PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Despite diligent efforts, the work necessary to complete the Company's preparation of its financial statements and management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, including restatements of the prior year financial statements as described below, could not be completed without unreasonable expense and effort in sufficient time to permit the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007 on the scheduled due date of March 14, 2008.

As described in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 14, 2008, the Company has identified errors requiring corrections in its prior years' income tax provisions and related deferred tax liabilities, as well as related to its accounting for the equity earnings of its joint venture in Hungary. These corrections will require restatement of the Company's previously issued financial statements. In accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 154 – Accounting Changes and Error Corrections, restatements of its financial statements for the fiscal years 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003, as well as its interim financial statements for 2006 and the first three quarters of 2007, will be required. The Company expects to provide restated financial statements for the full years 2006 and 2005 and restated financial data for full years 2004 and 2003, as well as restated interim financial information for the fiscal years 2007 and 2006, in its upcoming Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 30, 2007. The Company has also determined that these identified corrections will have a material impact on management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and its disclosure controls and procedures.

The Company expects that it will be able to complete the work described above in time for the Company to file its 2007 Annual Report on Form 10-K on or prior to the reporting deadline provided by such extension.

SEC 1344 (05-06) Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.
