Employment Security Agreements -----

On December 4, 2009, Consolidated Communications Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") approved entering into amended Employment Security Agreements (the "Agreements") with the following executive officers of the Company: Robert J. Currey, Steven L. Childers, Joseph R. Dively, Steven J. Shirar, C. Robert Udell, Jr., and Christopher A. Young. The Agreements supercede the employment security agreements previously entered into with these executives. The Agreements are substantially identical, except with respect to Mr. Currey's agreement, as noted below. Complete copies of the forms of the Agreements are filed with this Current Report as Exhibits 10.1 (the form of Agreement with Mr. Currey) and 10.2 (the form Agreement with each of the other executive officers named above) and incorporated herein by this reference.

Payments under the Agreements are provided if (i) there is a change in control of the Company and (ii) within two years following the change in control, either the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without "cause" (i.e., commission of a felony, fraud, negligence in the performance of duties, or violation of the Company's code of conduct resulting in termination of employment) or the executive terminates his employment for "good reason" (i.e., reduction in salary, bonus or job responsibilities, or relocation more than 30 miles away). Change in control is defined in the Agreements and includes the acquisition of a majority of the Company's common stock, certain mergers, consolidations and asset transfers, or the election of a majority of the directors not recommended by the incumbent board.

Change in control benefits under the Agreements generally include (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to three years base salary and target bonus in the case of the CEO and two years base salary and target bonus in the case of all other executives, (ii) a prorata target bonus (if the bonus would not otherwise be paid) and (iii) continuation of medical, dental, life insurance and similar benefits for three years in the case of the CEO and two years in the case of all other executives. The Agreements also limit the amount of payments to be made thereunder to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise tax pursuant to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. The Agreements include covenants that prohibit the executives from competing and from soliciting Company employees for one year following a termination of employment.
