Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 15, 2008, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (Lehman) filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the federal Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court in the Southern District of New York.

Portland General Electric Company (PGE or the Company) has an unsecured $400 million revolving credit facility with a group of commercial and investment banks, including Lehman Brothers Bank, a subsidiary of Lehman. Of this amount, $390 million extends to July 2013, with the remaining $10 million maturing in July 2012. As of September 16, 2008, Lehman Brothers Bank's total commitment under the credit facility is $55 million. If Lehman Brothers Bank does not continue to participate in, or ceases to be a party to, the Company's revolving credit facility, the Company will evaluate the need to replace Lehman's participation under the credit facility or to seek additional credit from other banks under separate credit agreements.

PGE is a counterparty with Lehman Brothers Commodity Services Inc. (LBCS), a subsidiary of Lehman, in a small number of the Company's power supply transactions. LBCS's obligations under these transactions are guaranteed by Lehman. As of September 16, 2008, PGE has no significant exposure under the transactions with LBCS.

PGE believes that the Lehman bankruptcy and the possible resulting effects on subsidiaries of Lehman will not have a material adverse effect on the Company.
