PROXY STATEMENT

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

STANDARD CAPITAL CORPORATION

Your proxy, using the enclosed form, is solicited by the Directors of Standard Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("the Company") for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("the Annual Meeting") to be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, November 18, 2005, at The Vancouver Club located at 915 West Hastings St, Vancouver, B.C., Canada, and at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting.

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

This Proxy Statement, the enclosed proxy card, our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, are furnished to the holders of our common stock. Management anticipates that the mailing to stockholders of these proxy materials will occur on or about November 1, 2005.

PURPOSE OF MEETING

Edgar Filing: STANDARD CAPITAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The specific proposal to be considered and acted upon at the Annual Meeting are summarized in the proceeding Notice of Annual Meeting. Each proposal is described in more detail in this Proxy Statement.

VOTING RIGHTS

Our common stock is the only class of securities entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on October 31, 2005 (the "Record Date") are entitled to receive Notice of the Annual Meeting and vote the shares they hold at the Annual Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement. As of the Record Date, there were 2,285,000 shares of common stock outstanding; each share is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted upon. A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be available for inspection during ordinary business hours at the Company's offices at 2429 128th Street, Surrey, British Columbia, Canada, V4A 3W2 from the date hereof up to the date of the Annual Meeting.

Voting can take place at the Annual Meeting only if stockholders owning a majority of voting power of the common stock (that is a majority of the total number of votes entitled to be cast) are present in person or represented by effective proxies. On the Record Date, the Company had 2,285,000 voting shares of common stock outstanding. Approval of each of the proposals requires the affirmative votes required to achieve a majority of the votes cast. Abstentions will not affect the voting results although they will have the practical effect of reducing the number of affirmative votes required to achieve a majority by reducing the total number of shares from which the majority is calculated.

Whether or not you are able to attend the Annual Meeting in person, you are urged to complete, sign, date and return the accompanying proxy in the enclosed envelope. Your proxy is solicited by our Directors and when properly completed and not revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your instructions. Proxies which are executed but do not specify a vote for or against, or in abstention, will be voted FOR the election of each of the two nominees for Director named below and; FOR ratification for the appointment of Madsen & Associates, CPA's Inc. as the Company's independent public accountants the fiscal year ending August 31, 2006. If other matters come before the Annual Meeting the proxies will be voted at the discretion of your directors.

Your proxy may be revoked or changed at any time prior to the Annual Meeting. You may do this by advising the Secretary of the Company in writing of your desire to revoke your proxy, or by sending the Secretary another signed proxy with a later date before the beginning of the Annual Meeting. If you decide to attend the Annual Meeting and wish to change your proxy vote, you may do so by voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The solicitation of proxies will be conducted by mail and the Company will bear the entire cost of solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing, and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the Proxy, and additional solicitation material furnished to stockholders. The Company has not retained a proxy solicitor in conjunction with the Annual Meeting. The Company may conduct further solicitation personally, telephonically or by facsimile through its sole director who will not receive any additional compensation for assisting with the solicitation.

Edgar Filing: STANDARD CAPITAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the Annual Meeting, the stockholders will elect two directors to serve until the 2006 Annual Meeting of stockholders or until they're respective successors are elected and qualified. Unless marked otherwise, proxies received will be voted FOR the election of the two nominees named below. In the event that additional persons are nominated for election as directors, the proxy holders intend to vote all proxies received by them in such a manner as will ensure the election of the two nominees listed below, and in such an event, the specific nominees to be voted for will be determined by the proxy holders.

Stockholders are not entitled to cumulate voting in the election of directors. All nominees have consented to serve as directors, if elected. If none of the nominee is unable or unwilling to serve as a director, at the time of the Annual Meeting, the persons who are designated as proxies intend to vote, in their discretion, for such other persons, if any, as may be designated by the director. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the directors have no reason to believe that any of the nominees named below will be unable or unwilling to serve as a nominee or as a director if elected.

Both the nominees for director are currently directors of the Company. The names of persons who are nominees for director, their ages as of the Record Date, and their positions and offices with the Company are set forth in the table below:

NOMINEE	AGE	POSITION AND OFFICE HELD WITH THE COMPANY
Del Thachuk (1)	69	Chief Executive officer, President and Director
Gordon Brooke (1)	60	NONE

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE OF DIRECTOR NOMINEES

DEL THACHUK, has been the President and Director of the Company since its inception. Del graduated from the Victoria Composite High School in Edmonton, Alberta before spending nine months articling as a Chartered Accountant student; but did not complete the course requirements. Subsequently, he worked for two years for the City of Edmonton as a surveyor before entering professional football for four years. Del was a player for London Lords in London, Ontario and then was hired by the Edmonton Eskimos. From 1962 to 1969, he was owner and president of Civic Tire & Battery Ltd. located in Olds, Alberta. His company owned three tire shops and was in partnership with an additional two. Subsequent to the sale of his company he became a contractor for a short period of time during which time he built and sold five houses and approximately thirty pre-fab. homes. In 1971, Del commenced mining a placer gold property he owned in Atlin, British Columbia. During the fifteen years he mined his placer property he extracted in excess of 30,000 ounces of gold. With the sale of the placer property, Del, over the next five years, entered into various mining ventures in Nevada, Washington State and British Columbia. During the same period of time, he was president of Red Fox Minerals Ltd., a company listed on the former Vancouver Stock Exchange. In 1991, he became part owner and general manager of Koken Sand & Gravel which employed 36 employees and in its third year of operations had in excess of CDN $6,000,000 in sales. In 1994, Mr. Thachuk became a consultant for various companies until 1997 when he acquired and became president of a Mine-A-Max Corporation, a company trading on the OTCBB (currently under the name of Peabody's Coffee Inc.). He is no longer associated with Peabody's Coffee Inc. For the past five years, Del has been investigating various business opportunities and assisting individuals in start-up situations. In 2001, he became the president and a director of Info-Pro Technology Systems Inc.; a company developing business manuals for sale directly to the public or on the internet. To date, no sales have been made but the product is now fully developed.

GORDON BROOKE attended Westwood School Secondary School in Paddington, London, England before becoming an articled clerk in 1961 with Roberts White and Company, Chartered Accountants. In 1967, he continued his articles with FF Charles & Company, Chartered Accountants, as audit manager and supervisor of audits which entailed general audit, accounting, financial statement presentation for small public companies, including such companies as a dairy, a trade stamp company, automobile dealerships, financing companies, engineering, retailer, wholesalers, barristers and solicitors, antique dealers and clothing manufacturers. He had total responsibility for the audit of Michael Manufacturing Limited, a public trading company. This entailed the preparation of all information in the year-end financial statements and all printed matters for exchange filing and information to be distributed to the shareholders. In 1969, he qualified as a Chartered Accountant for England and Wales and immigrated to Canada where he accepted a position with Deloitte, Haskins and Sells, Chartered Accountants, in Toronto, Canada. His responsibilities included being an audit supervisor for mainly small and large business clients which included such firms as Wickett & Craig- tanners, Canada Dry Inc. - soft drinks, Chromalox Canada - heating systems, Northern Pigments - paints, to name a few. In 1972, he accepted a position as assistant to the chief Financial Officer of Candeco Management Inc. of Toronto where his responsibilities included preparation of monthly and annual financial reporting packages for all subsidiaries including corporate tax returns, preparation of all required audit working papers and complete audit files for all subsidiaries, responsibilities for internal control systems for all operating subsidiaries. In 1974, he became assistant to the chief Financial Officer of Canadian Chromalox Ltd. in Toronto where he undertook the controller functions from time to time and subsequently became the Anti-Inflation Officer for Canadian Chromalox's group of companies where he was responsible for all price increase applications to Ottawa. In 1977, with the end of the Anti-Inflation legislation he became an independent financial consultant where he offered the following services: accounting, financial statement presentation, business plans, personal and corporate taxation services, corporate reorganizations and restructurings, prospectus preparation and analysis and public offering advice and service. His client base consisted of such companies as Spectra Anodizing Inc. - anodizing services, Security Mirror Ltd. - mirror manufacturer, Arco Prime Steel Inc. - steel fabricator and many other small businesses as well as a continuing relationship with Canadian Chromalox and its subsidiaries. During this same period of time, Gordon Brooke either owned or was a working shareholder in the following business: Black Swan Investments Inc. 30% shareholder in a pub in Toronto, Octagon Industries Inc. 10% shareholder in a signage company, Reybrooke Housewares - 100% owner in a company licensed with a United Kingdom company for PVC extrusions, Beaver Hill Farm Inc. - 33.3% owner of this company which was a producer of fresh herbs grown under light and sold to over 200 retail outlets in southern Ontario. In 1997 he became financial consultant to Confectionately Yours Inc. a Toronto based company specializing in large fresh baked goods and cereal bar manufacture. His responsibilities were to serve as an interim controller and prepare business plans. In 1998, he became the unofficial Chief Financial Officer of the company until it was sold in December 2000. In 2001 to the present time, he has been working for Snack Crafters Inc. in Toronto as a financial consultant where his responsibilities have been to prepare business plans, to serve as an interim accountant providing accounting services, preparation of financial statements on a non-audit basis, corporate tax returns and assisting the company in its reorganization and restructuring.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD AND BOARD COMMITTEES

Since inception, there has only been one Board of Directors meeting which was held in February 20, 2004 subsequent to the 2004 Annual General Meeting. There have been no audit committee meetings to date. Both a Board of Directors meeting and Audit Committee meeting will be held subsequent to the 2005 Annual General Meeting. The Directors are interested in seeking an individual who has geological qualification who will become a member of the Board of Directors. This will avoid the use of consultants to explore and determine the potential, if any, of the Company's mineral property. No such individual has yet been identified.

In re-electing Gordon Brooke, a Chartered Accountant, to the Board of Directors, the Company will have a person well qualified to serve on the Audit Committee. Mr. Brooke expertise and experience include the following:

- An understanding of generally accepted accounting principles and financial statements;
- The ability to assess the general application of such principals in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves;
- Experience preparing, auditing, analyzing or evaluating financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity generally comparable to those of the Company's financial statements, or experience actively supervising one or more persons engaged in such activities;
- An understanding of internal controls and procedures for financial reporting; and
- An understanding of Audit Committee functions.

The Securities Exchange Commission (the "SEC") requires that such attributes have been acquired through any one or more of the follow ways:

Edgar Filing: STANDARD CAPITAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

- Education and experience as a principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, controller, public accountant or auditor or experience in one or more positions that involve the performance of similar functions;
- Experience actively supervising a principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, controller, public accountant, auditor or person performing similar functions;
- Experience overseeing or assessing the performance of a companies of public accountants with respect to the preparation, auditing or evaluation of financial statements; and
- Other relevant experience.

Gordon Brooke's professional experience is consistent with the above noted requirements.

Besides that the Audit committee, the Company has no other committees at the present time.

-9-

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

The Company does not pay fees to its directors for the performance of their duties as directors of the Company. We do reimburse the directors for their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attending to business on behalf of the Company. We do not compensate our directors for committee participation. Nevertheless, the Company realizes that its directors do contribute a service to it and has given recognition to this service by accruing $200 per month. Basically, this in an accounting entry and the directors will never be able to be reimbursed in cash or in shares for the amount accrued. The monthly charge is expensed with an offsetting credit to "Capital in Excess of Par Value" on the Balance Sheet.

RECOMMENDATION OF YOUR DIRECTOR

Your directors recommend a vote FOR the election of all nominees named above.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

Madsen & Associates, CPA's Inc, has audited the Company's financial statements since the year ended August 31, 2004, and has been appointed by the Company's directors to continue as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending August 31, 2006. Stockholders ratification of the selection of Madsen & Associates CPAs Inc. as the Company's independent accountants is not required by the Company's bylaws or otherwise. However, the Directors are submitting the selection of Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc. for stockholder ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. The persons name in the accompanying Proxy will vote the Common Stock represented by the proxy for ratification of the selection of Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc., unless a contrary choice has been specified in the Proxy. If the stockholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Directors will reconsider their selection, although the Directors would not be required to select different independent public accountants for the Company. Even if the selection is ratified, the directors, at discretion of the Board of Directors, may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if the Board of Directors feels that such a change would be in the Company's and the stockholders' best interests.

A representative of Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc. is not expected to be present at the Annual Meeting; therefore, shareholders will not have the opportunity to make statements, if he or she desires to do so directly, to the independent public accountants.

RECOMMENDATION OF YOUR DIRECTOR

Your Directors recommend a vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc. as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending August 31, 2006.

-10-

There are no stock options either granted or outstanding as at August 31, 2005 from the Incentive Employee Stock Option Plan approved by the shareholders at the 2004 Annual General Meeting.

The Company is not a party to any employment contracts or collective bargaining agreements.

SECTION 16 (A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires that your directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of our common stock, file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of change in ownership of our common stock and other equity securities. Officers, directors and greater-than-ten percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all section 16 (a) forms they file. Specific due dates have been established by the SEC, and we are required to disclose in this report any failure to file by those dates.

Edgar Filing: STANDARD CAPITAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Based upon review of the copies of the Section 16 (a) reports furnished to us, or written representations from one more of these persons, we believe that there has been compliance with all section 16 (a) filing requirements applicable to our officers, director and ten-percent beneficial owners. Del and Maryanne Thachuk have both filed Form 3 and Del Thachuk has filed a Form 5 for 2003. All directors and officers have filed reports indicating the shares they have acquired under a private placement undertaken in September 2005.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

Since the inception of the Company, there have not been any Audit Committee meetings but the Company does intend to hold an audit committee meeting within the next several months. Presently, the Audit Committee consists of Del Thachuk and Gordon Brooke.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by Del Thachuk when he was the sole director. Among its other functions, the Audit Committee recommends to the Board of Directors, subject to stockholders ratification, the selection of the Company's independent accountants. Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee this process.

In this context, the Audit Committee members have held discussions with the independent accountants regarding matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61.

The Company's independent accountants also provided to the members of the Audit Committee a written disclosure required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees." The Audit Committee members discussed with the independent accountants its firm's independence and considered whether the non-audit services provided by the independent accountants are compatible with maintaining its independence. The only non-auditing services provided by the independent accountants were the preparation of the corporate income tax returns.

Based on the above discussion with the independent accountants, the members of the Audit Committee has authorized the inclusion of the audited financial statement in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended August 31, 2005 as filed with the SEC.

FEEES BILLED FOR SERVICES RENDERED BY PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANTS

AUDIT FEES.

Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc., our independent auditor and principal accountant, billed the Company a aggregate of $3,585 in fees for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of our financial statements for the fiscal year with the audit of our financial statements for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, and the reviews of the financial statements included in each of our Form 10-QSB filed during the year.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES.

Edgar Filing: STANDARD CAPITAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc. did not perform or bill our Company for professional services during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, in connection with the design and implementation of financial information systems.

The Audit Committee has concluded that the provision of these services to our Company is compatible with maintaining Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc. independence.

TAX FEES

Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc. invoiced the Company $200 for the preparation and completion of the corporate income tax returns.

DISAGREEMENT WITH THE INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

From inception in 1998 to August 31, 2003, the Company's independent accountants were Sellers and Andersen, LLC of Salt Lake City, Utah. The firm's report for the period from inception to August 31, 2003 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer, nor were there any disagreements between management and the Company's accountants.

On February 5, 2005, the Company dismissed Sellers & Andersen, LLC from its position as the Company's independent accountants. Sellers & Andersen, LLC reported on the Company's financial statements as of and for the years ended August 31, 2003 and August 31, 2002, contained no adverse opinions or disclaimer of opinion and were not modified or qualified as to audit scope or accounting principles, but did contain a modification as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's Board of Directors and Audit Committee participated in and approved the decision to change independent accountants.

On February 5, 2004, the Company engaged Madsen & Associates, CPA's Inc. to audit its financial statements for the year ended August 31, 2004. During the two most recent fiscal years and through August 31, 2003 and August 31, 2002 and through to February 4, 2004, the Company had not consulted with Madsen & Associates, CPA's Inc. regarding:

- (i) The application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and no written report or oral advice was provided to the Company by concluding there was an important factor to be considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to an accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or
- (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 304 (a) (1) (iv) (A) or Regulation S-B or an event, as that term is defined in Item 304 (a) (1) (iv) (B).

Therefore, for the fiscal years ended August 31, 2004 and 2005, our independent accountants have been Madsen & Associates CPA's Inc.
