Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 19, 2006, Rurbanc Data Services, Inc. (RDSI), the bank data processing subsidiary of Rurban Financial Corp. (Rurban), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Lance Thompson and Robert Church (collectively, the Shareholders), which provides for the acquisition by RDSI of Diverse Computer Marketers, Inc., headquartered in Lansing, Michigan, and a related company, DCM Indiana, Inc., located in Indianapolis, Indiana (collectively, the DCM Companies). Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, RDSI will acquire all of the outstanding stock of the DCM Companies from the Shareholders for an aggregate purchase price of $7 million, less the amount of any indebtedness of the DCM Companies on the closing date and certain other adjustments set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement. An additional $250,000 is payable to the Shareholders contingent upon the continuation of profitable growth over the first year of combined operations. The entire purchase price will be paid in cash.

The acquisition is expected to close during the third quarter of 2006, and is subject to approval by regulatory authorities and the satisfaction of other customary conditions set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement. Upon completion of the acquisition, the DCM Companies will operate as subsidiaries of RDSI.

The information set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Stock Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

On May 22, 2006, Rurban issued a press release announcing the execution of the Stock Purchase Agreement. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statement

The Stock Purchase Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms, contains representations and warranties of each of the parties thereto. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the Stock Purchase Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, or for any other purpose, at the time they were made or otherwise.
