Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 7, 2006, Intermec, Inc. entered into a share repurchase agreement under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange of 1934 to facilitate the repurchase of its common stock pursuant to our previously announced share repurchase authorization by our Board of Directors (the Repurchase Agreement ). The Repurchase Agreement allows us to repurchase shares of our common stock at times when we would ordinarily be prevented from doing so because of insider trading regulations or self-imposed trading blackout periods.

Subject to the terms and limitations specified in the Repurchase Agreement and in Rule 10b5-1, the Repurchase Agreement authorizes the broker who is the other party to the Repurchase Agreement to repurchase shares of our common stock on our behalf, up to an aggregate total of $50 million. Under the terms of the Repurchase Agreement, there can be no assurance that any of our shares will in fact be repurchased.

Purchases under the Repurchase Agreement may be made commencing on August 7, 2006 until the earliest to occur of the date on which (i) aggregate purchases reach a total of $50 million or (ii) we give notice of termination to the brokerage firm. The Repurchase Agreement may be amended by agreement of both parties, for example, to increase the amount of aggregate purchases that may be made.

Because our Board of Directors authorized us to repurchase up to $100 million of our common stock, we would remain authorized to repurchase our common stock after termination of the Repurchase Agreement to the extent that repurchases thereunder aggregate less than $100 million.

Except as required by law, we do not undertake to report modifications or other activities under the Repurchase Agreement or stock trading plans or agreements by directors or officers.
