Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 16, 2008, FTD Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (FTD), United Online, Inc., a Delaware corporation (UOL), and UNOLA Corp., a Delaware corporation and indirect wholly owned subsidiary of UOL (Merger Sub), entered into an Amendment No. 1 to Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Amendment), to amend the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 30, 2008 (as amended, the Merger Agreement), by and among UOL, Merger Sub and FTD pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into FTD (the Merger), and FTD will survive the Merger as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of UOL.

The Amendment was entered into in connection with UOL's receipt of a commitment letter, dated July 2, 2008 (the SVB Commitment Letter), from Silicon Valley Bank (SVB). Pursuant to, and subject to the conditions set forth in, the SVB Commitment Letter, SVB has committed to provide a $60 million senior secured term loan facility (the UOL Term Loan Facility) to UOL, which UOL intends to use to fund a portion of the cash merger consideration payable to FTD stockholders in the Merger (the Cash Consideration).

In connection with entering into the SVB Commitment Letter, UOL elected to exercise its right under the terms of the Merger Agreement related to UOL obtaining additional financing to increase the Cash Consideration by $2.81 per share of common stock of FTD, par value $0.01 per share (the FTD Stock), in full substitution of the $3.31 principal amount of UOL 13% senior secured notes due 2013 (the UOL Notes). As a result, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), subject to the following paragraph, each issued and outstanding share of FTD Stock will be automatically converted into the right to receive a total of $10.15 in Cash Consideration, without interest, and 0.4087 of a share of common stock of UOL, par value $0.0001 per share (UOL Common Stock), and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration, for a total value of $14.38 per share of FTD Stock, based on UOL's closing stock price of $10.35 on July 16, 2008. FTD has approved the financing contemplated by the SVB Commitment Letter pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The Amendment provides that in the event that the borrowings under the UOL Term Loan Facility become unavailable to UOL for any reason, UOL is required to adjust the Merger Consideration so that at the Effective Time, each issued and outstanding share of FTD Stock will be automatically converted into the right to receive $7.34 in Cash Consideration, without interest, 0.4087 of a share of UOL Common Stock and $3.31 principal amount of UOL Notes. In the event that UOL is required to so adjust the Merger Consideration, the Amendment provides that UOL and FTD must use their reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to enable UOL to issue the UOL Notes in substitution of the UOL Term Loan Facility and to announce the adjustment in the Merger Consideration by press release on or before the fifth business day prior to the scheduled date of the special meeting of the FTD stockholders to consider the Merger (the Special Meeting). If the UOL Term Loan Facility becomes unavailable to UOL for any reason on or after such fifth business day, UOL and FTD have agreed in the Amendment to postpone or adjourn the Special Meeting until a date that permits UOL and FTD to make such announcement on or before the fifth business day prior to the scheduled date of the Special Meeting.

Pursuant to the Amendment, if UOL enters into the UOL Term Loan Facility, UOL is required to use reasonable best efforts to borrow the full principal amount (net of fees and expenses payable to SVB at the time of such borrowing) of the UOL Term Loan Facility no later than the eighth business day prior to the scheduled date of the Special Meeting, unless borrowings under the UOL Term Loan Facility are unavailable to UOL for any reason (other than due to the failure of UOL or Merger Sub to comply with their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement).

The Amendment also amends the closing condition related to the additional financing to provide that unless the borrowings under the UOL Term Loan Facility become unavailable to UOL for any reason (in which case UOL is required to comply with the terms of the Merger Agreement related to the issuance of the UOL Notes), the consummation of the Merger is subject to the receipt by UOL of the proceeds of the UOL Term Loan Facility and the availability of such proceeds to UOL to be used to pay the Cash Consideration at the closing of the Merger.

SVB's commitment is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including, among other things, the execution of satisfactory documentation, its receipt of certain financial statements and other financial information of UOL, the absence of a material adverse effect at UOL, and the achievement by UOL of at least $100 million of adjusted operating income excluding depreciation and amortization for the most recently completed trailing four quarter period ended prior to the Merger closing date for which financial statements are available. SVB's commitment to provide the UOL Term Loan Facility will terminate on the close of business on October 30, 2008.

The foregoing description of the Amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text thereof and is incorporated herein by reference.

On July 17, 2008, FTD issued a press release announcing the execution of the Amendment, a copy of which press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements

The Amendment has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties thereto with respect to the transactions described above, the Amendment is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties made by the parties to each other regarding certain matters. The assertions embodied in the representations and warranties are made as of specific dates and are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be complete or accurate as of a particular date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality and/or were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing certain matters as facts. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the FTD's or UOL's public disclosures. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts at the time they were made or otherwise.
