This filing contains only preliminary communications made before the commencement of an anticipated tender offer to allow employees of Motorola, Inc. (the Company) that hold certain eligible stock options to exchange their stock options for replacement stock options (the Option Exchange Program).

Attached are (i) an email communication, dated March 3, 2009, from Greg Brown and Jha Sanjay, the Company's Co-CEOs, to the employees of the Company describing the Company's proposal to implement the Option Exchange Program in the near future, if the Option Exchange Program is approved by the Company's stockholders at the Annual Meeting; (ii) frequently asked questions regarding the proposed Option Exchange Program, which is being sent to the Company's employees on March 3, 2009; and (iii) a form of key terms defining certain terms related to the Option Exchange Program, which is being sent to the Company's employees on March 3, 2009.

The Company has not initiated the Option Exchange Program and will not do so unless it receives approval from its stockholders at its 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Even if stockholder approval is obtained, the Company may still decide to not implement the Option Exchange Program or to delay its implementation. If the Option Exchange Program is commenced, the Company will file a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Persons who may be eligible to participate in the Option Exchange Program should read the Tender Offer Statement and other related materials when they become available because they will contain important information about the Option Exchange Program. The Company's stockholders and option holders will be able to obtain these written materials and other documents filed by the Company with the SEC free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.
