I-trax, Inc. announced today that David R. Bock, its Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, will step down from his position in the third quarter of 2007. I-trax has initiated a search for Mr. Bock's successor. I-trax and Mr. Bock expect that Mr. Bock will remain through any transition period and thereafter will be available to assist the company in the areas of strategy, financings, mergers and acquisitions and organizational development as Strategy Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Bock joined I-trax as a director in 2000, a position he held until August 2004 when he assumed the duties of Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Bock joined I-trax shortly following its acquisition of CHD Meridian Healthcare and contributed significantly to the merged companies' growth.

Frank A. Martin, Chairman of I-trax, stated: "We are very grateful to David for his outstanding contributions as our Chief Financial Officer. He has served our company first as a very capable director and then as an exceptionally broad-gauge chief financial officer. David helped us successfully integrate the two companies after the merger, dealing very effectively with the challenges that such transactions often present. David has attracted to our company a very talented accounting and finance team, established solid financial management and given us a platform for growth. We look forward to his continued involvement with the company."

"I have had the privilege of working with I-trax from an early start-up to a leading provider of health and productivity services," said Mr. Bock. "I accepted the position as Chief Financial Officer of I-trax during a challenging time after the merger with CHD Meridian Healthcare and am extremely grateful to have been part of a highly effective management team. The company has great prospects and I look forward to continuing to assist on key strategic initiatives.”

I-trax’s disclosure in Item 1.01 above is incorporated in this Item 5.02 by reference.
