Item 8.01 Other Events.

The purpose of this Form 8-K is to provide information regarding products, both new and planned, to be presented at the American Society of Mass Spectrometry Conference (ASMS). The conference is scheduled for May 28, 2006 through June 1, 2006 in Seattle, Washington U.S.A. These products are tools used by scientists in life science, industrial, and academic laboratories in their pursuit of better methods of treating diseases, monitoring the environment and manufacturing quality pharmaceuticals, chemicals, plastics, foods, beverages and numerous other products. Detailed descriptions of these products can be found within press releases posted at the Company's web site (www.waters.com). Key products featured in these press releases include:

1. Waters® Synapt High Definition MS - A research mass spectrometry instrument that combines molecular size and molecular shape discrimination with high sensitivity, accurate mass MS/MS characterization. Applications for this new instrument include characterizations of proteins and protein complexes for life science and drug discovery research.
2. Waters® ACQUITY TQD A tandem quadrupole mass spectrometry instrument designed for UPLC- MS/MS applications. The ACQUITY TQD uniquely combines high performance, compact size, advanced built-in diagnostics and features for convenient operation for researchers interested in coupling MS/MS detection with high resolution and rapid analysis AQUITY UPLC separations.

This release contains forward-looking statements regarding future results and events, including statements regarding future growth and customer demand that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. For this purpose, any statements contained herein that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed forward-looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, the words, believes, anticipates, plans, expects, intends, appears, estimates, projected, and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included in this release represent the Company's estimates or views as of the date of this release report and should not be relied upon as representing the Company's estimates or views as of any date subsequent to the date of this release. The Company specifically disclaims any obligation to update these forward-looking statements in the future.
