TD BANK FINANCIAL GROUP ANNOUNCES SETTLEMENT IN ENRON BANKRUPTCY LITIGATION

TORONTO, August 16, 2005 TD Bank Financial Group announced today that it has agreed to a settlement in the so-called Enron Mega-Adversary proceeding brought by Enron Corp. against TDBFG and currently pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court in New York.

TD Bank Financial Group will make a pre-tax payment of US $50 million in cash to Enron Corp. to resolve alleged common law claims.

"I am pleased that we have dealt with this bankruptcy litigation," said Ed Clark, President and Chief Executive Officer, TD Bank Financial Group. "The work we have done over the last two years to strategically reposition the Bank, strengthen our balance sheet and diversify our earnings potential through strategic acquisitions has positioned us well no matter what the markets or, in this instance, past circumstances, may throw our way."

The settlement also includes an additional US $20 million payment to resolve alleged bankruptcy avoidance claims which seek to recover from TDBFG certain pre-bankruptcy payments. These claims relate to payments made by Enron to creditors in the three years prior to Enron declaring bankruptcy. In exchange for an additional payment of US $60 million, Enron has agreed to allow approximately US $320 million in claims that TD had transferred to third parties. This payment will ensure that these parties will not receive different treatment in the bankruptcy action because they acquired their claims from TD.

The Bank will also waive distributions on a remaining US $55 million of claims, which TDBFG had already written off.

"We have agreed to a negotiated settlement in this matter because we thought it was preferable to the time, expense and unpredictability of litigation and for that reason, believe that it is in the best interest of our shareholders," said Clark.

The agreement provides for the resolution of all claims between the parties. In making the settlement, TD has denied any wrong-doing or liability. The settlement is subject to the approval of the United States Bankruptcy Court.

TDBFG is a defendant in other Enron-related litigation, including a securities class action pending in Texas, known as the "Newby" action. Therefore, the Bank also announced an increase of US $300 million to its existing litigation reserve resulting in an after-tax charge of CDN $238 million, to be recorded in the third quarter.

"Because there have been no settlements reached for the securities action with any of the less involved banks, it is difficult to know what reserves are prudent. It would be reasonable to argue, given the facts of our involvement in Enron, that we should be able to resolve any claim for quite a small amount. On the other hand, given the uncertainties in this situation, it would seem prudent to increase our reserve," noted Clark.

"This file has been upsetting to our shareholders and our employees and I regret the economic cost to the Bank. I want to reassure all of our shareholders that this unfortunate situation has not deflected us from our core business strategy. We have strategies in place in both Canada and in the U.S. which will drive strong growth in earnings. The additional reserves taken this quarter can be absorbed without reducing capital from second quarter levels," concluded Clark.

Analyst and investor call

TDBFG will hold an analyst and investor call on Tuesday, August 16th at 8:30 a.m. ET. The call will include remarks by Ed Clark and will be followed by a question and answer period. The Bank's Chief Financial Officer, Dan Marinangeli and TD's General Counsel, Chris Montague will also be on the call to answer questions. Pre-qualified analysts and investors may ask questions by dialing 416-640-4127 or 1-800-814-4890. All other participants may also access the call at those numbers, but in listen-only mode.

An audiocast of the call will be accessible via TD Bank Financial Group's website, at www.td.com/investor/index/jsp. In addition, the event will be archived on TDBFG's web site at www.td.com/investor/calendar_arch.jsp following the audiocast and will be available for replay for a period of at least one month.

Caution regarding forward-looking statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Act"). In particular, when used in the preceding discussion, the words "might," "should," "possibility," or "hope," and similar conditional expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Act and are subject to the safe harbor created by the Act. By their very nature, these statements require us to make assumptions and are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties, general and specific, which may cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that could cause such differences include the possibility that the settlement may not be approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court; that there may be unexpected regulatory or government action taken in connection with Enron; and that the increase to the Bank's contingent litigation reserve may not be sufficient. The preceding list is not exhaustive of all possible factors. All such factors should be considered carefully when making decisions with respect to the Bank, and undue reliance should not be placed on the Bank's forward-looking statements. The Bank does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement that is contained in this news release.
