Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 30, 2016, General Electric Company (“GE”), Baker Hughes Incorporated (“BHI”), Bear Newco, Inc. (“Newco”), a direct wholly owned subsidiary of BHI, and Bear MergerSub, Inc., a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Newco (“Merger Sub”), entered into a Transaction Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Transaction Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, (i) Merger Sub will merge with and into BHI (the “Merger”), with BHI as the surviving corporation (the “Surviving Entity”) and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Newco, (ii) each outstanding share of BHI’s common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the “BHI Common Stock”), will be converted into the right to receive one share of Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Newco Class A Common Stock”), of Newco, (iii) Newco will cause the Surviving Entity to be converted into a Delaware limited liability company (“Newco LLC”), and Newco will become the sole managing member of Newco LLC, (iv) GE will (A) receive a 62.5% membership interest in Newco LLC (calculated on a fully diluted basis) in exchange for contributing $7,400,000,000 (less the Class B Purchase Price, as defined below) in cash and GE’s Oil & Gas business (“GE O&G”) to Newco LLC, and (B) receive Class B common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Newco Class B Common Stock”), of Newco, representing 62.5% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of common stock of Newco (calculated on a fully diluted basis), in exchange for contributing the par value thereof (the “Class B Purchase Price”) to Newco and (v) Newco will distribute as a special dividend an amount equal to $17.50 per share (the “Dividend” and together with the Newco Class A Common Stock, the “Consideration”) to the holders of record of the Newco Class A Common Stock who were, prior to the Merger, stockholders of BHI.

Immediately following the Closing (as defined in the Transaction Agreement), (i) (A) GE will hold 100% of the Newco Class B Common Stock, which will represent 62.5% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of common stock of Newco (calculated on a fully diluted basis), and (B) BHI’s stockholders immediately prior to the Closing will hold 100% of the Newco Class A Common Stock, which will represent 37.5% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of common stock of Newco, (ii) (A) GE will hold a 62.5% membership interest in Newco LLC (calculated on a fully diluted basis) and (B) Newco will hold a 37.5% membership interest in Newco LLC and (iii) the membership interests in Newco LLC, together with the Newco Class B Common Stock, will be exchangeable on a 1:1 basis for Newco Class A Common Stock, subject to certain adjustments. The rights (including voting rights) of Newco Class A Common Stock and Newco Class B Common Stock are identical, but the Newco Class B Common Stock has only nominal economic rights.

The obligation of the parties to consummate the Transactions is subject to customary closing conditions, including, among other things, the (i) approval of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BHI Common Stock, (ii) applicable approvals under certain regulatory and competition laws, including the expiration or termination of all applicable waiting and other time periods and (iii) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed by Newco with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the approval of the listing on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) of the Newco Class A Common Stock to be issued in the Transactions. GE is required to take all actions necessary to obtain regulatory approvals (including agreeing to divestitures of certain specified businesses and any businesses of which any such business forms a substantial part (the “Specified Businesses”)) unless the assets, businesses or product lines subject to such actions would account for more than $200 million of 2015 revenue. (The divestiture of Specified Businesses will not be taken into account for purposes of calculating the $200 million divestiture limit.)

As promptly as reasonably practicable following December 31, 2016, GE is required to deliver to BHI certain audited financials of GE O&G including those required to be included in Newco’s Form S-4. If such audited financials differ from the unaudited financial statements of GE O&G provided to BHI in a manner that is material to the intrinsic value of GE O&G in a manner that is adverse, BHI may terminate the Transaction Agreement and, in the event of such termination, GE would be required to reimburse BHI for certain expenses (up to $40 million).

The Transaction Agreement contains certain other termination rights for each of BHI and GE, including (i) the right of BHI to terminate the Transaction Agreement in certain circumstances involving a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Transaction Agreement) and (ii) the right of each party to terminate the Transaction Agreement if the Transactions have not been consummated by the “termination date” of January 30, 2018, subject to each party’s right to extend the termination date until April 30, 2018, if all closing conditions (other than receipt of certain regulatory approvals) has been satisfied by January 30, 2018. The Transaction Agreement provides for the payment by BHI to GE of a termination fee in the amount of $750 million in the case of certain events described in the Transaction Agreement, including if BHI’s board of directors changes its recommendation that BHI’s stockholders approve the Transaction Agreement.

In the event the Transaction Agreement is terminated by (i) either party as a result of the failure of the Transactions to occur on or before the termination date (as it may be extended) due to the failure to achieve certain specified antitrust-related approvals if all closing conditions (other than receipt of antitrust and other specified regulatory approvals and conditions that by their nature cannot be satisfied until the Closing but subject to such conditions being capable of being satisfied if the Closing Date were the date of termination) have been satisfied, (ii) either party as a result of any antitrust-related final, non-appealable order or injunction prohibiting the Closing, or (iii) BHI as a result of GE's material breach of its obligations to obtain regulatory approvals such that the antitrust-related condition to closing is incapable of being satisfied, then in each case GE would be required to pay BHI a termination fee of $1.3 billion.

On the Closing Date (as defined in the Transaction Agreement), Newco and GE agree to enter into a Stockholders Agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement"). The form of Stockholders Agreement, as well as forms of each of (i) the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Newco, (ii) the Bylaws of Newco, (iii) the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Newco LLC which will be entered into by Newco LLC, Newco and GE, (iv) an exchange agreement between Newco and GE and (v) a registration rights agreement between Newco and GE, are attached to the Transaction Agreement.

The Stockholders Agreement will provide, among other things, that:

Board and Committee Representation. Immediately following the Closing, the Newco board of directors will consist of nine directors, consisting of (i) five directors (including the chairman of the Newco board of directors) designated by GE (the "GE Directors") and (ii) four directors (including the Chief Executive Officer of BHI immediately prior to Closing) designated by BHI (the "BHI Directors"). The successor BHI Directors will be chosen by the Governance & Nominating Committee of the Newco board of directors, which will be comprised of a majority of BHI Directors who meet certain independence requirements. GE only has the right to designate directors to the Newco board of directors for so long as it and its affiliates either (i) beneficially own at least 50% of Newco's outstanding common stock or (ii) are required to consolidate Newco's financial results with GE's financial results. Newco will be a "controlled company" under the rules of the NYSE, and accordingly it will be exempt from some of the exchange's generally applicable listing requirements.

Standstill Provisions. For a period of five years beginning on the Closing Date, GE will be subject to a customary standstill (with certain customary exceptions, including to permit GE to maintain its ownership level in the event of a dilutive equity issuance).

Transfer Restrictions. For a period of two years beginning on the Closing Date, GE and its affiliates may not transfer any shares of Newco common stock. Thereafter, subject to certain exceptions, GE may not transfer any shares of Newco common stock to any person or group, if such person or group would beneficially own in excess of 15% of the outstanding shares of Newco common stock following such transfer, without the prior consent of a committee of independent BHI Directors (the "Conflicts Committee"). Following the fifth anniversary of the Closing, GE and its affiliates are permitted to transfer all (but not less than all) of their shares of Newco common stock to a third party (or, if applicable, all of their shares of Newco Class B Common Stock and membership interests in Newco LLC), if, among other things, (i) the buyer thereof agrees to purchase all shares of Newco common stock held by stockholders that are not affiliated with GE or its affiliates for the same consideration and on otherwise substantially the same terms and conditions and (ii) if the transaction does not result in the buyer owning 100% of Newco's common stock, the buyer either (x) agrees to assume GE's obligations under the Stockholders Agreement or (y) enters into a stockholders agreement with BHI containing substantially the same terms and conditions as those contained in the Stockholders Agreement.

Squeeze-out Transactions. Any proposal by GE or any of its affiliates to acquire all of the shares of Newco common stock held by stockholders that are not affiliated with GE or its affiliates to the extent permitted under the Stockholders Agreement must also be (i) subject to review, evaluation and approval of the Conflicts Committee and (ii) submitted for approval to the stockholders of Newco, with a non-waivable condition that a majority of the shares held by stockholders that are not GE or affiliated with GE approve the transaction (or equivalent tender offer condition).

Related Party Transactions. Any transaction between Newco or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and GE or any of its affiliates (other than Newco and its subsidiaries), on the other hand (a “related party transaction”) is required to be on arm’s length terms and in the best interest of Newco. Among other things, related party transactions that involve payments in excess of a certain threshold are subject to the prior approval of the Conflicts Committee.

Other Governance Rights. BHI’s and Newco’s rights under the Transaction Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, and the other Transaction Documents (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) are enforceable by the Conflicts Committee, and material amendments of or waivers under such agreements, require the prior approval of the Conflicts Committee.

Effective from and following the Closing, Newco and its subsidiaries will operate under the name “Baker Hughes, a GE Company.”

The Transaction Agreement also requires that BHI and GE use reasonable best efforts to negotiate in good faith the terms and conditions of and to enter into a tax matters agreement (the “Tax Matters Agreement”), pursuant to which BHI and GE will provide for certain matters relating to taxes, including the allocation of tax liabilities and benefits arising prior to, as a result of, and subsequent to the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Transaction Agreement and related documents does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Transaction Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The inclusion of such statements should not be regarded as a representation that such plans, estimates or expectations will be achieved. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from such plans, estimates or expectations include, among others, (1) that one or more closing conditions to the transaction, including certain regulatory approvals, may not be satisfied or waived, on a timely basis or otherwise, including that a governmental entity may prohibit, delay or refuse to grant approval for the consummation of the proposed transaction, may require conditions, limitations or restrictions in connection with such approvals or that the required approval by the stockholders of BHI may not be obtained; (2) the risk that the proposed transaction may not be completed in the time frame expected by GE or BHI, or at all; (3) unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the proposed transaction; (4) uncertainty of the expected financial performance of the combined company following completion of the proposed transaction; (5) failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, including as a result of delay in completing the proposed transaction or integrating the businesses of GE, BHI and Newco; (6) the ability of the combined company to implement its business strategy; (7) difficulties and delays in achieving revenue and cost synergies of the combined company; (8) inability to retain and hire key personnel; (9) the occurrence of any event that could give rise to termination of the proposed transaction; (10) the risk that stockholder litigation in connection with the proposed transaction or other settlements or investigations may affect the timing or occurrence of the contemplated merger or result in significant costs of defense, indemnification and liability; (11) evolving legal, regulatory and tax regimes; (12) changes in general economic and/or industry specific conditions, including oil price changes; (13) actions by third parties, including government agencies; and (14) other risk factors as detailed from time to time in GE’s and BHI’s reports filed with the SEC, including GE’s and BHI’s annual report on Form 10-K, periodic quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, periodic current reports on Form 8-K and other documents filed with the SEC.
