DEALING IN SECURITIES BY DIRECTORS OF LISTED COMPANIES

Following the resignation of Mr J C A Leslie as chief executive officer of Sappi Limited in March 2006, the Sappi board requested the chairman, Mr Eugene van As, to assume executive responsibility for the group until a new chief executive officer was appointed, and to oversee an orderly hand-over of responsibilities to the new chief executive officer.

The process to find a new chief executive officer continues. However, Mr van As has until now received compensation only for his services as chairman and not any remuneration for his additional responsibilities.

Mr van As has informed the board that certain trusts and funds, of which he is one of the beneficiaries and which hold Sappi shares, need to re-arrange their portfolios, and intend to dispose of approximately 350 000 Sappi shares in the near future. A specific SENS announcement will be prepared for release as and when any such disposals are made.

With regards to Mr van As' remuneration for his additional executive responsibilities, he has agreed with the board to be remunerated in Sappi shares, not in cash. The board has decided to compensate him for these services until the appointment of, and orderly hand-over to, a new chief executive officer by procuring the delivery to Mr van As of 100 000 Sappi shares to be purchased in the open market in two tranches of 50 000 each on 29 September 2006 and 30 March 2007 respectively, subject to the restriction regarding Mr van As' trading of such shares as set out below.
