2002 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
May 16, 2002
PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL

Edgar Filing: MIDDLEBY CORP - Form DEF 14A

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy are furnished to stockholders of The Middleby Corporation (the "Company") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Company's Board of Directors for use at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Meeting") to be held at the Company's facility located at 1400 Toastmaster Drive, Elgin, Illinois, at 10:30 a.m. local time, on Thursday, May 16, 2002, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Meeting. The Proxy Statement, the form of proxy included herewith and the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001 are being mailed to stockholders on or about April 19, 2002.

Stockholders of record at the close of business on March 28, 2002 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. On such date there were outstanding 8,971,922 shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company ("Common Stock"). The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. In deciding all questions, each holder of Common Stock will be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share held on the record date.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the Meeting, who will determine whether or not a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote but as not voted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. Abstentions will have the same effect as negative votes. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter.

Properly executed proxies will be voted in the manner directed by the stockholders. If no direction is made, such proxies will be voted FOR the election of all nominees named under the caption "Proposal No. 1 Election of Directors" as set forth therein as directors of the Company and FOR approval of amendments to the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan as set forth below under the caption "Proposal No. 2 Approval of Amendments to the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan". Any proxy may be revoked by the stockholder at any time prior to the voting thereof by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company, either prior to the Meeting (at the above Elgin address) or at the Meeting if the stockholder attends in person. A later dated proxy will revoke a prior dated proxy. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors knows of no other business which will be presented for consideration at the Meeting. If other proper matters are presented at the Meeting, however, it is the intention of the proxy holders named in the enclosed form of proxy to take such actions as shall be in accordance with their best judgment.

The information contained in this Proxy Statement relating to the occupations and security holdings of directors and officers of the Company and their transactions with the Company is based upon information received from each individual as of March 28, 2002.

Employment Agreements

WILLIAM F. WHITMAN, JR. The Company and MM entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Whitman dated as of March 10, 1978, as amended and restated January 1, 1995, as amended as of January 1, 1998, and as amended as of January 1, 2001. The employment agreement, as amended, provides, among other things, for Mr. Whitman to serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company and Chairman of the Board of Directors of MM for a term ending December 31, 2005 and for a specified minimum amount of annual compensation. In addition, the employment agreement provides that Mr. Whitman shall be entitled to certain retirement benefits in the event of Mr. Whitman's termination of employment for any reason, including death or disability, such payments to commence on the first day of the month following the date of such termination of employment. The Company has established, and transferred assets to, a grantor trust for satisfying the retirement benefit obligation under this employment agreement. Each monthly installment of retirement benefits shall be in an amount (subject to CPI adjustments) equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of 75% of Mr. Whitman's total compensation in effect during the last year of his employment with the Company. Any such retirement benefits will be reduced, commencing March 1, 2005, by the amount per month which Mr. Whitman is entitled to receive under the Salaried Retirement Plan of the Company which was terminated in 1982. Retirement benefits will be paid to Mr. Whitman for his life, or if he dies before age 75, such benefits will be paid to his spouse until he would have attained age 75.

The employment agreement gives both parties the right to terminate in the event of a breach (willful breach, if the Company is terminating) of the obligations of the other party under the agreement, with certain payments to Mr. Whitman in certain events. The agreement may also be terminated by the Company at any time without cause upon 90 days notice, such termination to be effective in two years, but in such event Mr. Whitman would be entitled to salary and bonus for such two-year period. After termination for any reason except breach by the Company or MM, the Company and MM may elect to pay Mr. Whitman his base salary for an additional year, in which event Mr. Whitman may not compete with the Company or MM for such period of time. Moreover, the agreement extends to Mr. Whitman the right to terminate his employment at any time during a two-year period following a change in control of the Company, and upon such termination Mr. Whitman is entitled to receive as severance pay an amount equal to two years of his base salary, all accrued but unpaid salary, all benefits under the bonus plan and all retirement benefits under the agreement.

In addition, the Company maintains for the continued benefit of Mr. Whitman and his spouse all health and medical plans and programs which the Company maintains for its senior executives and their families. Mr. Whitman and his spouse are entitled to such health and medical benefits for life.

SELIM A. BASSOUL. Mr. Bassoul participates in two separate, special executive compensation plans. In February 2000, the Company loaned Mr. Bassoul the sum of $434,250 to pay for the purchase of 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The loan bears interest at the rate of 6.08% per annum. The Company agreed to forgive the indebtedness in increments over a three-year period if the Company reaches stated levels of earnings before taxes ("EBT") per share. The Company achieved the stated EBT level for the year 2000, and, accordingly, one-third of the principal balance plus interest was forgiven. The Company did not achieve the stated EBT level for year 2001, and, accordingly, no debt forgiveness occurred with respect to that time period. As of March 28, 2002, there was an outstanding principal loan balance of $289,500 plus interest. If Mr. Bassoul voluntarily leaves the Company the unforgiven portion of the loan becomes due. In March 2001, the Company loaned Mr. Bassoul the sum of $300,000 to pay for the purchase of 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The loan bears interest at the rate of 6.00% per annum. The Company agreed to forgive the indebtedness in increments over a three-year period if the Company reaches stated levels of EBT per share. The Company did not achieve the stated EBT level for year 2001, and, accordingly, no debt forgiveness occurred with respect to that time period. As of March 28, 2002, there was an outstanding principal loan balance of $300,000 plus interest. If Mr. Bassoul voluntarily leaves the Company the unforgiven portion of the loan becomes due.

In June 2000, the Company and Mr. Bassoul entered into a two-year severance agreement which provides that in the event of Mr. Bassoul's involuntary termination of employment with the Company other than for cause, or in the event Mr. Bassoul voluntarily leaves the Company within six months after a change of control, Mr. Bassoul is entitled to severance pay equal to one year's base salary plus one year's continued health and medical benefits. The June 2000 agreement was superceded in May 2001, when the Company and Mr. Bassoul entered into a three-year severance agreement which provides that in the event of Mr. Bassoul's involuntary termination of employment with the Company for any reason other than for cause or in the event Mr. Bassoul voluntarily leaves the Company within six months after a change of control, the Company will provide Mr. Bassoul with two years of base salary severance and two years of normal employer provided health insurance.

DAVID B. BAKER. In June 2001, the Company and Mr. Baker entered into a two-year severance agreement which provides that in the event of Mr. Baker's involuntary termination of employment with the Company other than for cause, or in the event Mr. Baker voluntarily leaves the Company within six months after a change of control, Mr. Baker is entitled to severance pay equal to one year's base salary plus one year's continued health and medical benefits.

Retirement Agreement

DAVID P. RILEY. Mr. Riley retired as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company as of December 31, 2000. The Company and MM entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Riley dated as of January 1, 1988, as restated and amended January 1, 1995, as amended as of January 1, 1998, as amended and restated as of December 4, 2000, as amended as of June 20, 2001. Under such amended and restated employment agreement, as of December 30, 2000, Mr. Riley is obligated as an independent contractor to perform consulting services for the Company as reasonably requested by the Company.

The amended and restated agreement provides that the Company pay Mr. Riley a lump sum retirement benefit of $1,830,000 in exchange for its release and discharge from all liability for annual retirement benefits due Mr. Riley after May 31, 2001 under a previous version of the agreement. The agreement also provides that the Company shall pay Mr. Riley a supplemental bonus of $200,000 on or before December 31, 2000 and the sum of $177,908 payable in equal monthly installments of $14,826 during calendar year 2001. The Company made those payments in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The Company is also responsible for paying certain business and personal expenses incurred during calendar year 2001.

The amended and restated agreement also provides that Mr. Riley's health and medical benefits shall continue at the expense of the Company through December 31, 2001 and thereafter at the expense of Mr. Riley. However, Mr. Riley's rights to such benefits shall cease in all events upon a change in control of the Company or upon Mr. Riley reaching age 65, whichever is earlier.

Profit Sharing Plan

The Company maintains a tax-qualified Profit Sharing and Savings Plan for those of its employees and the employees of affiliated employers who are not union employees, non-resident aliens or leased employees. Each eligible employee becomes a participant upon employment. This Plan provides for an annual discretionary profit sharing contribution by the Company and affiliated companies. The profit sharing contribution is allocated to individual accounts of participants in proportion to their compensation and is integrated with the applicable Social Security taxable wage base. A participant's profit sharing account begins vesting after 2 years of service with the Company and affiliated employers and is fully vested after 5 years of service. A participant whose employment terminates for reasons other than death, total disability or retirement on or after attaining age 65 is entitled only to the vested portion of his account. The Plan also permits participants to contribute to their own accounts on a pre-tax basis by means of compensation reduction elections. The portion of a participant's account that is attributable to compensation reduction contributions is always 100% vested. The Plan also permits the Company and affiliated employers to make matching contributions under the Savings Plan that are allocated to participants as a uniform percentage of their compensation reduction contributions for the same year. The portion of a participant's account that is attributable to matching contributions is subject to the same vesting rules that apply to that participant's profit sharing account. During the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001, the Company made Profit Sharing contributions of $250,000 and matching contributions of $107,061. Aggregate contributions to executive officers in such fiscal year totaled an estimated $25,780.

Stock Option Grants

The Company did not make any stock option grants during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001 to the named executive officers of the Company.

Edgar Filing: MIDDLEBY CORP - Form DEF 14A

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001 be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001.

Independent Public Accountants

Arthur Andersen LLP served as independent public accountants for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001. A representative of Arthur Andersen LLP is expected to attend the annual meeting to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Board of Directors intends to select a nationally recognized independent public accounting firm to conduct the audit for fiscal year 2002. The Audit Committee is expected to review the alternatives and make a recommendation for the full Board's consideration.

Audit Firm Fee Summary

During the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001. The Company retained its principal auditor, Arthur Andersen LLP, to provide services in the following categories and amounts:

Audit Fees	$228,000
Financial Information Systems Design & Implementation Fees	$0
All Other Fees	$709,700	(1)

(1)

All Other Fees consist of $312,800 for Blodgett due diligence support, $150,000 for Blodgett historical audits, $140,100 for tax related issues, $67,800 for actuarial services, and $39,000 in miscellaneous services.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the Company's principal auditor is compatible with maintaining the independence of Arthur Andersen LLP as the Company's public accountants.

Report of the Compensation Committee and Board of Directors

This Report of the Compensation Committee and Board of Directors shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act or under the Exchange Act except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates the information contained herein by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

The Compensation Committee reviews and approves recommendations concerning the compensation of the Chairman and the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The full Board of Directors reviews the Company's operating profit target levels and the bonus component of the compensation of executive officers and senior managers of the Company, other than the Chairman and the President and Chief Executive Officer. The basic strategy of the Compensation Committee is to have a significant portion of executive compensation at risk, where payment of bonuses is tied to performance and creating shareholder value.

William F. Whitman, Jr., Chairman of the Board, is employed by the Company pursuant to an employment agreement, which is summarized elsewhere in this Proxy Statement. Mr. Whitman's employment agreement establishes the components of his compensation arrangement as a minimum base salary plus a bonus based upon Company performance. The current level of base salary for Mr. Whitman has been determined on the basis of the value contributed by Mr. Whitman to the longstanding operations of the Company and MM. Mr. Whitman's 2001 bonus was based upon his contribution to achieving strategic initiatives, fulfilling cost containment goals, and generating favorable earnings before income taxes.

Edgar Filing: MIDDLEBY CORP - Form DEF 14A

Selim A. Bassoul, President and Chief Executive Officer, is employed by the Company pursuant to employment agreements, which are summarized elsewhere in this Proxy Statement. Mr. Bassoul's 2001 compensation for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001 was based upon his performance as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, including his contributions to achieving strategic initiatives, fulfilling cost containment goals, and generating favorable earnings before income taxes.

The compensation of other executive officers and senior managers of the Company are set at levels to be competitive with amounts paid to executive officers and senior managers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities at other businesses of similar type or with similar market capitalization. Such individuals receive a salary and also participate in an annual Management Incentive Compensation Plan. The Plan provides for payment of bonuses determined as a percentage of such participant's base salary depending on the achievement of certain levels of operating profits, earnings before tax and/or return on investment percentage. Target levels are set annually to be in line with the Company's annual budget, and are presented by the President and Chief Executive Officer to the Board of Directors for review and approval.

The Board of Directors believes that awards under the Company's incentive plans link the financial interests of management with those of the stockholders. Grants during any fiscal year, including the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001, are based on an individual's long-term contribution to the operations of the Company and MM.

The Compensation Committee:
Robert L. Yohe, Chairman, Robert R. Henry,
A. Don Lummus and John R. Miller III

Other Directors:
William F. Whitman, Jr., Selim A. Bassoul, David P. Riley,
Philip G. Putnam, Sabin C. Streeter, and Laura B. Whitman

13

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee consists of Robert R. Henry, A. Don Lummus, John R. Miller III and Robert L. Yohe, all of whom are independent directors of the Company and are not officers of the Company. William F. Whitman, Jr., the Chairman of the Board, and Selim A. Bassoul, the President and Chief Executive Officer, participate with the full board in reviewing and approving certain components of compensation of other executive officers and senior managers. Recommendations concerning the compensation of Messrs. Whitman and Bassoul, however, are subject to the review and approval of the Compensation Committee.

Directors' Compensation

Each director of the Company receives an annual fee of $12,000, and each director who is not an officer of the Company receives an additional fee of $1,000 for each meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof that he or she attends. Each director who serves as a committee chair receives an additional annual fee of $2,000. In 2002, the annual fee will be raised to $14,000 for each director who is not an officer of the Company.

Directors' Retirement Plan

The Company maintains an unfunded retirement plan for non-employee directors. The plan provides for an annual benefit upon retirement from the Board of Directors at age 70, equal to 100% of the director's last annual retainer, payable on a quarterly basis for a number of years equal to the director's years of service, up to a maximum of 10 years.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 APPROVAL OF AMENDMENTS TO THE 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

The Board of Directors has adopted, subject to stockholder approval, a proposal to amend the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan") in the following two respects:

To increase the number of shares with respect to which options may be granted by an additional 300,000 shares, and

To permit a one-time grant to Selim A. Bassoul, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, of options for 200,000 shares in fiscal year 2002.

The Board of Directors believes it is important to develop compensation packages that will attract and retain executive officers of the Company. Increasing the number of shares with respect to which options can be granted will provide the Company with the flexibility that the Board feels is needed to achieve this goal.

The Plan as originally adopted provided that options may be granted for an aggregate of 550,000 shares of Common Stock and that the number of option shares (subject to adjustment) that could be granted in a fiscal year to any executive officer would not exceed 100,000 shares. As a result of option grants and exercises, only 91,063 shares were available for future option grants under the Plan at April 19, 2002.

Subject to stockholder approval of the proposed amendments to the Plan, William F. Whitman, Jr. was granted options for 100,000 shares and Selim A. Bassoul was granted options for 200,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock under the Plan. Those options were granted on February 26, 2002 at an exercise price of $5.90 per share (100% of fair market value on the grant date), expire 10 years from the grant date, and vest as follows: 20% on February 26, 2003; 40% on February 26, 2004; 60% on February 26, 2005; 80% on February 26, 2006; and 100% on February 26, 2007. If the stockholders do not approve the amendments to the Plan, the options granted to Messrs. Whitman and Bassoul on February 26, 2002 will be cancelled.

If stockholders approve the proposed amendments to the Plan, (1) the aggregate number of shares of the Company's Common Stock available for grants under the Plan will increase from 550,000 to 850,000, and (2) the number of shares available for future option grants under the Plan will be 91,063 after taking into account the 300,000 options granted to Messrs. Bassoul and Whitman described above. At April 19, 2002, an aggregate of 261,000 shares were covered by unexercised options under the Plan; to the extent that any of these options should expire or be forfeited, shares covered by such options may be re-granted under the Plan.

On April 10, 2002, the last reported sale price of the Company's Common Stock on Nasdaq National Market was $6.35 per share.

Description of the Plan

The Plan permits the granting of any or all of the following: (1) stock options, including incentive stock options, (2) stock appreciation rights ("SARs"), in tandem with stock options or free-standing, (3) restricted stock and (4) performance stock.

The Board of Directors of the Company administers the Plan. The Board has the authority to make grants and to determine their terms; provided, however, that the selection of eligible employees for participation and decisions concerning the timing, pricing and amount of a grant is made solely by a committee consisting of two or more directors. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Board has the authority to interpret the provisions of the Plan, to adopt any rules, procedures and forms necessary for the operation and administration of the Plan, and to determine all questions relating to the eligibility and other rights of all persons under the Plan. All employees of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates are eligible to be participants.

The number of shares of the Company's Common Stock available for grants under the Plan is subject to adjustment if there is a merger, consolidation, stock dividend, split-up, combination, or exchange of shares, recapitalization or change in capitalization with respect to the shares of Common Stock. The shares of stock deliverable under the Plan may consist in whole or in part of unissued shares or reacquired shares. If a grant expires or is canceled, any shares which were not issued or fully vested under the grant at the time of expiration or cancellation will again be available for grants.

Options may be either "Incentive Stock Options," as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), or options not intended to be so qualified ("Non-qualified Options"). The Board may grant more than one option to a participant during the life of the Plan, and such option may be in addition to an option or options previously granted. However, the aggregate fair market value of stock with respect to which Incentive Stock Options are exercisable for the first time by such individual during any calendar year (under all stock option plans of the Company and its subsidiaries) may not exceed $100,000. Incentive Stock Options shall be exercisable at no less than 100% of the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant, subject to anti-dilution provisions. However, if any Incentive Stock Option is granted to an individual who owns more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, actually or constructively under Section 424 of the Code, such option shall be exercisable at 110% of the fair market value of the stock subject to the option. Non-qualified Options may be granted at less than 100% of the fair market value of shares on the date of grant.

To comply with Section 162(m) of the Code with respect to future grants of options, the Plan (i) limits the number of shares to which options may be granted to each executive officer whose compensation is required to be reported in the Company's annual proxy statement (an "Executive Officer") to 100,000 during any fiscal year during which such person serves as an Executive Officer (if the stockholders approve the proposed amendment, in fiscal year 2002, Mr. Bassoul will receive a one-time grant of options for 200,000 shares); and (ii) provides that certain required decisions concerning grants under the Plan will be made by a committee of "outside directors" appointed by the Board of Directors. Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductible compensation paid to Executive Officers of publicly held corporations to $1,000,000. Any taxable compensation which is recognized by an Executive Officer upon (i) the exercise of a nonstatutory option or (ii) a disqualifying disposition of stock acquired under an incentive stock option, is subject to the limit. However, the limit will not apply if the options are granted under a stockholder-approved plan document which specifies the maximum number of option shares that can be granted to an Executive Officer during the corporation's tax year, provided that each grant is determined by a directors' committee which is comprised solely of "outside directors".

Options granted pursuant to the Plan will generally be transferable only by will or by laws governing descent and distribution, and during the lifetime of an optionee, will be exercisable only by the optionee. However, subject to the approval of the Board, the Plan provides that an option may be transferable, as permitted under the Exchange Act, as long as such transfers are made to one or more of the following: family members, including children of the optionee, the spouse of the optionee, or grandchildren of the optionee, trusts for such family members or charities ("Transferees"), and provided that such transfer is a bona fide gift and, accordingly, the optionee receives no consideration for the transfer, and that the options transferred continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions that were applicable to the options immediately prior to the transfer. In the event of such a transfer, the Transferee may not subsequently transfer such option. However, the designation of a beneficiary will not constitute a transfer.

No option will be exercisable following three months after termination of employment with the Company (or such shorter or longer period as the option may provide) unless such termination of employment occurs by reason of disability or death. In the event of the disability or death of an optionee while an employee of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, the options or unexercisable portions thereof, to the extent exercisable on the date of disability or death, shall be exercisable at any time for a period not to exceed the expiration of one year from the date of disability or death (or such shorter period as the option may provide). In no event, however, shall an option be exercisable after the expiration of ten years from the date such option was granted (five years in the case of Incentive Stock Options granted to an optionee owning more than 10% of the voting power of stock of the Company as contemplated by Section 425 (d) of the Code), or beyond the term for which it was granted.

Payment for shares of Common Stock purchased upon exercise of an option granted under the Plan shall be made in full at the time of such exercise, whether in cash, shares of the Company's Common Stock (valued at fair market value), by a note payable to the Company, or in a combination of cash, notes and shares of stock. Under this provision, "pyramiding" of the shares may be allowed. In pyramiding, an optionee requests the Company to apply the shares received upon exercise of a portion of an option to satisfy the purchase price for additional portions of the option. The effect of pyramiding is to allow an optionee to deliver a relatively small number of shares in satisfaction of the purchase price of even the largest option. The technique yields an optionee no more than the appreciation or "spread" inherent in the exercise of the option.

A SAR may be granted free-standing or in tandem with new options. However, a SAR which is issued in tandem with an Incentive Stock Option will be subject to the following: (i) it will expire no later than at the expiration of the Incentive Stock Option; (ii) payment under the SAR will not exceed 100% of the difference between the exercise price of the option and the fair market value of stock on the date the SAR is exercised; (iii) it will be transferable only when the option is transferable, and under the same conditions; (iv) it will be exercisable only when the option is exercisable; and (v) it may only be exercised when the fair market value of the Company's stock exceeds the exercise price of the option. Payment by the Company upon exercise of a SAR will be in cash, stock, or any combination thereof as the Board shall determine.

The Plan provides that each grant of restricted stock shall include a description of the restrictions applicable to the grant and the conditions on which the restrictions may be removed. Each grant will also provide whether the recipient must pay any amount in connection with the grant and, if so, the amount and terms of that payment. Such amount shall not exceed 10% of the fair market value of the restricted stock at the time the grant is made, and may be for such lesser amount as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

The Plan provides that each grant of performance stock shall include a description of any applicable provisions relating to the performance period and performance criteria. Performance stock awards offer certain employees the potential for substantial financial incentives (in addition to potential appreciation in the value of Company Common Stock) based on continued service and the achievement of long-term Company performance goals, but in a manner that also places such employees at risk in the event of poor Company performance. The Company offers the opportunity to purchase a specified number of Company shares at market price to selected employees pursuant to a performance award structure. The amount of shares to be granted will be at the discretion of the Plan committee.

Under the structure, the purchase of shares is fully financed by full-recourse interest-bearing loans provided by the Company. Purchasing employees are also eligible to receive a deferred cash incentive award at the end of a 5-year incentive period. Two-thirds of the incentive award will be based on Company performance criteria during the performance period. The remaining one-third of the incentive award are based on the participant's continued service with the Company until the end of the performance period. The maximum incentive award (based on achievement of certain target performance goals) is equal to the amount of the loan plus accrued interest through the date of the award payment. The portion of the incentive award attributable to Company performance criteria varies based on the degree of achievement of the performance requirement. Currently, the initial award performance criteria are based on the Company's earnings per share. The Company reserves the right to alter the structure of any performance stock award under the Plan.

If there is a merger, consolidation, stock dividend, split-up, combination or exchange of shares, recapitalization or change in capitalization with respect to the shares of Common Stock, or any other corporate action with respect to the shares of Common Stock which, in the opinion of the Board, adversely affects the relative value of a grant, the number of shares and the exercise price (in the case of an option) of any grant which is outstanding at the time of that event will be adjusted by the Board to the extent necessary to remedy the adverse effect on the grant's value.

Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Plan

16

With respect to Non-qualified Options, the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the stock on the date the option is exercised will be taxable as ordinary income to the optionee and will be deductible by the Company as compensation on such date. Gain or loss on the subsequent sale of such stock will be eligible for capital gain or loss treatment by the optionee and will have no federal income tax consequences to the Company.

An exchange of Common Stock in payment of the option price in the case of a Non-qualified Option is considered a tax-free exchange by the optionee to the extent of a like number of new shares, with the new shares retaining the basis and holding period of the old shares. The fair market value of any additional shares transferred to the optionee (representing the excess of the fair market value of all of the new shares over the fair market value of all of the old shares) will constitute ordinary income to the optionee and be deductible by the Company. This amount then becomes the optionee's basis in such shares.

With respect to Incentive Stock Options, if the optionee does not make a disqualifying disposition of stock acquired on exercise of such option, no income for federal income tax purposes will result to such optionee upon the granting or exercise of the option (except that the amount by which the fair market value of the stock at time of exercise exceeds the option price will be a tax preference item under the expanded alternative minimum tax), and in the event of any sale thereafter any amount realized in excess of cost will be taxed as long-term capital gain and any loss sustained will be long-term capital loss. In such case, the Company will not be entitled to a deduction for federal income tax purposes in connection with the issuance or exercise of the option. A disqualifying disposition will occur if the optionee makes a disposition of such shares within two years from the date of the granting of the option or within one year after the transfer of such shares. If a disqualifying disposition is made, the difference between the option price and the lesser of (i) the fair market value of the stock at the time the option is exercised or (ii) the amount realized upon disposition of the stock will be treated as ordinary income to the optionee at the time of disposition and will be allowed as a deduction to the Company.

An exchange of Common Stock in payment of the option price in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, if the exchange is not a disqualifying disposition of the stock exchanged, is considered to be tax-free. Under proposed regulations, a number of shares received upon exercise equal to the number of shares exchanged will have a basis equal to the basis of the shares exchanged and the remaining shares received will have a zero basis.

An exchange of statutory option stock to acquire other stock on exercise of an Incentive Stock Option is a taxable recognition transaction with respect to the stock disposed of if the minimum statutory holding period for such statutory option stock has not been met. Statutory option stock includes stock acquired through exercise of an Incentive Stock Option, a restricted stock option or an option granted under an employee stock purchase plan. If there is such a premature disposition, ordinary income is attributed to the optionee (and will be deductible by the Company) to the extent of the optionee's "bargain" purchase on acquisition of the surrendered stock, and the post-acquisition appreciation in value of such stock is taxed to optionee as a short-term gain if held for less than the applicable holding period for long-term capital gains, and long-term capital gain if held for such applicable holding period, and will not be deductible by the Company.

A portion of the excess of the amount deductible by the Company over the value of options when issued may be subject to the alternative minimum tax imposed on corporations. With respect to SARs, the fair market value of shares issued and the amount of cash paid by the Company upon exercise of such rights will be taxable as ordinary income to the holder of the rights and will be deductible by the Company, in each case on the date of exercise. Gain or loss on the subsequent sale of such shares will be eligible for capital gain or loss treatment by the recipient and will have no federal income tax consequences to the Company.

With respect to grants of restricted stock, shares may be granted to an employee without recognition of income by the employee as long as the shares are not transferable and remain subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture. Upon the lapse of any restrictions on the transferability of the shares or the lapse of the conditions creating the risk of forfeiture, the employee is required to recognize ordinary income to the extent of the excess of the fair market value of the shares, determined at the time of the lapse of the applicable restrictions, over the price, if any, paid for the shares. The employee may, alternatively, elect to recognize income at the date of the award, in the amount of the then difference between the value of unrestricted shares and the price, if any, paid by the employee for the restricted shares. The Company is allowed a deduction in an amount equal to the income recognized by the employee in the year such income is recognized. Unless the election referred to above is made, dividends received during the continuation of restrictions on shares will be taxable to the employee as ordinary income for the periods in which such dividends are received, and such dividends will be deductible by the Company as compensation. Dividends received after such election has been made or after the restrictions cease to apply will be taxed as dividends to the employee and will not be deductible by the Company.

The tax consequences with respect to grants of performance stock will depend upon the structure of such awards.

The described tax consequences are based on current laws, regulations and interpretations thereof, all of which are subject to change. In addition, the discussion is limited to federal income taxes and does not attempt to describe state and local tax effects which may accrue to participants or the Company.
