Item 4. Ownership.

Fiduciary Asset Management, LLC. acts as an investment sub-advisor to certain closed-end investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as well as to private individuals. FAMCO by virtue of investment advisory agreements with these clients has all investment and voting power over securities owned of record by these clients. However, despite their delegation of investment and voting power to FAMCO, these clients may be deemed to be the beneficial owners under Rule 13d-3 of the Act of the securities they own of record because they have the right to acquire investment and voting power through termination of their investment advisory agreement with FAMCO. Thus, FAMCO has reported that it shares voting power and dispositive power over the securities owned of record by these clients. FAMCO may be deemed the beneficial owner of the securities covered by this statement under Rule 13d-3 of the Act.
