Item 8.01 Other Events

(a.) On December 13, 2007, KEMET Corporation ( KEMET or the Company ) announced its intention to offer, subject to market and other conditions, approximately $125 million aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2027, to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. In addition, KEMET expected to grant the initial purchaser a 30 day option to purchase up to an additional $25 million principal amount of the notes. The terms of the notes to be offered were to be determined by negotiations between KEMET and the initial purchaser of the notes. KEMET intended to use the net proceeds from the offering to fund future acquisitions, if any, and for general corporate purposes. KEMET considers acquisitions from time to time and has commenced preliminary discussions for an acquisition of a complementary business that had revenues and net income in excess of approximately $85 million and $5 million, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2006, and revenues and net income in excess of approximately $40 million and $2 million, respectively, for the six months ended June 30, 2007. There is no assurance that any such contemplated acquisitions will be completed.

(b.) On December 13, 2007, KEMET Corporation announced it had postponed its previously announced proposed senior convertible notes offering due to volatile market conditions.

The Company had proposed to offer the notes to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The notes proposed to have been offered and any common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any state securities laws, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration under, or an applicable exemption from, the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and any applicable state securities laws.

Copies of these Press Releases are furnished as Exhibit 99.1 and 99.2 to this Form 8-K.
