Ivanhoe Mines announces appointment of Rio Tinto executive Dan Larsen to company's board of directors

TORONTO, CANADA — David Huberman, Chairman of Ivanhoe Mines, announced today that Dan Larsen, Rio Tinto's Controller and Global Head of Planning and Reporting, has been appointed to the Ivanhoe Mines Board of Directors.

Rio Tinto's nomination of Mr. Larsen increases to seven the number of Rio Tinto appointees presently on the 14-member Ivanhoe Mines board.

Under terms of the October 2006 private placement agreement between Rio Tinto and Ivanhoe Mines, Rio Tinto is entitled to nominate members to the Ivanhoe board in proportion to Rio Tinto's shareholding in Ivanhoe. Rio Tinto has committed to maintain a majority of independent directors on the Ivanhoe Mines board until January 2014.

Rio Tinto increased its holding in Ivanhoe Mines to 46.5% from 42.0% in late June 2011 through Rio Tinto's exercise of all remaining share-purchase warrants – which also resulted in the allocation of an additional Ivanhoe Mines directorship to Rio Tinto.

Mr. Larsen has been based in London, England, as Rio Tinto Group Controller and Global Head of Planning and Reporting for the past six years. He is a director of Rio Tinto International Holdings Ltd., which holds Rio Tinto's interest in Ivanhoe Mines. Mr. Larsen joined Rio Tinto in 1992 and previously was a senior manager with Ernst & Young's mining practice.

Howard Balloch, a director of Ivanhoe Mines since 2005, has relinquished his position to enable Mr. Larsen's nomination.

Mr. Huberman said Mr. Balloch's experience as Canada's former ambassador to China and Mongolia, and his career in Canada's foreign service, had greatly benefited the Ivanhoe Mines Board of Directors as the company pursued the development of its Oyu Tolgoi copper-gold-silver mining complex in Mongolia and other developments in the Asia Pacific region. Mr. Balloch is Chairman of Canaccord Genuity Asia.
