TAYLOR DEVICES, INC.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

1. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of the Company, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the financial position as of November 30, 2008 and May 31, 2008, the results of operations for the three and six months ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007, and cash flows for the six months ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders for the year ended May 31, 2008. There have been no updates or changes to our audited financial statements for the year ended May 31, 2008.
2. There is no provision nor shall there be any provisions for profit sharing, dividends, or any other benefits of any nature at any time for this fiscal year.
3. For the three and six month periods ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007 the net income was divided by 3,219,784 and 3,145,692, respectively, which is net of the Treasury shares, to calculate the net income per share.
4. The results of operations for the six month period ended November 30, 2008 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.
5. Effective April 1, 2008, the Company merged with Tayco Developments, Inc. (Developments) following approval from shareholders of both companies. The Company is the surviving corporation. Under the terms of the Plan of Merger, each share of Developments' common stock was converted into one share of the Company's common stock. The Company had approximately a 23% equity investment in Developments prior to the merger.

6. In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157 "Fair Value Measurements," to define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and expand disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and for interim periods within those years. The FASB issued FASB Staff Positions (FSP) 157-1 and 157-2 and 157-3. FSP 157-1 amends SFAS 157 to exclude SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases," and its related interpretive accounting pronouncements that address leasing transactions, while FSP 157-2 delays the effective date of the application for SFAS No. 157 to fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008 for all nonfinancial assets that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a nonrecurring basis. FSP 157-3 addresses considerations in determining fair value of a financial asset when the market for that asset is not active. The Company adopted SFAS No. 157 as of June 1, 2008 with the exception of the application of the statement to nonfinancial assets and liabilities. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS No. 157 for its nonfinancial assets and liabilities, effective June 1, 2009, will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements. The impact of adopting SFAS No. 157 on our consolidated financial statements was not significant.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159 "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities -- an Amendment of SFAS No. 115." This statement permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by mitigating volatility in reporting earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. SFAS No. 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and interim periods within those years. The Company adopted SFAS No. 159 as of June 1, 2008 and elected not to measure any additional financial instruments and other items at fair value, therefore, the adoption of SFAS No. 159 had no effect on our consolidated financial statements.

Other recently issued FASB Statements or Interpretations, SEC Staff Accounting Bulletins, and AICPA Emerging Issue Task Force Consensuses have either been implemented or are not significant to the Company.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Cautionary Statement

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. Information in this Item 2, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," and elsewhere in this 10-Q that does not consist of historical facts, are "forward-looking statements." Statements accompanied or qualified by, or containing, words such as "may," "will," "should," "believes," "expects," "intends," "plans," "projects," "estimates," "predicts," "potential," "outlook," "forecast," "anticipates," "presume," and "assume" constitute forward-looking statements and, as such, are not a guarantee of future performance. The statements involve factors, risks and uncertainties, the impact or occurrence of which can cause actual results to differ materially from the expected results described in such statements. Risks and uncertainties can include, among others, fluctuations in general business cycles and changing economic conditions; changing product demand and industry capacity; increased competition and pricing pressures; advances in technology that can reduce the demand for the Company's products, as well as other factors, many or all of which may be beyond the Company's control. Consequently, investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as predictive of future results. The Company disclaims any obligation to release publicly any updates or revisions to the forward-looking statements herein to reflect any change in the Company's expectations with regard thereto, or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

Results of Operations

A summary of the period to period changes in the principal items included in the condensed consolidated statements of income is shown below:

Summary comparison of the six months ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007

	Increase / (Decrease)
Sales, net	$ (123,000)
Cost of goods sold	$ 597,000
Selling, general and administrative expenses	$ (236,000)
Other expense, net	$ 33,000

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10-Q

Income before provision for income taxes, equity in net income
(loss) of affiliate and minority stockholder's interest	$ (451,000)
Provision for income taxes	$ (177,000)
Net income	$ (258,000)

Sales under certain fixed-price contracts, requiring substantial performance over several periods prior to commencement of deliveries, are accounted for under the percentage-of-completion method of accounting whereby revenues are recognized based on estimates of completion prepared on a ratio of cost to total estimated cost basis. Costs include all material and direct and indirect charges related to specific contracts.

Adjustments to cost estimates are made periodically and any losses expected to be incurred on contracts in progress are charged to operations in the period such losses are determined. However, any profits expected on contracts in progress are recognized over the life of the contract.

For financial statement presentation purposes, the Company nets progress billings against the total costs incurred on uncompleted contracts. The asset, "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings," represents revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. The liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings," represents billings in excess of revenues recognized.

For the six months ended November 30, 2008 (All figures discussed are for the six months ended November 30, 2008 as compared to the six months ended November 30, 2007.)

	Six months ended		Change
	November 30, 2008	November 30, 2007	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Net Revenue	$ 8,561,000	$ 8,684,000	$ (123,000)	-1%
Cost of sales	6,327,000	5,730,000	597,000	10%
Gross profit	$ 2,234,000	$ 2,954,000	$ (720,000)	-24%

...as a percentage of net revenues      26%                      34%

The Company's consolidated results of operations showed a 1% decrease in net revenues and a decrease in net income of 56%. Revenues recorded in the current period for long-term construction projects were 20% less than the level recorded in the prior year. Revenues recorded in the current period for other-than long-term construction projects (non-projects) were up 18% over the level recorded in the prior year. The gross profit as a percentage of net revenues for the current and prior year periods was 26% and 34%. This fluctuation is attributable to a.) one large, domestic current year project that has a very low margin and b.) a few of the bigger non-project shipments in the current period had low margins.

The Company's revenues and net income fluctuate from period to period. The fluctuations in comparing the current period to the prior period are not necessarily representative of future results.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

	Six months ended		Change
	November 30, 2008	November 30, 2007	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Outside Commissions	$ 364,000	$ 593,000	$ (229,000)	-39%
Other SG&A	1,524,000	1,531,000	(7,000)	-
Total SG&A	$1,888,000	$2,124,000	$ (236,000)	-11%

...as a percentage of net revenues      22%                      24%

Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased by 11% from the prior year. Outside commission expense decreased by 39% from last year's level. As a percentage of sales, outside commissions were 4.3% compared with 6.8% last year. This fluctuation was primarily due to a higher than normal commission on an Asian order last year. This year's commissions are slightly lower than historical averages. Other selling, general and administrative expenses remained relatively constant from last year to this.

The above factors resulted in operating income of $346,000 for the six months ended November 30, 2008, down 58% from the $829,000 in the same period of the prior year.

Other expense, net, of $23,000 is primarily interest expense and is $33,000 less than in the prior year. The average level of use of the Company's operating line of credit during the period increased by about $500,000 as compared to the prior year period. The line of credit is used primarily to fund the production of larger projects that do not allow for advance payments or progress payments. Long-term debt is just under half of what it was as of November 30, 2007. Interest rates on the line of credit and most of the long-term debt is 3.5 percentage points lower than the rates in effect at November 30, 2007. These factors combined to lower our interest expense for the quarter.

Summary comparison of the three months ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007

	Increase / (Decrease)
Sales, net	$ (519,000)
Cost of goods sold	$ (208,000)

For the three months ended November 30, 2008 (All figures discussed are for the three months ended November 30, 2008 as compared to the three months ended November 30, 2007.)

	Three months ended		Change
	November 30, 2008	November 30, 2007	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Net Revenue	$ 3,758,000	$ 4,277,000	$ (519,000)	-12%
Cost of sales	2,804,000	3,012,000	(208,000)	-7%
Gross profit	$ 954,000	$ 1,265,000	$ (311,000)	-25%

...as a percentage of net revenues                      25%                      30%

The Company's consolidated results of operations showed a 12% decrease in net revenues and a decrease in net income of 51%. Revenues recorded in the current period for long-term construction projects were 22% less than the level recorded in the prior year. Revenues recorded in the current period for other-than long-term construction projects (non-projects) were lower by 3% over the level recorded in the prior year. Gross profit decreased by 25%. The gross profit as a percentage of net revenues for the current and prior year periods was 25% and 30%. This fluctuation is attributable to a.) one large, domestic project that has a very low margin in the current period, b.) a few of the bigger projects in the same period last year had higher than normal margins and c.) a few of the bigger non-project shipments in the quarter had low margins.

The Company's revenues and net income fluctuate from period to period. The fluctuations in comparing the current period to the prior period are not necessarily representative of future results.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10-Q

	Three months ended		Change
	November 30, 2008	November 30, 2007	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Outside Commissions	$ 162,000	$ 343,000	$ (181,000)	-53%
Other SG&A	683,000	713,000	(30,000)	-4%
Total SG&A	$ 845,000	$1,056,000	$ (211,000)	-20%

...as a percentage of net revenues                      22%                      25%

Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased by 20% from the prior year. Outside commission expense decreased by 53% from last year's level. As a percentage of sales, outside commissions were 4.3% compared with 8% last year. This fluctuation was primarily due to a higher than normal commission on an Asian order last year. This year's commissions are slightly lower than historical averages. Other selling, general and administrative expenses are slightly lower from last year to this.

The above factors resulted in operating income of $109,000 for the three months ended November 30, 2008, down 48% from the $209,000 in the same period of the prior year.

Other expense, net, of $23,000 is primarily interest expense and is $13,000 more than in the prior year.

Stock Options

The Company has a stock option plan which provides for the granting of nonqualified or incentive stock options to officers, key employees and non-employee directors. Options granted under the plan are exercisable over a ten year term. Options not exercised at the end of the term expire.

The Company applies the stock option expensing rules of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123R, "Share Based Payment," using the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation." The Company recognized $28,000 and $38,000 of compensation cost for the six month periods ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007.

The fair value of each stock option grant has been determined using the Black-Scholes model. The model considers assumptions related to exercise price, expected volatility, risk-free interest rate, and the weighted average expected term of the stock option grants. Expected volatility assumptions utilized in the model were based on volatility of the Company's stock price for the thirty month period ending on the date of grant. The risk-free interest rate is derived from the U.S. treasury yield. The Company used a weighted average expected term. The following assumptions were used in the Black-Scholes model in estimating the fair market value of the Company's stock option grants:

	2008	2007
Risk-free interest rate:	5.000%	3.625%
Expected life of the options:	2.5 years	2.5 years
Expected share price volatility:	44.62%	61.47%
Expected dividends:	zero	zero

These assumptions resulted in:

Estimated fair-market value per stock option:	$1.94	$2.47
---	--------	--------

The ultimate value of the options will depend on the future price of the Company's common stock, which cannot be forecast with reasonable accuracy.

A summary of changes in the stock options outstanding during the six month period ended November 30, 2008 is presented below:

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10-Q

	Number of Options	Weighted- Average Exercise Price

Capital Resources, Line of Credit and Long-Term Debt

The Company's primary liquidity is dependent upon the working capital needs. These are primarily inventory, accounts receivable, costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings, accounts payable, accrued commissions, billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings, and debt service. The Company's primary sources of liquidity have been operations and bank financing.

Capital expenditures for the six months ended November 30, 2008 were $335,000 compared to $370,000 in the same period of the prior year. As of November 30, 2008, the Company has commitments for capital expenditures totaling $150,000 during the next twelve months.

The Company has a $5,000,000 line of credit with a bank. There is a $1,903,000 principal balance outstanding as of November 30, 2008, compared to the $879,000 balance outstanding as of May 31, 2008. The outstanding balance on the line of credit will fluctuate as the Company's various long-term projects progress. The Company is in compliance with restrictive covenants under the line of credit and other financing arrangements, including Niagara County Industrial Development Agency Bond financing.

Principal maturities of long-term debt for the remainder of the current fiscal year and the subsequent five years are as follows: 2009 - $13,000; 2010 - $72,000; 2011 - $27,000; 2012 - $27,000; and 2013 - $20,000.

Inventory and Maintenance Inventory

			November 30, 2008		May 31, 2008	Increase / (Decrease)
Raw Materials	$ 521,000		$ 436,000		$ 85,000	19%
Work in process	6,146,000		5,811,000		335,000	6%
Finished goods	391,000		378,000		13,000	3%
Inventory	7,058,000	89%	6,625,000	88%	433,000	7%
Maintenance and other inventory	845,000	11%	888,000	12%	(43,000)	-5%
Total	$7,903,000	100%	$7,513,000	100%	$ 390,000	5%
Inventory turnover	1.6		1.9

NOTE: Inventory turnover is annualized for the six month period ended November 30, 2008

Inventory, at $7,058,000 as of November 30, 2008, is 7% higher than the prior year-end. Of this, approximately 87% is work in process, 6% is finished goods, and 7% is raw materials.

Maintenance and other inventory represent stock that is estimated to have a product life cycle in excess of twelve months. This stock represents certain items the Company is required to maintain for service of products sold and items that are generally subject to spontaneous ordering. This inventory is particularly sensitive to technological obsolescence in the near term due to its use in industries characterized by the continuous introduction of new product lines, rapid technological advances and product obsolescence. The maintenance inventory decreased slightly since May 31, 2008. Management of the Company has recorded an allowance for potential inventory obsolescence. The provision for potential inventory obsolescence was $90,000 for each of the six month periods ended November 30, 2008 and 2007. The Company continues to rework slow-moving inventory, where applicable, to convert it to product to be used on customer orders.

Cautionary Statement

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10-Q

Accounts Receivable, Costs and Estimated Earnings in Excess of Billings, and Billings in Excess of Costs and Estimated Earnings

	November 30, 2008	May 31, 2008	Increase / (Decrease)
Accounts receivable	$ 3,061,000	$ 2,109,000	$ 952,000 45%
Costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings	2,151,000	1,756,000	395,000 22%
Less: Billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings	46,000	-	46,000
Net	$ 5,166,000	$ 3,865,000	$ 1,301,000 34%

The Company combines the totals of accounts receivable, the asset "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings", and the liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings", to determine how much cash the Company will eventually realize from revenue recorded to date. As the accounts receivable figure rises in relation to the other two figures, the Company can anticipate increased cash receipts within the ensuing 30-60 days.

Accounts receivable of $3,061,000 as of November 30, 2008 includes approximately $371,000 of amounts retained by customers on long-term construction projects ("Project(s)"). The Company expects to collect all of these amounts, including the retainage, during the next twelve months.

As noted above, the current asset, "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings," represents revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. Whenever possible, the Company negotiates a provision in sales contracts to allow the Company to bill, and collect from the customer, payments in advance of shipments. Unfortunately, provisions such as this are often not possible. The $2,151,000 balance in this account at November 30, 2008 is 22% more than the prior year-end. Generally, if progress billings are permitted under the terms of a Project sales agreement, the more complete the Project is, the more progress billings will be permitted. The Company expects to bill the entire amount during the next twelve months.

The balances in this account are comprised of the following components:

	November 30, 2008	May 31, 2008
Costs	$ 3,076,000	$ 1,711,000
Estimated earnings	494,000	372,000
Less: Billings to customers	1,419,000	327,000
Costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings	$ 2,151,000	$ 1,756,000
Number of Projects in progress	9	7

Summary of factors affecting the year-end balances in the asset "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings", and the liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings":

	November 30, 2008	May 31, 2008
Number of Projects in progress	9	7
Aggregate percent complete	77%	45%
Average total sales value of Projects in progress	$538,000	$667,000
Percentage of total value invoiced to customer	29%	7%

Other Balance Sheet Items

The Company's backlog of sales orders at November 30, 2008 is $10.1 million, down from the $11.4 million backlog value at the end of the prior year. $1.3 million of the current backlog is on long-term construction projects already in progress.

Other current assets, which is primarily comprised of deferred taxes and prepaid expenses, decreased by 13% to $1,178,000. This change is mostly due to a reduction in the prepaid expenses as they are expensed in the normal course of business. Accounts payable, at $1,199,000 as of November 30, 2008, is only slightly higher than the prior year-end.

Commission expense on applicable sales orders is recognized at the time revenue is recognized. The commission is paid following receipt of payment from the customers. Accrued commissions as of November 30, 2008 are $877,000, up 123% from the $393,000 accrued at the prior year-end. The Company expects the current accrued amount to be paid during the next twelve months. Other current liabilities decreased slightly from the prior year-end, to $843,000. Payments on these liabilities will take place as scheduled within the next twelve months.

Management believes the Company's cash flows from operations and borrowing capacity under the bank line of credit is sufficient to fund ongoing operations, capital improvements and share repurchases for the next twelve months.

ITEM 1 Legal Proceedings

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10-Q

The State of New York Workers' Compensation Board ("Board") commenced a lawsuit against the Company and 264 other entities in May 2008, seeking to recover funds allegedly owed in connection with the Company's participation in the Manufacturing Self-Insurance Trust ("Trust"). Among the Board's claims are that (i) the Trust provided workers' compensation self-insurance to its participating members, including the Company, from April 22, 1997 to November 30, 2006; (ii) the Board has assumed control of the Trust; (iii) the Trust's liabilities exceed its assets by approximately $29,000,000; and (iv) the Company and the other participating members are jointly and severally liable for the alleged deficit. The Board claims that it has calculated a rough estimate of each participating member's current share of the deficit, which, for the Company, is alleged to be in excess of $79,555. The Board also claims, however, that the Company and the other 264 participating members could be jointly and severally responsible for sums substantially in excess of the Board's rough estimates.

The Company denies the Board's claims that the Company owes the amounts sought. The lawsuit is proceeding slowly, and the Company's investigation into the factual allegations of the lawsuit continues. It appears that the Board is performing additional forensic audits regarding the Trust, in order to more accurately determine the amounts allegedly owed by the participating members.

Management intends to vigorously defend the claim and has joined with other participating members in a joint defense against the lawsuit. It is anticipated that the Company, together with other defendants, will conduct an independent forensic audit of the Trust's liabilities and assets. It is also anticipated that the Company will challenge the legal and contractual basis for the Board's claims.

There are no other legal proceedings except for routine litigation incidental to the business.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Taylor Devices, Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Taylor Devices, Inc. and Subsidiary as of November 30, 2008, the related condensed consolidated statements of income for the three and six months ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007 and cash flows for the six months ended November 30, 2008 and November 30, 2007. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We have previously audited, in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2008, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated August 1, 2008, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2008 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the balance sheet from which it has been derived.
