Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 13, 2011, Cumulus Media Inc. (the Company) issued $610,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 7.75% Senior Notes due 2019 (the Notes) pursuant to an indenture, dated May 13, 2011 (the Indenture), among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto (the Guarantors) and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the Trustee). The Notes were offered and sold either to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) or to persons outside the United States under Regulation S of the Securities Act.

The Notes mature on May 1, 2019. Interest accrues on the Notes at a rate of 7.75% per annum from May 13, 2011, and interest is payable semiannually, on May 1 and November 1 of each year. The first interest payment date is November 1, 2011. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company's pending merger agreement (the Citadel Merger Agreement) with Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (Citadel) is terminated without consummation of the underlying transaction (the Citadel Acquisition) or if the Company and Citadel both publicly announce their determination not to proceed with the Citadel Acquisition, then interest on the Notes will accrue at a rate of 8.25% per annum from and after the effective date of such termination or announcement. The Company may redeem all or part of the Notes at any time on or after May 1, 2015. At any time prior to May 1, 2014, the Company may also redeem up to 35.0% of the Notes using the proceeds from certain equity offerings. At any time prior to May 1, 2015, the Company may redeem some or all of the Notes at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount, plus a make-whole premium. Further, if the Citadel Merger Agreement is terminated without consummation of the Citadel Acquisition, and neither Cumulus Media Partners, LLC (CMP) nor any of its subsidiaries has become a restricted subsidiary under the indenture governing the Notes, during each 12-month period commencing on the date of such termination to the third anniversary thereof, or such earlier time as CMP or any of its subsidiaries becomes a restricted subsidiary under such indenture, the Company may redeem up to 10.0% of the original aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a redemption price of 103.0%. If the Company sells certain assets or experiences specific kinds of changes in control, the Company will be required to make an offer to purchase the Notes. The terms of the Notes are set out in more detail in the Indenture.

In connection with the issuance of the Notes, the Company, the Guarantors and the initial purchasers of the Notes entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement), dated May 13, 2011. The Registration Rights Agreement requires the Company and the Guarantors to use their commercially reasonable efforts to have the exchange offer registration statement declared effective by the SEC on or prior to 365 days after the Notes were issued (or, if the Citadel acquisition is consummated more than 305 days, but within 365 days, after the Notes were issued, then within 60 days after the consummation of the Citadel Acquisition). If, under certain circumstances, an exchange offer cannot be completed, the Company and the Guarantors have agreed to use their commercially reasonable efforts to file with the SEC a shelf registration statement covering resales of the Notes and related guarantees and use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective as provided for in the Registration Rights Agreement. In such instance, the Company would be obligated to keep such shelf registration statement effective until the date that the Notes cease to be registrable securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement), or such shorter period that will terminate when all Notes covered by the shelf registration statement have been sold pursuant to the shelf registration statement. If the Company fails to satisfy its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement, it will, under certain circumstances, be required to pay additional interest to the holders of the Notes.

The Company used the net proceeds from the offering of Notes to (i) repay in full the $575.8 million outstanding under the term loan facility under the Company's existing senior secured credit facilities and (ii) pay fees and expenses related to the offering of Notes. Any remaining proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.

Also in connection with the completion of the offering of Notes, on April 29, 2011 and effective as of May 13, 2011, the Company entered into amendment No. 5 to its credit agreement dated as of June 7, 2006 (the Fifth Amendment). The Fifth Amendment provided the Company the ability to complete the offering of Notes, provided that proceeds therefrom were used to repay in full the term loans outstanding under the Existing Credit Agreement. In addition, the Fifth Amendment, among other things, provides for an incremental term loan facility of up to $200.0 million, which may only be accessed to repurchase Notes under certain circumstances, (i) replaced the total leverage ratio in the credit agreement with a secured leverage ratio and (ii) amended certain definitions in the credit agreement to facilitate the Company's ability to complete the offering of Notes. Under the Existing Credit Agreement as amended by the Fifth Amendment, the Company continues to have up to $20.0 million in revolving loan availability thereunder, subject to the terms and conditions thereof.
