Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 20, 2005, Cooper Tire & Rubber Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), revised its 1998 Non-Employee Directors Compensation Deferral Plan (the Plan) (attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by reference) to allow non-employee Directors of the Company to elect to have their deferred Director's fees and annual phantom stock units allocated among various deemed investment options and to conform the Plan to the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code). The principal changes were as follows:

The Plan, as amended, allows Directors to elect to have deferred Director's fees deemed invested among (1) phantom stock units and (2) the various alternative investment funds available under the Company's 401(k) savings plan for salaried employees. Directors will also be able to transfer the annual units credited in the form of phantom stock units into the alternative investment funds.

In connection with the addition of alternative investments described above, the Plan, as amended, allows Directors to elect to have the deferred Director's fees paid in cash or in shares of the Company's common stock.

The Plan, as amended, allows Directors to make a subsequent election with respect to deferred Director's fees to change the time of commencement of payment, the manner of payment, or both, so long as the election is in compliance with Section 409A of the Code.
