Welcome to our family!

Dear Valued Customer,

Pending expected regulatory and shareholder approval, Bank of Lenawee will officially join First Federal Bank of the Midwest at the close of business on Friday, March 14, 2008. This partnership will directly benefit you in many ways! Our strong commitment to superior customer service, local decision making and community involvement will remain a top priority, and you will soon have access to a wider variety of financial services from 36 locations throughout Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

We want to make it easy for you to get to know First Federal Bank. To help you understand how and when your accounts will transfer and to answer some of your initial questions, we have developed this Customer Account Guide. It reviews your current services with Bank of Lenawee (checking account, mortgage loan, etc.), identifies comparable First Federal Bank products, and explains what you can expect in the next 30-45 days. We hope you find this information helpful and will retain this guide for future reference.

At First Federal, our success is built around the quality of our people, unrivaled customer service, a true community banking philosophy and our unique ability to make decisions at the local level. We know you placed your trust in Bank of Lenawee, and we look forward to the opportunity to earn your trust in First Federal Bank.

Thank you in advance for your patience with this process. For any account questions before March 14th, you can continue to call The Bank of Lenawee offices at 1-800-508-8346. If you have any questions after the conversion, please call our Customer Care Line at 1-877-367-8178.

Edgar Filing: FIRST DEFIANCE FINANCIAL CORP - Form 425

Welcome to our family!

Sincerely,

Jeffrey D. Vereecke
Northern Market President
First Federal Bank

Richard J. DeVries
President and CEO
Bank of Lenawee

Please Note: While we transition, The Bank of Lenawee offices will be closed at 5:00 p.m. on Friday March 14th, will remain closed Saturday, March 15th and will reopen Monday, March 17th with normal business hours.

What to expect Transition Weekend

March 14th March 17th, 2008

Our goal is to make the transition from Bank of Lenawee to First Federal Bank as smooth as possible. To accomplish our system changeover, it is necessary to temporarily close offices and briefly disable some of our electronic services. Here is a summary of changes that will take place March 14-17, 2008:

Branches will be closed Saturday, March 15th

All Bank of Lenawee offices and drive-thrus will close at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 14th and will remain closed all day Saturday, March 15th for account conversion. We apologize in advance for any inconvenience. The Bank of Lenawee offices in Adrian, Hudson, Morenci, Tecumseh and Hillsdale will re-open on Monday, March 17th as First Federal Bank offices. Lobby and drive-thru hours will not change. The Waldron office will be permanently closed after Friday, March 14th.

Bank By Phone

Bank of Lenawee's telephone banking service will be de-activated on Friday, March 14th at 7:30 p.m. To access your First Federal Bank accounts by phone beginning Monday, March 17th, at 8:00 a.m., please dial First Federal Bank's Bank By Phone at 1-888-511-1077 and follow the prompts. You will need to use a new PIN when you call First Federal Bank's Bank By Phone the first time. Deposit customers will receive instructions through the mail on using Bank By Phone in the near future.

Use your Bank of Lenawee checks

Your current Bank of Lenawee checks (for checking accounts) can be used for six months, until September 15th. In several weeks, you will receive a coupon to order free First Federal Bank checks to replace your Bank of Lenawee checks. If you use checks with your Money Market account, you can continue using them until September 15th and can order a new, free supply at any branch.

ATMs will be available, new cards to be issued

Even though the offices will be closed, you will still be able to use any of the Bank of Lenawee ATMs (or any other ATMs) and make debit card purchases over the transition weekend until 7:00 a.m. on Monday, March 17th using your current Bank of Lenawee Cash2Go debit card. After that, you will need to use your activated First Federal Bank debit card. You will receive your new debit card with activation instructions in a few weeks.

OnLine Banking and Bill Pay Services

All functions of Internet Banking (Online Express Banking) will be unavailable beginning Thursday, March 13th at 7:30 p.m. from the Bank of Lenawee website you currently use. You will be able to access your account from the First Federal Bank website (www.first-fed.com) beginning Monday, March 17th at 8:00 a.m. Current Bank of Lenawee Internet Banking and Bill Pay customers will not have to register again. You will receive details on the new login process in the next few weeks.

All Bank of Lenawee Online Express Bill Pay services will cut off on March 11th at 5:00 p.m. Your Bill Pay payees and account information will transfer over automatically to First Federal Bank, so you will not have to re-enter that information after the conversion.

Final Bank of Lenawee statements

You will receive a final Bank of Lenawee statement for all checking, savings and loan accounts. The statements will be printed and mailed after Friday, March 14th.

Our goal is to make the transition from Bank of Lenawee to First Federal Bank as smooth as possible. To accomplish

Welcome To First Federal Bank Answers to your Questions

Q: I understand Bank of Lenawee is changing to First Federal Bank of the Midwest. When will this change take place?

A: The change begins at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 14th. The offices will be closed on Saturday the 15th as we convert all the files from one computer system to another, but you will be able to use your Bank of Lenawee ATM and debit cards that weekend as usual. On Monday, March 17th, the conversion will be complete, and the new accounts will be in place. As a Bank of Lenawee customer, you will be notified of any actions you may need to take as part of the changeover.

Q: What are the advantages to me as a customer?

A: First Federal Bank is a leading community bank headquartered in nearby Defiance, Ohio. We live and work in the communities we serve and understand the financial needs of our customers. We are well known for fast, local decision making and exceptional customer service. We put our customers first! As a First Federal Bank customer, you will have access to 36 branch locations and 45 ATMs throughout northwest Ohio, Fort Wayne, Indiana and southeast Michigan (see locations on the back of this guide). First Federal Bank offers a wide variety of checking and savings accounts, loan products, online banking and bill pay services. We also offer insurance and wealth management services for individuals and businesses and are insured by the FDIC. We look forward to working with you, providing you with new products and services, and continuing the tradition of excellent customer service.

Q: What will happen to the Bank of Lenawee office in Waldron?

A: The Bank of Lenawee office in Waldron will be permanently closed for business at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 14, 2008 and will not re-open on March 17th. Waldron customers can be served through any First Federal Bank office beginning March 17th.

Q: When can I begin to use First Federal Bank branch offices and ATMs?

A: Starting Monday, March 17th at normal branch business hours, you may conduct all of your financial transactions at any First Federal Bank office in northwest Ohio, southeast Michigan and Fort Wayne, Indiana. Bank of Lenawee ATMs will be unavailable from 7:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 17th as they are converted to First Federal Bank ATMs, and then can be used after that time once you have activated your new First Federal Bank ATM/debit card.

Checking Account Information

Q: When and how will my current checking account change to a First Federal Bank account?

A: Conversion will begin at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 14th, and the offices will be closed on Saturday the 15th as we convert all the files from one computer system to another. Your checking account will transfer to the First Federal Bank product that most closely matches your current Bank of Lenawee product. (See chart below for details.) If you feel one of our other checking products such as Merit Checking for those 50 and better and Premium Checking with higher interest rates, better serves your needs, you can change to a different one anytime after Monday, March 17th. There will be no monthly minimum balance fees assessed on any accounts in the first 90 days as you decide.

Q: Will my direct deposit and automatic transfer services continue as before?

A: Yes. If you had direct deposit of Social Security, payroll or other regular deposits, your current service will continue without interruption. Automatic transfers between accounts and automatic deductions of payments will also continue, with no action needed on your part.

Q: Will I be able to use my current checks after March 17th?

A: Yes. Your current Bank of Lenawee checks will clear with no problems until September 15th, 2008. Before the conversion, you will receive a coupon and an order form for 150 free duplicate or 200 free standard checks from First Federal Bank. If you wish, you can place your order for new First Federal Bank checks before March 17th by bringing the coupon to any Bank of Lenawee office or by mailing the coupon and order form to the First Federal Bank main office (envelopes will be provided). You have until September 15th, 2008 to use the coupon for free checks. If you re-order your own checks from a different vendor, please use the First Federal Bank routing number (the first series of numbers on the bottom of your checks) which is 241270851.

Q: Will my account numbers change?

A: No. We have made arrangements so your account numbers can remain the same. One thing that will change is the routing number on any new checks you order. The First Federal Bank routing number is 241270851.

Savings & Money Market Accounts

Q: Will the features of my Savings or Money Market Account change?

A: The First Federal Bank savings account that most closely matches your current Savings Account is called a Statement Savings Account. If you have a Money Market Account, it will be transferred to a First Federal Bank Money Market Deposit Account. If you use checks with your Money Market Account, you can continue to use your current Bank of Lenawee checks until September 15, 2008. You can order a new supply of free checks anytime by stopping in any First Federal Bank branch between March 17th and September 15th. See the chart below and the fee schedule on page 10 for details on these accounts.

Q: Can I link my savings account to my debit card for ATM withdrawals?

A: You will have the ability to link your Statement Savings account to a First Federal Bank ATM/debit card for ATM access to your account 24 hours a day. For debit card purchases, a checking account is required.

Q: Are my accounts going to be FDIC insured?

A: Your deposit is insured by the FDIC up to the $100,000 maximum amount allowed by law. If this conversion causes your total deposits to exceed $100,000, we will contact you and help you rearrange your deposits to make sure you are adequately covered.

Q: Can I change my savings account to something different after the conversion?

A: Yes. First Federal Bank also offers a Premium Money Market Account and a Premium Savings Account with additional benefits that may interest you. There will be no monthly minimum balance fees assessed on any accounts in the first 90 days as you decide.

ATM & Debit Cards

Q: Will I receive a new ATM/Debit Card? When do I begin using it?

A: Yes, your current Cash2Go ATM/Debit Card will be replaced with a First Federal Bank combination ATM/Debit Card. The new card can be used at all ATMs as in the past. It can also be used as a debit card, linked directly to your checking account at First Federal Bank. You will receive your new card and PIN in the mail in early March. IMPORTANT: Your current Bank of Lenawee ATM/Debit Card can only be used until 7:00 a.m. on Monday, March 17th. After that, you will need to use your new First Federal Bank card. If you would like to change the PIN assigned with your new First Federal Bank card, you can do that at any ATM beginning March 18th.

Q: How and when do I activate my new ATM/Debit Card?

A: Your new First Federal Bank ATM/Debit Card can be activated beginning Sunday, March 16th at 5:00 p.m. by calling the number located on the sticker of your new card. Once activated, the card can be used for debit purchases or ATM transactions on March 17th. If you have recurring payments debited to your account through your debit card, you will need to contact those companies after the conversion and give them your new debit card number. You will have more details on setting up your new card when you receive the card in the mail.

OnLine Banking & Bill Pay

Q: When will my online banking services become available?

A: Beginning Thursday, March 13th at 7:30 p.m., your current account will not be accessible from the Bank of Lenawee website you currently use. You can access your checking, savings and loan accounts from the First Federal Bank website at www.first-fed.com beginning Monday, March 17th at 8:00 a.m. If you currently use internet banking services, you will not need to re-register. You will however need to log in differently and you will need to set up new security features. You will receive specific instructions in the mail.

New OnLine Banking customers may view a demo and register at First Federal Bank's website anytime after 8:00 a.m. on March 17th by clicking the demo button on the homepage.

Q: What about my Bill Pay services?

A: Bank of Lenawee's bill payment service will be turned off at 5:00 p.m. on March 11th, 2008. If you currently use Online Express Bill Pay services, your account information and payees will automatically transfer to First Federal Bank. If you have never used Bill Pay services and would like to begin, you can register anytime after 8:00 a.m. on March 17th at www.first-fed.com.

Mortgage Loans

Q: Will I receive a new payment coupon book?

A: Yes. You will continue using your current Bank of Lenawee mortgage coupon book until you receive a new payment book from First Federal Bank after the conversion. The new payment book will contain instructions on how to make your next mortgage payment. If you currently make an electronic mortgage loan payment, you will not receive a coupon book. Your payment will continue to be made electronically. Payments can also be made at any First Federal Bank office after March 17th.

Q: Will my loan terms change?

A: No. Your mortgage payment amount and payment due date will remain the same. The other terms of your mortgage loan will remain the same as well.

Q: Will my escrow arrangement change?

A: No. If you currently have escrow arrangements, those arrangements will remain in place with First Federal Bank. You will receive a final escrow analysis from Bank of Lenawee before the conversion and a First Federal Bank escrow analysis annually at the end of each following February.

Personal, Home Equity and Auto Loans

Q: Will the features of my personal, home equity or auto loan change?

A: No. Your payment amount and payment due date will remain the same. First Federal Bank will honor the terms and interest rate arrangements in place for these loans.

Q: Will I receive a new payment book? What about new home equity checks?

A: For personal and auto loans, you can continue to use your current payment book until you receive a new payment book from First Federal Bank after the conversion. Your new book will reflect the next payment due dates. If you currently make electronic payments, you will not receive a new payment book.

If you have a home equity loan, you will be able to use your old checks until September 15th to access your account. You will receive three new First Federal Bank checks in the mail to use for your home equity account. When you need more, you may come to a branch near you and First Federal Bank checks will be printed for you while you wait. Your monthly home equity invoice will be sent to you in a statement printed on the 5th of the month and due on the 25th of the month.

IRAS & CDs

Q: Will there be any changes to my certificate(s) of deposit or individual retirement accounts?

A: Your IRA account will be transferred to First Federal Bank as the Trustee for the IRA. Your funds will continue to be insured separately from other deposits up to the maximum amount allowed by law. If you make a deposit to your IRA account after Monday, March 17th for the 2007 tax year, it will be credited appropriately. First Federal Bank will honor the terms and interest rate arrangements already in place for your CDs and IRAs. However, instead of a quarterly statement, you will receive one annual statement for your CD.

OTHER SERVICES

Q: What is Overdraft Privilege?

A: Overdraft Privilege is a special overdraft protection service First Federal Bank provides to all checking accounts in good standing. There is no fee other than our standard $31.50 NSF fee for each item overdrawn. You will receive detailed information on Overdraft Privilege in future letters.

Q: What about my credit card?

A: Your Bank of Lenawee credit card can be used as you normally would until further notice.

Q: Will my safe deposit box service change?

A: Your safe deposit box will remain the same. If you received a discount, your discount will carry over.

Business Accounts

Q: What if I have a business checking account?

A: If you currently have a business checking account, you will be contacted by letter or phone with details on First Federal Bank's advantageous business products, which include Internet Cash Management and Payroll Processing services, Sweep Accounts, Remote Deposit Service and Free Small Business Checking accounts. We look forward to working with you and providing you with additional options for your business, along with exceptional customer service. For businesses needing routing numbers, the First Federal Bank routing number is 241270851.

Q: Will my commercial loan terms change?

A: No. First Federal Bank will honor the terms and rate arrangements already in place for your commercial accounts, however your monthly billing process and statements may change. We will contact you to provide you with the details.
