareholders. The Company paid $27,000 in each of fiscal 2004 and 2003 in premiums for and is the beneficiary of a key-man term life insurance policy on its chief executive officer. As of March 31, 2002, the Company owed one of the Company's shareholders $150,000, which was repaid in April 2002.

7. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AND EQUITY

The Company has a defined contribution employee benefit plan (the Plan) covering all employees over the age of 21 after 90 days of service. The Company may make qualified matching contributions to the Plan. The Company contributed approximately $116,000, $87,000 and $75,000 to the Plan for fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

In fiscal 2003, the Company implemented the Voyager University Phantom Stock Plan (the Phantom Stock Plan) and awarded phantom shares in its VoyagerU division to an executive. The phantom shares awarded correspond to a 3% interest in the division, which vests over a five-year period or upon a liquidity event, as defined. In the absence of a liquidity event, as defined in the Phantom Stock Plan, the value of the cash award is based upon a multiple of the division's earnings before interest and taxes for the trailing 12 months immediately preceding the valuation date. As of March 31, 2004, the Company recorded compensation expense and deferred compensation liability of $442,000 based on this valuation methodology. No expense or liability was recorded as of March 31, 2003.

Stock Options and Warrants - The Company's Board of Directors has approved a stock option plan (the Stock Option Plan) whereby the Company may award options to purchase up to 1,300,000 shares of common stock to its directors, officers and employees. The options become exercisable over periods of up to 10 years, as specified by the option agreements. Certain of the options granted prior to June 30, 1999 provided that the exercise price will be equal to the value of the underlying stock on the date the options vested ( FV ). All remaining options are exercisable at the price reflected in the related option agreement. The Company's Board of Directors establishes the exercise prices, which generally are no less than the fair value of the stock as of the award date, reflected on the option agreements. The Stock Option Plan terminates on May 1, 2010, except with respect to options then outstanding.

As of March 31, 2004, approximately 441,000 shares of common stock were reserved for future grant under the plan.

In June and July 2001, the Company issued 100,000 warrants to purchase common stock of the Company at an exercise price of $15 per share. Such warrants were issued in connection with the issuance and payment of approximately $4,000,000 in subordinated debt. The warrants expire in 2011. In fiscal 2004, 12,500 warrants were exercised, and the remaining 87,500 were outstanding at March 31, 2004.

Edgar Filing: PROQUEST CO - Form 8-K/A

In May 1999, the Company issued warrants to purchase 75,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $11 per share to its chairman. The warrants expire on May 15, 2009.

On November 15, 1998, the Company issued 408,472 warrants to purchase common stock of the Company at an exercise price of $7.50 per share. Such warrants were issued in connection with the issuance and payment of approximately $4,000,000 in debt. In fiscal 2004, 204,719 warrants were exercised, and the remaining 203,753 expired.

	$ 2,575	$

The Company experienced operating losses through fiscal 2003. Accordingly, at March 31, 2003, the Company had recorded a valuation allowance to fully offset its deferred tax assets. In fiscal 2004, the Company realized significant profitability enabling it to utilize $13,500,000 of its $17,100,000 tax loss carryforward. Given management's belief that it was more likely than not that the tax benefit of its remaining net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards would be utilized, at March 31, 2004, the Company reversed the valuation allowance recorded in prior years.

Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements

(Unaudited)

This information should be read in conjunction with the previously filed Form 8-K, dated February 4, 2005, the previously filed historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes of ProQuest Company, contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005 and the historical financial statements and accompanying notes of Voyager Expanded Learning, Inc. included elsewhere in this Form 8-K.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of January 1, 2005, and the pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005, give effect to the acquisition, by ProQuest Company (the Company), of all the issued and outstanding common stock of Voyager Expanded Learning, Inc. (Voyager), on January 31, 2005, for total consideration of approximately $361 million. The Company's new financing arrangements and related costs have also been reflected in the pro forma condensed combined financial statements. The pending working capital adjustment, which is expected to be an incremental cost of approximately $5,000,000 and the potential $20,000,000 in additional consideration based on Voyager's operating results from April 1, 2005 through March 31, 2006 are not reflected in the Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements. The accompanying footnotes provide descriptions of the assumptions and adjustments made in the Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet represents the financial position of the Company and Voyager as of January 1, 2005, the last day of ProQuest's most recently completed fiscal year, assuming the acquisition occurred as of that date. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations has been prepared assuming the acquisition occurred as of the beginning of the period presented. The acquisition actually occurred on January 31, 2005.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are provided for informational purposes only in response to Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) requirements and do not purport to represent what the Company's financial position or results of operations would actually have been if the transaction had in fact occurred at such dates, or to project the Company's financial position or results of operations for any future date or period. Furthermore, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements have been prepared in accordance with rules prescribed by Article 11 of Regulation S-X.

For financial reporting purposes, Voyager's assets and liabilities have been adjusted, on a preliminary basis, to reflect their fair values in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of January 1, 2005. The estimated effects resulting from these adjustments have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations.
