CBS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1) BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Business CBS Corporation (together with its consolidated subsidiaries unless the context otherwise requires, the "Company" or "CBS Corp.") is comprised of the following segments: Entertainment (CBS Television, comprised of the CBS Television Network, CBS Television Studios, CBS Studios International and CBS Television Distribution; CBS Films and CBS Interactive), Cable Networks (Showtime Networks, Smithsonian Networks and CBS College Sports Network), Publishing (Simon & Schuster), Local Broadcasting (CBS Television Stations and CBS Radio) and Outdoor (CBS Outdoor).

Basis of Presentation The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the more detailed financial statements and notes thereto, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009.

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited financial statements reflect all adjustments, consisting of only normal and recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair statement of the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company for the periods presented. Certain previously reported amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

Use of Estimates The preparation of the Company's financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S.") requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Net Earnings per Common Share Basic earnings per share ("EPS") is based upon net earnings divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS reflects the effect of the assumed exercise of stock options and vesting of restricted stock units ("RSUs"), market-based performance share units ("PSUs") and restricted shares only in the periods in which such effect would have been dilutive. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, stock options to purchase 32.1 million shares of Class B Common Stock were outstanding but excluded from the calculation of diluted EPS because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, stock options to purchase 30.3 million and 31.7 million shares of Class B Common Stock were outstanding but excluded from the calculation of diluted EPS because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive.

Total comprehensive income	$ 345.0	$ 231.6	$ 534.9	$ 258.8

Other Liabilities Other liabilities consist primarily of the noncurrent portion of residual liabilities of previously disposed businesses, participants' share and royalties payable, program rights obligations, deferred compensation and other employee benefit accruals.

Additional Paid-In Capital For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company recorded dividends of $104.4 million and $103.9 million, respectively, as a reduction to additional paid-in capital as the Company had an accumulated deficit balance.

Adoption of New Accounting Standards*Variable Interest Entities*

Effective January 1, 2010, the Company adopted revised Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance which changes the model for determining whether an entity should consolidate a Variable Interest Entity ("VIE"). This new model requires an assessment of whether an entity has a controlling financial interest in a VIE and is therefore the primary beneficiary and required to consolidate the VIE. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Transfers of Financial Assets

Effective January 1, 2010, the Company adopted amended FASB guidance on accounting for transfers of financial assets. This amended guidance removes the concept of a qualifying special-purpose entity, establishes specific conditions for reporting a transfer of a portion of a financial asset as a sale, and limits the circumstances in which a financial asset, or portion of a financial asset, should be derecognized when the transferor has not transferred the entire original financial asset and/or when the transferor has continuing involvement with the transferred financial asset. The adoption of this guidance required the Company's securitized accounts receivables to be recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet with a corresponding increase to debt. As part of its efforts to decrease debt and interest expense, the Company reduced the amounts outstanding under its revolving accounts receivable securitization program during the first quarter of 2010, from $400.0 million at December 31, 2009 to zero and terminated the program.

Recent Pronouncements*Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables*

In October 2009, the FASB issued guidance on revenue arrangements with multiple deliverables, effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2011. This guidance establishes a hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable in a multiple element arrangement. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on Company-specific objective evidence if available, third party evidence if Company-specific evidence is not available, or estimated selling price if neither Company-specific objective evidence nor third party evidence is available. This guidance requires the best estimate of the selling price that would be used to sell the deliverable on a stand-alone basis. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

2) STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

Total revenues from The CW were $17.1 million and $15.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively, and $68.4 million and $49.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

The Company, through the normal course of business, is involved in transactions with other related parties that have not been material in any of the periods presented.

These transactions resulted in a pre-tax loss on early extinguishment of debt of $37.9 million and $29.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

On October 8, 2010, the Company issued $300.0 million of 4.30% senior notes due 2021 and $300.0 million of 5.90% senior notes due 2040 and used the net proceeds to repurchase, through a tender offer, $55.1 million of its 8.625% debentures due 2012 and $194.9 million of its 5.625% senior notes due 2012. The Company will also use the net proceeds to redeem, on November 5, 2010, its $335.0 million of 7.25% senior notes due 2051.

On November 2, 2010, the Company called for the redemption on December 29, 2010 of its $543.9 million of 6.625% senior notes due 2011. This debt has been classified as current on the Consolidated Balance Sheet at September 30, 2010.

These transactions are expected to result in a loss on early extinguishment of debt of approximately $45 million in the fourth quarter of 2010.

Credit Facility

At September 30, 2010, the Company had a $2.0 billion revolving credit facility which expires in December 2012 (the "Credit Facility"). The Credit Facility requires the Company to maintain a maximum Consolidated Leverage Ratio of 4.25x at the end of the third quarter of 2010, which will be reduced to 4.0x at the end of the fourth quarter of 2010, subject to further future reductions, and a minimum Consolidated Coverage Ratio of 3.0x for the trailing four quarters, each as further described in the Credit Facility. At September 30, 2010, the Company's Consolidated Leverage Ratio was approximately 2.7x and Consolidated Coverage Ratio was approximately 4.9x.

The Consolidated Leverage Ratio reflects the ratio of the Company's indebtedness from continuing operations, adjusted to exclude certain capital lease obligations, at the end of a quarter, to the Company's Consolidated EBITDA for the trailing four consecutive quarters. Consolidated EBITDA is defined in the Credit Facility as operating income plus interest income and before depreciation, amortization and certain other non-cash items. The Consolidated Coverage Ratio reflects the ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to the Company's cash interest expense on indebtedness, adjusted to exclude certain capital lease obligations, in each case for the trailing four consecutive quarters.

The primary purpose of the Credit Facility is to support commercial paper borrowings. At September 30, 2010, the Company had no commercial paper borrowings under its $2.0 billion commercial paper program. At September 30, 2010, the remaining availability under the Credit Facility, net of outstanding letters of credit, was $1.926 billion.

(Tabular dollars in millions, except per share amounts)Accounts Receivable Securitization Program

The Company participated in a revolving accounts receivable securitization program which provided for the sale of receivables on a non-recourse basis to unrelated third parties on a one-year renewable basis. During the first quarter of 2010, the Company reduced the amounts outstanding under its revolving accounts receivable securitization program from $400.0 million at December 31, 2009 to zero and terminated the program.

On January 1, 2010, the Company adopted amended FASB guidance on the accounting for transfers of financial assets which required the Company's securitized accounts receivables to be recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet with a corresponding increase to debt. As a result, the decrease to the accounts receivable securitization program of $400.0 million during 2010 is reflected as cash flows used for financing activities and the decrease of $150.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 is reflected as cash flows used for operating activities under previous FASB guidance.

During the period before the termination of the program in 2010 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, proceeds from collections of securitized accounts receivables of $263.1 million and $1.05 billion, respectively, were reinvested in the revolving receivable securitization program. The net loss associated with securitizing the program's accounts receivables was $.5 million for 2010 and $4.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

7) PENSION AND OTHER POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

The components of net periodic cost for the Company's pension and postretirement benefit plans were as follows:

8) STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

On August 20, 2010, the Company announced a quarterly cash dividend of $.05 per share on its Class A and Class B Common Stock payable on October 1, 2010. The total dividend was $34.8 million of which $34.0 million was paid on October 1, 2010 and $.8 million was accrued to be paid upon vesting of RSUs. During the third quarter of 2010, the Company paid $34.0 million for the dividend declared on May 26, 2010 and for dividend payments on RSUs that vested during the third quarter of 2010.

9) INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes represents federal, state and local, and foreign income taxes on earnings before income taxes and equity in loss of investee companies.

The provision for income taxes was $178.6 million and $79.7 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively, and $291.3 million and $145.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. The provision for income taxes for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009 included tax benefits of $18.2 million and $41.8 million, respectively, from the settlements of income tax audits. The provision for income taxes for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 included a $62.2 million reduction of deferred tax assets associated with the 2010 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, partially offset by a $26.4 million reversal of previously established deferred tax liabilities and a $28.1 million tax benefit from the settlements of income tax audits. The provision for income taxes for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 included a tax benefit of $45.4 million from the settlements of income tax audits, which was more than offset by the reversal of certain international net operating loss carryforwards of $13.4 million and a reduction of deferred tax assets associated with stock-based compensation of $42.3 million. This reduction reflects the difference between the estimated tax benefit recognized based on the grant date fair value of the stock-based compensation award versus the actual tax benefit realized based on the market value on the date of vest.

During the third quarter of 2010, the Company and the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") settled, with the exception of one disputed item, the Company's income tax audit for the years 2006 and 2007. This disputed item is currently being contested through the IRS appeals process. The IRS is expected to commence its examination of the years 2008 and 2009 in January 2011. In addition, various tax years are currently under examination by state and local and foreign tax authorities. With respect to open tax years in all jurisdictions, the Company believes it is reasonably possible that the total reserve for uncertain tax positions may change within the next twelve months; however, any related estimate of the impact to the reserves for uncertain tax positions can not currently be determined.

10) COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has indemnification obligations with respect to letters of credit and surety bonds primarily used as security against non-performance in the normal course of business. At September 30, 2010, the outstanding letters of credit and surety bonds approximated $394.7 million and were not recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

In the course of its business, the Company both provides and receives indemnities which are intended to allocate certain risks associated with business transactions. Similarly, the Company may remain contingently liable for various obligations of a business that has been divested in the event that a third party does not live up to its obligations under an indemnification obligation. The Company records a liability for its indemnification obligations and other contingent liabilities when probable under generally accepted accounting principles.

Legal Matters

Securities Action. On December 12, 2008, the City of Pontiac General Employees' Retirement System filed a self-styled class action complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the Company and its Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, and Treasurer, alleging violations of federal securities law. The complaint, which was filed on behalf of a putative class of purchasers of the Company's common stock between February 26, 2008 and October 10, 2008 (the "Class Period"), alleges that, among other things, the Company's failure to timely write down the value of certain assets caused the Company's reported operating results during the Class Period to be materially inflated. The plaintiffs seek unspecified compensatory damages. On February 11, 2009, a motion was filed in the case on behalf of The City of Omaha, Nebraska Civilian Employees' Retirement System, and The City of Omaha Police and Fire Retirement System (collectively, the "Omaha Funds") seeking to appoint the Omaha Funds as the lead plaintiffs in this case; on March 5, 2009, the court granted that motion. On May 4, 2009, the plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint, which removes the Treasurer as a defendant and adds the Executive Chairman. On July 13, 2009, all defendants filed a motion to dismiss this action. On March 16, 2010, the court granted the Company's motion and dismissed this action as to the Company and all defendants. On April 30, 2010, the plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to serve an amended complaint. On September 23, 2010, the court issued an order granting leave to amend. On October 8, 2010, the Company was served with an Amended Complaint, which redefines the Class Period to be April 29, 2008 to October 10, 2008 and alleges that the impairment charge should have been taken during the first quarter of 2008. The Company plans to file a motion to dismiss this Amended Complaint by November 19, 2010. The Company believes that the plaintiffs' claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself in the litigation.

Indecency Regulation. In March 2006, the FCC released certain decisions relating to indecency complaints against certain of the Company's owned television stations and affiliated stations. The FCC ordered the Company to pay a forfeiture of $550,000 in the proceeding relating to the broadcast of a Super Bowl half-time show by the Company's television stations (the "Super Bowl Proceeding"). In May 2006, the FCC denied the Company's petition for reconsideration. In July 2006, the Company filed a Petition for Review of the forfeiture with the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and paid the $550,000 forfeiture in order to facilitate the Company's ability to bring the appeal. Oral argument was heard in September 2007. In July 2008, the Third Circuit vacated the FCC's order to have the Company pay the forfeiture and remanded the case to the FCC. On November 18, 2008, the FCC filed a petition for certiorari with the United States Supreme Court, seeking review of the Third Circuit's decision. The petition requested that the United States Supreme Court not act on the petition until it ruled in the "fleeting expletives case" mentioned below. On January 8, 2009, the Company filed its opposition to the FCC's petition for certiorari.

In another case involving broadcasts on another network, in June 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit vacated the FCC's November 2006 finding that the broadcast of fleeting and isolated expletives was indecent and remanded the case to the FCC (the "fleeting expletives case"). On March 17, 2008, the United States Supreme Court granted the FCC's petition to review the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit's decision. On November 4, 2008, the United States Supreme Court heard argument in this case. On April 28, 2009, the United States Supreme Court issued a 5-4 decision reversing the Second Circuit's judgment on administrative grounds in favor of the FCC and remanding the fleeting expletives case to the Second Circuit. The Second Circuit requested additional briefing and argument was heard on January 13, 2010. On July 13, 2010, the Second Circuit struck down an FCC policy on indecency and found that the FCC's indecency policies and decisions regarding the use of "fleeting expletives" on radio and television violated the First Amendment. On August 25, 2010, the FCC filed a petition for rehearing en banc and, on August 31, 2010, the Second Circuit issued an order directing all parties and intervenors to file briefs in response to the FCC's petition on September 21, 2010, which have been filed. The parties are awaiting a decision from the Second Circuit.

Following the April 28, 2009 decision in the fleeting expletives case, on May 4, 2009, the United States Supreme Court remanded the Super Bowl Proceeding to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and requested supplemental briefing from the Company and the FCC, in light of the United States Supreme Court's fleeting expletives decision. Argument was heard by the Third Circuit in the Super Bowl Proceeding on February 23, 2010. On May 18, 2010, at the Third Circuit's request, the Company and the FCC each submitted supplemental briefs. The parties are awaiting a decision from the Third Circuit.

In March 2006, the FCC also notified the Company and certain affiliates of the CBS Television Network of apparent liability for forfeitures relating to a broadcast of the program Without a Trace. The FCC proposed to assess a forfeiture of $32,500 against each of these stations, totaling $260,000 for the Company's owned stations. The Company is contesting the FCC decision and the proposed forfeitures.

Additionally, the Company, from time to time, has received and may receive in the future letters of inquiry from the FCC prompted by complaints alleging that certain programming on the Company's broadcasting stations included indecent material.

Claims Related to Former Businesses: Asbestos, Environmental and Other. The Company is a defendant in lawsuits claiming various personal injuries related to asbestos and other materials, which allegedly occurred principally as a result of exposure caused by various products manufactured by Westinghouse, a predecessor, generally prior to the early 1970s. Westinghouse was neither a producer nor a manufacturer of asbestos. The Company is typically named as one of a large number of defendants in both state and federal cases. In the majority of asbestos lawsuits, the plaintiffs have not identified which of the Company's products is the basis of a claim. Claims against the Company in which a product has been identified principally relate to exposures allegedly caused by asbestos-containing insulating material in turbines sold for power-generation, industrial and marine use, or by asbestos containing grades of decorative micarta, a laminate used in commercial ships.

Claims are frequently filed and/or settled in groups, which may make the amount and timing of settlements, and the number of pending claims, subject to significant fluctuation from period to period. The Company does not report as pending those claims on inactive, stayed, deferred or similar dockets which some jurisdictions have established for claimants who allege minimal or no impairment. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had pending approximately 56,960 asbestos claims, as compared with approximately 62,360 as of December 31, 2009 and 61,820 as of September 30, 2009. During the third quarter of 2010, the Company received approximately 2,610 new claims and closed or moved to an inactive docket approximately 4,570 claims. The Company reports claims as closed when it becomes aware that a dismissal order has been entered by a court or when the Company has reached agreement with the claimants on the material terms of a settlement. Settlement costs depend on the seriousness of the injuries that form the basis of the claim, the quality of evidence supporting the claims and other factors. The Company's total costs for the years 2009 and 2008 for settlement and defense of asbestos claims after insurance recoveries and net of tax benefits were approximately $17.8 million and $15.0 million, respectively. The Company's costs for settlement and defense of asbestos claims may vary year to year as insurance proceeds are not always recovered in the same period as the insured portion of the expenses.

The Company believes that its reserves and insurance are adequate to cover its asbestos liabilities. This belief is based upon many factors and assumptions, including the number of outstanding claims, estimated average cost per claim, the breakdown of claims by disease type, historic claim filings, costs per claim of resolution and the filing of new claims. While the number of asbestos claims filed against the Company has trended down in recent years, it is difficult to predict future asbestos liabilities, as events and circumstances may occur including, among others, the number and types of claims and average cost to resolve such claims, which could affect the Company's estimate of its asbestos liabilities.

The Company from time to time receives claims from federal and state environmental regulatory agencies and other entities asserting that it is or may be liable for environmental cleanup costs and related damages principally relating to historical and predecessor operations of the Company. In addition, the Company from time to time receives personal injury claims including toxic tort and product liability claims (other than asbestos) arising from historical operations of the Company and its predecessors.

General. On an ongoing basis, the Company defends itself in numerous lawsuits and proceedings and responds to various investigations and inquiries from federal, state and local authorities (collectively, "litigation"). Litigation is inherently uncertain and always difficult to predict. However, based on its understanding and evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances, the Company believes that the above-described legal matters and other litigation to which it is a party are not likely, in the aggregate, to have a material adverse effect on its results of operations, financial position or cash flows. Under the Separation Agreement between the Company and Viacom Inc., the Company and Viacom Inc. have agreed to defend and indemnify the other in certain litigation in which the Company and/or Viacom Inc. is named.

11) RESTRUCTURING CHARGES

During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Company recorded restructuring charges of $66.0 million, reflecting $51.1 million of severance costs associated with the elimination of positions and $15.6 million of contract termination and other associated costs, partially offset by the reversal of $.7 million as a result of changes in estimates of previously established restructuring accruals. During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company recorded restructuring charges of $22.8 million, reflecting $20.8 million of severance costs and $6.7 million of contract termination and other associated costs, partially offset by the reversal of $4.7 million as a result of changes in estimates of previously established restructuring accruals. During the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company recorded restructuring charges of $136.7 million, which reflected $127.5 million of severance costs and $9.2 million of contract termination and other associated costs. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had paid $148.0 million of the severance costs and $13.7 million of the contract termination and other associated costs. The Company expects to substantially utilize the remaining reserves by the end of 2011.

12) FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The following tables set forth the Company's assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis at September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009. These assets and liabilities have been categorized according to the three-level fair value hierarchy established by the FASB, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. Level 1 is based on quoted prices for the asset in active markets. Level 2 is based on inputs that are observable other than quoted market prices in Level 1, such as quoted prices for the asset or liability in inactive markets or quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities. Level 3 is based on unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset.

The fair value of investments is determined based on publicly quoted market prices in active markets. The fair value of foreign currency hedges is determined based on the present value of future cash flows using observable inputs including foreign currency exchange rates. The fair value of deferred compensation is determined based on the fair value of the investments elected by employees.

13) FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's carrying value of financial instruments approximates fair value, except for differences with respect to notes and debentures. At September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, the carrying value of the senior debt was $6.46 billion and $6.91 billion, respectively, and the fair value, which is estimated based on quoted market prices and includes accrued interest, was $7.31 billion and $7.25 billion, respectively.

The Company uses derivative financial instruments to modify its exposure to market risks from changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. The Company does not use derivative instruments unless there is an underlying exposure and, therefore, the Company does not hold or enter into derivative financial instruments for speculative trading purposes.

Foreign Exchange Contracts

Foreign exchange forward contracts have principally been used to hedge projected cash flows, generally within the next twelve months, in such currencies as the British Pound, the Euro, the Canadian Dollar and the Australian Dollar. The Company designates forward contracts used to hedge projected future television and film production costs as cash flow hedges. Gains or losses on the effective portion of designated cash flow hedges are initially recorded in other comprehensive income ("OCI") and reclassified to the statement of operations when the hedged item is recognized. Additionally, the Company enters into non-designated forward contracts to hedge non-U.S. dollar denominated cash flows. The change in fair value of the non-designated contracts is included in "Other items, net" in the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

At September 30, 2010, the notional amount of all foreign currency contracts was $125.1 million, of which $5.2 million related to the hedging of future production costs and $119.9 million represents hedges of expected foreign currency cash flows. At December 31, 2009, the notional amount of all foreign currency contracts was $97.1 million, of which $2.1 million related to the hedging of future production costs and $95.0 million represented hedges of expected foreign currency cash flows.

Interest Rate Swaps

All of the Company's long-term debt has been issued under fixed interest rate agreements. During 2009, the Company entered into fixed-to-floating rate swap agreements for a portion of its debt, which were designated as fair value hedges. Gains or losses on interest rate swaps were recorded as a change in the carrying value of the debt attributable to the risk being hedged. During the fourth quarter of 2009, the Company settled all of its interest rate swaps outstanding. Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition.
(Tabular dollars in millions, except per share amounts)

Management's discussion and analysis of the results of operations and financial condition should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009.

Overview

For the third quarter of 2010, CBS Corporation reported revenues of $3.30 billion, down 2% from $3.35 billion for the third quarter of 2009 as growth in Local Broadcasting of 15%, Cable Networks of 12% and Outdoor of 8% was more than offset by a 12% decline in the Entertainment segment reflecting the first-cycle domestic syndication sales of five major titles in 2009. For the third quarter, advertising sales increased 10% reflecting growth across all of the Company's advertising-based businesses, driven by the improved advertising marketplace and higher political advertising sales, and affiliate and subscription fees grew 15%. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, revenues of $10.16 billion increased 7% from $9.52 billion for the same prior-year period, led by growth of 17% at Local Broadcasting, 4% at Entertainment, 11% at Cable Networks and 6% at Outdoor. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, advertising revenues increased 12% and affiliate and subscription fees increased 13%, partially offset by a decline in content licensing and distribution of 8% versus the comparable prior-year period.

The Company reported operating income of $611.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010, an increase of 46% from $418.2 million for the comparable prior-year period reflecting increases at Local Broadcasting, Outdoor and Cable Networks. This growth was achieved partly due to a shift in the revenue mix, with an increase in higher margin advertising revenues more than offsetting the absence of profits from the aforementioned 2009 first-cycle domestic syndication sales. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Company reported operating income of $1.20 billion, up 56% from $767.9 million for the same prior-year period reflecting growth in advertising sales and affiliate and subscription fees, partially offset by lower domestic syndication sales, higher sports programming costs and increased investment in content. Operating income for the 2010 and 2009 periods also benefited from settlements of $90.2 million and $28.0 million, respectively, from the resolutions of certain disputes regarding previously disposed businesses. Operating income margins improved to 19% for the third quarter of 2010 from 12% for the third quarter of 2009 led by Local Broadcasting, Cable Networks and Outdoor. Operating income margins increased to 12% for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 versus 8% for the comparable prior-year period.

For the third quarter of 2010, the Company generated free cash flow of $259.6 million, an increase of $283.2 million from a net cash outflow of $23.6 million for the same prior-year period and for the nine months ended September 30, 2010, free cash flow of $1.41 billion increased 165% from $532.4 million for the same prior-year period, principally reflecting higher advertising, affiliate and subscription fee revenues, and the timing of programming spending, partially offset by higher payments for taxes. The Company generated cash flow from operating activities of $1.57 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2010, up $1.01 billion versus $567.9 million for the comparable prior-year period, which included a $150.0 million reduction to the amounts outstanding under the Company's accounts receivable securitization program. Free cash flow, a non-GAAP financial measure, reflects the Company's net cash flow provided by operating activities before increases and decreases to the accounts receivable securitization program and less capital expenditures. See "Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Information" on pages 40-41 for a reconciliation of net cash flow provided by operating activities, the most directly comparable financial measure in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"), to free cash flow.

At September 30, 2010, the Company's cash balance was $1.07 billion, an increase of $355.3 million from $716.7 million at December 31, 2009. On October 8, 2010, the Company issued $300.0 million of 4.30% senior notes due 2021 and $300.0 million of 5.90% senior notes due 2040 and used the net proceeds to repurchase, through a tender offer, $55.1 million of its 8.625% debentures due 2012 and $194.9 million of its 5.625% senior notes due 2012. The Company will also use the net proceeds to redeem, on November 5, 2010, $335.0 million of its 7.25% senior notes due 2051. Additionally, on November 2, 2010, the Company called for the redemption on December 29, 2010 of its $543.9 million of 6.625% senior notes due 2011. These actions, along with the debt activity during the first half of 2010, are expected to result in annualized net interest expense savings of approximately $90 million.

Content licensing and distribution revenues decreased $289.7 million, or 26%, to $828.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and decreased $186.8 million, or 8%, to $2.28 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 principally due to lower domestic syndication sales of television programming driven by the absence of the 2009 first-cycle sales of five major titles, and lower publishing revenues as a result of the soft retail market, partially offset by higher home entertainment revenues and the addition of theatrical revenues in 2010. For the nine-month period, the decrease was also partially offset by higher international syndication sales of television programming.

Affiliate and subscription fees increased $52.3 million, or 15%, to $408.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and increased $132.2 million, or 13%, to $1.17 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 reflecting rate increases and growth in subscriptions at Showtime Networks and CBS College Sports Network, and higher retransmission revenues.

(Tabular dollars in millions, except per share amounts)

Programming expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2010 decreased $8.0 million, or 1%, to $615.1 million primarily reflecting lower cable programming costs. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, programming expenses increased $153.4 million, or 6%, to $2.62 billion driven by higher sports programming costs, principally associated with the 2010 telecast of Super Bowl XLIV and the 2010 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship, partially offset by lower acquired television series costs.

Production expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2010 decreased $196.6 million, or 24%, to $617.9 million and for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 production expenses decreased $89.2 million, or 5%, to $1.84 billion, principally due to lower production costs associated with lower syndication revenues. For the nine-month period, this decrease was partially offset by increased investment in television series and theatrical films.

Outdoor operations expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2010 decreased $7.6 million, or 3%, to $289.3 million and for the nine months ended September 30, 2010, Outdoor operations expenses decreased $12.5 million, or 1%, to $854.4 million, primarily reflecting lower transit, billboard lease and display costs principally due to cost-savings initiatives, partially offset by costs for new contracts. For the three-month period, the decrease also reflects the impact of foreign exchange rate changes, which contributed three percentage points to the decline in Outdoor operations expenses.

Publishing operations expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2010 decreased $12.1 million, or 8%, to $145.3 million principally reflecting the impact of cost reduction measures, and lower production and royalty expenses from the revenue decline and a change in the mix of titles. Publishing operations expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 decreased $22.7 million, or 6%, to $382.0 million, principally due to lower production costs and the impact of cost reduction measures, partially offset by higher royalty expense.

Other operating expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2010 increased $8.4 million, or 3%, to $248.8 million and for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 increased $98.8 million, or 13%, to $858.1 million primarily reflecting higher advertising expense for theatrical films.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses, which include expenses incurred for selling and marketing costs, occupancy and back office support, increased $3.1 million to $623.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and increased $70.4 million, or 4%, to $1.91 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2010. Comparability of SG&A expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, was impacted by settlements of $90.2 million and $28.0 million, respectively, related to the favorable resolutions of certain disputes regarding previously disposed businesses. The increase in SG&A expenses reflects higher incentive compensation accruals, higher advertising expense, higher selling expenses driven by the advertising revenue growth, and the favorable impact in 2009 from the termination of a real estate lease arrangement, partially offset by lower pension and postretirement benefit costs and the impact of the aforementioned settlements. Pension and postretirement benefits costs decreased $12.3 million to $44.1 million for the third quarter of 2010 and decreased $37.5 million to $132.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 versus the comparable prior-year periods principally due to a lower discount rate and pension plan asset performance in 2009. SG&A expenses as a percentage of revenues for each of the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009 was 19%.

During the third quarter of 2010, the Company and the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") settled, with the exception of one disputed item, the Company's income tax audit for the years 2006 and 2007. This disputed item is currently being contested through the IRS appeals process. The IRS is expected to commence its examination of the years 2008 and 2009 in January 2011. In addition, various tax years are currently under examination by state and local and foreign tax authorities. With respect to open tax years in all jurisdictions, the Company believes it is reasonably possible that the total reserve for uncertain tax positions may change within the next twelve months; however, any related estimate of the impact to the reserves for uncertain tax positions can not currently be determined.

Net Earnings

The Company reported net earnings of $317.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 versus net earnings of $207.6 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and net earnings of $441.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 versus net earnings of $167.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Comparability of net earnings for the third quarter of 2010 and 2009 was impacted by settlements of $90.2 million and $28.0 million, respectively, from the favorable resolutions of certain disputes regarding previously disposed businesses, a 2009 pre-tax non-cash impairment charge of $31.7 million, and the impact of the settlement of income tax audits of $18.2 million in 2010 and $41.8 million in 2009. Comparability of net earnings for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009 was also impacted by restructuring charges of $66.0 million ($40.0 million, net of tax) and $9.6 million ($5.7 million, net of tax), respectively, and a pre-tax loss on early extinguishment of debt of $37.9 million and $29.8 million, respectively.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Information

Free cash flow is a non-GAAP financial measure. Free cash flow reflects the Company's net cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities before increases and decreases to the accounts receivable securitization program and less capital expenditures. The Company's net cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities is the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure.

The Company's calculation of free cash flow for 2009 does not include increases and decreases to the accounts receivable securitization program because the Company does not consider the cash flow from this program to be indicative of the cash generated by the underlying operating performance of the Company. Accordingly, the Company considers its decision to increase or decrease its accounts receivable securitization program a financing decision. In 2010, as a result of the adoption of amended Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance on accounting for transfers of financial assets, increases and decreases to the accounts receivable securitization program are reflected as financing activities on the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows. Under the previous guidance these changes were reflected as operating activities. See Note 6 to the consolidated financial statements. Also, the Company's calculation of free cash flow includes capital expenditures since investment in capital expenditures is a use of cash that is directly related to the Company's operations.

Management believes free cash flow provides investors with an important perspective on the cash available to the Company to service debt, make strategic acquisitions and investments, maintain its capital assets, satisfy its tax obligations and fund ongoing operations and working capital needs. As a result, free cash flow is a significant measure of the Company's ability to generate long-term value. It is useful for investors to know whether this ability is being enhanced or degraded as a result of the Company's operating performance. The Company believes the presentation of free cash flow is relevant and useful for investors because it allows investors to evaluate the cash generated from the Company's underlying operations in a manner similar to the method used by management. Free cash flow is one of several components of incentive compensation targets for certain management personnel. In addition, free cash flow is also a primary measure used externally by the Company's investors, analysts and peers in its industry for purposes of valuation and comparing the operating performance of the Company to other companies in its industry.

As free cash flow is not a measure calculated in accordance with GAAP, free cash flow should not be considered in isolation of, or as a substitute for, either net cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities as a measure of liquidity or net earnings (loss) as a measure of operating performance. Free cash flow, as the Company calculates it, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures employed by other companies. In addition, free cash flow as a measure of liquidity has certain limitations, and does not necessarily represent funds available for discretionary use and is not necessarily a measure of the Company's ability to fund its cash needs. When comparing free cash flow to net cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, users of this financial information should consider the types of events and transactions which are not reflected in free cash flow.

The following table presents a reconciliation of the Company's net cash flow provided by operating activities, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, to free cash flow.

Segment Results of Operations

In the fourth quarter of 2009, the Company realigned its management structure to more effectively pursue its long-term strategy of investing in content businesses and capitalizing on its strong local presence. As a result, the Company realigned its operating segments. Prior period results have been reclassified to conform to this presentation.

The following tables present the Company's revenues, segment operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization and impairment charges ("Segment OIBDA before Impairment Charges"), operating income (loss), and depreciation and amortization by segment, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009. The Company presents Segment OIBDA before Impairment Charges as the primary measure of profit and loss for its operating segments in accordance with FASB guidance for segment reporting. The Company believes the presentation of Segment OIBDA before Impairment Charges is relevant and useful for investors because it allows investors to view segment performance in a manner similar to the primary method used by the Company's management and enhances their ability to understand the Company's operating performance. The reconciliation of Segment OIBDA before Impairment Charges to the Company's consolidated Net earnings is presented in Note 14 (Reportable Segments) to the consolidated financial statements.

Three Months Ended September 30, 2010 and 2009

For the three months ended September 30, 2010, Outdoor revenues increased 8% to $459.7 million from $424.9 million for the same prior-year period reflecting continued improvement in the Outdoor advertising marketplace, partially offset by the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange rate changes. In constant dollars, Outdoor revenues increased 10%, led by constant dollar increases of 15% and 8% in the United States ("U.S.") and United Kingdom, respectively. Americas revenues (comprising North America and South America) increased 16% (15% in constant dollars) to $325.6 million from $280.3 million driven by growth in the U.S. billboards and displays business, including the impact of new transit contracts. Europe revenues decreased 7% to $134.1 million from $144.6 million reflecting the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange rate changes. In constant dollars, Europe revenues increased slightly reflecting growth in the United Kingdom, Holland and Italy, partially offset by a revenue decline in France. The unfavorable impact of foreign exchange rate changes on total Outdoor revenues was approximately $9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010. Approximately 42% and 45% of Outdoor revenues were generated from regions outside the U.S. for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

For the three months ended September 30, 2010, Outdoor reported operating income of $11.9 million versus an operating loss of $34.9 million for the same prior-year period. Outdoor OIBDA increased $40.7 million to $73.3 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $32.6 million for the same prior-year period. These increases were driven by the revenue growth as well as lower billboard lease, transit, maintenance and display costs principally due to cost-savings initiatives, partially offset by costs for new contracts and restructuring charges. Restructuring charges of $3.6 million recorded in the third quarter of 2010 primarily reflect severance costs associated with the elimination of positions.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2010 and 2009

For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, Outdoor revenues increased 6% to $1.31 billion from $1.24 billion for the same prior-year period principally reflecting the improved advertising marketplace and the favorable impact of foreign exchange rate changes. Revenues for the Americas increased 9% (7% in constant dollars) to $882.4 million from $812.4 million primarily reflecting growth in the U.S. billboards and displays businesses, and growth in Canada displays. Revenues for Europe decreased $.7 million to $425.8 million from $426.5 million reflecting the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange rate changes. In constant dollars, Europe revenues increased 2% reflecting growth in the United Kingdom, Holland and Italy, partially offset by a revenue decline in France. The favorable impact of foreign exchange rate changes on total Outdoor revenues was approximately $4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010. Approximately 44% and 46% of Outdoor revenues were generated from regions outside the U.S. for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, Outdoor reported an operating loss of $26.8 million versus an operating loss of $97.9 million for the same prior-year period. Outdoor OIBDA increased $62.8 million, or 63%, to $162.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 from $99.9 million for the same prior-year period. These increases were driven by the revenue growth as well as lower billboard lease, transit, maintenance and display costs principally due to cost-savings initiatives partially offset by costs for new contracts and restructuring charges. Restructuring charges of $25.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 primarily reflect severance costs associated with the elimination of positions.

Outdoor's franchise and lease costs are generally fixed in nature and, due to the soft advertising marketplace worldwide, certain transit contracts, including the London Underground contract which also has reduced revenues due to project delays, are operating at their minimum guarantee levels therefore adversely impacting OIBDA and operating income margins. In connection with the London Underground contract, Outdoor has commenced legal actions against the London Underground with respect to disputes regarding these project delays and other matters.

Corporate

For the three months ended September 30, 2010, corporate expenses increased to $64.0 million from $39.6 million for the same prior-year period and for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 corporate expenses increased to $168.7 million from $112.1 million for the same prior-year period, primarily reflecting the absence of the 2009 favorable impact from the termination of a real estate lease arrangement and higher incentive compensation accruals.

Residual Costs

Residual costs primarily include pension and postretirement benefits costs for benefit plans retained by the Company for previously divested businesses. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, residual costs reflected income of $63.9 million and $11.4 million, respectively, versus a loss of $7.9 million and $79.8 million for the same prior-year periods. Residual costs for the 2010 and 2009 periods included settlements of $90.2 million and $28.0 million, respectively, related to the favorable resolutions of certain disputes regarding previously disposed businesses. The decrease in residual costs for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, is also driven by a lower discount rate and pension plan asset performance in 2009.

Financial Position

Current assets increased by $41.8 million to $5.68 billion at September 30, 2010 from $5.64 billion at December 31, 2009, primarily due to an increase in cash and cash equivalents of $355.3 million, an increase in receivables of $135.3 million and an increase in prepaid expenses and other current assets of $77.9 million, partially offset by a decrease in programming and other inventory of $532.7 million, reflecting the seasonality of sports and entertainment programming. The allowance for doubtful accounts as a percentage of receivables decreased to 3.9% at September 30, 2010 compared with 4.7% at December 31, 2009, reflecting the inclusion of the Company's securitized receivables on the Consolidated Balance Sheet beginning in 2010 as a result of the adoption of new FASB guidance.

Net property and equipment of $2.68 billion at September 30, 2010 decreased $176.9 million from $2.86 billion at December 31, 2009, primarily reflecting depreciation expense of $325.1 million, partially offset by capital expenditures of $163.1 million.

Goodwill decreased by $147.5 million to $8.52 billion at September 30, 2010 from $8.67 billion at December 31, 2009 primarily reflecting the establishment of deferred tax assets associated with liabilities assumed from previous acquisitions.

Intangible assets, principally consisting of FCC licenses, leasehold agreements and franchise agreements, decreased by $101.5 million to $6.65 billion at September 30, 2010 from $6.75 billion at December 31, 2009 primarily due to amortization expense of $98.4 million.

Current liabilities decreased by $105.5 million to $4.64 billion at September 30, 2010 from $4.75 billion at December 31, 2009, primarily due to a decrease in deferred revenue of $140.1 million and program rights obligations of $106.8 million, partially offset by an increase in current portion of long-term debt of $126.9 million.

Other liabilities decreased by $257.2 million to $3.38 billion at September 30, 2010 from $3.64 billion at December 31, 2009, primarily reflecting lower program rights obligations and participants' share and royalties payable.

Cash Flows

Cash and cash equivalents increased by $355.3 million and $54.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. The changes in cash and cash equivalents were as follows:

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2010	2009
Cash provided by operating activities	$ 1,574.0	$ 567.9
Cash used for investing activities	(199.8)	(185.5)

Net increase in cash and cash equivalents	$ 355.3	$ 54.3

Operating Activities. Cash provided by operating activities of $1.57 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 increased $1.01 billion from $567.9 million for the same prior-year period primarily reflecting higher advertising sales and affiliate and subscription fees, the timing of programming payments and a $150.0 million reduction to amounts outstanding under the Company's accounts receivable securitization program during 2009. On January 1, 2010, the Company adopted amended FASB guidance on the accounting for transfers of financial assets and as a result, decreases to the accounts receivable securitization program during 2010 are reflected as cash flows used for financing activities.

Cash paid for income taxes for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was $46.6 million versus $41.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Cash taxes for 2010 are expected to be in the range of $200 million to $250 million.

Investing Activities. Cash used for investing activities of $199.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 principally reflected capital expenditures of $163.1 million and investments in investee companies of $44.9 million, partially offset by proceeds from dispositions of $17.6 million, primarily from the sale of a television station. Cash used for investing activities of $185.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 principally reflected capital expenditures of $185.5 million, purchases of marketable securities of $35.6 million and investments in investee companies of $24.5 million, partially offset by proceeds from dispositions of $72.4 million, primarily from the sale of radio stations.

Financing Activities. Cash used for financing activities of $1.02 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 principally reflected the repayment of notes and debentures of $978.8 million, a $400.0 million reduction to amounts outstanding under the accounts receivable securitization program and dividend payments of $107.7 million, partially offset by proceeds from the issuance of notes of $499.7 million. Cash used for financing activities of $328.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 principally reflected the repayment of notes of $1.01 billion and dividend payments of $263.5 million, partially offset by proceeds from the issuance of senior notes of $974.4 million.

Cash Dividends

On August 20, 2010, the Company announced a quarterly cash dividend of $.05 per share on its Class A and Class B Common Stock payable on October 1, 2010. The total dividend was $34.8 million of which $34.0 million was paid on October 1, 2010 and $.8 million was accrued to be paid upon vesting of RSUs. During the third quarter of 2010, the Company paid $34.0 million for the dividend declared on May 26, 2010 and for dividend payments on RSUs that vested during the third quarter of 2010.

Share Repurchase Program

On November 4, 2010, the Company announced that its Board of Directors approved a $1.5 billion share repurchase program with respect to its Class A and Class B Common Stock. The Company intends to use the program to repurchase shares of its Class B Common Stock beginning in January 2011. In connection with the approval of this program, the Company's previous share repurchase programs, which had remaining authorization of $649.4 million, were terminated.

Credit Facility

At September 30, 2010, the Company had a $2.0 billion revolving credit facility which expires in December 2012 (the "Credit Facility"). The Credit Facility requires the Company to maintain a maximum Consolidated Leverage Ratio of 4.25x at the end of the third quarter of 2010, which will be reduced to 4.0x at the end of the fourth quarter of 2010, subject to further future reductions, and a minimum Consolidated Coverage Ratio of 3.0x for the trailing four quarters, each as further described in the Credit Facility. At September 30, 2010, the Company's Consolidated Leverage Ratio was approximately 2.7x and Consolidated Coverage Ratio was approximately 4.9x.

The Consolidated Leverage Ratio reflects the ratio of the Company's indebtedness from continuing operations, adjusted to exclude certain capital lease obligations, at the end of a quarter, to the Company's Consolidated EBITDA for the trailing four consecutive quarters. Consolidated EBITDA is defined in the Credit Facility as operating income plus interest income and before depreciation, amortization and certain other non-cash items. The Consolidated Coverage Ratio reflects the ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to the Company's cash interest expense on indebtedness, adjusted to exclude certain capital lease obligations, in each case for the trailing four consecutive quarters.

The primary purpose of the Credit Facility is to support commercial paper borrowings. At September 30, 2010, the Company had no commercial paper borrowings under its $2.0 billion commercial paper program. At September 30, 2010, the remaining availability under the Credit Facility, net of outstanding letters of credit, was $1.926 billion.

Accounts Receivable Securitization Program

The Company participated in a revolving accounts receivable securitization program which provided for the sale of receivables on a non-recourse basis to unrelated third parties on a one-year renewable basis. During the first quarter of 2010, the Company reduced the amounts outstanding under its revolving accounts receivable securitization program from $400.0 million at December 31, 2009 to zero and terminated the program.

On January 1, 2010, the Company adopted amended FASB guidance on the accounting for transfers of financial assets which required the Company's securitized accounts receivables to be recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet with a corresponding increase to debt. As a result, the decrease to the accounts receivable securitization program of $400.0 million during 2010 is reflected as cash flows used for financing activities and the decrease of $150.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 is reflected as cash flows used for operating activities under previous FASB guidance.

During the period before the termination of the program in 2010 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, proceeds from collections of securitized accounts receivables of $263.1 million and $1.05 billion, respectively, were reinvested in the revolving receivable securitization program. The net loss associated with securitizing the program's accounts receivables was $.5 million for 2010 and $4.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company continually projects anticipated cash requirements for its operating, investing and financing needs as well as cash flows generated from operating activities available to meet these needs. The Company's operating needs include, among other items, commitments to purchase sports programming rights, television and film programming, talent contracts, franchise payments, interest payments, and pension funding obligations. The Company's investing and financing needs include capital expenditures, dividends and principal payments on its outstanding indebtedness. The Company believes that its operating cash flows, cash and cash equivalents, borrowing capacity under its Credit Facility, which had $1.926 billion of remaining availability at September 30, 2010, and access to capital markets are sufficient to fund its operating, investing and financing requirements for the next twelve months.

The Company's funding for short-term and long-term obligations will come primarily from cash flows from operating activities. Any additional cash funding requirements are financed with short-term borrowings, including commercial paper, and long-term debt. To the extent that commercial paper is not available to the Company, the existing Credit Facility provides sufficient capacity to satisfy short-term borrowing needs.

On November 4, 2010, the Company had approximately $1.53 billion of long-term debt obligations due over the next five years, of which $543.9 million is expected to be redeemed on December 29, 2010 using cash on hand. Funding for the remaining $988.8 million is expected to come from cash generated from operating activities and the Company's ability to refinance its debt.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has indemnification obligations with respect to letters of credit and surety bonds primarily used as security against non-performance in the normal course of business. At September 30, 2010, the outstanding letters of credit and surety bonds approximated $394.7 million and were not recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

In the course of its business, the Company both provides and receives indemnities which are intended to allocate certain risks associated with business transactions. Similarly, the Company may remain contingently liable for various obligations of a business that has been divested in the event that a third party does not live up to its obligations under an indemnification obligation. The Company records a liability for its indemnification obligations and other contingent liabilities when probable under generally accepted accounting principles.

Legal Matters

Securities Action. On December 12, 2008, the City of Pontiac General Employees' Retirement System filed a self-styled class action complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the Company and its Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, and Treasurer, alleging violations of federal securities law. The complaint, which was filed on behalf of a putative class of purchasers of the Company's common stock between February 26, 2008 and October 10, 2008 (the "Class Period"), alleges that, among other things, the Company's failure to timely write down the value of certain assets caused the Company's reported operating results during the Class Period to be materially inflated. The plaintiffs seek unspecified compensatory damages. On February 11, 2009, a motion was filed in the case on behalf of The City of Omaha, Nebraska Civilian Employees' Retirement System, and The City of Omaha Police and Fire Retirement System (collectively, the "Omaha Funds") seeking to appoint the Omaha Funds as the lead plaintiffs in this case; on March 5, 2009, the court granted that motion. On May 4, 2009, the plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint, which removes the Treasurer as a defendant and adds the Executive Chairman. On July 13, 2009, all defendants filed a motion to dismiss this action. On March 16, 2010, the court granted the Company's motion and dismissed this action as to the Company and all defendants. On April 30, 2010, the plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to serve an amended complaint. On September 23, 2010, the court issued an order granting leave to amend. On October 8, 2010, the Company was served with an Amended Complaint, which redefines the Class Period to be April 29, 2008 to October 10, 2008 and alleges that the impairment charge should have been taken during the first quarter of 2008. The Company plans to file a motion to dismiss this Amended Complaint by November 19, 2010. The Company believes that the plaintiffs' claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself in the litigation.

Indecency Regulation. In March 2006, the FCC released certain decisions relating to indecency complaints against certain of the Company's owned television stations and affiliated stations. The FCC ordered the Company to pay a forfeiture of $550,000 in the proceeding relating to the broadcast of a Super Bowl half-time show by the Company's television stations (the "Super Bowl Proceeding"). In May 2006, the FCC denied the Company's petition for reconsideration. In July 2006, the Company filed a Petition for Review of the forfeiture with the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and paid the $550,000 forfeiture in order to facilitate the Company's ability to bring the appeal. Oral argument was heard in September 2007. In July 2008, the Third Circuit vacated the FCC's order to have the Company pay the forfeiture and remanded the case to the FCC. On November 18, 2008, the FCC filed a petition for certiorari with the United States Supreme Court, seeking review of the Third Circuit's decision. The petition requested that the United States Supreme Court not act on the petition until it ruled in the "fleeting expletives case" mentioned below. On January 8, 2009, the Company filed its opposition to the FCC's petition for certiorari.

In another case involving broadcasts on another network, in June 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit vacated the FCC's November 2006 finding that the broadcast of fleeting and isolated expletives was indecent and remanded the case to the FCC (the "fleeting expletives case"). On March 17, 2008, the United States Supreme Court granted the FCC's petition to review the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit's decision. On November 4, 2008, the United States Supreme Court heard argument in this case. On April 28, 2009, the United States Supreme Court issued a 5-4 decision reversing the Second Circuit's judgment on administrative grounds in favor of the FCC and remanding the fleeting expletives case to the Second Circuit. The Second Circuit requested additional briefing and argument was heard on January 13, 2010. On July 13, 2010, the Second Circuit struck down an FCC policy on indecency and found that the FCC's indecency policies and decisions regarding the use of "fleeting expletives" on radio and television violated the First Amendment. On August 25, 2010, the FCC filed a petition for rehearing en banc and, on August 31, 2010, the Second Circuit issued an order directing all parties and intervenors to file briefs in response to the FCC's petition on September 21, 2010, which have been filed. The parties are awaiting a decision from the Second Circuit.

Following the April 28, 2009 decision in the fleeting expletives case, on May 4, 2009, the United States Supreme Court remanded the Super Bowl Proceeding to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and requested supplemental briefing from the Company and the FCC, in light of the United States Supreme Court's fleeting expletives decision. Argument was heard by the Third Circuit in the Super Bowl Proceeding on February 23, 2010. On May 18, 2010, at the Third Circuit's request, the Company and the FCC each submitted supplemental briefs. The parties are awaiting a decision from the Third Circuit.

In March 2006, the FCC also notified the Company and certain affiliates of the CBS Television Network of apparent liability for forfeitures relating to a broadcast of the program Without a Trace. The FCC proposed to assess a forfeiture of $32,500 against each of these stations, totaling $260,000 for the Company's owned stations. The Company is contesting the FCC decision and the proposed forfeitures.

Additionally, the Company, from time to time, has received and may receive in the future letters of inquiry from the FCC prompted by complaints alleging that certain programming on the Company's broadcasting stations included indecent material.

Claims Related to Former Businesses: Asbestos, Environmental and Other. The Company is a defendant in lawsuits claiming various personal injuries related to asbestos and other materials, which allegedly occurred principally as a result of exposure caused by various products manufactured by Westinghouse, a predecessor, generally prior to the early 1970s. Westinghouse was neither a producer nor a manufacturer of asbestos. The Company is typically named as one of a large number of defendants in both state and federal cases. In the majority of asbestos lawsuits, the plaintiffs have not identified which of the Company's products is the basis of a claim. Claims against the Company in which a product has been identified principally relate to exposures allegedly caused by asbestos-containing insulating material in turbines sold for power-generation, industrial and marine use, or by asbestos containing grades of decorative micarta, a laminate used in commercial ships.

Claims are frequently filed and/or settled in groups, which may make the amount and timing of settlements, and the number of pending claims, subject to significant fluctuation from period to period. The Company does not report as pending those claims on inactive, stayed, deferred or similar dockets which some jurisdictions have established for claimants who allege minimal or no impairment. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had pending approximately 56,960 asbestos claims, as compared with approximately 62,360 as of December 31, 2009 and 61,820 as of September 30, 2009. During the third quarter of 2010, the Company received approximately 2,610 new claims and closed or moved to an inactive docket approximately 4,570 claims. The Company reports claims as closed when it becomes aware that a dismissal order has been entered by a court or when the Company has reached agreement with the claimants on the material terms of a settlement. Settlement costs depend on the seriousness of the injuries that form the basis of the claim, the quality of evidence supporting the claims and other factors. The Company's total costs for the years 2009 and 2008 for settlement and defense of asbestos claims after insurance recoveries and net of tax benefits were approximately $17.8 million and $15.0 million, respectively. The Company's costs for settlement and defense of asbestos claims may vary year to year as insurance proceeds are not always recovered in the same period as the insured portion of the expenses.

Filings include claims for individuals suffering from mesothelioma, a rare cancer, the risk of which is allegedly increased by exposure to asbestos; lung cancer, a cancer which may be caused by various factors, one of which is alleged to be asbestos exposure; other cancers, and conditions that are substantially less serious, including claims brought on behalf of individuals who are asymptomatic as to an allegedly asbestos-related disease. The predominant number of claims against the Company are non-cancer claims. In a substantial number of the pending claims, the plaintiff has not yet identified the claimed injury. The Company believes that its reserves and insurance are adequate to cover its asbestos liabilities. This belief is based upon many factors and assumptions, including the number of outstanding claims, estimated average cost per claim, the breakdown of claims by disease type, historic claim filings, costs per claim of resolution and the filing of new claims. While the number of asbestos claims filed against the Company has trended down in recent years, it is difficult to predict future asbestos liabilities, as events and circumstances may occur including, among others, the number and types of claims and average cost to resolve such claims, which could affect the Company's estimate of its asbestos liabilities.

The Company from time to time receives claims from federal and state environmental regulatory agencies and other entities asserting that it is or may be liable for environmental cleanup costs and related damages principally relating to historical and predecessor operations of the Company. In addition, the Company from time to time receives personal injury claims including toxic tort and product liability claims (other than asbestos) arising from historical operations of the Company and its predecessors.

General. On an ongoing basis, the Company defends itself in numerous lawsuits and proceedings and responds to various investigations and inquiries from federal, state and local authorities (collectively, "litigation"). Litigation is inherently uncertain and always difficult to predict. However, based on its understanding and evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances, the Company believes that the above-described legal matters and other litigation to which it is a party are not likely, in the aggregate, to have a material adverse effect on its results of operations, financial position or cash flows. Under the Separation Agreement between the Company and Viacom Inc., the Company and Viacom Inc. have agreed to defend and indemnify the other in certain litigation in which the Company and/or Viacom Inc. is named.

CBS Corp., through its Entertainment segment, licenses its television products to Viacom Inc., primarily MTV Networks and BET Networks. In addition, CBS Corp. recognizes advertising revenues for media spending placed by various subsidiaries of Viacom Inc., primarily Paramount Pictures. Paramount Pictures also distributes certain of the Company's television products in the home entertainment market. Showtime Networks pays license fees to Paramount Pictures for motion picture programming under an exclusive output agreement which covers feature films initially theatrically released in the U.S. through 2007. Showtime Networks has exhibition rights to each film licensed under this agreement during three pay television exhibition windows over the course of several years after each such film's initial theatrical release. This agreement has not been renewed for new feature films initially theatrically released in the U.S. after 2007. These license fees are initially recorded as programming inventory and amortized over the shorter of the life of the license agreement or projected useful life of the programming. In addition, CBS Corp. places advertisements with and leases production facilities from various subsidiaries of Viacom Inc. The total spending for all of these transactions was $4.4 million and $6.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively, and $15.3 million and $15.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

Other Related Parties The Company owns 50% of The CW, a television broadcast network, which is accounted for by the Company as an equity investment. CBS Corp. earns revenues from The CW, primarily from the licensing of the Company's television programming. Total revenues from The CW were $17.1 million and $15.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively, and $68.4 million and $49.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

The Company, through the normal course of business, is involved in transactions with other related parties that have not been material in any of the periods presented.

Adoption of New Accounting Standards

Variable Interest Entities

Effective January 1, 2010, the Company adopted revised FASB guidance which changes the model for determining whether an entity should consolidate a Variable Interest Entity ("VIE"). This new model requires an assessment of whether an entity has a controlling financial interest in a VIE and is therefore the primary beneficiary and required to consolidate the VIE. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Transfers of Financial Assets

Effective January 1, 2010, the Company adopted amended FASB guidance on accounting for transfers of financial assets. This amended guidance removes the concept of a qualifying special-purpose entity, establishes specific conditions for reporting a transfer of a portion of a financial asset as a sale, and limits the circumstances in which a financial asset, or portion of a financial asset, should be derecognized when the transferor has not transferred the entire original financial asset and/or when the transferor has continuing involvement with the transferred financial asset. The adoption of this guidance required the Company's securitized accounts receivables to be recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet with a corresponding increase to debt. As part of its efforts to decrease debt and interest expense, the Company reduced the amounts outstanding under its revolving accounts receivable securitization program during the first quarter of 2010, from $400.0 million at December 31, 2009 to zero and terminated the program.

Recent Pronouncements

Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables

In October 2009, the FASB issued guidance on revenue arrangements with multiple deliverables, effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2011. This guidance establishes a hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable in a multiple element arrangement. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on Company-specific objective evidence if available, third party evidence if Company-specific evidence is not available, or estimated selling price if neither Company-specific objective evidence nor third party evidence is available. This guidance requires the best estimate of the selling price that would be used to sell the deliverable on a stand-alone basis. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Critical Accounting Policies

The following updates the corresponding disclosure of critical accounting policies included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Impairment of Goodwill and Intangible Assets

The Company tests goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives, primarily comprised of FCC licenses, for impairment during the fourth quarter of each year, and on an interim date should factors or indicators become apparent that would require an interim test.

Goodwill

Goodwill is tested for impairment at the reporting unit level, which is one level below or the same as an operating segment. The first step of the goodwill impairment test examines whether the book value of each of the Company's reporting units exceeds its fair value. If the book value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the test requires the Company to then compare the implied fair value of that reporting unit's goodwill with the book value of its goodwill to determine the amount of impairment charge, if any. The estimated fair value of each reporting unit is computed based upon the present value of future cash flows (Discounted Cash Flow Method) and both the traded and transaction values of comparable businesses (Market Comparable Method). The Discounted Cash Flow Method adds the present value of the estimated annual cash flows over a discrete projection period to the residual value of the business at the end of the projection period. This technique requires the use of significant estimates and assumptions such as growth rates, operating margins, capital expenditures and discount rates. The estimated growth rates, operating margins and capital expenditures for the projection period are based on the Company's internal forecasts of future performance as well as historical trends. The residual value is estimated based on a perpetual nominal growth rate between 2.0% and 3.5%, which is based on projected long-range inflation in the U.S. and long-term industry projections. The discount rates, which range from 8.5% to 11.0%, were determined based on the average of the weighted average cost of capital of comparable entities. Certain future events and circumstances, including deterioration of market conditions, higher cost of capital, a decline in the advertising market or a decrease in audience acceptance of programming, could result in changes to these assumptions and judgments. A downward revision of these assumptions could cause the fair values of the reporting units to fall below their respective carrying values. The Company would then perform the second step of the goodwill impairment test to determine the amount of any non-cash impairment charge. Such a charge could have a material effect on the consolidated statement of operations and balance sheet.

Based on the 2009 annual impairment test, the individual carrying values of the following reporting units with significant goodwill balances were within 10% of their respective estimated fair values:

Reporting Unit	Reporting Unit Fair Value in Excess of Carrying Value	Significant Assumptions
		Perpetual Nominal Growth Rate	Discount Rate
CBS Interactive	5.2%	3.5%	10.0%
CBS Radio	2.3%	2.0%	8.5%
Outdoor Americas	3.3%	3.3%	10.0%

At December 31, 2009, the book value of goodwill for the CBS Interactive, CBS Radio and Outdoor Americas reporting units was $1.25 billion, $1.92 billion and $1.91 billion, respectively. A 25 basis point increase to the discount rates or a 25 basis point decrease to the perpetual nominal growth rates, assuming no changes to other factors, would cause the fair values of the reporting units listed above to fall below their respective carrying values. The Company would then perform the second step of the goodwill impairment test to determine the amount of any non-cash impairment charge.

FCC Licenses

FCC licenses are tested for impairment at the geographic market level by comparing the fair value of the intangible asset by geographic market with its book value. The Company considers each geographic market, which is comprised of all of the Company's radio or television stations within that geographic market, to be a single unit of accounting because the FCC licenses at this level represent their highest and best use. The estimated fair value of each FCC license is computed using the Greenfield Discounted Cash Flow Method ("Greenfield Method"), which attempts to isolate the income that is attributable to the license alone. The Greenfield Method is based upon modeling a hypothetical start-up station and building it up to a normalized operation that, by design, lacks inherent goodwill and whose other assets have essentially been added as part of the build-up process. The Greenfield Method adds the present value of the estimated annual cash flows of the start-up station over a projection period to the residual value at the end of the projection period. The annual cash flows over the projection period include assumptions for overall advertising revenues in the relevant geographic market, the start-up station's operating costs and capital expenditures, and a three-year build-up period for the start-up station to reach a normalized state of operations, which reflects the point at which it achieves an average market share. In order to estimate the revenues of a start-up station, the total market advertising revenue in the subject market is estimated based on recent industry projections.

Operating costs and capital expenditures are similarly estimated based on industry-average data. The residual value is calculated using a perpetual nominal growth rate, which is based on projected long-range inflation in the U.S. and long-term industry projections. The discount rate is determined based on the average of the weighted average cost of capital of comparable entities in the broadcast industry.

The discount rates and perpetual nominal growth rates used for each radio and television station were as follows:

	Discount Rate	Perpetual Nominal Growth Rate
Television stations	8.5%	2.5%
Radio stations	8.5%	2.0%

The assumptions used in determining fair values of the FCC licenses require management to make significant judgments. Certain events and circumstances, including deterioration of market conditions, higher cost of capital or a decline in the local radio or television advertising markets, could result in changes to these assumptions and judgments. The estimated fair values of the FCC licenses are highly dependent on the assumptions of future economic conditions in the individual geographic markets in which the Company owns and operates television and radio stations. Deterioration in the economic conditions or a change in population size of any individual geographic market could adversely impact advertisers' ability or willingness to purchase advertising on the radio and television stations in that market. Advertising expenditures by companies in certain industries, including automotive, entertainment and retail, have historically represented a significant portion of the local radio and television advertising revenues in all geographic markets. As a result, a decrease in spending by advertisers in these categories or adverse economic conditions, particularly in larger markets such as New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and San Francisco, where the Company holds FCC licenses with substantial carrying values, could have a significant impact on the fair value of the FCC licenses.

During 2009, a weakened radio advertising marketplace negatively impacted the fair value of FCC licenses in certain radio markets and resulted in impairments in 16 radio markets, which reduced the carrying value of the FCC licenses in these markets to $1.85 billion in the aggregate at December 31, 2009 which approximated their respective estimated fair values. At December 31, 2009, three of the radio markets, which had an aggregate carrying value of FCC licenses of $640.7 million, were each within 5% of their respective estimated fair value, and one radio market, which had an aggregate carrying value of FCC licenses of $175.2 million, was within 7% of its estimated fair value. Four television markets, which had an aggregate carrying value of FCC licenses of $496.2 million, were each within 5% of their respective estimated fair value. In each of the remaining radio and television markets, the estimated fair value of FCC licenses was in excess of the respective carrying values at December 31, 2009 by more than 10%. Further downward revision in the present value of future cash flows could result in additional impairments and a non-cash charge would be required. Such a charge could have a material effect on the Company's Consolidated Statement of Operations and Consolidated Balance Sheet.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

Securities Action. As previously disclosed, on December 12, 2008, the City of Pontiac General Employees' Retirement System filed a self-styled class action complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the Company and its Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, and Treasurer, alleging violations of federal securities law. The complaint, which was filed on behalf of a putative class of purchasers of the Company's common stock between February 26, 2008 and October 10, 2008 (the "Class Period"), alleges that, among other things, the Company's failure to timely write down the value of certain assets caused the Company's reported operating results during the Class Period to be materially inflated. The plaintiffs seek unspecified compensatory damages. On February 11, 2009, a motion was filed in the case on behalf of The City of Omaha, Nebraska Civilian Employees' Retirement System, and The City of Omaha Police and Fire Retirement System (collectively, the "Omaha Funds") seeking to appoint the Omaha Funds as the lead plaintiffs in this case; on March 5, 2009, the court granted that motion. On May 4, 2009, the plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint, which removes the Treasurer as a defendant and adds the Executive Chairman. On July 13, 2009, all defendants filed a motion to dismiss this action. On March 16, 2010, the court granted the Company's motion and dismissed this action as to the Company and all defendants. On April 30, 2010, the plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to serve an amended complaint. On September 23, 2010, the court issued an order granting leave to amend. On October 8, 2010, the Company was served with an Amended Complaint, which redefines the Class Period to be April 29, 2008 to October 10, 2008 and alleges that the impairment charge should have been taken during the first quarter of 2008. The Company plans to file a motion to dismiss this Amended Complaint by November 19, 2010. The Company believes that the plaintiffs' claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself in the litigation.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

During the third quarter of 2010, the Company did not purchase any shares under its publicly announced share repurchase programs, which had remaining authorization of $649.4 million at September 30, 2010. These programs were terminated in connection with the approval of the Company's $1.5 billion share repurchase program, which was announced on November 4, 2010.

Item 5. (a) Other Information.

On November 4, 2010, the Company announced that its Board of Directors approved a $1.5 billion share repurchase program. In connection with the approval of the program, the Company's previous share repurchase programs, including the share repurchase program announced in October 2004 (the "2004 Share Repurchase Program"), were terminated.

As a result of the termination of the 2004 Share Repurchase Program, the Agreement dated as of October 28, 2004, among the Company, NAIRI, Inc. ("NAIRI") and National Amusements, Inc. ("National Amusements"), as amended as of November 12, 2004 and as of December 13, 2005 (the "NAIRI Agreement"), was automatically terminated in accordance with its terms. Under the NAIRI Agreement, the Company and NAIRI had agreed to buy and sell, respectively, a number of shares of CBS Class B common stock each month in connection with the 2004 Share Repurchase Program. The Company has not made any purchases under the 2004 Share Repurchase Program since December 2005. Sumner M. Redstone, the Company's Executive Chairman of the Board and Founder, is the controlling stockholder of National Amusements. National Amusements, through its wholly owned subsidiary NAIRI, holds Mr. Redstone's controlling interest in the Company. A copy of the NAIRI Agreement was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10(a) to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004.
