EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 to this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q/A ("Form 10-Q/A") is being filed in order to correct the previously issued condensed consolidated financial statements of Abercrombie & Fitch Co. (the "Company") for the quarterly period ended May 1, 2004 initially filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on June 9, 2004 (the "Original Filing"). The corrections are to properly account for landlord construction allowances in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No.13, "Accounting for Leases" and Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 88-1, "Issues Relating to Accounting for Leases"; and rent holidays in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 85-3, "Accounting for Operating Leases with Scheduled Rent Increases." See Note 2: "Restatement and Reclassification of Financial Statements" under Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 1, "Financial Statements" of this Form 10-Q/A for additional discussion and a summary of the effect of these changes on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004 and for the interim periods ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003.

This Form 10-Q/A amends and restates only Items 1, 2 and 4 of Part I and Item 6 of Part II of the Original Filing to reflect the effects of this restatement of our financial statements for the period presented or as deemed necessary in connection with the completion of restated financial statements. The remaining Items contained within this Amendment No. 1 on Form 10-Q/A consist of all other Items originally contained on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended May 1, 2004. These remaining Items are not amended hereby, but are included for the convenience of the reader. Except for the forgoing amended information, this Form 10-Q/A continues to describe conditions as of the date of the Original Filing, and we have not updated the disclosures contained herein to reflect events that occurred at a later date.

In connection with the preparation of this Form 10-Q/A, the Company concluded that it was appropriate to classify our investments in auction rate securities as marketable securities. Previously, such investments had been classified as cash and equivalents. Accordingly, we have revised the classification to report these investments as marketable securities on the consolidated balance sheets as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004. The Company has also made corresponding adjustments to the consolidated statements of cash flows for the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, to reflect the gross purchases and sales of these investments as investing activities rather than as a component of cash and equivalents. See Note 2: "Restatement and Reclassification of Financial Statements" under Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 1, "Financial Statements" of this Form 10-Q/A for additional discussion on the effects of the change in classification.

ABERCROMBIE & FITCH

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Abercrombie & Fitch Co. ("A&F"), through its subsidiaries (collectively, A&F and its subsidiaries are referred to as "Abercrombie & Fitch" or the "Company"), is a specialty retailer of high quality, casual apparel for men, women and kids with an active, youthful lifestyle.

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of A&F and all significant subsidiaries that are more than 50 percent owned and controlled. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Certain amounts have been reclassified to conform with current year presentation. The amounts reclassified did not have an effect on the Company's results of operations or shareholders' equity.

The condensed consolidated financial statements as of May 1, 2004 and for the thirteen week periods ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003 are unaudited and are presented pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, these condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in A&F's Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 (the "2003 fiscal year"). In the opinion of management, the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments (which are of a normal recurring nature) necessary to present fairly the financial position and results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods, but are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for a full fiscal year.

The condensed consolidated financial statements as of May 1, 2004 and for the thirteen week periods ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003 included herein have been reviewed by the independent registered public accounting firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and the report of such firm follows the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") for its report on the condensed consolidated financial statements because that report is not a "report" within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Act.

2. RESTATEMENT AND RECLASSIFICATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Subsequent to the issuance of the Company's fiscal 2003 consolidated financial statements, the Company reviewed its accounting practices with respect to leasing transactions and determined that its then-current method of accounting for construction allowances was not in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No.13, "Accounting for

Edgar Filing: ABERCROMBIE & FITCH CO /DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

Leases" and Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 88-1, "Issues Relating to Accounting for Leases"; and its then-current method of accounting for rent holidays was not in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 85-3, "Accounting for Operating Leases with Scheduled Rent Increases." As a result, the Company restated its consolidated financial statements as of January 31, 2004 and February 1, 2003 and for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2004, February 1, 2003 and February 2, 2002; and its consolidated financial statements as of and for the interim periods ended October 30, 2004, July 31, 2004, May 1, 2004, November 1, 2003, August 2, 2003 and May 3, 2003.

Historically, the Company's consolidated balance sheets have reflected the unamortized portion of construction allowances received from landlords of properties leased by the Company for its stores as a reduction of property and equipment instead of as a deferred lease credit. Excluding tax impacts, the effect of the revised accounting for construction allowances requires the Company to increase property and equipment and establish a corresponding deferred lease credit. Further, historically, the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows have reflected construction allowances as a reduction of capital expenditures within investing activities rather than as an increase in deferred lease credits within operating activities. The impact of the revised accounting is to increase both net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used for investing activities by equal amounts.

In addition, the Company has historically recognized the straight line rent expense for leases beginning on the commencement date of the lease rather than on the date the Company takes possession. This approach had the effect of excluding the build-out period of the Company's stores from the calculation of the period over which it expenses rent. The build-out period is generally three to four months prior to store opening date. Excluding tax impacts, the effect of the revised accounting for rent holidays requires the Company to increase accrued expenses and adjust retained earnings on the consolidated balance sheets, as well as correct amortization in cost of goods sold, occupancy and buying costs in the consolidated statements of income.

The cumulative effect of these accounting changes is a reduction of retained earnings of $11.0 million as of the beginning of fiscal 2001 and decreases to retained earnings of $2.1 million, $181 thousand and $272 thousand as of the end of the fiscal years 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

The following is a summary of the effects of these changes on the Company's consolidated balance sheets as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004, as well as the effect of these changes on the Company's consolidated statements of income and cash flows for the fiscal quarter ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003 (thousands, except per share amounts):

| Net Cash Provided by (Used for) Investing Activities | 4,102 | (8,693) | (4) |

- (1) The "As Previously Reported" amounts for "Net Cash Used for Investing Activities" have been adjusted to account for the effects of reclassification of certain securities, as discussed below.

Further, the Company concluded that it was appropriate to classify our investments in auction rate securities as marketable securities. Previously, such investments had been classified as cash and equivalents. Accordingly, we have revised the classification to report these investments as marketable securities on the consolidated balance sheets as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004. The Company has also made corresponding adjustments to the consolidated statements of cash flows for the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, to reflect the gross purchases and sales of these investments as investing activities rather than as a component of cash and equivalents.

As of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004, $476.1 million and $454.7 million, respectively, of these investments were classified as cash and equivalents on the consolidated balance sheets. These balances are in addition to the marketable securities balances previously reported.

For the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, net cash (used for) provided by investing activities related to these investments of ($21.4) million and $10.5 million, respectively, were included in cash and equivalents in our consolidated statements of cash flows. These investing activities related to marketable securities are in addition to those previously reported.

3. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company reports stock-based compensation through the disclosure-only requirements of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," as amended by SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure-an Amendment of FASB Statement No. 123," but elects to measure compensation expense using the intrinsic value method in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees." Accordingly, no compensation expense for options has been recognized as all options are granted at fair market value at the grant date. The Company does recognize compensation expense related to restricted share awards. If compensation expense related to options for the thirteen week periods ended May 1, 2004, and May 3, 2003 had been determined based on the estimated fair value of options granted, consistent with the methodology in SFAS No. 123, the pro forma effect on net income and net income per basic and diluted share would have been as follows:

(Thousands except per share amounts)

| | Thirteen Weeks Ended | |

(1) Includes stock-based compensation expense related to restricted share awards actually recognized in earnings in each period presented.

The weighted-average fair value of all options granted during the first quarter of fiscal 2004 and fiscal 2003 were $12.64 and $13.91, respectively. The fair value of each option, which is included in the pro forma results above, was estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. For purposes of the valuation, the following weighted-average assumptions were used: a 1.43% dividend yield in 2004 and no expected dividends in 2003; price volatility of 60% in 2004 and 63% in 2003; risk-free interest rates of 2.6% in 2004 and 2.9% in 2003; assumed forfeiture rates of 23% in 2004 and 2003, and expected lives of 4 years in 2004 and 2003.

Options to purchase 5,580,000 and 5,762,000 shares of Class A Common Stock during the thirteen week periods ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, respectively, were outstanding but were not included in the computation of net income per diluted share because the options' exercise prices were greater than the average market price of the underlying shares.

5. INVENTORIES

Inventories are principally valued at the lower of average cost or market, on a first-in-first-out basis, utilizing the retail method. An initial markup is applied to inventory at cost in order to establish a cost-to-retail ratio. Permanent markdowns, when taken, reduce both the retail and cost components of inventory on hand so as to maintain the already established cost-to-retail relationship.

The fiscal year is comprised of two principal selling seasons: spring (the first and second quarters) and fall (the third and fourth quarters). The Company further reduces inventory at season end by recording an additional markdown reserve using the retail carrying value of inventory from the season just passed. Markdowns on this carryover inventory represent estimated future anticipated selling price declines. Additionally, inventory valuation at the end of the first and third quarters reflects adjustments for inventory markdowns for the total season. Further, as part of inventory valuation, inventory shrinkage estimates are made, based on historical trends, that reduce the inventory value for lost or stolen items.

The inventory reserve for markdowns and valuations was $18.2 million, $4.7 million, and $16.8 million at May 1, 2004, January 31, 2004, and May 3, 2003, respectively. The shrink reserve was $10.9 million, $3.3 million, and $11.7 million at May 1, 2004, January 31, 2004, and May 3, 2003, respectively. These inventory valuations are seasonal and the amounts at the end of the first quarter of 2004 and 2003 reflect adjustments for inventory markdowns for the total selling season. The inventory valuations at January 31, 2004 reflect adjustments for inventory markdowns for the end of the fall season.

7. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes is based on the current estimate of the annual effective tax rate. Income taxes paid during the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, approximated $35.1 million and $33.0 million, respectively.

8. LONG-TERM DEBT

The Company entered into a $250 million syndicated unsecured credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement") on November 14, 2002. The primary purposes of the Credit Agreement are for trade and stand-by letters of credit and working capital. The Credit Agreement is due to expire on November 14, 2005. The Credit Agreement has several borrowing options, including interest rates that are based on the agent bank's "Alternate Base Rate," or a LIBO Rate. Facility fees payable under the Credit Agreement are based on the Company's ratio (the "leverage ratio") of the sum of total debt plus 800% of forward minimum rent commitments to consolidated EBITDAR for the trailing four-fiscal-quarter period and currently accrues at .225% of the committed amounts per annum. The Credit Agreement contains limitations on indebtedness, liens, sale-leaseback transactions, significant corporate changes including mergers and acquisitions with third parties, investments, restricted payments (including dividends and stock repurchases), hedging transactions and transactions with affiliates. The Credit Agreement also contains financial covenants requiring a minimum ratio, on a consolidated basis, of EBITDAR for the trailing four-fiscal-quarter period to the sum of interest expense and minimum rent for such period, as well as a maximum leverage ratio.

Letters of credit totaling approximately $31.7 million and $39.1 million were outstanding under the Credit Agreement at May 1, 2004 and at May 3, 2003, respectively. No borrowings were outstanding under the Credit Agreement at May 1, 2004 and at May 3, 2003.

9. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Shahid & Company, Inc. has provided advertising and design services for the Company since 1995. Sam N. Shahid, Jr., who serves on A&F's Board of Directors, has been President and Creative Director of Shahid & Company, Inc. since 1993. Fees paid to Shahid & Company, Inc. for services provided during the thirteen week periods ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003 were approximately $0.6 million and $0.5 million, respectively. The amounts do not include reimbursements to Shahid & Company, Inc. for expenses incurred while performing these services.

Edgar Filing: ABERCROMBIE & FITCH CO /DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

10. CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in a number of legal proceedings that arise out of, and are incidental to, the conduct of its business.

In 2003, five actions were filed under various states' laws on behalf of purported classes of employees and former employees of the Company alleging that the Company required its associates to wear and pay for a "uniform" in violation of applicable law. Two of the actions have been ordered coordinated. In each case, the plaintiff, on behalf of his or her purported class, seeks injunctive relief and unspecified amounts of economic and liquidated damages. For certain of the cases, the parties are in the process of discovery. In one case, the Company has filed a motion to dismiss; while in all other cases, answers have been filed.

In 2003, an action was filed in which the plaintiff alleges that the "uniform," when purchased, drove associates' wages below the federal minimum wage. The complaint purports to state a collective action on behalf of all part-time associates nationwide under the Fair Labor Standards Act. The parties are in the process of discovery.

In each of 2003 and 2002, one action was filed against the Company involving overtime compensation. In each action, the plaintiffs, on behalf of their respective purported class, seek injunctive relief and unspecified amounts of economic and liquidated damages. The Company has filed a motion to dismiss in one of the cases. In the other case, the parties are in the process of discovery.

The Company does not believe it is feasible to predict the outcome of the legal proceedings described above and intends to vigorously defend against each of them. The timing of the final resolution of each of these proceedings is also uncertain. Accordingly, the Company cannot estimate a range of potential loss, if any, for any of these legal proceedings.

In 2003, one action was filed on behalf of a purported class alleged to be discriminated against in hiring or employment decisions due to race and/or national origin. The plaintiffs in the action seek, on behalf of their purported class, injunctive relief and unspecified amounts of economic, compensatory and punitive damages. The parties are in the process of discovery. Additionally, the EEOC is conducting nationwide investigations relating to allegations of discrimination based on race, national origin and gender.

The Company accrues amounts related to legal matters if reasonably estimable and reviews these amounts at least quarterly. During the first quarter of fiscal 2004, the Company recorded an $8.0 million charge (net of expected proceeds of $10 million from insurance) resulting from an increase in expected defense costs related to the purported class action employment discrimination suit. The Company does not believe it is feasible to predict the outcome of this proceeding and intends to vigorously defend against it. However, if judgment is rendered in this proceeding which is unfavorable to the Company, the amount could potentially be material to the financial statements.

The Company has standby letters of credit in the amount of $4.7 million that are set to expire during the third quarter of fiscal 2004. The beneficiary, a merchandise supplier, has the right to draw upon the standby letters of credit if the Company has authorized or filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. To date, the beneficiary has not drawn upon the standby letters of credit.

The Company enters into agreements with professional services firms, in the ordinary course of business and, in most agreements, indemnifies these firms from any harm. There is no financial impact on the Company related to these indemnification agreements.

11. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

A&F announced on May 18, 2004, that Seth R. Johnson, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of A&F, will retire from the Company effective June 18, 2004. Under the terms of the Retirement Agreement (the "Agreement"), the Company will provide retirement benefits equal to his base salary immediately prior to his retirement date, less ordinary and necessary withholding taxes, in weekly installments over the two year period commencing on June 18, 2004 and ending June 18, 2006. In addition to the retirement benefits, the Agreement provides additional consideration in the form of: (a) a pro rata portion of Mr. Johnson's 2004 Incentive Compensation Performance Plan (the "Plan") incentive payment attributable to the period commencing on the first day of fiscal 2004 through June 18, 2004 (to be paid in normal course after calculations are finalized in accordance with the terms of the Plan); (b) a cash payment equal to the market value (at the close of the market on June 18, 2004) of Mr. Johnson's unvested restricted shares; (c) an additional cash payment to be paid on June 20, 2005 equal to the market value as of the close of the market on June 17, 2005 of 25,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of A&F appropriately adjusted for any stock splits or dividends; and (d) an additional cash payment to be paid on June 19, 2006 equal to the market value as of the close of the market on June 16, 2006, of 45,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of A&F appropriately adjusted for any stock splits or dividends. The Company anticipates the aggregate cost of the Agreement will be approximately $5.0 to $5.5 million. On May 28, 2004, the Company announced that Mr. Johnson resigned from the Board of Directors effective July 26, 2004.

On May 20, 2004 the Company announced the declaration of a quarterly dividend, of $0.125 per share of Class A Common Stock, which will be paid on June 22, 2004 to stockholders of record as of June 1, 2004.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

RESTATEMENT AND RECLASSIFICATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Subsequent to the issuance of the Company's fiscal 2003 consolidated financial statements, the Company reviewed its accounting practices with respect to leasing transactions and determined that its then-current method of accounting for construction allowances was not in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No.13, "Accounting for Leases" and Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 88-1, "Issues Relating to Accounting for Leases"; and its then-current method of accounting for rent holidays was not in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 85-3, "Accounting for Operating Leases with Scheduled Rent Increases." As a result, the Company restated its consolidated financial statements as of January 31, 2004 and February 1, 2003 and for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2004, February 1, 2003 and February 2, 2002; and its consolidated financial statements as of and for the interim periods ended October 30, 2004, July 31, 2004, May 1, 2004, November 1, 2003, August 2, 2003 and May 3, 2003.

Historically, the Company's consolidated balance sheets have reflected the unamortized portion of construction allowances received from landlords of properties leased by the Company for its stores as a reduction of property and equipment instead of as a deferred lease credit. Excluding tax impacts, the effect of the revised accounting for construction allowances requires the Company to increase property and equipment and establish a corresponding deferred lease credit. Further, historically, the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows have reflected construction allowances as a reduction of capital expenditures within investing activities rather than as an increase in deferred lease credits within operating activities. The impact of the revised accounting is to increase both net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used for investing activities by equal amounts.

Edgar Filing: ABERCROMBIE & FITCH CO /DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

In addition, the Company has historically recognized the straight line rent expense for leases beginning on the commencement date of the lease rather than on the date the Company takes possession. This approach had the effect of excluding the build-out period of the Company's stores from the calculation of the period over which it expenses rent. The build-out period is generally three to four months prior to store opening date. Excluding tax impacts, the effect of the revised accounting for rent holidays requires the Company to increase accrued expenses and adjust retained earnings on the consolidated balance sheets, as well as correct amortization in cost of goods sold, occupancy and buying costs in the consolidated statements of income.

The cumulative effect of these accounting changes is a reduction of retained earnings of $11.0 million as of the beginning of fiscal 2001 and decreases to retained earnings of $2.1 million, $181 thousand and $272 thousand as of the end of the fiscal years 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

See Note 2: "Restatement and Reclassification of Financial Statements" under Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 1, "Financial Statements" of this Form 10-Q/A for a summary of the effect of these changes on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004 and for the fiscal quarters ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003. The accompanying Management's Discussion and Analysis gives effect to these corrections.

In addition, the Company concluded that it was appropriate to classify our investments in auction rate securities as marketable securities. Previously, such investments had been classified as cash and equivalents. Accordingly, we have revised the classification to report these investments as marketable securities on the consolidated balance sheets as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004. The Company has also made corresponding adjustments to the consolidated statements of cash flows for the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, to reflect the gross purchases and sales of these investments as investing activities rather than as a component of cash and equivalents. See Note 2: "Restatement and Reclassification of Financial Statements" under Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 1, "Financial Statements" of this Form 10-Q/A for additional discussion on the effects of the change in classification.

Net Sales

Net sales for the first quarter of 2004 were $411.9 million, an increase of 19% over last year's first quarter net sales of $346.7 million. Comparable store sales, defined as sales in stores that have been open for at least one year, were flat for the quarter.

Edgar Filing: ABERCROMBIE & FITCH CO /DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

By merchandise brand, comparable store sales for the quarter versus the same quarter last year were as follows: Abercrombie & Fitch declined 2% with both mens and womens comparable store sales declining by a low single-digit percentage. In abercrombie, comparable store sales decreased 1% with girls comparable store sales achieving a mid-single digit positive increase and boys declining in the mid-teens. In Hollister, comparable store sales increased by 9% with both girls and guys achieving a positive high-single digit increase for the quarter.

On a regional basis, comparable store sales results were strongest in the West and Southeast and weakest in the Midwest. Stores located in Florida, Southern California and the New York metropolitan area had the best comparable store sales performance.

In Abercrombie & Fitch, womens had comparable store sales increases in the first quarter versus the comparable quarter last year in skirts and denim, which were offset by decreases in shorts and graphic knits. The men's business improved during the first quarter compared to the fiscal 2003 first quarter. Woven shirts and polos had strong comparable store sales increases while graphic t-shirts and shorts declined.

In the kids' business, girls comparable store sales increased during the first quarter of 2004 compared to the same quarter last year in knits, skirts and denim. These increases were somewhat offset by weak sales in graphic tees and shorts. Boys had comparable store sales increases in denim, woven shirts, and accessories, but these increases were not sufficient to offset other weaker performing categories.

In Hollister, girls also achieved slightly stronger comparable store sales than guys. In girls, tees, skirts and denim had significant comparable store sales increases during the quarter, while comparable store sales in the graphic knits and pants declined. In guys, sports shirts and denim had significant positive comparable store sales increases; however, knit tops and shorts declined.

Sales in the e-commerce business grew by approximately 73% during the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year compared to the same period during the 2003 fiscal year. The direct to consumer business (which includes the Company's catalogue and the Company's Web sites) accounted for 6.4% of net sales in the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year compared to 4.7% in the first quarter of fiscal 2003. The first quarter 2004 results include sales from the Hollister Web site that was launched during the 2003 back-to-school period.

Current Trends and Outlook

Although the Company is planning for comparable store sales to continue to improve in the future, it cannot predict whether this will occur in the 2004 fiscal year or any subsequent year due to the uncertain competitive and economic environment.

The Company entered fiscal 2004 with a focus on driving top line revenue. In order to offer customers more new items more frequently and achieve high margins, inventory levels were kept tight in order to turn the inventory faster. The Company also continued to have a less promotional look in the stores. Markdowns were cleared in the normal course of business. During the first quarter, the Company utilized its lifestyle-only direct mail, national magazine ads, and billboards to promote the Abercrombie & Fitch brand. In addition to emphasizing top line growth, management will continue to focus on operational controls which have been an important factor in the Company's success.

Gross Income

The Company's gross income may not be comparable to those of other retailers since all significant costs related to the Company's distribution network, excluding direct shipping costs related to the e-commerce and catalogue sales, are included in general, administrative and store operating expenses (see "General, Administrative and Store Operating Expenses" section below).

Gross income for the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year was $165.0 million compared to $128.6 million in the comparable period during the 2003 fiscal year. The gross income rate (gross income divided by net sales) for the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year was 40.1%, up 300 basis points from last year's rate of 37.1%. The increase in gross income rate resulted largely from an increase in initial markup (IMU), partially offset by a higher markdown rate as a percent of net sales. Continued progress in sourcing efficiency has been an important factor in improving IMU. All three brands had IMU improvements in excess of 300 basis points and are operating at similar margins.

The markdown rate, as a percentage of net sales, exceeded last year's rate reflecting the Company's strategy to turn merchandise quickly enabling the addition of more new items to the sales floor.

Due to a combination of the reduced cost in ending inventory from successful sourcing efforts and a shift in the timing of the deliveries, the Company ended the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year with inventories, at cost, down 21% per gross square foot versus the first quarter of the 2003 fiscal year.

General, Administrative and Store Operating Expenses

General, administrative and store operating expenses during the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year were $118.3 million compared to $87.9 million during the same period in the 2003 fiscal year. The first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year general, administrative and store operating expense rate (general, administrative and store operating expenses divided by net sales) was 28.7% compared to 25.4% in the first quarter of the 2003 fiscal year. The increase in rate versus the 2003 comparable period is primarily due to the following: higher legal expense due to a charge of $ 8.0 million related to expected defense costs in a legal proceeding (see Note 10 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements); higher home office expenses, largely due to higher bonus accruals resulting from improved financial performance; and higher store expenses due to an increase in aggregate payroll. Wage levels, in all three brands, were held relatively flat compared to first quarter of 2003.

The distribution center achieved record level productivity during the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year. Productivity, as measured in units processed per labor hour, was 12% higher than the first quarter of the 2003 fiscal year. Costs related to the distribution center, excluding direct shipping costs related to the e-commerce and catalogue sales, included in general, administrative and store operating expenses were $4.5 million for the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year compared to $4.3 million for the first quarter of the 2003 fiscal year.

Operating Income

Operating income for the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year increased to $46.7 million from $40.7 million in the 2003 fiscal year first quarter, an increase of 14.7%. The increase was primarily due to sales increases due to new stores and higher gross margin, partially offset by higher home office expenses and store expenses. The operating income rate (operating income divided by net sales) was 11.4% for the first quarter of the 2004 fiscal year compared to 11.7% for the first quarter of the 2003 fiscal year. Higher general, administrative and store operating expenses, expressed as a percentage of net sales, reduced the operating income rate in the first quarter of 2004. This decline was partially offset by higher merchandise margins during the quarter.

Interest Income and Income Tax Expense

First quarter net interest income was $1.0 million in 2004 which was flat versus last year. The Company continued to invest in tax-free securities. The effective tax rate for the first quarter was 38.6% compared to 38.1% for the 2003 comparable period.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements and Contractual Obligations

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements or debt obligations. The contractual obligations of the Company as of May 1, 2004 have not significantly changed from the ones disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004. There have been changes in the ordinary course of the Company's business during the quarterly period ended May 1, 2004 in the Company's contractual obligations included within both the "operating leases" category and the "purchase obligations and other" category.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash provided by operating activities provides the resources to support operations, including projected growth, seasonal requirements and capital expenditures. A summary of the Company's working capital position and capitalization follows (in thousands):

| | May 1, 2004 | January 31, 2004 |
|----------------------|-------------|------------------|
| | ----- | ----- |
| Working capital | $ 455,259 | $ 441,583 |
| | ===== | ===== |
| Capitalization: | | |
| Shareholders' equity | $ 874,429 | $ 857,765 |

Net cash provided by operating activities, the Company's primary source of liquidity, totaled $78.7 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 versus $24.3 million in the comparable period of 2003. Cash was provided primarily by current year net income adjusted for depreciation and amortization and by decreases in inventories and increases in lessor construction allowances and accrued expenses. Uses of cash primarily consisted of increased cash outflows in income taxes payable, accounts payable and other assets and liabilities.

Inventories decreased as a result of the reduced cost in ending inventory from successful sourcing efforts and a shift in the timing of the deliveries which caused more delivery flow in May versus April compared with last year. As a result, the Company ended the first quarter of 2004 with inventories down 21% per gross square foot compared to last year's first quarter. Accrued expenses also increased for items such as payroll and property taxes, related primarily to the growth in the store base and accrued expenses resulting from an increase in expected defense costs related to pending litigation.

Income taxes payable decreased as a result of payments made during the first quarter and accounts payable decreased as a result of the decrease in inventories. Other assets and liabilities increased primarily as a result of an increase in accounts receivables related to expected proceeds from an insurance claim pertaining to legal expenses.

The Company's operations are seasonal in nature and typically peak during the back-to-school and Christmas selling periods. Accordingly, cash requirements for inventory expenditures are highest during these periods.

Cash outflows for investing activities were for capital expenditures (see the discussion in the "Capital Expenditures" section below) related primarily to new stores and construction in process and purchases of marketable securities. Cash inflows from investing activities consisted of proceeds from the sale of marketable securities. As of May 1, 2004, the Company held $486.1 million of marketable securities with original maturities of greater than 90 days.

Financing activities for the first quarter of 2004 consisted of the repurchase of 599 thousand shares of A&F's Class A Common Stock at an average cost of $31.11 for a total of $18.6 million pursuant to a previously authorized stock repurchase program. The repurchase during the first quarter completed the 5 million share repurchase authorized by the Board of Directors on August 8, 2002. In addition to stock repurchases, financing activities in the first quarter of 2004 included $11.9 million for the payment of the first quarterly $0.125 dividend on March 30, 2004, $11.3 million received in connection with stock option exercises and $1.9 million for cash overdrafts which are outstanding checks reclassified from cash to accounts payable.

The Company expects that substantially all future capital expenditures will be funded with cash from operations. In addition, the Company has $250 million available (less outstanding letters of credit) under its Credit Agreement to support operations.

Letters of credit totaling approximately $31.7 million and $39.1 million were outstanding under the Credit Agreement at May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, respectively. No borrowings were outstanding under the Credit Agreement at May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003.

The Company has standby letters of credit in the amount of $4.7 million that are set to expire during the third quarter of fiscal 2004. The beneficiary, a merchandise supplier, has the right to draw upon the standby letters of credit if the Company has authorized or filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. To date, the beneficiary has not drawn upon the standby letters of credit.

Capital Expenditures and Landlord Construction Allowances

Capital expenditures totaled $41.3 million and $25.1 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003, respectively. Additionally, the non-cash accrual for construction in progress decreased $11.9 million in the first quarter of the 2004 and increased $10.8 million in the first quarter of 2003. Capital expenditures related primarily to new store construction, including the non-cash accrual for construction in progress. The balance of capital expenditures related primarily to miscellaneous store remodeling projects.

Construction allowances are an integral part of the decision making process for assessing the viability of new store leases. In making the decision whether to invest in a store location, the Company calculates the estimated future return on its investment based on the cost of construction, less any construction allowances to be received from the landlord. The Company received $8.5 million and $8.7 million in construction allowances during the first quarters of the 2004 and 2003 fiscal years, respectively. For accounting purposes, the Company treats construction allowances as a deferred lease credit which reduces rent expense in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No.13, "Accounting for Leases" and Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 88-1, "Issues Relating to Accounting for Leases".

The Company anticipates spending $175.0 million to $185.0 million in the 2004 fiscal year for capital expenditures, of which $135.0 million to $145.0 million will be for new/remodel store construction. The balance of the capital expenditures will primarily relate to home office and distribution center projects and other miscellaneous projects.

The Company intends to add approximately 700,000 gross square feet of store space in the 2004 fiscal year, which will represent a 14% increase over year-end 2003. It is anticipated the increase will result from the addition of approximately 11 new Abercrombie & Fitch stores, 8 new abercrombie stores and 85 new Hollister stores. In addition, the Company recently announced plans for a new lifestyle brand that will target an older customer than its current brands. The Company expects to open four test stores in August 2004. Additionally, the Company plans to remodel 10 to 15 Abercrombie & Fitch stores.

The Company estimates that the average cost for leasehold improvements and furniture and fixtures for Abercrombie & Fitch stores opened during the 2004 fiscal year will approximate $635,000 per store, net of construction allowances. In addition, initial inventory purchases are expected to average approximately $300,000 per store.

Edgar Filing: ABERCROMBIE & FITCH CO /DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

The Company estimates that the average cost for leasehold improvements and furniture and fixtures for abercrombie stores opened during the 2004 fiscal year will approximate $510,000 per store, net of construction allowances. In addition, initial inventory purchases are expected to average approximately $115,000 per store.

The Company estimates that the average cost for leasehold improvements and furniture and fixtures for Hollister stores opened during the 2004 fiscal year will approximate $615,000 per store, net of construction allowances. In addition, initial inventory purchases are expected to average approximately $215,000 per store.

The Company expects that substantially all future capital expenditures will be funded with cash from operations. In addition, the Company has $250 million available (less outstanding letters of credit) under its Credit Agreement to support operations.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The Company's significant and critical accounting policies and estimates can be found in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Item 8 of A&F's Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 (Note 3). Additionally, the Company believes that the following policies are critical to the portrayal of the Company's financial condition and results of operations for interim periods.

Revenue Recognition - The Company recognizes retail sales at the time the customer takes possession of the merchandise and purchases are paid for, primarily with either cash or credit card. Catalogue and e-commerce sales are recorded upon customer receipt of merchandise. Amounts relating to shipping and handling billed to customers in a sale transaction are classified as revenue and the direct shipping costs are classified as cost of goods sold. Employee discounts are classified as a reduction of revenue. The Company reserves for sales returns through estimates based on historical experience and various other assumptions that management believes to be reasonable.

Inventory Valuation - Inventories are principally valued at the lower of average cost or market, on a first-in first-out basis, utilizing the retail method. The retail method of inventory valuation is an averaging technique applied to different categories of inventory. At the Company, the averaging is determined at the stock keeping unit ("SKU") level by averaging all costs for each SKU. An initial markup is applied to inventory at cost in order to establish a cost-to-retail ratio. Permanent markdowns, when taken, reduce both the retail and cost components of inventory on hand so as to maintain the already established cost-to-retail relationship. The use of the retail method and the recording of markdowns effectively values inventory at the lower of cost or market. The Company further reduces inventory by recording an additional markdown reserve using the retail carrying value of inventory from the season just passed. Markdowns on this carryover inventory represent estimated future anticipated selling price declines.

Additionally, as part of inventory valuation, an inventory shrinkage estimate is made each period that reduces the value of inventory for lost or stolen items. Inherent in the retail method calculation are certain significant judgments and estimates including, among others, initial markup, markdowns and shrinkage, which could significantly impact the ending inventory valuation at cost as well as the resulting gross margins. Management believes that this inventory valuation method is appropriate since it preserves the cost-to-retail relationship in ending inventory.

Income Taxes - Income taxes are calculated in accordance with SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which requires the use of the liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized based on the difference between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Inherent in the measurement of deferred balances are certain judgments and interpretations of enacted tax law and published guidance with respect to applicability to the Company's operations. Significant examples of this concept include capitalization policies for various tangible and intangible costs, income and expense recognition and inventory valuation methods. No valuation allowance has been provided for deferred tax assets because management believes the full amount of the net deferred tax assets will be realized in the future. The effective tax rate utilized by the Company reflects management's judgment of the expected tax liabilities within the various taxing jurisdictions.

Contingencies - In the normal course of business, the Company must make continuing estimates of potential future legal obligations and liabilities, which requires the use of management's judgment on the outcome of various issues. Management may also use outside legal advice to assist in the estimating process. However, the ultimate outcome of various legal issues could be different than management estimates, and adjustments may be required.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The market risk of the Company's financial instruments as of May 1, 2004 has not significantly changed since January 31, 2004. The Company's market risk profile as of January 31, 2004 is disclosed in "Item 7A - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk" of A&F's Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004.

29

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) that are designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in the reports that the Company files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required financial disclosures. Because of inherent limitations, disclosure controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance that the objectives of disclosure controls and procedures are met.

The Company's management, with the participation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the Company's design and operation of its disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Form 10-Q/A. The evaluation included consideration of facts and circumstances surrounding corrections of the Company's lease accounting practices. These corrections resulted in the restatement of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004 and for the interim periods ended May 1, 2004 and May 3, 2003 as described in Note 2: "Restatement and Reclassification of Financial Statements" under Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 1, "Financial Statements" of this Form 10-Q/A. As a result of the restatements and the related material weakness discussed below, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of May 1, 2004, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective at a reasonable level of assurance. Notwithstanding this material weakness discussed below, the Company's management has concluded that the restated consolidated financial statements included in this report present fairly, in all material respects the Company's financial position and results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

A material weakness is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected. As of May 1, 2004, the Company's controls over the selection and application of its lease accounting policies related to construction allowances and the recording of rent between the date the Company takes possession of the property and the commencement date of the lease were ineffective to ensure that such leasing transactions were recorded in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Specifically, because of the deficiency in the Company's controls over the selection and application of its lease accounting policies, the Company failed to identify and properly classify and account for property and equipment, deferred lease credits from landlords, rent expense, depreciation expense and the related impact of these items on cash provided by operating activities and cash used for investing activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows, which resulted in restatements of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of May 1, 2004 and January 31, 2004. Additionally, if the control deficiency is not remediated it could result in a misstatement of the aforementioned financial statement accounts and disclosures that would result in a material misstatement to annual or interim financial statements that would not be prevented or detected. Accordingly, management of the Company has concluded that this control deficiency constitutes a material weakness and that internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of May 1, 2004.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In the first quarter of 2005, the Company remediated the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting by correcting its method of accounting for construction allowances and recording of rent between the date the Company takes possession of the property and the commencement date of the lease. The Company implemented controls to ensure that all leases are reviewed and accounted for in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13, "Accounting for Leases" and Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 88-1, "Issues Relating to Accounting for Leases"; and Financial Accounting Standards Board Technical Bulletin No. 85-3, "Accounting for Operating Leases with Scheduled Rent Increases."

Other than the foregoing, there have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred since May 1, 2004 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is a defendant in lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of business.

A&F is aware of 20 actions that have been filed against A&F and certain of its officers and directors on behalf of a purported, but as yet uncertified, class of shareholders who purchased A&F's Class A Common Stock between October 8, 1999 and October 13, 1999. These 20 actions have been filed in the United States District Courts for the Southern District of New York and the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, alleging violations of the federal securities laws and seeking unspecified damages. On April 12, 2000, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation issued a Transfer Order transferring the 20 pending actions to the Southern District of New York for consolidated pretrial proceedings under the caption In re Abercrombie & Fitch Securities Litigation. On November 16, 2000, the Court signed an Order appointing the Hicks Group, a group of seven unrelated investors in A&F's securities, as lead plaintiff, and appointing lead counsel in the consolidated action. On December 14, 2000, plaintiffs filed a Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint (the "Amended Complaint") in which they did not name as defendants Lazard Freres & Co. and Todd Slater, who had formerly been named as defendants in certain of the 20 complaints. A&F and other defendants filed motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint on February 14, 2001. On November 14, 2003, the motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint were denied. On December 2, 2003, A&F moved for reconsideration or reargument of the November 14, 2003 order denying the motions to dismiss. The motions for reconsideration or reargument were fully briefed and submitted to the Court on January 9, 2004. The motions were denied on February 23, 2004.

A&F is aware of six actions that have been filed on behalf of purported classes of employees and former employees of the Company alleging that the Company required its associates to wear and pay for a "uniform" in violation of applicable law. In each case, the plaintiff, on behalf of his or her purported class, seeks injunctive relief and unspecified amounts of economic and liquidated damages. Two of these cases, Jennifer M. Solis v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc. and A&F California, LLC and Sarah Stevenson v. Abercrombie & Fitch Co., allege violations of California law and were filed on February 10, 2003 and February 4, 2003 in the California Superior Courts for Los Angeles County and San Francisco County, respectively. An answer was filed in the Solis case on March 26, 2003. Pursuant to a Petition for Coordination, the Solis and the Stevenson cases were coordinated by order issued November 17, 2003. Jadai Mohme v. Abercrombie & Fitch, which alleges violations of Illinois law, was filed on July 18, 2003 in the Illinois Circuit Court of St. Clair County. A first amended complaint was filed in the Mohme case on September 10, 2003 to change the defendant to "Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc." from "Abercrombie & Fitch." An answer to the first amended complaint was filed in the Mohme case on September 26, 2003. The parties are in the process of discovery. Shelby Port v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., which alleges violations of Washington law, was filed on or about July 18, 2003 in the Washington Superior Court of King County. The defendant filed a motion to dismiss the complaint in the Port case on September 5, 2003. Holly Zemany v. Abercrombie & Fitch, which alleges violations of Pennsylvania law, was filed on July 18, 2003 in the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County. A first amended complaint was filed in the Zemany case on September 9, 2003 to change the defendant to "Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc." from "Abercrombie & Fitch." A second amended complaint was filed November 10, 2003, adding some factual allegations. Defendant filed an answer to the second amended complaint on January 22, 2004.

32

In Michael Gualano v. Abercrombie & Fitch, which was filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania on March 14, 2003, the plaintiff alleges that the "uniform," when purchased, drove associates' wages below the federal minimum wage. The complaint purports to state a collective action on behalf of all part-time associates nationwide under the Fair Labor Standards Act. A first amended complaint was filed in the Gualano case on September 9, 2003, to change the defendant to "Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc." from "Abercrombie & Fitch." An answer to the first amended complaint was filed in the Gualano case on or about September 24, 2003, and the parties are in the process of discovery.

A&F is aware of two actions that have been filed against the Company involving overtime compensation. In each action, the plaintiffs, on behalf of their respective purported class, seek injunctive relief and unspecified amounts of economic and liquidated damages. In Bryan T. Kimbell, Individually and on Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated and on Behalf of the Public v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., which was filed on July 10, 2002 in the California Superior Court for Los Angeles County, the plaintiffs allege that California general and store managers were entitled to receive overtime pay as "non-exempt" employees under California wage and hour laws. An answer was filed in the Kimbell case on September 4, 2002 and the parties are in the process of discovery. In Melissa Mitchell, et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Co. and Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., which was filed on June 13, 2003 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, the plaintiffs allege that assistant managers and store managers were not paid overtime compensation in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act and Ohio law. A&F filed a motion to dismiss the Mitchell case on July 28, 2003. The case was transferred from the Western Division to the Eastern Division of the Southern District of Ohio on April 21, 2004. A&F subsequently renewed its motion to dismiss, which is pending.

The Company does not believe it is feasible to predict the outcome of the legal proceedings described above and intends to defend vigorously against them. The timing of the final resolution of each of these proceedings is also uncertain. Accordingly the Company cannot estimate a range of potential loss, if any, for any of these legal proceedings.

A&F is aware of one action that has been filed on behalf of a purported class alleged to be discriminated against in hiring or employment decisions due to race and/or national origin. Eduardo Gonzalez, et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Co. was filed on June 16, 2003 in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. The plaintiffs subsequently amended their complaint to add A&F California, LLC, Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc. and A&F Ohio, Inc. as defendants. The plaintiffs allege, on behalf of their purported class, that they were discriminated against in hiring and employment decisions due to their race and/or national origin. The plaintiffs seek, on behalf of their purported class, injunctive relief and unspecified amounts of economic, compensatory and punitive damages. A second amended complaint, which added two additional plaintiffs, was filed on or about January 9, 2004. Defendant filed an answer to the second amended complaint on or about January 26, 2004. During the first quarter of fiscal 2004, the Company recorded an $8.0 million charge (net of expected proceeds of $10 million from insurance) resulting from an increase in expected defense costs related to this purported class action employment discrimination suit. The Company does not believe it is feasible to predict the outcome of this proceeding and intends to vigorously defend against it. However, if judgment is rendered in this proceeding which is unfavorable to the Company, the amount could potentially be material to the Company's financial statements. The parties are in the process of discovery. In addition, the EEOC is conducting nationwide investigations relating to allegations of discrimination based on race, national origin and gender.
