NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To Be Held September 14, 2006

To the Stockholders of Activision, Inc.:

The 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Activision, Inc. (the "Company") will be held at The Beverly Hills Hotel, 9641 Sunset Boulevard, Beverly Hills, California 90210, on Thursday, September 14, 2006, at 9:00 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. To elect eight directors of the Company to hold office for one year terms and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.
2. To ratify the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2007.
3. To act upon one stockholder proposal.
4. To transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The foregoing items of business are described more fully in the proxy statement accompanying this Notice.

The Board of Directors of the Company has fixed the close of business on July 17, 2006, as the record date for determining the Stockholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting.

STOCKHOLDERS ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND THE MEETING IN PERSON.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT. ACCORDINGLY, YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLETE, SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY CARD PROMPTLY IN THE ENVELOPE PROVIDED, WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING. NO POSTAGE IS REQUIRED IF THE PROXY CARD IS MAILED IN THE UNITED STATES. STOCKHOLDERS WHO ARE PRESENT AT THE ANNUAL MEETING MAY WITHDRAW THEIR PROXY AND VOTE IN PERSON IF THEY SO DESIRE. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOUR PROXY CARD BE RETURNED PROMPTLY IN ORDER TO AVOID THE ADDITIONAL EXPENSE OF FURTHER SOLICITATION.

By Order of the Board of Directors

George L. Rose
Secretary

PROXY STATEMENT
for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on September 14, 2006

GENERAL

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (the "Board" or "Board of Directors") of Activision, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), of proxies from the holders (the "Stockholders") of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of common stock, $.000001 par value per share. The proxies being solicited will be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Thursday, September 14, 2006, at The Beverly Hills Hotel, 9641 Sunset Boulevard, Beverly Hills, California 90210, at 9:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournment or postponement of such meeting (the "Annual Meeting"), for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This proxy statement and enclosed proxy card are first being mailed to the Stockholders on or about August 9, 2006.

RECORD DATE AND QUORUM

Stockholders of record at the close of business on July 17, 2006 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. On the record date there were approximately 280,323,210 shares of common stock outstanding. Each share of common stock outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote on each matter presented for action at the Annual Meeting. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock must be present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting in order for a quorum to be present. Proxies representing abstentions and broker non-votes are included for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

REQUIRED VOTES

In the election of directors (Proposal 1), you may vote either "for" each nominee or withhold your vote. The eight directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. "Plurality" means that the individuals who receive the largest number of votes cast are elected as directors up to the maximum number of directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, shares not voted (whether by abstention, broker non-vote or otherwise) will have no effect on the voting outcome with respect to the election of directors.

Ratification of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (Proposal 2) and adoption of the stockholder proposal (Proposal 3) require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions will have the same effect as votes against these proposals because they are treated as present and voting for purposes of determining the pool of votable shares, but do not contribute to the affirmative votes required to approve these proposals. Proxies that reflect broker non-votes will not be considered for the purpose of determining the votes for these proposals and will therefore have no effect on this vote.

Because the election of directors and the ratification of the Board's selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is considered a "routine" proposal, if you hold your shares in "street name" and do not give your broker or nominee instructions as to how to vote your shares with respect to this proposal, your broker or nominee will have discretionary authority to vote your shares under applicable rules. Because Proposal 3 is considered a "non routine" proposal, if you hold your shares in "street name" and do not give your broker or nominee instructions as to how to vote your shares with respect to this proposal, your broker or nominee will not have discretionary authority to vote your shares under applicable rules.

PROXIES

Whether or not you are able to attend the Annual Meeting, you are urged to complete, sign and return your proxy card. The common stock represented by all properly executed proxy cards received by the Company prior to the Annual Meeting, and not revoked prior to the Annual Meeting, will be voted at the Annual Meeting as directed in the signed proxy. If no directions are specified, such proxies shall be voted FOR Proposals 1 and 2 and AGAINST Proposal 3 and in the best judgment of the proxy holders as to other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting. The Company does not know of any other business that may come before the Annual Meeting. Any Stockholder may revoke or change its proxy at any time before the proxy is voted at the Annual Meeting by (i) sending another properly executed proxy bearing a later date or a written notice of revocation of the proxy to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices, or (ii) voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

COSTS OF PROXY SOLICITATION

The Company will bear the entire cost of this proxy solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy and any additional solicitation materials sent by the Company to Stockholders. The Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares of common stock for their expenses in forwarding the proxy materials to such beneficial owners. In addition, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers and regular employees of the Company, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone.

PROPOSAL 1ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company currently has eight directors. The nominees named below were designated by the Board for election to serve until the Company's next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

Except where otherwise instructed, proxies solicited by this proxy statement will be voted for the election of each of the eight nominees listed below, all of whom are currently members of the Board. Each nominee has consented to be named in this proxy statement and to serve as a director if elected. However, if any nominee shall become unable to stand for election as a director at the Annual Meeting, an event not now anticipated by the Board, the proxy will be voted for a substitute designated by the Board or, if no substitute is selected by the Board prior to or at the Annual Meeting, for a motion to reduce the membership of the Board to the number of nominees available. All directors serve for one year terms. There is no family relationship between any nominee and any other nominee or executive officer of the Company.

Mr. Sarnoff also serves as a member of the Supervisory Board of Bertelsmann AG, the parent company of Random House, Inc. and is the elected Chairman of the Bertelsmann Management Representative Committee. Since Mr. Sarnoff joined Random House's predecessor company, Bantam Doubleday Dell in 1987, he has held various positions including Director of Marketing for the Bantam Publishing Division, Vice President of Strategic Planning, and Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Diversified Publishing Group. Mr. Sarnoff also served as Chief Financial Officer of Bantam Doubleday Dell, and then was Chief Financial Officer of Random House, Inc., after the companies were combined. Mr. Sarnoff presently serves on the board of directors of The Princeton Review, Inc., Audible, Inc. and Oak Hill Capital Fund II. He holds a B.A. degree from Princeton University and an M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the election of each nominee for director.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES

The Board met seven times during the Company's fiscal year ended March 31, 2006. All directors who served on the Board during fiscal 2006 attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and of each committee on which they served during 2006.

The Board currently has three committees, each of which operates under a charter approved by the Board: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

The members of the Audit Committee are Mr. Corti (Chairperson), Ms. Isgur and Mr. Morgado. The Board has determined that Mr. Corti, Ms. Isgur and Mr. Morgado each meets the independence requirements and the financial literacy standards of the NASDAQ, as well as the independence requirements of the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The Board has designated Mr. Corti as the Audit Committee's "financial expert" after determining that he meets the criteria for an "audit committee financial expert" as set forth in applicable SEC rules. The primary responsibilities of the Audit Committee are (i) to appoint, set the compensation for, and oversee the Company's independent registered public accounting firm; (ii) to review the Company's general policies and procedures with respect to audits and accounting and financial controls, the scope and results of the auditing engagement and the independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm; and (iii) to review and pass upon the terms of any proposed related party transactions. The Audit Committee meets at least quarterly, and each regular meeting includes a discussion with representatives from its independent registered public accounting firm focusing, among other things, on key accounting principles and internal controls. The Company's Audit Committee charter can be found on the Company's web site at <http://www.activision.com/corpgov>. The Audit Committee met five times during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006.

The members of the Compensation Committee are Mr. Morgado (Chairperson), Ms. Isgur and Mr. Nolan, each of whom the Board has determined meets the applicable independence requirements. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board concerning the Company's executive compensation policy. The Compensation Committee also serves as the committee to administer the Company's incentive plans and employee stock purchase plans. The Compensation Committee's charter can be found on the Company's web site at <http://www.activision.com/corpgov>. The Compensation Committee consults frequently with senior management, acts regularly by written consent and met four times during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006.

At present the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are Messrs. Morgado (Chairperson) and Sarnoff, both of whom the Board has determined meet the applicable independence requirements. From April 1, 2005 through September 15, 2005, the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee were Messrs. Morgado, Henderson and Sarnoff (who joined the Committee effective August 1, 2005). The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee assists the Board by recommending to the Board nominees for election to the Board, recommending to the Board director nominees for each committee and for the position of chairperson for each committee, actively seeking individuals to become board members, reviewing developments in corporate governance and recommending formal governance standards to the Board. The committee also facilitates periodic evaluations of Board and committee effectiveness. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met four times during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charter can be found on the Company's website at <http://www.activision.com/corpgov>.

CERTAIN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES AND BOARD MATTERS

The Company's Board is currently, and will be following the 2006 Annual Meeting, comprised of five independent directors and three management directors, and independent directors have comprised a majority of the Board for over ten years. See "Director Independence" below. The Company complies with the NASDAQ's rules regarding Board composition and independent directors. The primary responsibilities of the Board are to provide oversight, strategic guidance, counseling and direction to Activision's management in the long-term interests of Activision and its Stockholders. The Board has established a regular meeting schedule calling for meetings at least every quarter. At least two of these meetings are to be held in person, and the others may be conducted by conference telephone or other similar equipment. The independent directors meet regularly in executive sessions without the management directors. Generally, written Board materials are distributed in advance of meetings and the Board schedules meetings with and presentations from senior level management on a regular basis.

Board Attendance at Annual Stockholders' Meeting

All directors are expected to attend the Company's Annual Stockholders' Meeting and all directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Director Independence

The Board assesses the independence of its members at least annually. The Board's assessment is based upon the listing standards of the NASDAQ, the federal securities laws and the regulations promulgated by the SEC thereunder, as well as the Company's Corporate Governance Principles and Policies.

As described elsewhere in this proxy statement, the Board has determined that all of its non-management directors are independent and that the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are currently composed entirely of independent directors in accordance with the applicable NASDAQ listing standards, SEC rules and, in the case of the Audit Committee, Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Furthermore, the Board has determined that there are no interrelationships between the Compensation Committee and the boards of directors or committees of other companies.

Code of Ethics for Senior Executive and Senior Financial Officers

The Company has a Code of Ethics for Senior Executive and Senior Financial Officers, which applies to the Company's Chairman, Co-Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Principal Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Controller and persons performing similar functions. A copy of the Company's Code of Ethics for Senior Executive and Senior Financial Officers is available both at the company's website at <http://www.activision.com/corpgov> and in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing, to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Activision, Inc., 3100 Ocean Park Blvd., Santa Monica, CA 90405.

CRITERIA USED IN THE SELECTION OF DIRECTOR NOMINEES

As noted in the Board's Corporate Governance Principles and Policies, there are no specific criteria for the selection of nominees for director except to the extent required to meet applicable legal, regulatory and exchange requirements. As a general matter, the Board believes that candidates should show evidence of leadership in their particular field of business or expertise, have broad experience and the ability to exercise sound business judgment, have knowledge about the Company's business and be able to network in a way to promote the Company's interests.

In evaluating a candidate for director, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers, in addition to the criteria set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Principles and Policies and such other criteria it determines to be appropriate under the circumstances, whether a candidate possesses the integrity, judgment, knowledge, experience, skills, expertise, and viewpoints that are likely to enhance the Board's ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Company, including, when applicable, to enhance the ability of committees of the Board to fulfill their duties. When considering director nominees recommended by a stockholder, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may also consider the factors described under "Stockholder Recommendation of Directors" set forth below.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has the authority to retain and terminate any search firm to help it identify director candidates and has the authority to approve such search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also has the authority to obtain advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting or other advisors. Before engaging a search firm or other external advisors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consult with the Company's Chairman and the Co-Chairman. The Company has in the past engaged, and will continue to engage in the future, third-party search firms to assist with the identification and evaluation of potential candidates for director.

Stockholder Recommendation of Directors

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders. In addition to all of the factors that the Committee may consider when proposing director nominees to the Board, when considering candidates submitted by stockholders, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may also take into consideration the number of shares of the Company's common stock held by the recommending stockholder, the length of time that such shares have been held and the relationship, if any, between the recommending stockholder and the proposed director nominee.

To have a candidate considered by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a stockholder must submit the recommendation in writing and must include the following information:

name and address of the stockholder and evidence of the person's ownership of Company stock, including the number of shares beneficially owned and the length of time of ownership;

name of the candidate, the candidate's resume or a listing of his or her qualifications to be a director of the Company, and the person's consent to be named as a director if selected by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and nominated by the Board;

representation that the stockholder is entitled to vote at the annual meeting at which directors will be elected, and that the stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person(s) specified in the notice; and description of any arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and such nominee and any other persons (including their names), pursuant to which the nomination is made.

The stockholder recommendation and information described above must be sent to the Company's Corporate Secretary at Activision, Inc., 3100 Ocean Park Blvd., Suite 1000, Santa Monica, CA 90405, and must be received by the Corporate Secretary not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the Company's most recent annual meeting of Stockholders.

STOCKHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS WITH BOARD OF DIRECTORS

To communicate directly with the Board, the non-management directors, or any of the committees of the Board, individually or as a group, stockholders of record may send written correspondence addressed to such director or directors in care of Activision, Inc., 3100 Ocean Park Blvd., Suite 1000, Santa Monica, CA 90405, Attn: Corporate Secretary.

All communications received as set forth in the preceding paragraph will be opened by the Corporate Secretary for the sole purpose of determining whether the contents represent a message to one or more of our directors. Any contents that are not in the nature of advertising, promotions of a product or service, patently offensive material or matters deemed inappropriate for the Board will be forwarded promptly to the addressee. In the case of communications to the Board or any group or committee of directors, the Corporate Secretary will make sufficient copies of the contents to send to each director who is a member of the group or committee to which the envelope is addressed. Communications to the Board, the non-management directors, or to any individual director that relate to the Company's accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters will be referred to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE INITIATIVES IN FISCAL YEAR 2006

Over the past year, the Board has continued to refine and improve Activision's governance. As in past years, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee organized an extensive detailed self-evaluation process for the Board and each committee. The Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also facilitated a discussion and examination of all aspects of how the Board functions, including meeting effectiveness, director involvement and development; retention and receipt of stockholder communications; committee governance, effectiveness and composition, including Board and committee assessment of each committee; stockholder nomination of potential director candidates; Board size, composition and independence; and calendar and attendance.

As in previous years, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee continues to be actively engaged in a search for an additional independent director matching the criteria determined by the Board. In addition, in light of the Board's central role in seeking out, developing and retaining a strong management team to operate the Company, the Board has been actively engaged with management in succession planning matters to ensure continuity of management. Our Compensation Committee has reinforced the need to maintain a thorough succession plan by devoting a portion of the bonuses of certain of the Company's senior executives to the development of an acceptable succession plan and the establishment of a deep and talented pool of executives to deploy within the operations of the Company.

The Board strongly believes that it is important for the Company not only to comply with all current regulatory and legislative requirements, but also to adopt and abide by high standards in its governance structure and activities. Therefore, the Board will continue to review all new proposals announced by Congress, the SEC and the NASDAQ and intends to be proactive in addressing such rules and regulations. Furthermore, in fiscal 2006 the Board created a "Compliance Officer" position, the purpose of which is to develop, enhance and maintain a corporate governance program, and appointed Greg Deutsch to this position.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

None of the executive officers of the Company is related to any other executive officer or to any director, and each holds office at the discretion of the Board and subject to the terms of each executive officer's employment agreement. As of July 25, 2006, the executive officers of the Company were as set forth below.

COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Mr. Morgado (Chairman), Ms. Isgur and Mr. Nolan, none of whom is, or has been, an officer or employee of the Company. None of the members of the Compensation Committee during fiscal 2006 (i) had any relationships requiring disclosure by the Company under the SEC's rules requiring disclosure of related party transactions, and (ii) was an executive officer of a company of which an executive officer of the Company is a director. The Board has determined that each of Mr. Morgado, Ms. Isgur and Mr. Nolan meets the applicable definition of "independent" in the current rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market.

Director Compensation

General. Non-employee directors of Activision, Inc. receive a mix of compensation, which includes an annual cash retainer, stock options and specific fees for services rendered. These specific fees are identified and listed in the table below. In addition to the compensation listed in the table, non-employee directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending Board, committee and stockholder meetings. Messrs. Kotick, Kelly and Doornink are officers and employees of the Company and do not receive any additional compensation for their Board activities. Mr. Doornink, during the period he served as an officer of the Company, did not receive any additional compensation by reason of his services as a director. In connection with his transition from President to Senior Advisor, Mr. Doornink received an option grant of 30,000 shares comparable to grants made to newly elected directors.

The Company believes that directors should be familiar with the Company's intellectual properties and those of its competitors. From time to time, the Company provides directors with representative samples of the Company's software, third-party console platforms and competitive products. The Board and the Compensation Committee believe that receiving these products serve a business purpose by familiarizing directors with the Company's products, its intellectual properties, and the current competitive marketplace for videogame software.

The Company maintains a directors' and officers' insurance policy which insures the directors of the Company from any claim arising out of an alleged wrongful act by such persons in their capacity as directors of the Company. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors containing provisions which are in some respects broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained in the Delaware General Corporation Law. The indemnification agreements require the Company, among other things, to indemnify such directors against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors, provided that the indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company (and with respect to any criminal action, suit or proceeding, provided further that he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful). The indemnification agreements also require the Company to advance expenses incurred by directors as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified. The Company believes that these agreements are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors.

Set forth below is a table summarizing cash and equity compensation that the Company pays to its non-employee directors.

Cash Compensation for Directors
Annual Retainer	$ 45,000
For Each Board Meeting	$ 1,500
For Each Telephone Board Meeting	$ 1,000
For Each Committee Meeting	$ 1,000
For Each Telephone Committee Meeting	$ 750
For Serving as Chairman of the Audit Committee	$ 20,000
For Serving as Chairman of the Compensation Committee	$ 20,000
For Serving as Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee	$ 10,000
Per Day for Special Assignments	$ 1,000
For Serving as an Audit Committee Member	$ 5,000
Equity Compensation for Directors
Annual Stock Option Grant upon Re-election to the Board	12,500
Initial Stock Option Grant upon Appointment or Election to the Board	30,000

Alignment with Stockholders' Interests. Activision's compensation plan for non-employee directors is closely linked with its stockholders' interests through the grant of stock options and the promulgation of stock ownership and retention guidelines. Upon the earlier of a non-employee director's initial appointment or election to the Board, such director receives a grant of options to purchase 30,000 shares of Company common stock; at each subsequent re-election, a non-employee director receives options to purchase 12,500 shares of Company common stock for service to the Company. These options vest ratably every six months over a two-year period. These are only guidelines, and the Board retains discretion to make grants outside of such guidelines as it deems appropriate and to otherwise change the guidelines from time to time.

In addition to the option programs, each non-employee director is required, within four years of such non-employee director's first election to the Board, to own shares of Company common stock having a value of at least three years' annual retainer for service on the Board. Non-employee directors are subject to these guidelines for as long as they continue to serve on the Board. In the event that any director is not re-elected to the Board or voluntarily retires from the Board, such director would continue to be governed by the guidelines for a period of six months after he or she leaves the Board. The Board's policies in this area are intended to foster the identity of interests between service as a director of Activision and the enhancement of stockholder value.

Plan Benefits As discussed above, our non-employee directors are entitled to receive an annual grant of 12,500 options. The following table sets forth the number of shares of our common stock underlying options that will be automatically awarded to our non-employee directors assuming that all nominees are re-elected at the Annual Meeting.

2003 Equity Incentive Plan Benefits Table

Name and Position (1)	Dollar Value ($)	Shares
All Current Directors Who Are Not Employees, as a Group (5 Persons) (2)	(3)	62,500

- (1) Because awards that might be made under the Plan to our executive officers and non-executive employees will depend on the discretionary actions of the Compensation Committee and the fair market value of our common stock at various future dates, it is not currently possible to determine the benefits that might be received by these persons.
- (2) Assumes all five of our non-employee directors who are nominated for re-election are re-elected at the Annual Meeting.
- (3) The dollar value of awards is based on the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, and is not determinable as of the mailing date of this proxy statement.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering the Company's stock option and incentive plans and the Company's employee stock purchase plans. In September 2002, the Board adopted a formal charter that describes these responsibilities and provides that all members of the Compensation Committee must be independent, as defined in applicable regulations and listing standards.

In addition to its administration of the Company's equity incentive plans, the Compensation Committee reviews and approves the compensation policies that are specifically applicable to senior executives of the Company and establishes the compensation guidelines which govern all other Company employees. Towards this end, the Compensation Committee is responsible for:

reviewing and approving the compensation of the following senior officers of the Company: the Chairman, the Co-Chairman, the President of Activision Publishing, Inc, and all Company executives that report directly to the President of Activision Publishing, Inc.;

exercising oversight of compensation practices that affect all employees; and setting the annual guidelines for salary administration, merit awards and option grants.

The Compensation Committee reports regularly to the Board on its actions and recommendations.

Activision's Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The Compensation Committee is guided by the following key principles in determining the compensation programs for the Company's executives and other employees:

Competitive Requirements. Compensation should reflect the competitive marketplace so that the Company can attract, retain and motivate talented individuals. Because the Company has grown rapidly in size and reputation and now has sizeable staffing needs, the Compensation Committee is acutely sensitive to marketplace conditions as it shapes compensation policies to support the Company's business expansion strategy.

Alignment with Stockholders' Interests. Compensation should be substantially aligned with the interests of the Company's stockholders. A significant component of executive compensation should be tied to the Company's success in delivering stockholder value. In accord with this objective, the Committee uses (a) stock options and (b) annual bonus metrics that heavily value delivery of and improvement in operating earnings in determining the bonus opportunity for senior executives. The Committee may in the future use other forms of long-term equity compensation in lieu of or in addition to stock options.

Accountability for Achieving Clearly Defined Business Goals. Executives should be held accountable for achieving clearly defined business performance goals. The Company's compensation plans annually measure the performance of executives in reaching or exceeding these goals. These goals may be expressed in financial terms and/or other objectively framed metrics that are communicated throughout the organization as a guide to performance expectations.

Accountability for Achieving Individual Goals. In addition to business performance goals, executive compensation should also encourage and reward individual leadership in areas that are more qualitative in nature. Individualized goals are intended to foster professionalism, build loyalty and respect for the Company and its products, and encourage creative leadership. These goals may be defined, for example, as improvements to the Company's business reputation, implementation of constructive management succession plans throughout the Company, enhancement of professional development, improvements to the Company's internal and external communications, demonstration of industry leadership in terms of the quality, creativity and acclaim of its products.

Exercise of Independence. The Compensation Committee is composed of independent directors, who rely on both internally generated information as well as externally developed data sources and expertise. The Compensation Committee believes that effective oversight in this area is best achieved by engaging, on a collaborative basis, the Company's senior management in formulating compensation plans. The Compensation Committee ultimately exercises its independent judgment on how to apply the guiding philosophical principles and objectives in developing, establishing and, most importantly, balancing the elements of the Company's executive compensation program.

Elements of Activision's Compensation Program

The Company's executive compensation program incorporates the following components:

An annual base salary. The annual base salary of senior officers of the Corporation is principally dictated by contractual arrangements that the Compensation Committee approved. The Compensation Committee examines peer companies and uses annual salary surveys to assure that the Company's base salaries are set at appropriate levels to reward, retain and attract talented individuals.

A performance-based annual bonus. Annual bonuses are based on the achievement of financial, business and individual goals that are established at the start of each fiscal year.

Long-term incentive and equity grants. Generally, these awards consist of stock options that are intended (a) to retain talented employees and (b) to tie a significant component of compensation to a longer-term reward system that is also aligned with our stockholders' interests. For senior executives, grants are normally awarded as part of a contractual agreement that are intended to secure long-term commitments to the Company's multi-year business growth strategy. For other talented individuals, the Committee fixes annual grants by setting parameters that are based on an individual's position within the organization.

Each year, the Compensation Committee reviews the mix of these elements as part of its oversight of the Company's compensation program for executives. Over the last several years the Company has grown and as a result, the pay mix has changed to better reflect the Company's current organizational maturity, its position in the video game sector and the competitive requirements of the marketplace. Although stock option grants are and will continue to be a powerful compensation tool, the Company has gradually shifted the balance of its compensation from equity awards towards performance-based cash compensation rewards. Because the latter prominently weighs earnings per share results and other financial metrics, the alignment between our executives' interests and our stockholders' interests is effectively maintained.

Compensation Committee Philosophy on Option Grants

The Compensation Committee first sets its annual grant guidelines at a company-wide compensation review meeting generally held in February. Final guidelines for the Company's middle managers and any specific grants for senior managers, when warranted, are approved by the Compensation Committee at its fiscal year-end review meeting typically scheduled in late April or at follow-up meetings in May and June. These Compensation Committee meetings and their respective agendas are established well in advance and are also sequenced to coordinate with the Board's review and approval of the Company's annual operating plan. In addition to the annual grant program for the Company's managers, the Compensation Committee's practice recently has been to substitute annual option grants to the Company's Co-Chairmen in lieu of cash payments for their earned annual bonuses. This substitution has tied to an even greater degree Messrs Kotick and Kelly's compensation to the achievement of enhanced shareholder values. Accordingly, these substitution grants are approved by the Compensation Committee only after the final year-end results are available.

In addition to the annual grant process, the Compensation Committee may award options to any senior executives in connection with new or extended contractual agreements. The timing of these awards necessarily are a function of the contractual process and are granted expressly for the purpose of (a) incentivizing senior managers over the long term, (b) aligning part of their compensation to improved stockholder values and (c) seeking stability in the Company's senior management.

Review of Fiscal Year 2006

As in prior years, for fiscal year 2006, the Compensation Committee reviewed the compensation for the Company's senior executives against the compensation provided to executives in comparable positions at peer companies. The Committee believes that this analysis assists the Compensation Committee and the Board in validating current compensation policies that promote the Company's executive retention goals, ensure the proper motivation of the senior leadership of the Company, and aid recruitment of talented individuals. As the Company pursues an aggressive business strategy, its reputation as a leader in the industry, combined with favorable notice of a healthy work environment and a highly motivated work force, are critical foundations for attracting the talent essential to achieving the Company's ambitious growth plans.

In evaluating the Company's performance and each individual executive's fiscal 2006 performance, the Compensation Committee determined that the Company and its executives met some but not all of the goals that were established for the year. For fiscal year 2006, Activision reported record consolidated net revenues of $1,468 million. The consolidated operating income for fiscal year 2006 was $18 million, which was substantially below the Company's operating plan expectations. At the same time, the Company generated significant positive cash flow from operations and financing activities. Its balance sheet indicates a healthy liquidity and cash and short-term investments balance of $945 million, which represents a 12% increase from the year ended March 31, 2005.

In addition, in establishing bonus payments for the executive officers, these financial results were also reviewed against the backdrop of the Company's other significant achievement during fiscal 2006. For example:

The Company strengthened and broadened its franchises and intellectual property base, both of which are the enablers for future streams of revenues.

The Company has added to its studio strength and diversity through deliberate acquisitions and through the renewal of its relationships with key developers.

The Company delivered the number 1 selling X-Box 360 game for fiscal year 2006 and had the number 1 new intellectual property in the marketplace.

Because a significant portion of the bonus criteria is tied to the operating performance, bonuses for the 2006 fiscal year were significantly lower than the bonuses for the 2005 fiscal year.

The Annual Bonus for the Chairman and Co-Chairman

The Compensation Committee believes that the Chairman and Co-Chairman's annual bonus should be clearly linked to the Company's financial performance. In determining and approving Messrs. Kotick and Kelly's fiscal year 2006 bonus, the Committee used a formula that defined the target bonus by specific objectives. The formula is heavily weighted towards the creation of stockholder value, with over 70% of the bonus opportunity dependent upon a significant improvement in the earnings per share (EPS) and the optimization of the Company's capital and cash position. The remainder of Messrs. Kotick and Kelly's bonus opportunity was determined by performances related to individual goals, including succession planning; renewing current strategic IP licenses; expanding franchise development; and improving the reputation of the Company among investors and other interested parties. Because of the significant shortfall in the EPS component, these measurements generated a bonus that equated to 20% of the bonus opportunity that was identified at the beginning of the year.

As has been the case in previous years, the Compensation Committee determined that Mr. Kotick and Mr. Kelly will receive their bonuses in stock option equivalents in place of a current cash payment. For 2006, Messrs. Kotick and Kelly have each been awarded 41,682 options, based on a binomial value of the Company's options as calculated by the Compensation Committee's outside experts. This value is then reduced by 20%, representing the discounted value based on the fact that the granted options are restricted from being exercised for 24 months even though Messrs. Kotick's and Kelly's annual bonuses were currently earned.

Annual Bonus for Other Senior Executives

The Compensation Committee established the fiscal year 2006 bonuses for other senior executives in a similar manner as for the Chairman and Co-Chairman. The Compensation Committee reviewed the financial performance of the Company and weighed the individual performance of each executive against pre-established goals for the year. In light of their and the Company's performance as measured against the goals, the Company's senior executives were awarded fiscal year 2006 annual cash bonuses, as set forth in the Summary Compensation Table included in this proxy statement. As a group, the bonuses reflect the overall financial performance of the Company for fiscal year 2006 and the individual accomplishments of each executive during fiscal year 2006 and were significantly lower than 2005 levels.

2006 Stock Based Grants

Stock option grants continue to be an important aspect of compensation because in the view of the Compensation Committee, they align the interests of the recipient with stockholder interest. The Compensation Committee also believes that, properly structured, options place a premium on loyalty to the Company, foster the retention of key executives and emphasize a long-term perspective. However, in recent years, other than grants in connection with new hires at senior positions, the amounts awarded have been gradually reduced to modify their dilutive characteristics and to seek to comport with Institutional Shareholder Service's guidelines and to adjust for potential future stock option expensing requirements. For fiscal year 2006, the Compensation Committee limited aggregate grants to no more than three percent of the total shares outstanding. As a result, the Company has reduced the annual dilutive impact of its stock-based compensation program and, combined with its enhanced operating position, is now better positioned to implement stock option expensing requirements, as and when required.

Stock Ownership and Retention Guidelines

Recently, the Compensation Committee recommended and the Board adopted new guidelines with respect to stock ownership by newly hired senior executives. Every newly hired senior executive must acquire and maintain shares of Activision stock or stock options, that have total value of at least 1.5 times the annual base salary of such executive. For newly appointed officers of the Company, the guidelines provide a two-year period to reach the minimum stock ownership requirement.

Section 162(m) Considerations

In structuring compensation programs and in awarding bonuses, the Compensation Committee considers the potential impact of Section 162(m) of the Code, adopted under the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993. This section disallows a tax deduction for any publicly held corporation for individual compensation exceeding $1,000,000 in any taxable year paid to its chief executive officer or any of its four other highest paid officers unless (i) the compensation is payable solely on account of the attainment of performance goals, (ii) the performance goals are determined by a committee of two or more outside directors, (iii) the material terms under which compensation is to be paid are disclosed to and approved by stockholders, and (iv) the committee certifies that the performance goals were met.

As discussed above, the Company's executive compensation program incorporates three components: an annual base salary, a performance-based annual bonus, and long-term incentive and equity grants. None of the Company's executives' salaries exceed $1.0 million, and the Company may therefore deduct the full amount of each executive's salary in any taxable year. With respect to the performance-based annual bonuses, the Compensation Committee has structured annual cash bonuses to executives so that they are based on the achievement of annual performance goals in order to qualify for tax deductibility without regard to the Section 162(m) limitations. With respect to long-term incentive and equity grants, the Compensation Committee has determined, in light of the competitive environment in which the Company operates, that stock options or other equity-based compensation are necessary to attract and retain the best executives, whether or not the option exercises result in expenses that are fully deductible under Section 162(m).

- (25) Represents awards of restricted shares. Upon vesting, each unit automatically converts into one share of Activision common stock, and does not have an exercise price or expiration date.

The following table sets forth information regarding individual grants of options to purchase the Company's common stock during the Company's 2006 fiscal year to each of the Named Executives. All such grants were made pursuant to the Company's equity compensation plans and approved by the Company's Compensation Committee. In accordance with the rules of the SEC, the table sets forth the hypothetical gains or "option spreads" that would exist for the options at the end of their respective ten year terms based on assumed annualized rates of compound stock price appreciation of 5% and 10% from the dates the options were granted to the end of the respective ten year option terms. Actual gains, if any, on option exercises are dependent on the future performance of the Company's common stock. The hypothetical gains shown in this table are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the stock price.

Options to purchase an aggregate of approximately 8,728,587 shares of common stock were granted during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, and options to purchase approximately 48,337,298 shares of common stock were outstanding as of March 31, 2006. No share appreciation rights were granted to any of the Named Executives during the last fiscal year.

Edgar Filing: ACTIVISION INC /NY - Form DEF 14A

- (2) Based on 277,020,898 shares of common stock outstanding as of March 31, 2006, and the low bid price as of such date of $13.62 per share, holders of common stock as of such date would realize hypothetical gains over the ten year period comparable to the option terms reflected in the above table of $2,374,069,096, assuming a 5% annualized stock appreciation rate, and $6,014,123,696, assuming a 10% annualized stock appreciation rate.
- (3) Stock options were granted at an exercise price equal to the low bid price of the Company's common stock on June 20, 2005, and vest on June 20, 2007. Messrs. Kotick and Kelly received this option grant in connection with a Compensation Committee determination that they had met certain performance goals fixed by the Compensation Committee for fiscal year 2005. Excludes options to purchase 41,682 shares of common stock which were granted to each of Mr. Kotick and Mr. Kelly on April 21, 2006 as a bonus for fiscal year 2006.
- (4) Stock options were granted at an exercise price equal to the low bid price of the Company's common stock on June 15, 2005. Stock options were granted in two tranches of 466,667 shares each and one tranche of 400,000 shares. As to the first tranche of 466,667 shares, such option will vest ratably over the five years beginning June 30, 2006. As to the second tranche of 466,667 shares, such option will vest on June 30, 2010, subject to possible earlier vesting in three equal annual installments if certain performance objectives are achieved for the fiscal years 2007, 2008 and 2009. As to the third tranche of 400,000 shares, such option will vest in its entirety on June 30, 2010. The options were granted to Mr. Griffith in connection with the execution of his employment agreement.

- (5) Stock options were granted at an exercise price equal to the low bid price of the Company's common stock on May 2, 2005 and will vest ratably over five years beginning on May 1, 2006. In addition, the portions of the grant scheduled to vest ratably on the fourth and fifth anniversary will be subject to certain performance based acceleration criteria. The options were granted to Ms. Kaminsky in connection with the execution of her employment agreement.
- (6) Stock options were granted at an exercise price equal to the low bid price of the Company's common stock on May 16, 2005 and will vest ratably over five years beginning on May 16, 2006. The options were granted to Mr. Huebner in connection with the execution of his employment agreement.
- (7) Stock options were granted at an exercise price equal to the low bid price of the Company's common stock on May 24, 2005, 33% vested on May 24, 2005 and the remaining 66% vest ratably over three years beginning on May 24, 2006.

The following table sets forth information concerning the exercise of stock options during fiscal year 2006 by each of the Named Executives and the number and value at the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006 of unexercised options held by said individuals.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Robert A. Kotick, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Brian G. Kelly, Co-Chairman, each are parties to an employment agreement with the Company. The contracts are identical in all material respects and terminate on April 1, 2008. Both employment agreements provide that if one executive receives a benefit from the Company that the other executive does not receive, then the Company shall make a cash payment equal to the value of the benefit to the executive who did not receive the benefit. Each contract provides for annual base salaries of $724,730 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006 and annual base salary increases of 10% and permits additional increases at the Board and Compensation Committee's discretion. Each executive is also entitled to an annual bonus if the Company achieves financial and business objectives to be agreed upon annually and is eligible for a discretionary bonus. The Company maintains a $2,000,000 renewable term life insurance policy for ten years covering each of Mr. Kotick and Mr. Kelly and naming each executive's estate or other designee as beneficiary.

If either executive's employment is terminated for any reason, the Company will pay his salary through the date of termination or death and any unpaid bonuses for prior fiscal years. If his employment is terminated because of death or because he resigned for "good reason" or was terminated without "cause" (each as defined in their respective employment agreement), the Company will pay the pro rata portion of his bonuses for the current fiscal year. If the executive's employment is terminated because of death, the Company will also pay the executive's estate or beneficiaries an amount equal to 300% of his annual salary for the most recently ended fiscal year. If the executive has resigned for "good reason" or has been terminated without "cause," he will receive a termination payment, equal to the greater of (A) three times the annual salary and bonuses paid or payable for the most recently ended fiscal year, and (B) his salary payable for the unexpired term plus the annual and performance bonuses payable for the remaining term of the agreement (based on his bonuses-to-salary ratio for the two prior fiscal years). If the executive's employment agreement is terminated for any reason other than "cause" (as defined in his employment agreement), all of his options shall vest and be exercisable until the later of the fifth anniversary of such event or May 22, 2010.

Unless Mr. Kotick or Mr. Kelly resigns for good reason or is terminated for cause, the Company and the executive will enter, at the end of his employment, into a four year consulting agreement under which he shall provide services to the Company up to 20 hours per month; shall receive fee compensation equal to 80% of his annual salary the year preceding the end of his employment and certain continuing medical, vacation, expense and office benefits; and may engage in other activities not directly competitive with the Company.

If Mr. Kotick or Mr. Kelly is employed by the Company immediately prior to a "Change of Control" (as defined in the employment agreements), the Company is required to pay him in cash an amount equal to (A) the number of shares of Company common stock underlying each of his outstanding options, times (B) the amount, if any, by which the exercise price of his options or the "Closing Share Value", whichever is less, exceeds the "Initial Share Value" (each as defined in the employment agreements). If the Closing Share Value is greater than the exercise price of his options, then the executive shall have the right either to retain the outstanding options, exercise them, or exchange them for cash equal to the number of shares underlying the options multiplied by the amount by which the Closing Share Value exceeds the exercise price. Upon a Change of Control, all options then held by the executives shall immediately vest and be exercisable for ten years following the Change of Control, and the exercise price of their options will be adjusted to equal the lower of the weighted average exercise price of all of Mr. Kotick's or of Mr. Kelly's options (provided that any options with an exercise price lower than the weighted average exercise price will not be adjusted).

If Mr. Kotick or Mr. Kelly resigns between three and nine months after a Change of Control, the resigning executive will receive: (i) a pro rata portion of his annual and performance bonuses for that fiscal year; (ii) the termination payment due to him as if he had resigned for good reason; and (iii) the continued medical benefits due to him and his family as if he resigned for good reason. If the resigning executive has, or will receive, any compensation or recognize any income which constitutes an "excess parachute payment," the Company will pay all taxes payable by him as a result of the "excess parachute payment" as well as any taxes due on the taxes paid on behalf of him.

The two executives' employment agreements also contain a two (2) year "non-compete" and "non-solicitation" clause. This clause does not apply in the event that the Company fails to pay the executive his termination or Change of Control compensation or otherwise fails to comply with its obligations under the employment agreements during those two years.

Ronald Doornink is party to an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc., which terminates June 30, 2007, and pursuant to which Mr. Doornink served as President of the Company and Chairman of Activision Publishing, Inc. until December 31, 2005. Beginning January 1, 2006, and until June 30, 2007, Mr. Doornink remains an employee of the Company and will serve in an executive advisory role and perform such other services as the Board or Company's management may reasonably request. Mr. Doornink's base salary shall be $250,000 per year. Mr. Doornink may also be eligible for an annual bonus if he and the Company achieve pre-determined financial and business objectives.

If Mr. Doornink's employment is terminated, the Company will pay his salary through the date of his termination. If the termination is due to his death or disability, the Company will pay any unpaid bonuses for prior fiscal years, the pro rata portion of any bonus he has earned for the current fiscal year, and 300% of his annual salary for the most recently ended fiscal year (less any payments received under any Company funded disability insurance plan).

In addition, the Company shall continue medical coverage for him (only if he is terminated for disability) and his family, for two years. The Company has obtained insurance to cover the potential costs arising from payments to be made to the executive, his estate, or his beneficiaries in the event of termination due to his death or disability. If the Company terminates him without "cause" (as defined in his employment agreement), he will receive the same payments and benefits as if the termination was due to his death, except that instead of receiving 300% of his salary, he shall receive 50% of his base salary through June 30, 2007, and 100% of his annual bonuses (based on his bonus-to-salary ratio for the two prior fiscal years) for the remainder of the original term. If Mr. Doornink is terminated without cause, the options he received under his present employment agreement shall vest and be exercisable until the fifth anniversary of his termination, but options issued to him earlier will vest according to their original schedules.

If the Company terminates Mr. Doornink's employment immediately before a "Change of Control" (as defined in his employment agreement), all of his unvested options granted under his original employment contract shall immediately vest and shall remain exercisable for a period of five years after the Change of Control.

Mr. Doornink's employment agreement also contains a "non-compete" and "non-solicitation" clause which is effective during the term of the employment agreement, and the non-solicitation clause will stay in effect for an additional two years after either the end of the term of the employment agreement.

Michael J. Griffith entered into an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc. on June 15, 2005. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Griffith will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Activision Publishing, Inc. until June 30, 2010. The contract provides for an annual base salary of $600,000 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006 and annual base salary increases of 8% and permits additional increases at the Board and Compensation Committee's discretion. Mr. Griffith is also entitled to an annual bonus targeted at the amount of his base salary, to be paid in cash, shares of the Company's stock, or options, if the Company achieves certain financial and business objectives to be agreed upon annually.

As an inducement to enter into the employment agreement, Mr. Griffith was granted an option to purchase an aggregate of 1,333,334 shares of the Company's common stock in two tranches of 466,667 options each and one tranche of 400,000 options. The first tranche of 466,667 options will vest ratably over five years, with 20% beginning in 2006. The second tranche of 466,667 options will vest on June 30, 2010, subject to accelerated vesting if Mr. Griffith achieves certain agreed upon performance objectives. The third tranche of 400,000 options will vest on June 30, 2010. All of the options have an exercise price equal to $12.84 per share, the fair market value of the Company's stock on the date of grant. Mr. Griffith was also granted 155,763 shares of restricted stock, which will vest ratably on June 30, 2008, June 30, 2009, and June 30, 2010. In the event that on May 15, 2010, Mr. Griffith's total compensation plus any severance payments received by him has not exceeded $20 million, Activision Publishing will pay Mr. Griffith the shortfall. Total compensation for this purpose includes his cumulative base salary, cumulative annual bonuses, the realized and unrealized gains from any and all stock options issued to him, the market value of all restricted stock grants issued to him plus the amounts realized by him from the sale of any such restricted stock.

If Mr. Griffith's employment is terminated for any reason, the Company will pay his salary through the date of termination or death, any unpaid bonuses for prior fiscal years, the pro rata portion of his annual and performance bonuses for the current fiscal year, and certain business and relocation expenses. If the termination is due to his death or disability, the Company will pay 300% of his annual salary for the most recently ended fiscal year and continue to provide medical insurance for him (in the case of disability) and his family for a two-year period. In the event of death, there will be an immediate vesting of a pro rata portion of the unvested portion of the second and third tranches of options. If the termination is for any other reason, Mr. Griffith will be paid 50% of his base salary through June 30, 2010, and 100% of his annual bonuses (based on his bonus-to-salary ratio for the two prior fiscal years) for the remainder of the original term, if any bonuses are awarded. The Company has obtained a $3,000,000 insurance policy to cover the potential costs arising from payments to be made to Mr. Griffith, his estate, or his beneficiaries in the event of termination due to his death or disability.

If Mr. Griffith is terminated without "cause" (as defined in his employment agreement) or he terminates his employment for good reason (as set forth in his employment agreement), he and the Company will enter into a consulting agreement at the end of his employment, for a period equal to the remaining employment period and an additional two years. For his consulting services, Mr. Griffith shall be paid an amount equal to 50% of his base salary through June 30, 2010 and $250,000 per annum thereafter.

Mr. Tippl entered into an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc. in October 2005 for a term of five years. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Tippl will serve as Chief Financial Officer of Activision Publishing, Inc. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $450,000 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006 and for annual minimum base salary increases of 4%, and permits additional increases in the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors or Compensation Committee of the Board. Mr. Tippl is also entitled to receive an annual discretionary bonus targeted at 75% of the amount of his base salary based on achievement of objectives to be determined. The bonus may be paid, in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee, in cash, shares of the Company's common stock, or options to purchase the Company's common stock. Mr. Tippl is also entitled to mortgage assistance in the amount of $420,000 to be paid monthly over 60 months.

As an inducement to enter into the employment agreement, Mr. Tippl was paid a signing bonus of $100,000 and granted an option to purchase an aggregate of 800,000 shares of the Company's common stock in two tranches of 266,666 options each and one tranche of 266,667. The first tranche of 266,666 options will vest ratably over five years, with 20% beginning in 2006. The second tranche of 266,666 options will vest on September 30, 2010, subject to accelerated vesting if Mr. Tippl achieves certain performance objectives to be determined. The third tranche of 266,667 options will vest on September 30, 2010. All of the options did have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's stock on the date of grant. In consideration for abandoning certain long term compensation, pension benefits and related equity participations, Mr. Tippl was also granted 96,712 shares of restricted stock. Such shares of restricted stock vest ratably on September 30, 2008, September 30, 2009, and September 30, 2010.

If Mr. Tippl's employment is terminated for any reason, the Company will pay his salary through the date of termination or death, any unpaid bonuses for prior fiscal years, the pro rata portion of his annual and performance bonuses for the current fiscal year, and certain business and relocation expenses. If the termination is without "cause" (as defined in his employment agreement), the Company will pay 100% of his annual salary from the date of termination through the expiration date of the contract and continue to pay the remaining balance of his mortgage assistance. If the termination is due to his death or disability, the Company will pay 300% of his annual salary for the most recently ended fiscal year and continue to provide medical insurance for him (in the case of disability) and his family for a two-year period. In the event of death, there will be an immediate vesting of a pro rata portion of the unvested portion of the second and third tranches of options and of any unvested portion of the $1,500,000 in restricted stock granted to him pursuant to his employment agreement. The Company has obtained a $2,000,000 insurance policy to cover the potential costs arising from payments to be made to Mr. Tippl, his estate, or his beneficiaries in the event of termination due to his death or disability.

George L. Rose is party to an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc. providing for his employment as Senior Vice President and General Counsel of the Company. Mr. Rose's employment agreement expires on March 31, 2007. Under the agreement Mr. Rose is entitled to an annual base salary of $330,000 beginning March 30, 2005 subject to any increases approved by the Board.

Michael J. Rowe is party to an employment agreement with the Company providing for his employment as Executive Vice President, Human Resources. Mr. Rowe's employment agreement expires on March 31, 2007. Under the agreement Mr. Rowe is entitled to an annual base salary of $350,000 subject to any increases approved by the Board.

Charles J. Huebner is party to an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc. providing for his employment as Head of Worldwide Studios. The initial term of Mr. Huebner's employment agreement continues until May 31, 2007. Under the agreement, Mr. Huebner was entitled to receive an annual base salary of $425,000 and a discretionary bonus targeted at 60% of his base salary. Effective June 5, 2006, Mr. Huebner's position was restructured and consolidated under Robin Kaminsky, in her position as Executive Vice President, Publishing. Mr. Huebner will continue to perform certain duties in furtherance of transitioning his role to Ms. Kaminsky.

Robin Kaminsky is a party to an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc., providing for her employment as Senior Vice President, Global Brand Management. The initial term of Ms. Kaminsky's employment agreement continues until May 31, 2007. Should the Company choose not to extend Ms. Kaminsky's employment agreement past the initial term, it must give notice to such effect at least 120 days prior to the expiration of the initial term. Under the agreement, Ms. Kaminsky is entitled to receive an annual base salary of $350,000 and a discretionary bonus targeted at 60% of her base salary.

William J. Chardavoine is party to an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc. providing for his employment as Executive Vice President, Finance. Mr. Chardavoine's employment with the Company terminated on May 26, 2006. Under the agreement, Mr. Chardavoine was entitled to receive an annual base salary of $380,000 for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2006 and a discretionary bonus targeted at 60% of his base salary.

Kathy Vrabeck is party to an employment agreement with Activision Publishing, Inc. providing for her employment as President, Activision Publishing division. Ms. Vrabeck's employment agreement expired on April 1, 2006. Under her agreement, Ms. Vrabeck was entitled to receive an annual base salary of $515,000 and an annual bonus which was based upon, among other things, the Company achieving certain financial and business objectives. The Company also maintained, while she was employed by the Company, a $2,000,000 term insurance policy or policies for a period of ten (10) years covering Ms. Vrabeck and naming her estate or other designee as beneficiary.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

During all of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2006, the members of the Audit Committee were Mr. Corti (Chairperson), Ms. Isgur and Mr. Morgado.

The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of the Company. The Audit Committee, rather than management, is solely responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm ("independent auditors"), and the independent auditors are required to report directly to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee serves as an independent and objective party to monitor the Company's financial reporting process and internal control system. In this regard, the Audit Committee devoted a substantial amount of time reviewing the Company's efforts to comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

The Audit Committee endeavors to maintain free and open communication between the Board, the independent auditors, the individuals engaged in internal audit activities, and the financial and senior management. Consistent with these functions, the Audit Committee encourages continuous improvement of, and should foster adherence to, the Company's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. Members of the Audit Committee may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by the Company or an outside consultant. The Audit Committee is also responsible for reviewing and approving all related party transactions involving the Company and any director, executive officer or family member, other than employment agreements and compensation arrangements. In accordance with law, the Audit Committee is responsible for establishing procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, including the confidential, anonymous submission by Activision employees received through established procedures of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

It should be noted that regardless of how well it is designed, any system of controls and procedures can only provide reasonable, and not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the policy are met. In addition, the design of any control system is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events. Because of these and other inherent limitations of control systems, there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions, regardless of how remote.

The Audit Committee's functions are not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management and the independent auditors, nor can the Audit Committee certify that the independent directors are "independent" under the applicable rules. The Audit Committee occupies a Board-level oversight role, in which it provides advice, counsel, and direction to management and the independent auditors based on the information it receives, discussions with management and the independent auditors, and the experience of the Audit Committee's members in business, financial, legal, and accounting matters. The Audit Committee has the authority to engage its own outside advisers, including experts in particular areas of accounting, as it determines appropriate, apart from counsel or advisers hired by management.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PricewaterhouseCoopers") audited the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2004, March 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006. The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for fiscal 2006 with the Company's management and with PricewaterhouseCoopers and discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees. This review included a discussion with management of the quality, not merely the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant estimates and judgments, and the clarity of disclosure in the Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee has also received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers their independence.

The Audit Committee met quarterly in conjunction with the release of the Company's earnings to discuss the interim financial information contained in each quarterly earnings announcement with the Company's management and with PricewaterhouseCoopers. Further, the Audit Committee Chairperson and periodically other members of the Audit Committee participated in a telephonic conference call including management, PricewaterhouseCoopers and counsel where each addressed, prior to filing, the procedure for the preparation of periodic reports and the compliance as to form and material accuracy of statements made in the periodic quarterly and annual reports. In addition, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's quarterly reports filed on Form 10-Q and the annual report filed on Form 10-K with the Company's management.

The Board has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee meets the independence requirements and the financial literacy standards of the NASDAQ, as well as the independence requirements set forth in the federal securities laws, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules promulgated thereunder. Although Mr. Corti is a certified public accountant, the other members of the Audit Committee are not certified public accountants, professional auditors or experts in the fields of accounting and auditing. To fulfill their duties, the members of the Audit Committee must rely on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent auditors.

Services Provided by the Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee has considered whether PricewaterhouseCoopers' provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent auditor's independence and has concluded that it is compatible. In accordance with existing Audit Committee Charter and the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee has pre-approved all audit and non-audit services to be provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers. These include audit services, audit-related services, tax services, and other services. In some cases, the Audit Committee has pre-approved services extending up to a year. Such services usually relate to a particular category or group of services and are subject to a specific budget.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2006, for filing with the SEC.

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Audit Committee of the Board of the Company has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the current fiscal year ending March 31, 2007. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2004, 2005 and 2006. The Board is requesting ratification by the Stockholders at the Annual Meeting of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so, and they are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

On March 20, 2001, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP was engaged as the Company's independent auditors. During the Company's three most recently completed fiscal years, there were no disagreements with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure and there were no reportable events as described in Item 304 of Regulation S-K.

Stockholder approval is not required for the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm because the Board and the Audit Committee have the responsibility for selecting auditors. However, the appointment is being submitted for ratification at the Annual Meeting and requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast. In the event the Stockholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Board will reconsider its selection for the next fiscal year. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Board, on advice of the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may, if circumstances dictate, direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if the Board, on advice of the Audit Committee, determines that such a change would be in the Company's and its Stockholders' best interests.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for approval of Proposal 2.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, 1201 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois 60201, which states that it owns 95,398 shares of the Company's common stock, has notified Activision in writing that it intends to present a resolution for action by the stockholders at the 2006 Annual Meeting. The text of the resolution and the supporting statement submitted by the stockholder are as follows:

"DIVERSITY ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2006
Activision

WHEREAS

Activision currently has a distinguished board of eight people, all of whom are white and one of whom is female.

We believe that our Board should take every reasonable step to ensure that women and persons from minority racial groups are in the pool from which Board nominees are chosen; therefore be it

RESOLVED that the shareholders request the Board:

1. in connection with its search for suitable Board candidates ensure that women and persons from minority racial groups are among these it considers for nomination to the Board.
2. Publicly commit itself to a policy of board inclusiveness, including steps to be taken and a timeline for implementing that policy.
3. Report to shareholders, at reasonable expense, by December 2006:
 - a. On its efforts to encourage diversified representation on the board;
 - b. Whether, in the Nominating and Corporate Governance committee's procedures, diversity is included as a criterion in selecting the total membership of the Board

SUPPORTING STATEMENT

The charter for our company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee gives it the responsibility to "actively seek and evaluate individuals qualified to become board members for recommendation to the Board."

In response to the recent corporate scandals, the U.S. Congress (Sarbanes-Oxley Act), the stock exchanges, and the SEC have each taken actions to enhance the independence, accountability and responsiveness of corporate boards, including requiring greater board and committee independence.

As companies seek new board members to meet the new independence standards, there is a unique opportunity to enhance diversity on the board. We believe that the judgments and perspectives that women and members of minority groups bring to board deliberations improve the quality of board decision-making and will enhance business performance by enabling a company to respond more effectively to the needs of customers worldwide.

Increasingly, institutional investors have supported a call for greater board diversity. For example, in 2002 the $21 billion Connecticut Retirement Plans and Trust Funds launched a Board Diversity Initiative. "It has been shown that added diversity and independence helps a company's bottom line, increasing diversity in the boardroom to better reflect a company's customers and community is ultimately in the best interest of shareholders and our economy," said Connecticut State Treasurer, Denise Nappier.

We urge the Board to enlarge its search for qualified members by casting a wider net."

COMPANY'S STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote AGAINST the stockholder proposal for the following reasons:

The Company's Board of Directors opposes this proposal. In the selection of candidates for Board membership, the Board seeks to select and recommend the best qualified persons based on their individual talents, experience and abilities without regard to race, religion, national origin or gender. In the Board's judgment, providing reports or establishing formalistic procedures and arbitrary deadlines would not enhance the current Board selection process and would therefore not serve stockholder interests.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for approval of Proposal 3.

The Board recommends that you vote AGAINST this proposal.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of our common stock, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership of common stock and other equity securities of the Company.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely upon a review of the copies of Section 16(a) forms filed with the SEC and written representations from certain reporting persons that no Forms 5 were required, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, all filing requirements pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act applicable to the Company's executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with, except that Messrs. Corti, Morgado, Nolan and Sarnoff and Ms. Isgur failed to file reports on Form 4 on a timely basis with respect to one transaction each.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, Stockholders may present proper proposals for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and for consideration at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders by submitting their proposals to the Company in a timely manner. In order to be so included for the next Annual Meeting, Stockholder proposals must be received by the Company no later than March 29, 2007 and must otherwise comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8.

FINANCIAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

The Company's Annual Report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, including financial statements, accompanies this proxy statement. The Annual Report is not a part of the proxy solicitation materials.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board knows of no matters other than those described in this proxy statement that are likely to come before the Annual Meeting. If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the accompanying proxy card intend to vote the proxies received by them in accordance with their best judgment with respect to all such matters.
