accountant.

The audit reports of RRBB on Global Concepts' financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 contained a modification expressing substantial doubt about Global Concepts's ability to continue as a going concern. The audit reports of RRBB for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 did not contain any other adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion or qualification. RRBB did not, during the applicable periods, advise Global Concepts of any of the enumerated items described in Item 304(a)(1) of Regulation S-B.

Global Concepts and RRBB have not, in connection with the audits of Global Concepts' financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 or December 31, 2002, had any disagreement on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to RRBB's satisfaction, would have caused RRBB to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports.

On December 13, 2004, Global Concepts retained the firm of Bagell, Josephs & Company, LLC to audit Global Concepts' financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004. At no time during the past two fiscal years or any subsequent period did Global Concepts consult with Bagell, Josephs & Company, LLC regarding either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction or the type of audit opinion which might be rendered on Global Concepts's financial statements or any matter of the sort described above with reference to RRBB.
